Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

AVEO Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) has an annual cash incentive program, which is designed to provide cash bonus awards to the Company's employees, including the Company's executive officers. On March 20, 2015, the compensation committee (the Compensation Committee) of the Board of Directors of the Company established the following corporate goals under the Company's annual cash incentive award program for the year ending December 31, 2015, as set forth below:

	Percentage of Portion of Annual Cash Incentive Award Attributable to Corporate Goals
Corporate Goals
Achievement of certain partnership and financial goals , including securing a partnership for tivozanib or AV-380 and completing a financing in order to extend cash runway	50%
Tivozanib
Advancing the Marketing Authorization Application filing
Finalizing registration and development and associated financing plan	25%
Ficlatuzumab
Meet patient enrollment goals for the FOCAL study	15%
General and Administrative
Evaluate and secure new facilities
Complete January 2015 restructuring	10%
Total	100%

For Michael Bailey, the Company's president and chief executive officer, his annual cash incentive award target level is 50% of his annual base salary for 2015, as was disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 7, 2015 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The corporate goals set forth above account for 100% of the performance metrics against which his eligibility for an annual cash incentive award will be measured. For all other executive officers of the Company, the corporate goals account for 80% of the performance metrics against which the annual cash incentive award will be measured, and individual goals account for the other 20%.

Edgar Filing: AVEO PHARMACEUTICALS INC - Form 8-K

Following completion of the fiscal year ending December 31, 2015, the Compensation Committee and the independent board members of the Company's Board of Directors intend to evaluate the performance of the Company and each executive officer against such goals and will determine the annual cash incentive awards, if any, to be granted to the executive officers. The Compensation Committee has the authority to make discretionary adjustments to the annual cash incentive program, including the ability to make additional awards based on the Company's executive officers' performance and to modify the corporate and individual performance targets and to increase or decrease the level of awards that the Company's executive officers receive in conjunction with their performance against the targets.

Additional information regarding the compensation of the Company's executive officers will be included in the Company's proxy statement to be filed with the SEC in connection with its 2015 annual meeting of stockholders.
