This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are first being mailed to stockholders on or about March 31, 2005.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE MEETING

Quorum and Voting Requirements

The Company has one class of Common Stock. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote upon each matter to be voted on at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders do not have the right to cumulate votes in the election of directors. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 14, 2005 (the Record Date) will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 16,366,909 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding.

The accompanying proxy is solicited from the holders of the Common Stock on behalf of the board of directors of the Company and is revocable at any time by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company prior to the Annual Meeting or by executing and delivering a later-dated proxy by mail prior to the Annual Meeting. Furthermore, the stockholders who are present at the Annual Meeting may revoke their proxies and vote in person. All shares of the Company's Common Stock represented by properly executed and unrevoked proxies will be voted by the proxies in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, properly executed proxies will be voted FOR the proposals set forth in this Proxy Statement for consideration at the Annual Meeting. The directors expect shares of the Common Stock held by executive officers and directors of the Company will be voted FOR such proposals.

A quorum consisting of at least one-third of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding must be present at the meeting for any business to be conducted. Shares of Common Stock entitled to vote and represented by properly executed, returned and unrevoked proxies, including shares with respect to which votes are withheld, abstentions are cast or there are broker non-votes, will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Board of Directors

The Company's third amended and restated certificate of incorporation divides the Company's board of directors into three classes, with each class being elected to a staggered three-year term.

The Board has nominated George E. Massaro and Paul G. Yovovich as Class I Directors to be voted upon at the 2005 Annual Meeting, to serve terms ending at the 2008 Annual Meeting. Deborah A. Bricker and DuBose Ausley are Class II Directors serving terms ending at the 2006 Annual Meeting. James D. Edwards, Gary E. Holdren and John McCartney are Class III Directors serving terms ending at the 2007 Annual Meeting. The board of directors has determined that Messrs. McCartney, Edwards and Ausley and Ms. Bricker are independent as defined in the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. ("Nasdaq").

This Proxy Statement relates only to the solicitation of proxies from the stockholders with respect to the election of two Class I Directors to be elected by them and the other matters described herein. The board of directors knows of no reason that either Mr. Massaro or Mr. Yovovich might be unavailable to serve as the Class I Directors, and each has expressed an intention to serve, if elected. If either Mr. Massaro or Mr. Yovovich is unable to serve, the shares represented by all valid proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as the board of directors may recommend. There are no arrangements or understandings between any of the persons nominated to be a Class I Director and any other person pursuant to which any of such nominees was selected.

The election of a director requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote; provided that a quorum of at least one-third of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are represented at the meeting. Shares of Common Stock held by stockholders electing to abstain from voting and broker non-votes will be counted towards the presence of a quorum but will not be considered present and voting. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no impact on the election of directors. Properly executed proxies submitted pursuant to this solicitation will be voted for the election of Mr. Massaro and Mr. Yovovich as Class I Directors, unless specified otherwise.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF MR. MASSARO AND MR. YOVOVICH AS CLASS I DIRECTORS.

Board Meetings and Committees

The board of directors conducts its business through meetings of the full board, actions taken by written consent in lieu of meetings and by the actions of its committees. During the period beginning on October 12, 2004, the date of our initial public offering (IPO) and the formation of our board of directors, and ending on December 31, 2004, the board of directors held one board meeting and one meeting each of its Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Its Compensation Committee also took action by written consent one time. During the period beginning on October 12, 2004 until year end, all of the board members attended the board meeting and committee meetings on which they served. Although the Company does not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders, we encourage directors to attend.

The board of directors operates in part through its three committees: Audit, Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance.

Audit Committee. The functions performed by the Audit Committee are described in the Audit Committee Charter and include overseeing our accounting and financial reporting processes, overseeing the audits of our financial statements, and retaining and discharging our auditors. The Audit Committee is composed of Messrs. McCartney (Chairperson), Edwards and Ausley. The Audit Committee Charter is available on the Company's Web site at www.huronconsultinggroup.com, and a copy is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. All current Audit Committee members are independent, as defined in the applicable listing standards of Nasdaq. The board of directors has determined that each Audit Committee member has sufficient knowledge in financial and auditing matters to serve on the Committee. The board of directors has also designated each of Messrs. McCartney and Edwards as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the applicable securities regulations. The Report of the Audit Committee for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 appears below under the caption RATIFICATION AND APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS Report of the Audit Committee.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee reviews and administers all compensation arrangements for executive officers and establishes and reviews general policies relating to the compensation and benefits of our officers and employees. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for director compensation. All current Compensation Committee members are independent as defined in the applicable listing standards of Nasdaq. The Compensation Committee is composed of Ms. Bricker (Chairperson) and Messrs. McCartney and Ausley. The Compensation Committee Charter is available on the Company's Web site

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is composed of Messrs. Edwards (Chairperson) and Ausley and Ms. Bricker. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter is available on the Company's Web site at www.huronconsultinggroup.com.

Directors may be nominated by the board of directors or by stockholders in accordance with the Bylaws of the Company. The board of directors believes that its nominees should reflect over time a diversity of experience, gender, race, ethnicity and age. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will select qualified candidates and review its recommendations with the board of directors, which will decide whether to invite the candidate to be a nominee for election to the board of directors.

If the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee receives a nominee recommendation from a stockholder or group of stockholders that has beneficially owned more than 5% of the Company's voting common stock for at least one year as of the date of the recommendation, the name of the candidate, the name(s) of the stockholder(s) who recommended the candidate and whether the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee chose to nominate the candidate must be provided, if the consent of both the stockholder and the candidate has been received.

For a stockholder to submit a candidate for consideration by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a stockholder must notify the Company's corporate secretary. In addition, our Bylaws permit stockholders to nominate directors at a stockholder meeting. To make a director nomination at the 2006 Annual Meeting, a shareholder must notify the Company's corporate secretary within the time periods specified under Submission of Stockholder Proposals below in the proxy statement. The communication will not be opened, but rather will be forwarded unopened to the intended recipient.

Compensation of Directors

Prior to the Company becoming public, we did not compensate our directors for their service as members of our board of directors. We now pay each of our independent directors $20,000 per year and $1,000 for each meeting of the board of directors or any committee of the board that he or she attends. We also pay a fee of $10,000 to the chairman of the Audit Committee and a fee of $7,500 to the chairs of each of the Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for acting as a committee chair. On October 12, 2004, we granted each independent director options exercisable for 12,903 shares of our common stock under our 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan. These options have a per share exercise price equal to $15.50, the public offering price. We may make further grants of restricted common stock to independent directors under our 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan. One-third of the options granted to directors vested on the grant date and one-third will vest on each of the next two annual meetings. All of our directors are reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses for attending board and committee meetings.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Based solely upon the Company's review of forms filed by directors, officers and certain beneficial owners of the Company's Common Stock (the Section 16(a) Reporting Persons) pursuant to Section 16 of the 1934 Act, the Company has identified the following late filings by the Section 16(a) Reporting Persons:

Gary E. Holdren

Daniel P. Broadhurst

The late filings (each with respect to one report covering one transaction) were made with respect to option exercises in 2004 and were the result of an administrative oversight.

Stock Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

each person known by us to beneficially own 5% or more of our common stock;

each member of our board of directors;

each of our named executive officers; and all directors and executive officers as a group.

Beneficial ownership is determined according to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), and generally means that a person has beneficial ownership of a security if he or she possesses sole or shared voting or investment power of that security, and includes options that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days. Each director, officer or 5% or more stockholder, as the case may be, has furnished us with information with respect to beneficial ownership. Except as otherwise indicated, we believe that the beneficial owners of common stock listed below, based on the information each of them has given to us, have sole investment and voting power with respect to their shares, except where community property laws may apply.

Employment and Severance Agreements

The Company currently has employment agreements with each of its Named Executive Officers.

Holdren senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC has entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Holdren. The agreement, which was effective as of May 13, 2002, has an initial term of three years and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Holdren provide notice that the agreement shall not renew. The agreement provides that Mr. Holdren will report to our board of directors. Under the terms of the agreement, in 2004, Mr. Holdren's minimum annual base salary was $800,000 and his annual performance bonus target was $850,000. His compensation is subject to annual review. Mr. Holdren received a minimum payment in an amount of $225,000 with respect to his annual bonus for the twelve months ended May 13, 2004 and will receive a minimum payment in an amount of $112,500 with respect to his annual bonus for the twelve months ending May 13, 2005, with such amounts being paid in four quarterly installments during the annual employment period to which they relate. The additional amount of the annual bonus to be received by Mr. Holdren will be based on the achievement of performance goals set by our compensation committee. Mr. Holdren is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by the compensation committee, in amounts that the compensation committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Holdren's agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause, if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement) or if he is terminated in connection with a non-renewal of the agreement prior to the fifth anniversary of its execution, Mr. Holdren will be entitled to severance pay of $1,500,000, payable over the twelve-month period following termination, along with continuation of medical and dental benefits during such twelve-month period. All other company provided perquisites and benefits will be subject to the treatment provided under the terms of the applicable plans or programs. Mr. Holdren or his estate is entitled to six months' base salary over the six-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. In order to receive any of these severance payments, Mr. Holdren must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Holdren is also entitled to coverage under our directors and officers insurance policy for six years following his termination, subject to specified exceptions and limitations. Mr. Holdren has agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for a period of one to three years following the termination of his employment pursuant to which he will not solicit our clients or interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

Mr. Holdren's agreement provided for the purchase by him of 391,305 shares of our common stock, on December 10, 2002, pursuant to a separate restricted shares award agreement under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, the vesting of which accelerated on October 12, 2004. In addition, Mr. Holdren has the ability to exercise certain piggyback registration rights with respect to these shares. Pursuant to these piggyback registration rights, if we propose any underwritten public offering of our equity securities pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act (other than a registration statement relating to our employee benefit plans, exchange offers by us or a merger or acquisition of a business or assets by us), Mr. Holdren is entitled to include his shares of common stock in that registration, subject to cut back provisions in the event that, in connection with an underwritten offering, the managing underwriter advises us and Mr. Holdren that the inclusion of all the securities sought to be included in the registration by us, Mr. Holdren, any persons who have sought to have shares registered thereunder pursuant to demand registration rights and any other proposed sellers would adversely affect the marketability of the securities sought to be sold pursuant thereto. Pursuant to the agreement, we are obligated to pay all expenses incidental to our performance of, or compliance with, our obligations in connection with the piggyback registration rights.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Holdren's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Holdren with certain change of control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Holdren's employment is terminated within the 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Holdren with good reason, which includes not being the chief executive officer of the successor entity, all of his unvested equity awards will immediately become vested and exercisable and he will be entitled to severance pay of three times the total of his then-current base salary and target annual bonus. In the event of such termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs, 36 months of benefit continuation, and, if necessary, an excise tax gross-up payment.

Massaro senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC has also entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Massaro. Mr. Massaro's agreement, which was effective August 12, 2002, has an initial three-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Massaro provide notice that the agreement shall not renew. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Massaro receives a minimum annual base salary of $350,000 and has an annual performance bonus target during his initial three-year term of $150,000. His compensation is subject to annual review. Mr. Massaro has received a minimum payment of $75,000 with respect to his annual bonus for the twelve months ended August 12, 2004 and will receive a guaranteed minimum bonus payment of $37,500 for the twelve months ending August 12, 2005, payable in quarterly installments during the annual employment period. The remaining amount of the annual bonus to be received by Mr. Massaro will be based on the achievement of performance goals set by the compensation committee. Mr. Massaro is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by our compensation committee or the Chief Executive Officer, in amounts that the compensation committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Massaro was also granted options to acquire 21,740 shares of our common stock under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan at the time his employment commenced. In accordance with the original terms of the grants under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, options granted under that plan vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Mr. Massaro's agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), he will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary and medical benefits, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Mr. Massaro during the six-month period following such a termination. In order to receive such severance payments, Mr. Massaro must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Massaro or his estate is entitled to severance pay of three months' base salary payable over the three-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. Mr. Massaro has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following the termination of his employment pursuant to which, among other things, he will not solicit our clients or interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Massaro's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Massaro with certain change in control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Massaro's employment is terminated within the 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Massaro for good reason (as provided in the agreement), all of his unvested equity awards that were granted prior to such change of control will immediately become vested and exercisable, and he will be entitled to severance pay of two times the total of his then-current base salary and target annual bonus. In the event of such a termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs and 24 months of medical benefit continuation. In certain situations, Mr. Massaro may be entitled to an excise tax gross-up payment, or his severance benefits may be reduced to limit his excise tax burden.

Broadhurst senior management agreement

Huron Consulting Services LLC has also entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Broadhurst. Mr. Broadhurst's agreement, which was effective May 15, 2002, has an initial three-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Broadhurst provide notice that the agreement shall not renew. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Broadhurst receives an annual base salary of no less than $485,000, an annual target bonus for the initial term of $260,000 and has received a guaranteed minimum bonus payment of $130,000 with respect to such bonus for the twelve months ended May 15, 2004 and has a guaranteed minimum bonus payment of $65,000 for the twelve months ending May 15, 2005, to be paid in quarterly installments during the annual employment period. The remaining amount of the annual bonus to be received by Mr. Broadhurst will be based on the achievement of performance goals set by the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Broadhurst is also eligible for additional bonuses in the event that our annual earnings exceed targets set by our compensation committee or the Chief Executive Officer, in amounts that the compensation committee determines to be appropriate.

Mr. Broadhurst was also granted options to acquire 32,609 shares of our common stock under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan at the time his employment commenced. In accordance with the original terms of the grant, these options vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Mr. Broadhurst's agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), he will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary and medical benefits, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Mr. Broadhurst during the six-month period following such a termination. In order to receive such severance payments, Mr. Broadhurst must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Broadhurst or his estate is entitled to severance pay of three months base salary payable over the three-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. Mr. Broadhurst has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following the termination of his employment pursuant to which, among other things, he will not solicit our clients or interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

In September 2004, we adopted an amendment to Mr. Broadhurst's senior management agreement that provides Mr. Broadhurst with certain change in control benefits. Pursuant to the amendment, if Mr. Broadhurst's employment is terminated within the 24 months following a change of control, either by us without cause or by Mr. Broadhurst for good reason (as provided in the agreement), all of his unvested equity awards that were granted prior to such change of control will immediately become vested and exercisable, and he will be entitled to severance pay equal to the total of one year of his then-current base salary and his then current target annual bonus. In the event of such a termination, he will also be entitled to a pro-rata bonus for the year during which his termination occurs and 12 months of medical benefit continuation. In certain situations, these benefits may be reduced to limit Mr. Broadhurst's excise tax burden.

Huron Consulting Services LLC has also entered into a senior management agreement with Mr. Burge. Mr. Burge's agreement, which was effective November 25, 2002, has an initial one-year term and automatically renews for additional one-year periods on an annual basis unless, at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term, we or Mr. Burge provide notice that the agreement will not renew. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Burge receives an annual base salary of no less than $225,000 and is eligible to participate in our annual performance bonus plan. In accordance with the original terms of the grants under our 2002 Equity Incentive Plan, options granted under that plan vested fully on October 12, 2004.

Mr. Burge's agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by us without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the agreement), he will be entitled to severance pay equal to six months' base salary, which amount is subject to offset for remuneration earned by Mr. Burge during the six-month period following such a termination, earned but unpaid annual bonus for the calendar year immediately preceding the termination, and continuation of medical benefits for six months. In order to receive such severance payments, Mr. Burge must execute a general release in favor of us. Mr. Burge or his estate is entitled to severance pay of three months' base salary payable over the three-month period following his death or disability, along with continuation of medical benefits. Mr. Burge has also agreed to certain restrictive covenants that will survive for one year following termination of his employment pursuant to which, among other things, he will not interfere with our relationships with our employees or customers.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

This report is not deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC or subject to the SEC's proxy rules or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "1934 Act") and the report shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any prior or subsequent filing by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act") or the 1934 Act.

Compensation Philosophy and Policy Overview

The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation paid to its executive officers and practice leaders must attract and retain talented executives and motivate them to deliver superior performance and results consistent with the Company's business objectives and the creation of shareholder value. Compensation must be competitive, as well as based on individual contribution, teamwork, and financial results.

The components of executive compensation are: base salary, annual cash incentive, and equity compensation, consisting primarily of restricted stock. The committee annually reviews and approves Huron's practices regarding executive compensation for base salary levels, incentive compensation and equity awards for all executive officers and practice leaders.

Base Salary

Base salaries for the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer, other executives and the practice group leaders are recommended by management to the committee and reviewed and approved by the committee based on the committee's evaluation of each individual's responsibilities, performance, and competitive compensation data for comparable companies. All of our executive officers and the majority of practice leaders have employment agreements that set minimum base salaries and contemplate an annual review and potential compensation increases.

Annual Incentives

Edgar Filing: Huron Consulting Group Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Annual incentives are designed to tie a significant portion of each executive's compensation to the Company's performance, and to recognize individual contribution to the success of the Company in achieving its performance goals. Each executive has a target bonus and specific goals and performance objectives. In fiscal 2004, the board of managers of Huron Consulting Services LLC, the predecessor to the Company's board of directors, reviewed the base salaries and set target bonuses for the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer based on achievement of revenue and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) targets, as well as on its assessment of progress made on certain financial and organizational initiatives.

The Compensation Committee was established in October 2004, in connection with our IPO, and it evaluated the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer's achievement against their goals for fiscal 2004. The committee reviewed the performance and annual incentives of other executive officers and practice leaders against objectives set by the Chief Executive Officer, taking into account his recommendations and assessment of each executive's success in achieving these goals, as well as the overall performance of each executive.

Long-Term Equity Incentives

The committee believes that equity compensation is an important vehicle to attract, motivate and retain executives. Equity compensation aligns executive interests with those of shareholders and encourages executives to act to maximize long-term shareholder value. Under our 2004 Omnibus Stock Plan, restricted stock, stock options and other forms of equity compensation may be granted to executive officers and other key employees who are expected to contribute to the Company's ability to execute against long-term goals and objectives. The committee considers existing unvested equity holdings, individual performance, and anticipated future contributions to the business in determining new grants.

Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of compensation in excess of $1 million to the CEO or any of the next four most highly paid executives of a publicly held corporation. Compensation exceeding $1 million may be deducted for federal income tax purposes if compensation is paid pursuant to a performance-based, nondiscretionary plan that is approved by shareholders. Treasury regulations provide transitional rules under Section 162(m) for compensation programs sponsored by a corporation that previously was not publicly held that becomes publicly held for these purposes. The Compensation Committee will exercise its discretion in determining whether to conform compensation plans payable to these executive officers to the deductibility requirements of Section 162(m).

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Holdren's total compensation was consistent with the compensation philosophy and objectives described above. Mr. Holdren's employment agreement, which is described in detail in the section entitled "Executive Compensation," established his base salary and target bonus for fiscal 2004. The Compensation Committee considered the following factors when reviewing the performance portion of Mr. Holdren's bonus: growth in our revenue and EBITDA. The Compensation Committee did not attach any specific weighting to these factors. Based on achievement of performance goals set at the beginning of fiscal 2004, Mr. Holdren's 2004 annual incentive of $850,000 was approved by the board of directors. In addition, the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Holdren options to purchase up to 43,479 shares of common stock and 158,700 shares of restricted common stock.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

In April 2002, a group of investors organized HCG Holdings LLC for the purpose of forming the Company with capital from these investors. Prior to the consummation of the Company's IPO, HCG Holdings LLC owned approximately 93% of the Company's outstanding common stock and all of its outstanding 8% preferred stock and 8% promissory notes. HCG Holdings LLC is controlled by Lake Capital Partners LP and Lake Capital Management LLC. Mr. Yovovich is president and a member of Lake Capital Management LLC. Lake Capital Investment Partners LP is the sole general partner of Lake Capital Partners LP and Lake Partners LLC is the sole general partner of Lake Capital Investment Partners LP. Mr. Yovovich is a member and manager of Lake Partners LLC as well as a member of the investment committee of Lake Capital Investment Partners LP. Mr. Yovovich also directly holds 2.9% of the common interests in HCG Holdings LLC.

From time to time, Huron Consulting Services LLC reimburses Lake Capital Management LLC for its out-of-pocket expenses in connection with its provision of requested management services. Under this arrangement, we paid approximately $105,000 for year ended December 31, 2004. Certain employees of Lake Capital Management LLC served as officers and directors of Huron Consulting Group Inc. and Huron Consulting Services LLC until May 2004.

Upon consummation of our IPO, we used $15.1 million of our net proceeds to redeem our outstanding 8% preferred stock and $10.7 million to repay our outstanding 8% promissory notes. All of our 8% preferred stock and 8% promissory notes were owned by HCG Holdings LLC. HCG Holdings LLC distributed substantially all of the proceeds that it receives in connection with its investment in us to its members in accordance with its organizational documents, including the proceeds it received from the sale of the shares in our IPO, the redemption of the outstanding 8% preferred stock and the repayment by us of the 8% promissory notes. As a result, Messrs. Broadhurst, Burge, Holdren, Massaro and McCartney received payments of approximately $53,400, $53,400, $1,067,600, $106,800 and $53,400, respectively. At approximately the same time, Mr. Yovovich received a payment of approximately $247,400 in redemption of his preferred interests in HCG Holdings LLC that he held directly. HCG Holdings LLC currently owns approximately 54% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

In connection with the IPO, in which HCG Holdings LLC participated as a selling stockholder, the Company paid all of the offering expenses of HCG Holdings LLC, other than underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes with respect to the shares sold by HCG Holdings LLC.

We have an arrangement whereby we share with Lake Capital Management LLC season tickets for a luxury suite at Soldier Field for home games of the Chicago Bears that we use to entertain current and prospective clients. Under this arrangement, we paid $66,500 for the 2004 season and are responsible for $68,900 for the 2005 season.

Mr. Massaro's son-in-law, Marc Mercier, is currently employed by us as a manager. In this capacity, he received total compensation of approximately $73,500 in the year ended December 31, 2004.

Huron Consulting Services LLC entered into an agreement, effective as of September 3, 2003, with Highline Technology LLC, an entity of which Mr. Yovovich owns 50%. Pursuant to the agreement, Highline Technology provides management of information technology services, including budgeting, network planning and management, purchasing and contract negotiation assistance, security and risk management and other requested information technology services. We paid quarterly fees of $31,250, plus expenses, during the term of the agreement. The agreement can be terminated by either party for any reason upon 30 days' prior written notice to the other party. No payments were made under the agreement in 2003, and a total of $212,000 was paid in 2004. We have internalized the services performed for us by Highline Technology by hiring a Director of Information Technology in November, 2004. We have terminated our original agreement with Highline Technology in accordance with its terms and have entered into an agreement with Highline to provide limited consulting services to our information technology group on a time and materials basis.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee has established a policy regarding pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

The Audit Committee, on a periodic basis, determines certain services that have the general pre-approval of the Committee. The Audit Committee must separately pre-approve any services not receiving such general pre-approval. Requests for such approval must be submitted by both the auditor and the Chief Financial Officer and must include a joint statement as to whether, in their view, the request is consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. No services are undertaken which are not pre-approved. The Audit Committee will establish pre-approved fee levels for all services to be provided by the auditor. On a periodic basis, the Chief Financial Officer and the auditor report to the Audit Committee regarding the actual spending for such projects and services compared to the approved amounts.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following report is not deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC or subject to the SEC's proxy rules or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the 1934 Act and the report shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any prior or subsequent filing by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the 1934 Act.

The Audit Committee evidenced its completion of and compliance with the duties and responsibilities set forth in the adopted Audit Committee Charter through a formal written report set forth below.

In reliance on the Committee's review and discussions of the matters referred to above, the Audit Committee recommends the audited financial statements be included in Huron's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
