Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Pennsylvania statutory law regarding directors and officers insurance and indemnification is embodied in Subchapter D (Sections 1741 through 1750) of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the PBCL). Sections 1741 (relating to third-party actions) and 1742 (relating to derivative and corporate actions) of the PBCL provide that, unless otherwise restricted by its bylaws, a business corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who is made a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to a third-party or derivative action or proceeding, whether threatened, pending or completed, by reason that such person is or was a representative of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for-profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The PBCL defines representative to mean a director, officer, employee or agent thereof (a Representative). The sections further state that, assuming the preceding conditions have been satisfied, the corporation is authorized to indemnify the Representative against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action or proceeding. However, the Representative must have acted in good faith and with a reasonable belief that his or her actions were in the best interests, or not opposed to the best interests, of the corporation; and with respect to any criminal proceeding, the Representative must have had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 1743 of the PBCL provides mandatory indemnification for a Representative if he or she succeeds on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any claim or action or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein. The corporation must indemnify him or her to the extent of his or her actual and reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) in connection with the claim or action.

Section 1745 of the PBCL states that expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any third-party or derivative action or proceeding may be paid by a business corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the representative to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized by the PBCL or otherwise. Except as otherwise provided in the corporation's bylaws, advancement of expenses must be authorized by the board of directors of the corporation and shall not be authorized in connection with proceedings related to transactions with interested shareholders (Sections 1728 and 2538 of the PBCL).

Section 1746(a) states that the statutory rights of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person might be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to the action in his or her official capacity and as to the action or proceeding in another capacity while holding that office. However, 1746(b) forbids indemnification to be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim is determined by a court to be willful misconduct or recklessness. A corporation may not provide indemnification in the case of willful misconduct or recklessness.

The PBCL, in Section 1747, also authorizes corporations to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a Representative or a person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign entity, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her. Such insurance is declared to be consistent with Pennsylvania's public policy.

Section 6.02 of the Company's By-Laws, as amended (the By-Laws), provides that a director shall not be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken or failed to be taken unless the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his office and such breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. A director's criminal or tax liability is not limited by the foregoing provision.

Sections 6.03 and 6.04 of the By-Laws require the Company to indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or person serving at the Company's request in such capacity for another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or enterprise, who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any action, suit or proceeding (third-party or derivative), whether threatened, pending or completed and whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, if the person acted in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, with reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful. The right to indemnification conferred by this provision includes payment of all reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. Section 6.04 (derivative actions) further states that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Company unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the registered office of the Company is located or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine otherwise.

Section 6.05 prohibits the Company from providing indemnification whether the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

Section 6.07 of the By-Laws provides that any indemnification will be made on a determination by: (i) a majority vote of directors not a party to the proceeding; (ii) a majority vote of disinterested directors; or (iii) shareholders that indemnification is proper and that such person has met the applicable standard of conduct.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The Company hereby undertakes:

(a) (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant with or furnished to the SEC pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
