Item 8.01 Other Events.

To further clarify the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Global Payments Inc. (the Company) on June 18, 2010, regarding the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce's (CIBC) non-renewal of its Visa BIN sponsorship agreement with the Company, the 8-K refers only to the Company's Visa BIN sponsorship in Canada which, as a result of the non-renewal, will expire in March 2011. Currently, Visa requires processors such as the Company to be sponsored by a financial institution to process Visa transactions in Canada. The Company is pursuing alternatives to CIBC's sponsorship, including filing an application with the Canadian regulatory authorities for the formation of a loan company in Canada. The formation of its own loan company would eliminate the Company's need for a third party financial institution sponsorship in Canada. The Company continues to negotiate with CIBC regarding other aspects of the parties' commercial relationship which also do not expire until March of 2011.

This announcement may contain certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements that are not historical facts, including revenue and earnings estimates and management's expectations regarding future events and developments, are forward-looking statements and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Important factors that may cause actual events or results to differ materially from those anticipated by such forward-looking statements include the following: Our ability to establish a loan company to replace the need for sponsorship in Canada or the ability to establish an alternative sponsorship relationship to replace what we currently have with CIBC; and other risks described in our periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
