Director Selection Process and Qualifications

Our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate and recommend candidates for membership on our Board of Directors consistent with criteria established by our Board of Directors in our policy with regard to the selection of director nominees. Pursuant to this policy, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee screens candidates and evaluates the qualifications of the persons nominated by or recommended by our stockholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommends director nominees who are ultimately approved by the full Board of Directors.

Our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee uses a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for directors. Our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee regularly assesses the appropriate size and composition of the Board of Directors, the needs of the Board of Directors and the respective committees of the Board of Directors, and the qualifications of candidates in light of these needs. Candidates may come to the attention of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee through stockholders, management, current members of the Board of Directors, or search firms. The evaluation of these candidates may be based solely upon information provided to the committee or may also include discussions with persons familiar with the candidate, an interview of the candidate, or other actions the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee deems appropriate, including the use of third parties to review candidates. The Nominating and Corporate Governance committee may, at Alphabet's expense, retain search firms, consultants, and other advisors to identify, screen, and/or evaluate candidates.

When considering a potential non-incumbent candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will factor into its determination the following qualities, among others: integrity, professional reputation and strength of character, educational background, knowledge of our business, diversity of professional experience, including whether the person is a current or former chief executive officer or chief financial officer of a public company or the head of a division of a large international organization, and ability to represent the best interests of our stockholders and to provide practical insights and diverse perspectives. Additionally, due to the global and complex nature of our business, our Board of Directors believes it is important to consider diversity of race, ethnicity, gender, age, education, cultural background, and professional experiences in evaluating board candidates, although our policy does not prescribe specific standards for diversity. Candidates also are evaluated in light of our other policies, such as those relating to independence and service on other boards, as well as considerations relating to the size, structure, and needs of our Board of Directors. As part of its consideration of director succession, our Board of Directors and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee monitor whether the directors as a group meet the criteria for the composition of the Board of Directors, including overall diversity of perspective and experience.

Our Board of Directors is composed of a diverse group of leaders in their respective fields. Many of the current directors have senior leadership experience at major domestic and international companies. In these positions, they have also gained experience in core management skills, such as strategic and financial planning, public company financial reporting, compliance, risk management, leadership development, and international business experience. Most of our directors also have experience serving on boards of directors and board committees of other public companies, and have an understanding of corporate governance practices and trends, different business processes, challenges, and strategies. Other directors have experience as presidents or trustees of significant academic, research, and philanthropic institutions, which brings unique perspectives to the Board of Directors. Further, our directors also have other experience that makes them valuable members, such as entrepreneurial experience and experience developing technology or managing technology companies, which provides insight into strategic and operational issues faced by us.

Edgar Filing: Alphabet Inc. - Form 10-K/A

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board of Directors believe that the above-mentioned attributes, along with the leadership skills and other experiences of our board members described below, provide us with a diverse range of perspectives and judgment necessary to guide our strategies and monitor their execution.

Item 11. Executive Compensation.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

Our Compensation Discussion and Analysis (CD&A) includes a detailed discussion of compensation for seven named executive officers during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015:

Larry Page	Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Alphabet and Co-Founder
Sergey Brin	President, Alphabet and Co-Founder
Eric E. Schmidt	Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors (Executive Chairman)
Sundar Pichai	Chief Executive Officer, Google as of October 2, 2015 (previously Senior Vice President, Products of Google)
Ruth M. Porat	Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Alphabet as of October 2, 2015, and Google as of May 26, 2015
Patrick Pichette	Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Google until May 26, 2015
Omid Kordestani	Senior Vice President and Chief Business Officer, Google through October 1, 2015

The CD&A is organized into five sections:

Section 1 Executive Summary

Section 2 Elements of Pay

Section 3 Determining Competitive Levels of Pay

Section 4 Pay Mix, Magnitude, and Leverage

Section 5 Other Compensation Information

Section 1 Executive Summary

We designed our compensation programs for our Alphabet and Google employees, including our named executive officers, to support three goals:

Attract and retain the world's best talent

Support our culture of innovation and performance

Align employee and stockholder interests

We pay employees competitively compared to other opportunities they might have in the market. We also offer competitive benefits to promote the health and happiness of our employees, provide unique perks that make life and work more convenient, design compelling job opportunities aligned with our mission, and create a fun and energizing work environment.

We believe deeply in paying for performance. Therefore, a portion of compensation is tied to performance for all employees. The proportion of overall pay tied to performance is higher for employees at more senior levels in the organization, reflecting their opportunity for higher impact on company performance.

We use equity awards to align employee and stockholder interests. We require most of our senior executives to maintain holdings of Alphabet stock. See Section 5 of this CD&A for a description of our stock ownership requirements.

Table of Contents

Larry and Sergey have voluntarily elected to only receive nominal cash compensation. As significant stockholders, a large portion of their personal wealth is tied directly to Alphabet's stock price performance, which provides direct alignment with stockholder interests.

In addition to compensation practices, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee regularly reviews and provides guidance to Alphabet's organizational decisions as laid out in its charter (available at <https://abc.xyz/investor/other/board.html#leadership-committee>).

Section 2 Elements of Pay

In 2015, we offered base salary and equity awards to our named executive officers. Eric also received a cash bonus award.

In March 2015, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee made changes to the compensation structure for Alphabet's executive officers. Beginning in 2016, executive officers will no longer receive cash bonuses and will receive all variable pay through equity awards. See Cash Incentives and Equity under Section 4 of the CD&A for additional details.

Base Salary

We use salary to provide employees, including our named executive officers, a steady income in line with their skills, experiences, and job opportunities available to them outside of Alphabet.

Upon reviewing the pay practices of our talent competitors and the compensation preferences of our employees, we continue to believe that competitive salaries are important for attracting and retaining great talent.

Equity Awards

We reinforce management's focus on long-term stockholder value and commitment to the company through equity compensation programs that include the following features:

Biennial equity awards Standard equity awards to our named executive officers are made only in even-numbered years. Granting less frequently allows us to incorporate longer performance periods into our equity decisions and encourages executives to take a long-term view of the business.

Minimum stock ownership requirements We require minimum stock ownership as follows: (i) Larry, Sergey and Eric shall each own shares of Alphabet common stock worth at least $14.0 million; (ii) Sundar and each executive officer shall own shares of Alphabet common stock worth at least $4.0 million; and (iii) each member of our Board of Directors shall own shares of Alphabet common stock worth at least $750,000.

In 2015, we did not grant regular biennial equity awards to our named executive officers.

Role of Company Performance

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee holds our named executive officers accountable for Alphabet's company-wide performance (including Alphabet's financial and operational performance and progress against company-wide strategic goals) and bases a portion of their compensation on such performance. We use company performance as an input in deciding each named executive officer's equity awards.

Role of Individual Performance

The company-wide operational, strategic, and financial goals we set at the beginning of the year serve as the foundation for the personal goals set by each employee (in partnership with their manager). Managers review the performance of employees against these goals annually.

Table of Contents

For our named executive officers, Larry assesses their performance against each officer's goals. While informed by objective goals, Larry's assessments are subjective, considering a complete picture of the named executive officer's accomplishments. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee discusses these appraisals with Larry when reviewing proposed equity awards for each named executive officer.

Section 3 Determining Competitive Levels of Pay

Our executive compensation decisions are informed by market data in addition to reviews of individual roles and performance. We use peer group data to obtain a compensation benchmark for our named executive officers in their current roles by reviewing the data reported in our peer companies' SEC filings.

In 2015, we considered peers to be companies that met at least three of the following criteria:

High-technology or media company

Key talent competitor

High-growth, with a minimum of 50% of Alphabet's revenue and/or headcount growth over the previous two-year period

$10 billion or more in annual revenue

$50 billion or more in market capitalization

Based on these criteria, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee selected the following companies as peer companies for 2015:

Amazon.com, Inc.	Hewlett-Packard Company	Oracle Corporation
Apple Inc.	Intel Corporation	Qualcomm, Inc.
Cisco Systems, Inc.	International Business Machines Corporation	The Walt Disney Company
eBay, Inc.	Microsoft Corporation	Yahoo! Inc.
Facebook, Inc.

Overall, we retained the same peer group in 2015 as in 2014.

When appropriate, we supplement publicly available data with relevant published survey sources, including surveys from Radford and Towers Watson. In addition, we consider job opportunities available to our named executive officers if they were to leave Alphabet. Therefore, we also assess compensation levels for our named executive officers against comparable roles at other S&P 500 companies and potential equity opportunities at startup organizations.

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee does not utilize the services of an outside compensation consultant to assess pay levels.

Role of Management in Determining Compensation

Annually, Larry and the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee review our executive compensation practices against our market targets and benchmark data. Larry then makes compensation recommendations to the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee for our named executive officers, other than himself. Any changes to pay practices for our named executive officers must be approved by the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee before implementation.

Table of ContentsSay-on-Pay

We hold our say-on-pay votes every three years. We will hold both our next say-on-pay vote and advisory vote on the frequency of say-on-pay votes (commonly known as a say-when-on-pay vote) at the 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee annually reevaluates our compensation practices to determine how they might be improved.

Section 4 Pay Mix, Magnitude, and LeveragePay Mix

Our named executive officers receive the majority of their pay from equity compensation, consistent with market benchmarks. As our biennial grants are made in even-numbered years, the value of equity compensation is not fully demonstrated in the 2015 pay mix, with the exception of Sundar and Ruth, who received special one-time equity awards in 2015 (see Equity section below for further details). Larry and Sergey declined to receive performance-based compensation.

The table below shows 2015 pay mix details, including salaries, actual bonuses, and the fair value of equity awards made in 2015. The table does not include any other compensation disclosed in the All Other Compensation column of our Summary Compensation Table.

2015 ACTUAL COMPENSATION

Name	Title	Salary (%)	Bonus (%)	Equity (%)
Larry Page	Chief Executive Officer, Alphabet	100	N/A	N/A
Sergey Brin	President, Alphabet	100	N/A	N/A
Eric E. Schmidt	Executive Chairman, Alphabet	17	83	N/A
Sundar Pichai	Chief Executive Officer, Google	1	N/A	99
Ruth Porat	Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	1	17	82
Patrick Pichette	Advisor; Former Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	100	N/A	N/A
Omid Kordestani	Former Senior Vice President and Chief Business Officer	100	N/A	N/A

Base Salary

We set salaries for our named executive officers based on their responsibilities and trends we observe in the market (see Section 3 of this CD&A, Determining Competitive Levels of Pay for further details). We review salaries at least once a year and adjust them as needed.

In 2004, Larry and Sergey asked that their salaries each be reduced to $1 per year. Since 2005, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee has offered them market-competitive salaries annually. For 2015, Larry and Sergey once again declined our salary offers and therefore receive salaries of $1 each.

In 2015, Larry reviewed the market benchmarks for our other named executive officers and recommended that we hold salaries constant at 2014 levels. Based on this assessment, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee decided to maintain salaries for our named executive officers (other than Larry, Sergey, and Eric) at

We set Eric's salary at a higher level than our other named executive officers based on market benchmarks for the Executive Chairman role. Since transitioning to his current role as Executive Chairman in 2011, Eric has received a salary of $1.25 million, which we maintained in 2015.

Table of ContentsCash Incentives

In March 2015, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee changed the compensation structure for Alphabet's executive officers. The new structure eliminates annual cash bonuses beginning in 2016 (for the 2015 performance year), shifting to only salary and biennial equity grants. This change does not apply to Larry, Sergey, and Eric, who were each still eligible to receive annual cash bonuses in respect of their performance in 2015.

Of our named executive officers, only Eric received an annual cash bonus based on his performance in 2015. Eric's bonus target was 400% of his salary with annual payments that can range from zero to a maximum of $6.0 million. Given Eric's contributions leading our Board of Directors and managing complex stakeholder relationships during 2015, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee approved a cash bonus of $6.0 million, equal to each of Eric's last four annual bonuses. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee offered Larry and Sergey cash bonuses in recognition of their performance in 2015; however, they declined to receive the bonuses.

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee may also pay other discretionary bonuses unrelated to our annual cash bonus program. In May 2015, Ruth Porat joined us as CFO. As an inducement, we paid Ruth a sign-on bonus of $5.0 million in 2015. The award is shown in the table below as well as in the Summary Compensation Table under the Bonus column.

Name	Annual Bonus Program (in millions) ($)	Sign-On Bonus (in millions) ($)	Total 2015 Bonus (in millions) ($)

Sergey Brin
Eric E. Schmidt	6.0		6.0
Sundar Pichai
Ruth Porat		5.0	5.0

Equity

Our current practice is to grant GSUs as equity awards to employees. We do not grant any other equity vehicles at this time, although our practice may change in the future. Equity awards to our named executive officers (other than Larry, Sergey, and Eric) are generally granted biennially and vest over four years. Eric's award is intended to be granted every four years, and vests quarterly over four years.

In March 2015, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee changed the equity vesting schedule for biennial equity grants to Alphabet's executive officers. Future biennial equity grants will vest quarterly over a four-year period.

In January 2015, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee granted a $100.0 million equity award to Sundar in recognition of his performance and increased responsibilities as the leader of all Google's technical product areas. In January 2016, following his promotion to Chief Executive Officer of Google, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee granted a $209.0 million biennial equity award to Sundar, which vests over four years.

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee views Sundar's retention as critical to Google's success, as demonstrated by his promotion to CEO in October 2015, and believes that this level of compensation is representative of his value and the opportunities available to him outside of Alphabet.

In June 2015, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee granted a $25.0 million equity award to Ruth upon hire. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee believes this award will deliver equity compensation commensurate with the responsibilities of the CFO role until biennial equity awards granted to executive officers in 2016 begin to vest.

Table of Contents

Upon Patrick and Omid's respective departures, all of their outstanding equity was cancelled and we made cash payments equal to the value of their unvested biennial equity grants, prorated for the time between the grant date and the cancellation date. The payments equaled $56.2 million to Patrick and $16.3 million to Omid.

Larry and Sergey did not hold any stock options, GSUs, or other contingent stock rights at the end of 2015. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee will continue to review their compensation on an ongoing basis and may recommend future equity awards.

Section 5 Other Compensation Information

The first four sections of this CD&A describe how we think about compensation and how that affects our pay practices. Other compensation-related details that may be important considerations for our investors are discussed below.

Risk Considerations

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee reviewed our compensation programs for employees and concluded that these programs do not create risks that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the company.

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee believes that the design of our annual and long-term incentives focuses performance on long-term value creation and discourages short-term risks at the expense of long-term results. A substantial portion of employees' compensation is delivered in the form of equity awards, further aligning their interests with those of stockholders.

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee believes that the following risk oversight and compensation design features safeguard against excessive risk-taking:

The Board of Directors as a whole has responsibility for risk oversight, regularly reviewing reports on the deliberations of Board committees. In addition, the Board reviews the strategic, financial, and execution risks and exposures associated with the financial, operational, and capital decisions that serve as inputs to our compensation programs.

The majority of compensation provided to our named executive officers is performance-based. Our named executive officers are motivated to carefully assess risks to protect their compensation.

Through discussions with Larry, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee gains insight into a reasonable range of future company performance expectations. The information is incorporated into decisions regarding equity awards to our named executive officers.

Given that equity compensation comprises a high percentage of our named executive officers' overall pay:

Our equity awards are subject to vesting conditions that mitigate the potential for decisions that benefit short-term results but that may not be consistent with our long-term interests.

Equity awards typically vest over a four-year period to ensure our named executive officers have significant value tied to long-term stock price performance.

Our named executive officers are subject to minimum stock ownership guidelines. This ensures that each named executive officer will hold a significant amount of our equity to further align his or her interests with those of our stockholders over the long term.

We prohibit all speculative and hedging transactions involving our securities. As a result, our named executive officers cannot insulate themselves from the effects of poor stock price performance.

We have internal controls over financial reporting, the measurement and calculation of performance relative to goals, and other financial, operational, and compliance policies and practices designed to protect our compensation programs from manipulation by any employee.

Table of Contents

Timing of Equity Award Grants

The effective grant date for all equity awards to employees, members of our Board of Directors, and non-employee advisors is the first Wednesday of the month following the date on which the equity award is approved by the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee, unless otherwise specified by our Board of Directors or the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee.

The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee does not grant equity compensation awards in anticipation of the release of material nonpublic information. Similarly, we do not time the release of material nonpublic information based on equity award grant dates.

Minimum Stock Ownership Guidelines

To align our named executive officers' and directors' interests with those of our stockholders, the Board of Directors has instituted minimum stock ownership requirements under our Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Our current stock ownership guidelines are: (i) Larry, Sergey and Eric shall each own Alphabet stock worth at least $14.0 million; (ii) Sundar and each executive officer shall own Alphabet stock worth at least $4.0 million; and (iii) each director shall own Alphabet stock worth at least $750,000.

Executive officers have five years from hire or promotion to the Senior Vice President level to comply with the stock ownership requirements. Each director has five years from the time he or she becomes a director to comply with these ownership requirements.

All of our named executive officers and directors either met the applicable minimum stock ownership guidelines as of December 31, 2015 or were within the time period noted above to come into compliance with these requirements.

Transactions in Company Securities

Our insider trading policy prohibits employees and directors from engaging in any speculative or hedging transactions in our securities. We prohibit hedging transactions such as puts, calls, collars, swaps, forward sale contracts, exchange funds, and similar arrangements or instruments designed to hedge or offset decreases in the market value of Alphabet's securities. No employee or director may engage in short sales of Alphabet securities, hold Alphabet securities in a margin account, or pledge Alphabet securities as collateral for a loan.

Post-Employment and Change in Control Payments

We have no agreements with our named executive officers that provide for additional or accelerated compensation upon termination of the executive's employment or a change in control of Alphabet, except as set forth below.

Upon a change in control of Alphabet and, unless our Board of Directors or Leadership Development and Compensation Committee determines otherwise, if the successor corporation does not assume or substitute the equity awards held by our employees, including our named executive officers, all unvested stock options and unvested GSUs will fully vest.

The table below shows our estimates of the value each of our named executive officers would have received if their unvested stock options and unvested GSUs as of December 31, 2015 had become fully vested as a result of a change in control.

Table of Contents

The estimated benefit amount of unvested stock options was calculated by multiplying the number of unvested stock options by the excess of the closing prices of our Class A common stock or Class C capital stock on December 31, 2015, which were $778.01 per share and $758.88 per share, respectively, over the exercise price of the option. The estimated benefit amount of unvested GSUs was calculated by multiplying the number of unvested GSUs by the closing price of our Class A common stock or Class C capital stock on December 31, 2015, which were $778.01 per share and $758.88 per share, respectively.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Code may preclude us from deducting certain compensation in excess of $1.0 million per year to our named executive officers, unless such compensation meets the requirements of qualified performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). Eric's annual cash bonus for the 2015 fiscal year does not meet the requirements of qualified performance-based compensation. Therefore, this bonus will not be deductible for federal income tax purposes to the extent that it, when combined with other 2015 compensation for the applicable named executive officer that does not meet such requirements (e.g., base salary, GSUs that vested and were settled in 2015), exceeds $1.0 million.

Perquisites and Other Benefits

Like all employees, our named executive officers are eligible to participate in various employee benefit plans, including medical, dental, and vision care plans, flexible spending accounts for health and dependent care, life, accidental death and dismemberment, disability, and travel insurance, survivor income benefit, employee assistance programs (e.g., confidential counseling), and paid time off. We also paid life insurance premiums for all employees (other than Larry and Sergey).

In addition, we maintain a tax qualified 401(k) retirement savings plan with both pre-tax and after-tax Roth savings features for eligible employees, including our named executive officers. In 2015, we provided a company match equal to the greater of 100% of contributions up to $3,000, or 50% of the maximum contribution under the Code ($18,000) for a maximum match of $9,000, per employee (other than Larry and Sergey). Our company match is fully vested at the time of contribution. Participants are not taxed on their pre-tax contributions or earnings on those contributions until distribution, but pre-tax contributions and all company matching contributions are deductible by us when made. Participants are taxed on their after-tax Roth contributions, and all company matching contributions and after-tax Roth contributions are deductible by us when made.

In 2015, we paid for personal security for Eric and incremental costs related to the personal use of non-commercial aircraft for Eric, Sundar, Ruth, and Omid. Pursuant to our Non-Commercial Aircraft Policy, named executive officers and their guests may use company aircraft with appropriate approvals and pay tax on any associated imputed income.

Table of Contents

Deferred Compensation Plan

We maintain a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for most of our U.S.-based employees. As CFOs, both Ruth and Patrick were ineligible to participate in the deferred compensation plan. The plan allows participants to defer up to 100% of their bonus for a period of three, four, or five years, subject to certain exceptions. The deferred compensation plan is unfunded and unsecured, and participation is voluntary. We do not provide any matching contributions to the deferred compensation plan.

In 2015, Eric was the only named executive officer to defer his bonus under this plan. See the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation table on page 21 for further information regarding Eric's bonus deferral.

No Additional Executive Benefit Plans

Since we do not generally differentiate the benefits we offer our named executive officers from the benefits we offer other employees, we do not maintain any benefit plans that cover only select named executive officers. We also do not maintain any executive retirement programs such as executive pension plans or supplemental executive retirement plans.

- (4) All other compensation generally consists of the Company's 401(k) company match of up to $9,000, life insurance premiums paid by the Company for the benefit of the named executive officer, personal use of company aircraft, and the market value of a holiday gift given to each employee, net of tax withholding, unless otherwise noted. The aggregate incremental cost of personal use of the company aircraft is calculated based on a cost-per-flight-hour charge developed by a nationally recognized and independent service. The charge reflects the direct operating cost of the aircraft, including fuel, additives and lubricants, an allocable allowance for airframe, engine and APU maintenance and restoration, crew travel expenses, on board catering, and trip-related landing/hangar/ramp fees and parking costs. This charge does not include any fixed costs that do not change based on usage, such as pilots' and other employees' salaries, home hanger expenses, and general taxes and insurance.

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation

The following table provides information about contributions, earnings, and balances under our non-qualified deferred compensation plan in fiscal year 2015. We do not provide matching contributions to the deferred compensation plan, and in fiscal year 2015 there were no withdrawals by or distributions to our named executive officers.

- (1) The amount reported under Executive Contributions in 2015 is the amount that the named executive officers elected to defer under our non-qualified deferred compensation plan. This amount represents compensation earned in 2015 and is therefore also reported as compensation in the Summary Compensation Table.
- (2) The amount reported under Aggregate Earnings in 2015 shows the net amount credited to each officer's account as a result of the performance of the investment vehicle in which his or her account was deemed invested. This amount does not represent above-market earnings, and thus is not reported in the Summary Compensation Table.

Table of Contents

- (3) Column Aggregate Balance at December 31, 2015 shows the amount of the non-qualified deferred compensation account balance at the end of 2015. For Eric, $20,714,563 of his balance represents the amount previously reported as Aggregate Balance at December 31, 2014 in the 2015 proxy statement.
- (4) Eric elected to contribute 100% of his 2015 bonus, the amount of which was determined in January 2016 and paid in February 2016.

Our deferred compensation plan is unfunded and unsecured, and participation is voluntary. Most U.S.-based employees are eligible to participate in the deferred compensation plan. As CFOs, both Ruth and Patrick were ineligible to participate in the deferred compensation plan. The plan allows participants to defer a specified percentage (up to 100%) of their bonus for a period of three, four or five years, subject to certain exceptions. During the deferral period, the deferred amounts are hypothetically or notionally invested in one or more investments funds selected by the committee administering the deferred compensation plan. Each participant's account is adjusted for gains or losses at least annually based on the rate of gain or loss on the assets in each notional investment fund. We do not guarantee any returns on participant contributions. If a participant's employment terminates, distribution is made in the form of a lump sum following termination.

In 2015, Eric was the only named executive officer to defer his bonus under this plan.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

We have no agreements with any of our named executive officers that provide for additional or accelerated compensation on the termination of the executive's employment or a change in control of the Company, except as set forth under "Post-Employment and Change in Control Payments" on page 14.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Board Compensation Arrangements for Non-Employee Directors

Alphabet's director compensation program is designed to attract and retain highly qualified non-employee directors. Our program aligns director compensation with compensation offered by peer companies (identified in Section 3 of the Compensation Discussion and Analysis under Executive Compensation) that compete with us for talent.

We designed the program to address the time, effort, expertise, and accountability required of active board membership. Our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Leadership Development and Compensation Committee believe that annual compensation for non-employee directors should consist of both cash to compensate members for their service on the Board of Directors and its committees, and equity to align the interests of directors and stockholders. By vesting over time, equity also creates an incentive for continued service on our Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee review the compensation programs for non-employee directors on an annual basis.

In 2015, we did not make any changes to our standard compensation arrangements and practices for non-employee directors. We awarded our standard ongoing compensation to each of our non-employee directors, including an annual $75,000 cash retainer and an annual $350,000 GSU grant. In addition, we paid a $25,000 annual cash retainer to the Audit Committee chairperson. We awarded cash retainers and GSU grants to our non-employee directors on July 1, 2015, the first Wednesday of the month following our 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The exact number of GSUs comprising the equity awards is calculated by dividing the target dollar value of the award by the closing price of Alphabet's Class C capital stock on the day prior to grant and rounding up to the nearest whole share. All annual GSU grants made to our non-employee directors vest at the rate of 1/48th monthly, beginning on the 25th day of the month following the grant date until fully vested, subject to continued service on our Board of Directors through the applicable vesting dates.

We reimburse our non-employee directors for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with attendance at Board of Directors and committee meetings.

Larry, Sergey, Eric, and Diane are our employee directors. In 2015, Larry and Sergey did not receive any compensation for their services as members of our Board of Directors. Please see the section titled Executive Compensation for more information about compensation paid to Eric, who serves as the Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors.

On December 17, 2015, Diane joined Google as a Senior Vice President. Prior to joining Google as an employee, Diane received our standard non-employee director compensation. Diane has retained her position on our Board of Directors since becoming a Google employee, but will not receive any compensation for her service as a member of our Board of Directors.

Item 12. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters.

The following table sets forth information, as of December 31, 2015, concerning, except as indicated by the footnotes below:

Each person whom we know beneficially owns more than five percent of our Class A common stock or Class B common stock.

Each of our directors.

Each of our named executive officers (see the section titled "Executive Compensation" beginning on page 8).

All of our directors and executive officers as a group.

Unless otherwise noted below, the address of each beneficial owner listed in the table is c/o Alphabet Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, California 94043.

We have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with the rules of the SEC. Except as indicated by the footnotes below, we believe, based on the information furnished to us, that the persons and entities named in the table below have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock that they beneficially own, subject to applicable community property laws.

As of October 2, 2015, Alphabet became the successor issuer to, and parent holding company of, Google pursuant to a holding company reorganization in which all of Google's outstanding shares were automatically converted into equivalent corresponding shares of Alphabet. Applicable percentage ownership is based on 292,296,901 shares of Class A common stock and 50,294,813 shares of Class B common stock outstanding at December 31, 2015. In computing the number of shares of Class A and Class B common stock beneficially owned by a person and the percentage ownership of that person, we deemed outstanding shares of Class A common stock subject to options held by that person that are currently exercisable or exercisable within sixty days of December 31, 2015, and Class A common stock issuable upon the vesting of Google Stock Units (GSUs) within sixty days of December 31, 2015, to be outstanding ignoring the withholding of shares of common stock to cover applicable taxes. We did not deem these shares outstanding, however, for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. GSUs entitle the beneficial owner to receive one share of Class A common stock for each share underlying the GSU as the GSU vests. Beneficial ownership representing less than one percent is denoted with an asterisk (*).

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence.
Director Independence

Our Board of Directors has adopted independence standards that mirror exactly the criteria specified by applicable laws and regulations of the SEC and the Listing Rules of NASDAQ. Our Board of Directors has determined that each of the director nominees standing for election, except Larry, Sergey, Eric, and Diane, is an independent director under these standards. In determining the independence of our directors, our Board of Directors considered all transactions in which we and any director had any interest, including those discussed under Certain Relationships and Related Transactions on pages 29-32, transactions involving payments made by us to companies in the ordinary course of business where certain of our directors serve on the board of directors or as a member of the executive management team of the other company, and transactions involving payments made by us to educational institutions with director affiliations.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Related Party Transactions Policy and Procedure

Our written Related Party Transactions Policy provides that we will only enter into or ratify a transaction with a related party when our board of directors, acting through the Audit Committee, determines that the transaction is in the best interests of Alphabet and our stockholders.

For the purposes of this policy, a related party means:

a member of the board of directors (or a nominee to the board of directors);

an executive officer;

any person who is known to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of any class of our securities;

any immediate family member of any of the persons listed above; or any firm, corporation, partnership, or other entity in which any of the persons listed above is a general partner or principal or in a similar position or in which any of the persons listed above has a five percent or greater beneficial ownership interest.

We review all known relationships and transactions in which Alphabet and our directors, executive officers, and significant stockholders or their immediate family members are participants to determine whether such persons have a direct or indirect interest. Our legal staff, in consultation with our finance team, is primarily responsible for developing and implementing processes and controls to obtain information regarding our directors, executive officers, and significant stockholders with respect to related party transactions and then determining, based on the facts and circumstances, whether Alphabet or a related party has a direct or indirect interest in these transactions. On a periodic basis, the legal and finance teams review all transactions involving payments between Alphabet and any company that has our executive officer or director as an officer or director. In addition, our directors and executive officers are required to notify us of any potential related party transactions and provide us with the information regarding such transactions.

If our legal department determines that a transaction is a related party transaction, the Audit Committee must review the transaction and either approve or disapprove it. If advance approval of a transaction is not feasible, the chair of the Audit Committee may approve the transaction, and the Audit Committee may ratify the transaction in accordance with the Related Party Transactions Policy. In determining whether to approve or ratify a transaction with a related party, the Audit Committee will take into account all of the relevant facts and circumstances available to it, including, among any other factors it deems appropriate:

the benefits to us of the transaction;

the nature of the related party's interest in the transaction;

whether the transaction would impair the judgment of a director or executive officer to act in the best interests of Alphabet and our stockholders;

Table of Contents

the potential impact of the transaction on a director's independence; and whether the transaction is on terms no less favorable than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third party under the same or similar circumstances.

Any member of the Audit Committee who is a related party with respect to a transaction under review may not participate in the deliberations or vote on the approval of the transaction.

Related Party Transactions

Indemnification Agreements

We have entered into an indemnification agreement with each of our directors and executive officers. The indemnification agreements, our certificate of incorporation, and bylaws require us to indemnify our directors and executive officers to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law.

Corporate Use of Personal Aircraft

Eric E. Schmidt beneficially owns 100% of one aircraft and 33% of another aircraft, both of which are used by Eric and our other executive officers from time to time for business trips. The reimbursement rate for use of these aircraft is $7,500 per hour. Our Board of Directors approved this hourly reimbursement rate based upon a competitive analysis of comparable chartered aircraft rates that showed that the reimbursement rate is at or below market rates for the charter of similar aircraft. In 2015, we used these aircraft for business-related travel services for certain of our executive officers, including Eric, and we reimbursed Eric approximately $396,000. Due to the fact that the $7,500 hourly rate paid for the use of these aircraft is less than the actual operational costs incurred by Eric as owner of these aircraft, Eric does not profit from the use of these aircraft.

Use of Moffett Airfield

Pursuant to a 60-year lease agreement with NASA in early 2015, we became the operator of Moffett Airfield (the Airfield). Larry, Sergey, Eric, and Ram, through their affiliated entities (the Founder Entities), have historically used and paid to NASA applicable fees for the use of the Airfield for their personal aircraft. As the operator of the Airfield, we charge the Founder Entities fees for the use of the Airfield that are (i) non-preferential when compared to the fees charged to other private customers landing aircraft at the Airfield, and (ii) derived from rate schedules that are consistent with what an independent airfield services company believes, based on its industry experience, to be arm's-length terms that are fair and reasonable to us as the operator. In 2015, we charged the Founder Entities approximately $1,725,722. These flights have not interfered with our business plans for use of the Airfield. These fees will be regularly reviewed by our Audit Committee. Larry, Sergey, Eric, and Ram do not have a material interest in any of the transactions described above.

Payments to Stanford University

In 2015, we paid approximately $5.7 million to Stanford University. Of this amount, approximately $1.6 million primarily represented donations for scholarships and other philanthropic endeavors and approximately $4.1 million for research, research materials, licensing, consulting, and engineering services.

John L. Hennessy, President of Stanford University, is a member of our Board of Directors. Ruth M. Porat, our Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, is Vice Chair of the Stanford University board of trustees. In addition, K.

Ram Shriram, a member of our Board of Directors, serves on the Stanford University board of trustees. Omid Kordestani, our former Senior Vice President and Chief Business Officer, serves as a member of the Stanford Graduate School of Business Advisory Board. John, Ruth, Ram, and Omid do not have a material interest in any of the transactions described above.

Acquisition of bebop Technologies, Inc.

On December 17, 2015, we acquired bebop Technologies, Inc. (bebop) for $411,598,500 (including payments subject to continued employment) in Alphabet Class C capital stock and cash, subject to indemnification obligations, escrow, and vesting. One of our directors, Diane Greene, was the CEO, a member of the board of directors and a stockholder of bebop. Diane's husband, Mendel Rosenblum, was also an employee and stockholder of bebop. Diane and Mendel will receive an aggregate of $157,074,521 in Alphabet Class C capital stock and cash in exchange for their shares in bebop, a portion of which is subject to indemnification obligations, escrow, and vesting. Diane and Mendel intend to donate all of the merger consideration received pursuant to the bebop transaction to a donor advised fund. In connection with the bebop transaction, Diane became a Google Senior Vice President. Mendel has been employed in a non-executive capacity by Google since the consummation of the bebop transaction. Diane's 2015 total compensation received from Google in connection with her employment is set forth in Director Compensation for 2015 on page 24.

Diane was recused from all Board of Directors and Committee discussions relating to the bebop acquisition and the terms of Diane and Mendel's employment. The independent members of our Board of Directors determined that the terms of the transaction and employment arrangements were arm's-length as well as fair and reasonable to us.

Investments in Certain Private Companies

GV directly invested an aggregate of approximately $39.7 million in certain private companies from the beginning of 2015 through January 31, 2016, in which Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers was a co-investor or existing investor. KPCB Holdings, Inc., as nominee for certain funds of Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers and several of the managers of the fund, holds more than 10% of the outstanding shares of such private companies. L. John Doerr, who is a member of our Board of Directors, is a managing director/member of the managing members of those funds and the general partner of the general partners of certain Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers funds. John does not have a material interest in any of the transactions described above.

X Prize Foundation

In 2015, we provided a $8,150,000 sponsorship to X Prize Foundation. Larry and Wendy Schmidt, spouse of Eric E. Schmidt, are members of the X Prize Foundation Board of Trustees. Larry, Sergey, Eric, and Wendy are also members of its Vision Circle, a group of X Prize Foundation's core shareholders and largest contributors. Larry, Sergey, Eric, and Wendy do not have a material interest in the sponsorship described above.

Certain Relationships

From time to time, we engage in certain transactions with other companies affiliated with our directors, executive officers, and significant stockholders or their immediate family members. We believe that all such arrangements have been entered into in the ordinary course of business and have been conducted on an arm's-length basis and do not represent a material interest to such directors, executive officers or significant stockholders.

The service is one of a set of permitted services that the independent auditor is allowed to provide;

The total amount of such permitted service is less than or equal to $500,000; and
