On January 17, 2018, the board of directors of the Company appointed Mark William Lane Richards to serve as a Class II director of the Company pursuant to the director appointment right granted to INCAP in the Stockholders Agreement. Mr. Richards is the Chief Executive Officer and a director of IPGL and a director of F&T.

(collectively, the Other Investors), F&T and INCAP. The Company was required to use reasonable best efforts to file and cause to become effective a shelf registration statement registering all Registrable Securities within six months of April 1, 2015. The Company must use reasonable best efforts to keep such shelf registration statement continuously effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) in order to permit the prospectus forming a part thereof to be usable by holders of Registrable Securities until the earlier of (i) three years following the effectiveness under the Securities Act of the shelf registration statement and (ii) the date on which each of the holders of Registrable Securities is permitted to sell all of its Registrable Securities without registration pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act without limitation or restriction under any of the requirements of Rule 144. and the Other Investors' registration rights are also subject to additional limitations, including a limitation that no registration is required unless the anticipated aggregate price to the public (after deduction for underwriter's discounts and expenses related to the issuance) of the Registrable Securities requested to be registered is equal to or greater than $20.0 million. Except as specifically provided in the Registration Rights Agreement, all expenses of registration will be borne by the Company.

Convertible Notes

The Company issued $60.0 million in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes as part of the consideration for the entire issued and outstanding share capital of City Index. The Convertible Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture dated as of April 1, 2015 (the "Indenture") between the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee. F&T beneficially owns $52,240,000 principal amount of the Convertible Notes as of December 31, 2017.

Prior to October 1, 2019, the Convertible Notes will be convertible only upon the occurrence of specified events set forth in the Indenture. Thereafter, until the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the maturity date, holders may convert their Convertible Notes at any time.

The Company will settle conversions of the Convertible Notes by paying or delivering, as the case may be, cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination thereof, at its election. The conversion rate for the Convertible Notes is initially equal to 102.3541 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes and is subject to adjustment. The conversion price is equal to $1,000 divided by the conversion rate then in effect. The conversion rate, and therefore the conversion price, is subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments, as described in the Indenture, including, but not limited to, common stock splits, common stock combinations, issuances of common stock as a dividend on the Common Stock, issuances of options, rights, warrants or other securities of the Company as a dividend on the Common Stock, payment by the Company of any cash dividend other than a regular, quarterly cash dividend that does not exceed $0.05 per quarter per share of Common Stock, and above-market tender offers or exchange offers by the Company or its subsidiaries for the Common Stock.

If the Company undergoes a fundamental change (as defined in the Indenture), holders may require the Company to repurchase for cash all or part of their Convertible Notes at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Convertible Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the fundamental change repurchase date. In addition, in certain circumstances, the Company may be required to increase the conversion rate for any Convertible Notes converted in connection with a make-whole fundamental change (as defined in the Indenture).

Prior to April 1, 2018, the Company will not have the right to redeem the Convertible Notes. On or after April 1, 2018, and prior to the maturity date, the Company may redeem for cash all, but not less than all, of the Convertible Notes if the last reported sale price of the Common Stock equals or exceeds 130% of the conversion price for the Convertible Notes for at least 20 trading days, whether or not consecutive, during the 30 consecutive trading day period ending on the trading day immediately preceding the date the Company delivers notice of redemption. The redemption price will be equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date. If the Company elects to redeem the Convertible Notes, holders may convert their Convertible Notes at any time prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the redemption date.

The description of the above agreements do not purport to be complete descriptions and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, which are filed as part of this Schedule 13D and incorporated by reference herein.
