NOTIFICATION

Caesarstone Sdot-Yam Ltd., a manufacturer of high quality engineered quartz surfaces, held a conference call today to discuss the results of the first quarter ended March 31, 2012. In response to a question raised during the call, the Company noted that it estimated the number of ordinary shares to be issued and outstanding in the second quarter to be approximately 30.9 million, approximately 32.1 million in the third quarter and 32.7 million in the fourth quarter.

The Company clarifies that these estimates were based on the expected weighted average shares outstanding for the 6-month, 9-month and 12-month periods associated with those quarters. The Company further clarifies that for each quarter, it expects approximately 34.4 million shares to be issued and outstanding on a diluted basis.

Safe Harbor Statement

Information provided in this Form 6-K may contain statements relating to current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about future events that are forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements generally relate to the Caesarstone's plans, objectives and expectations for future operations, including our ability to successfully defend ourselves in legal proceedings against Caesarstone, and are based upon management's current estimates and projections of future results or trends. Actual outcomes may differ materially from those projected as a result of certain risks and uncertainties. These factors include, but are not limited to, the risks discussed under the heading Risk Factors in Caesarstone's final prospectus for its IPO filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 22, 2012 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and we undertake no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
