Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 5, 2008, the Company entered into a change-in-control severance agreement with Gregory A. Silvestri, Executive Vice President, using substantially the same form of agreement as the 2008 form of change-in-control agreement approved by the Company's Compensation Committee and Board of Directors in December 2007.

Consistent with the change-in-control severance agreements entered into with certain executive officers in January 2008, the change-in-control severance agreement between the Company and Mr. Silvestri (the "Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement") is designed to retain Mr. Silvestri and provide for continuity of management in the event of an actual or threatened change-in-control of the Company (as "change-in-control" is defined in the Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement). The Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement provides that, in the event of a change-in-control of the Company, Mr. Silvestri has specific rights and receives specific benefits if he is terminated without "cause" (as defined in the Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement) or he voluntarily terminates his employment for "good reason" (as defined in the Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement) within two years after the change-in-control. In these circumstances, Mr. Silvestri will receive a severance payment equal to two times his annual salary base plus his targeted annual bonus (as calculated in the Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement). In addition, all options and restricted stock awards held by Mr. Silvestri that have not vested as of the change-in-control date will be immediately vested. The Company will also pay any excise taxes Mr. Silvestri may incur as a result of the severance payment and any income and excise taxes on the excise tax payment, and the Company will continue to provide Mr. Silvestri medical benefits and certain other benefits for a two-year period following the change-in-control. The Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement continues through December 31 of each year and provides that it is automatically extended for one-year terms unless the Company gives prior notice of termination. The Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement is designed to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

The foregoing description of the Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Silvestri CIC Severance Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
