On January 20, 2012, ModusLink Global Solutions, Inc. gave the following presentation at its 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders

SEC Safe Harbor Statement Forward looking Statement This presentation contains forward-looking statements, which address variety of subjects including, for example, the Company s plan for sustained growth in revenue and profits; the Company s assessment of the long-term prospects for its market and the BPO market; the trend toward outsourcing key processes; the opportunity for new programs and integrated solutions in our client base; the potential benefits of the investment and cost reduction plan including increased revenue from new programs, improved profitability, sales acceleration, increased market penetration, cost alignment, working capital improvements and improved results from new leadership; the expected annualized costs savings and benefits in fiscal 2012 and 2013 as a result of the investment and cost reduction plan; the level of reinvestment in sales and marketing and other initiatives in fiscal 2012 and 2013; and the impact of the tax benefit preservation plan. All statements other than statements of historical fact, including without limitation, those with respect to the Company s goals, plans, expectations and strategies set forth herein are forward-looking statements. The following important factors and uncertainties, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in these forward-looking statements: the ability to meet its revenue, operating income and cost savings targets, maintain and improve its cash position, expand its operations and revenue, lower its costs, improve its gross margins, reach and sustain profitability, reach its long-term objectives and operate optimally, depends on its ability to execute on its business strategy, including the investment and costs savings plan and the continued and increased demand for and market acceptance of its services; global economic conditions, especially in the technology sector are uncertain and subject to volatility; demand for our clients products may decline or may not achieve the levels anticipated

Company s success, including

by our clients; the Company's management may face strain on managerial $\quad \text{and} \quad$ operational resources as they try to over see the expanded operations; the Company may not realize the expected benefits of its restructuring and cost cutting actions; the Company may not be able to expand its operations in accordance with its business strategy; the Company s cash balances may not be sufficient allow the Company to meet all of its business and investment goals; the Company may experience difficulties integrating technologies, operations $\quad \text{and} \quad$ personnel in accordancewith its business strategy; the Company derives significant portion of its revenue from a small number of customers and the loss of any of those customers could significantly damage the Company s financial condition and results of operations; the Company frequently sells to its supply chain management clients on a purchase order b minimum purchase requirements, and therefore its sales and the amount of projected revenue that is actually realized are subject to demand variability; risks inherent with conducting international operations; tax rate expectations are

current

tax

law
