Subject line: Moving Closer to Welcoming AV Homes to Taylor Morrison

Team,

We're making significant progress as we look ahead to officially welcoming AV Homes into the Taylor Morrison family. Recently, AV secured a date for their shareholder meeting set for Sept. 26 where shareholders will have the opportunity to approve the proposed acquisition. We anticipate AV will obtain shareholder approval and that, following satisfaction of all closing conditions, the deal will close and we will welcome AV Homes team members into our organization in early October.

At this time, almost all offers of employment have been extended, contingent upon the closing of the acquisition, and we are tracking to bring 335 new team members onboard within the corporate office, Phoenix, Dallas-Fort Worth, Raleigh, Charlotte, Orlando and our future new market, Jacksonville. In addition, we have also been working hard and hope to soon complete the offers for AV Homes outside brokers and third-party sales associates.

A hot topic among those in our overlapping divisions right now is undoubtedly office space. Rest assured we are looking at opportunities to make sure we have adequate locations for everyone to comfortably work in following the closing. I expect it will be tight for a bit but am eager to get all team members together in each of the businesses.

Having had the pleasure of meeting so many AV Homes employees, I can tell you two things: They're a highly professional, talented bunch, and they're so excited to be joining Taylor Morrison. As we near close, my biggest ask of each of you is to truly make our future new team members feel welcome. Getting the M&A integration done right is a major challenge for any company, but I know the Taylor Morrison difference is our people. Upon closing, let's show AV Homes the friendly, warm culture we're so well known for.

We'll be planning some Day One celebrations in our overlapping divisions and, for those of us not in overlapping divisions, we'll give AV Homes a warm welcome on TM360. Be on the lookout for a special opportunity to participate in our welcome video for day of close.

Warmly,

Sheryl
