CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Consistent with our perception of good business principles, we historically have had a strong commitment to good corporate governance and to the highest standards of ethical conduct. Additionally, as part of a highly regulated industry, the new corporate governance principles and procedures of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (SOA), the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and NASDAQ (our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ national market) are relatively familiar. For instance, we believe that at least a majority of our Directors have been independent at Community Bank of Nevada since inception and that it has been the case at Community Bancorp since it was formed in 2002. We have for some time delegated policy making and oversight functions to committees which also consist of independent Directors. We have also adopted a formal corporate code of conduct.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

We have formalized our previous corporate governance practices into a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines, which include guidelines for determining Director independence and reporting concerns to non-employee Directors. You can obtain all of our corporate governance materials, including the Corporate Governance Guidelines and committee charters, from the Investors portion of our website at www.communitybanknv.com, or by writing to: 400 S. 4th Street, Suite 215, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. The Board regularly reviews corporate governance developments and modifies these Guidelines and charters as warranted.

Board of Directors

Community Bancorp is governed by a Board of Directors (the Board) and various committees of the Board that meet throughout the year. Directors discharge their responsibilities throughout the year at Board and committee meetings and also through telephone contact and other communications with the Chairman of the Board/Chief Executive Officer and other officers regarding matters of concern and interest to Community Bancorp as well as by reviewing materials provided to them. During 2005, there were twelve (12) meetings of the Board.

Director Independence

It is the Board's objective that at least a majority of the Board consists of independent directors. For a Director to be considered independent, the Board must determine that the Director does not have any material relationship with the Company and is otherwise an independent director within the meaning of the NASDAQ rules. The Board has determined that the following five (5) Directors (constituting 71% of the entire Board) satisfy NASDAQ's requirements: Bingham, Norton, Stewart, Taylor, and Woodcock.

The NASDAQ rules require all members of the audit, the compensation, and the corporate governance/nominating committees to be independent directors. Members of the audit committee must also satisfy an additional SEC requirement, which provides that they may not accept directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from us or any of our subsidiaries other than their Director compensation. The Board has determined that all members of the audit, compensation, and nominating and corporate governance committee satisfy the relevant independence requirements.

Meetings and Attendance

Directors are expected to attend all Board meetings and meetings of committees on which they serve and each annual shareholders' meeting. In 2005, all members of the Board attended our annual shareholders meeting. Each of the Directors who was a Director during all of 2005 attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and committees on which they served in 2005.

Communication with the Board of Directors

The ability of shareholders to communicate directly with the Board is an important feature of corporate governance and assists in the transparency of the Board's operations. In furtherance of this interest, the Board has included in Section XVI of the Corporate Governance Guidelines a process by which a shareholder may communicate directly in writing to the Board. A shareholder may provide written communication to the Board by addressing a letter to the Chairman of the Board, Community Bancorp, 400 S. 4th Street, Suite 215, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101. Because communications to the Board can be junk mail or spam, or relate to products and services, be solicitations, advertisements or job inquiries or otherwise relate to improper or irrelevant topics, a process has been approved by not less than a majority of the independent Directors for screening communications.

Director Nomination Process

The Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee is responsible for recommending for the Board's selection the slate of Director nominees for election to our Board and for filling vacancies occurring between annual meetings of shareholders.

This committee will consider shareholder recommendations for candidates for the Board. Recommendations can be made in accordance with Section IV Shareholder Recommendations of our Corporate Governance Guidelines. That section provides that shareholders may submit recommendations in writing to the Chairman of the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee at our headquarters office. Each recommendation should identify the proposed nominee and any additional information the person making the recommendation believes would be useful in evaluating the proposed nominee. Shareholders are reminded that proposing a nominee in this fashion does not constitute a shareholder nomination of a proposed Board member. To actually nominate a person for Board membership a shareholder must comply with Section 13 of our Bylaws. The committee's non-exclusive list of criteria for Board members is set forth in Section IV Criteria of our Corporate Governance Guidelines, and includes:

personal qualities and characteristics, accomplishments and reputation in the local business community;

current knowledge and contacts in the communities in which the Company does business and in the Company's industry or other industries relevant to the Company's business;

ability and willingness to commit adequate time to Board and committee matters;

the fit of the individual's skills and personality with those of other directors and potential directors in building a Board that is effective, collegial and responsive to the needs of the Company; and diversity of viewpoints, background and experience.

The committee conducts surveys and otherwise seeks out the identity of possible candidates for the Board on an ongoing basis. The committee screens all potential candidates in the same manner regardless of the source of the recommendation. At present, the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee does not engage a third party to identify and evaluate potential Director candidates. All of the nominees approved by the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee for election at the 2006 Annual Meeting were recommended by management and the Board.

Meetings of Independent Directors

The Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that the independent directors will meet without any management Directors present at least 2 times each year. In 2005, the independent Directors met two (2) times.

Code of Conduct

We expect all of our Directors, officers (including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer) and employees to adhere to the highest standards of ethics and business conduct with each other, customers, shareholders and communities we serve and to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations that govern our business. These principles have long been embodied in our various policies relating to Director, officer and employee conduct including such subjects as employment policies, conflicts of interest, professional conduct, and protection of confidential information. The Board has adopted a comprehensive code of conduct reflecting these policies. Our code of conduct is an exhibit to our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. Any change to or waiver of the code of conduct (other than technical, administrative, and other non-substantive changes) will be reported on a Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. While the Board or the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee may consider a waiver for an executive officer or Director, we do not expect to grant such waivers. Copies of our code of conduct, other corporate governance documents, and other filings we make with the SEC are posted on our website at www.communitybanknv.com.

Committees of the Board

Among other committees, we have an Audit Committee, Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee and Compensation Committee. The following section describes for each of these three committees, its current membership, the number of meetings held during 2005 and its function.

Audit Committee. Directors Stewart (Chairman), Bingham, Norton, Taylor and Woodcock.

This Committee met twelve (12) times in 2005. Each member is an independent director, as defined by the NASDAQ rules and satisfies the additional SEC requirements for independence of audit committee members. In addition, our Board has determined that Gary Stewart is an audit committee financial expert, as defined by the SEC rules.

Pursuant to its Charter, the Audit Committee is a standing committee appointed annually by the Board. The Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility to the shareholders and depositors relating to the quality and integrity of our accounting systems, internal controls, financial reporting processes, the identification and assessment of business risks and the adequacy of overall control environment within Community Bancorp. The Audit Committee's authorities and responsibilities are set forth in the Audit Committee Charter. A copy of the Audit Committee's Charter was attached to our proxy statement for our 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and is available in the Investors section of our website at www.communitybanknv.com. A copy of the Audit Committee's Report for the year-ended December 31, 2005 is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee. Directors Bingham (Chairman), Norton, Stewart, Taylor and Woodcock.

Each member of the committee is an independent director, as defined by the NASDAQ rules. The committee met two (2) times in 2005. The committee will, among other things:

identify individuals believed to be qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, and recommend to the Board the nominees to stand for election as Directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders;

develop and recommend to the Board standards to be applied in making determinations as to the absence of material relationships between Community Bancorp and Directors;

identify Board members qualified to fill vacancies on any committee of the Board and recommend that the Board appoint the identified member or members to the respective committee;

conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of the Board and report conclusions to the Board;

develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to Community Bancorp and review those principles at least once a year; and review and recommend any needed changes, and address questions which may arise with respect to the code of conduct.

Compensation Committee. Directors Woodcock (Chairman), Bingham, Norton, Stewart and Taylor.

Each member of the committee is an independent director, as defined by the NASDAQ rules. This committee met two (2) times in 2005. The committee will, among other things:

establish proper compensation goals for the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers and recommend to the Board for action at an executive session the compensation of these officers based on their performance in light of these goals;

review and recommend to the Board for action at an executive session the compensation of non-management Directors;

make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive compensation and equity-based compensation plans; and evaluate management succession plans.

A copy of the Compensation Committee's Report for the year ended December 31, 2005 is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement.
