3. Management Performance (Consolidated)

For the 9-month period of the fiscal year, ending March 31, 2007, Komatsu posted consolidated net sales of ¥1,354.3 billion, up 15.5% over the previous corresponding period. Operating income advanced 38.5%, to ¥169.3 billion, while net income reached ¥109.5 billion, up 30.9%. All three results represent record-high figures for 9-month periods, and expanded sales and profits for five consecutive 9-month periods. Operating income ratio improved to 12.5%, up 2.1 percentage points from the 9-month period a year ago.

While our construction and mining equipment business continued to excel in performance, our business of industrial machinery, vehicles and others improved steadily.

On October 18, 2006, Komatsu sold 51% of the shares of Komatsu Electronic Metals Co., Ltd. (KEM). The Company had held a total of 61.93%. As a result, starting in the third quarter period of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2007, KEM and its subsidiaries were no longer consolidated. For the 9-month period under review, Komatsu stated the gain on the sale of KEM and the operation results of KEM and its subsidiaries as a separate line item, net income from discontinued operations, in the consolidated statements of income in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. Accordingly, related figures for the corresponding period a year ago are also retrospectively reclassified.

Results by operation are summarized below. Segment profit by operation is based on net sales less cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses. Segment profit ratios are based on sales after eliminating inter-segment transactions.

Construction and Mining Equipment

Consolidated net sales of construction and mining equipment for the 9-month period continued to increase to ¥1,118.8 billion, up 20.1% over the corresponding period last year, registering record-high 9-month sales, as Komatsu stepped up its production capacity, secured procurements in cooperation with suppliers, and aggressively launched renewed models which are compliant with Tier 3 emission gas regulations against the backdrop of expanded market demand.

Segment profit reached ¥ 152.7 billion, up 55.6% over the previous 9-month period, reflecting expanded sales volume and improved selling prices. Similarly, segment profit ratio increased 3.1 percentage points, to 13.6% for the 9-month period under review.

In North America, while U.S. housing starts slowed down, sales advanced for the 9-month period, supported by strong demand from non-residential construction projects, highway-related works and resource developments. Sales also boosted in Europe, CIS, China, Oceania, the Middle East, Africa and Latin America. In Southeast Asia, demand had been slack since the end of 2005, but recovery of demand became evident in the second half period under review.

In Japan we successfully leveraged expanded demand from the rental equipment sector, as private-sector capital outlays increased. In January 2007, we embarked on the production of large equipment for mining use at the Ibaraki Plant in Hitachinaka City, Japan and at Komatsu India Private Limited in Chennai, India.

Industrial Machinery, Vehicles and Others

Consolidated net sales of industrial machinery, vehicles and others increased 2.5%, to ¥214.9 billion for the 9-month period under review. Segment profit improved 18.9%, to ¥19.0 billion, and segment profit ratio, to 8.9%, up 1.3 percentage points over the corresponding period a year ago.

Major subsidiaries of this business segment, such as Komatsu Forklift Co., Ltd., Komatsu Industries Corporation and Komatsu Machinery Corporation, continued to expand their performance.

With respect to the business of large presses, Komatsu is reinforcing its production capacity while anticipating growing demand. We have recently launched production at the new Kanazawa Plant in Kanazawa City, Ishikawa Prefecture, Japan.

Concerning the outdoor power equipment (OPE) business of Komatsu Zenoah Co., Komatsu signed the definitive agreement with Husqvarna AB of Sweden on January 30, 2007, to sell this business after splitting off from Komatsu Zenoah Co. as a new company named Zenoah Co., Ltd.

As the definitive agreement to sell the OPE business of Komatsu Zenoah Co. was signed, this business will no longer be consolidated in Komatsu's results. For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2007, Komatsu will state the results related to this business as a separate item, net income from discontinued operations, in the consolidated statements of income in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144.

Electronics

Consolidated net sales from the electronics business totaled ¥20.5 billion, a decline of 35.0% from the corresponding 9-month period a year ago. Segment profit dropped 41.3%, to ¥1.6 billion, and segment profit ratio fell by 0.9 percentage points, to 8.1% for the 9-month period under review.

While Komatsu Electronics Inc., engaging in the production and sales of semiconductor manufacturing equipment, improved its performance, the decline in sales and segment profit mainly reflects adverse effects of the sale of Advanced Silicon Materials LLC executed in the previous fiscal year.

Table of Contents4. Financial Conditions (Consolidated)

Total assets at December 31, 2006 amounted to ¥1,768.5 billion, an increase of ¥116.3 billion from the previous fiscal year-end. While tangible fixed assets decreased as a result of excluding Komatsu Electronic Metals Co., Ltd. (KEM) and its subsidiaries, this increase is attributable to growth in trade notes and accounts receivable as well as inventories resulting from expanded sales of construction and mining equipment. Meanwhile, interest-bearing debt declined by ¥18.3 billion, to ¥359.6 billion, reflecting the exclusion of KEM and its subsidiaries from consolidation.

Shareholders' equity totaled ¥728.8 billion, up ¥105.8 from the previous fiscal year-end, reflecting expanded profits. As a result, shareholders' equity ratio improved to 41.2%. Net debt-to-equity ratio* further improved to 0.38 at December 31, 2006, compared to 0.49 at the previous fiscal year-end.

* KEM: Komatsu Electronic Metals Co., Ltd. was sold to SUMCO Corporation on October 18, 2006.

 Unaudited

Note: As the definitive agreement to sell the OPE business of Komatsu Zenoah Co. was signed, this business will no longer be consolidated in Komatsu's results. For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2007, Komatsu will state the results related to this business as a separate item, net income from discontinued operations, in the consolidated statements of income. The corresponding figures for previous fiscal years will also be retrospectively reclassified.
