Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 31, 2006, Cardinal Health Funding, LLC ( Funding ), a wholly-owned receivables financing subsidiary of the Company, entered into a second amendment and restatement of its receivables purchase agreement (the Receivables Purchase Agreement ), with Griffin Capital, LLC ( Griffin Capital ), as servicer, Falcon Asset Securitization Company LLC ( Falcon ), Liberty Street Funding Corp. ( Liberty ), Windmill Funding Corporation ( Windmill ), The Bank of Nova Scotia, individually and as managing agent, ABN AMRO Bank N.V., individually and as managing agent, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (successor by merger to Bank One, NA), individually and as agent, extending the $800 million revolving receivables purchase facility thereunder (the Facility ) for an additional 364 days. In connection with the Facility, Cardinal Health 110, Inc. (the Originator ) has sold its existing and future trade receivables to the Company s wholly-owned subsidiary, Griffin Capital, which, in turn, has sold and contributed those receivables to Funding, in each case, in transactions intended to constitute true sales or capital contributions. Funding then transfers undivided percentage interests in such receivables to Falcon, Windmill and Liberty or their liquidity banks in exchange for cash of up to 79.5% of the outstanding balance of all receivables defined as eligible thereunder. Pursuant to an Amended and Restated Performance Guaranty, dated as of September 30, 2004 (the Performance Guaranty ), the Company has guaranteed to Funding and its assigns performance of the Originator s and Griffin Capital s obligations, as a seller or servicer, under the documents associated with the Facility.

The Receivables Purchase Agreement contains customary amortization events including failure to make timely payments or deposits under the Facility, misrepresentations, cross-defaults to other material debt and credit agreements, breach of covenants, failure of the receivables to meet certain performance ratios, certain changes of control of the Company or any of its affiliates party to the Facility documents, termination of receivables sales by either the Originator or Griffin Capital, certain bankruptcy events, unenforceability or breach of the Performance Guaranty, and entry of certain unsatisfied and unstayed judgments against the Company or any of its affiliates party to the Facility documentation.

From time to time, the financial institutions party to the Receivables Purchase Agreement or their affiliates have performed, and may in the future perform, various commercial banking, investment banking and other financial advisory services for the Company and its affiliates for which they have received, and will receive, customary fees and expenses. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or its affiliate served as trustee under certain of the Company s indentures until it recently sold this business and currently acts as a member of the lending syndicate under the Company s unsecured five-year credit agreement. The Bank of Nova Scotia and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. or their affiliates currently act as members of the lending syndicate under the Company s credit agreement.

The Receivables Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.01 to this report and is incorporated by reference herein.
