2. Reasons for Revision of Forecast

Our sales during the first quarter of the current fiscal year as a whole were, although with some variations by regions, about the same level as we had expected. We revise our forecasts, however, since the yen appreciation against foreign currencies including euro has been higher than our projection that was published on April 27, 2012.

Edgar Filing: MAKITA CORP - Form 6-K

The above forecast is based on the assumption of exchange rates of 78 yen to the U.S. dollar and 93 yen to the euro for the nine months period ending March 31, 2013, and 79 yen to the U.S. dollar and 95 yen to the euro for the year ending March 31, 2013.

(Reference): Our previous exchange rates that we announced on April 27, 2012 were 81 yen to the U.S. dollar and 107 yen to the euro.
