Executives of Distributed Energy System Corp. and its subsidiaries are eligible to receive compensation through this plan. The plan awards up to approximately 25% of base salary to executives when target parent, subsidiary and individual performance are attained. Higher amounts can be paid up to 50% of base salary for exceptional performance. The performance measures for Distributed Energy Systems Corp. include net income, backlog of orders, and use of cash. The performance metrics for the subsidiaries include net income, gross margins, revenue from sales, technology and product development milestones, and use of cash. Performance will be calculated at the end of our fiscal year 2005, and any bonus payments will be made early in 2006.

The awards for Subsidiary Executives will be adjusted by a factor of from 0.75 to 1.25 based on overall Distributed Energy Systems Corp. actual performance. The Compensation Committee may adjust awards based on additional relevant performance data.

The Committee also ratified cash bonuses to the following executives for their performance during 2004 as determined by key performance measures for their respective subsidiaries: Mark Murray - $25,000; Rob Friedland - $32,000; and Jonathan Lynch - $22,000.
