ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

Washington Mutual Receivership Proceeding

As was previously disclosed in the Company's Report on Form 8-K filed on May 10, 2011, the Company was named in a complaint filed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), in its capacity as Receiver for Washington Mutual Bank (WAMU) on May 9, 2011 in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California to recover alleged losses of approximately $154,529,000. The FDIC's complaint alleged that these losses were the direct and proximate result of the defendants' breach of contract with WAMU and alleged gross negligence of the defendants with respect to the provision of certain appraisal services. On November 2, 2011, the court issued an order limiting the FDIC's claims to breach of the contract and granting the Company's Motion to Dismiss the FDIC's claims of gross negligence, alter ego, single business enterprise and joint venture claims. With respect to the limited remaining breach of contract claim, the Company maintains that the Appraisal Outsourcing Services Agreement between LSI and WAMU clearly specifies a $10,000 per claim limitation of liability. The Company is confident that it will ultimately prevail on any remaining breach of contract claim.
