Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 4, 2017, NewMarket Corporation (the Company), entered into a note purchase agreement (the Note Purchase Agreement) with The Prudential Insurance Company of America (Prudential) and certain other purchasers as set forth on the Purchase Schedule attached thereto (collectively, the Purchasers). Pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement, the Company issued $250 million in senior unsecured notes (the Notes) to the Purchasers in a private placement. The proceeds will be used by the Company and its subsidiaries to finance working capital needs, for general corporate purposes and to repay its short term borrowings under its revolving credit facility.

The Notes bear interest at the rate of 3.78% per year and mature on January 4, 2029. Interest on the Notes is payable semiannually on the 4th day of July and January of each year, and principal payments of $50 million are payable annually commencing January 4, 2025. The Company may make optional prepayments of the Notes, subject to certain limitations and the requirement to pay an additional Yield Maintenance Amount (as defined and described in the Note Purchase Agreement), if any.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains representations, warranties, terms and conditions customary for transactions of this type. These include negative covenants, certain financial covenants and events of default substantially similar to the covenants and events of default in the Company's existing revolving credit facility. A Yield Maintenance Amount may also be due if the principal amount on the Notes is accelerated upon an event of default.

This summary of the Note Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by, reference to all of the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
