Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

November 15, 2006

Dear Shareholder,

We are pleased to present you with the annual report for Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc. (the "Fund") for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

Performance

During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, the Fund returned 3.46% on a net asset value basis and 2.01% on a market price basis. Over the same period, the median returns for the Fund's peer group, the Lipper Corporate Debt Funds BBB-Rated, were 3.94% and 7.16% on a net asset value and market price basis, respectively. Finally, the Fund's benchmark, the Investment Grade Bond Index (the "Index"), returned 2.93% during the fiscal year. (For more performance information, please refer to "Performance at a glance" on page 4.)

During the period, the Fund did not use leverage. (Neither the Fund's peer group nor the Index used leverage.) Leverage magnifies returns on both the upside and on the downside, creating a wider range of returns.

An interview with Portfolio Manager Craig Ellinger

Q. How would you describe the economic environment during the reporting period?

A. Despite a slowdown at the end of 2005 in the midst of economic uncertainties and high energy prices, and a steep market selloff in May 2006, the economy was fairly resilient. Economic expansion picked up in the first quarter, and continued throughout the reporting period.

Q. How did the Federal Reserve Board (the "Fed") react to these economic conditions?

A. As the economy continued a robust expansion, the Federal Reserve Board (the "Fed") continued to raise the federal funds rate (the interest rate on overnight loans between banks) in 0.25% increments during the fiscal year. Near the end of the reporting period, the Fed paused, halting a string of seventeen consecutive rate hikes that had been in effect since June 2004. Second quarter 2006 results indicated a possible slowdown in the rate of growth, and a cooling of the housing market. On the strength of this data, the Fed elected to pause the series of rate increases, rather than raise rates too stringently and risk tipping the economy into recession.

Q. How did the overall bond market perform in this environment?

A. Overall, the bond market endured difficult conditions during the fiscal year. Interest rates climbed higher over the period in response to tighter monetary policy from the Federal Reserve and concern over resurgent inflation. While bond returns were generally depressed over the period, fixed income securities with shorter maturities performed better than their longer-maturity counterparts. While credit sectors provided returns greater than US Treasury securities, the excess returns weren't as much as their higher yields would indicate as spread widening created price concessions in most sectors. In this environment, it was generally beneficial to be more defensive, and to generate higher returns, a heavier reliance on specific issue selection was necessary.

Q. How did you position the portfolio during the period?

A. During the fiscal year we maintained our defensive position, reducing the size of the portfolio's duration in early April. Our exposure to TIPS benefited the portfolio's performance. TIPS performed well during the market selloff in the early part of 2006; following that, we reduced our exposure by half. The portfolio held long-duration municipal bonds, some of which were sold when they hit their target during the fourth quarter of 2005, contributing meaningfully to that quarter's performance. Over the course of the reporting period, we generally held more Treasuries than the Index allocation as we maintained defensive allocations to noncorporate credit. However, this had only a very small negative impact on performance. We were also overweight in asset-backed securities, which performed well relative to corporate bonds and noncorporate credit and mortgage-backed securities. Finally, we had an overweight position to below investment grade, or high yield securities, which contributed positively to performance, especially as our issue selection was favorable.

Q. What is your outlook for the economy and the fixed income market?

A. Looking ahead, we believe a number of factors will determine the strength of the economy. As the Federal Reserve Board continues its efforts to fight inflation, it will be forced to strike a difficult balance between maintaining price stability and not raising short-term interest rates so high as to put the brakes on what has been a period of robust economic expansion. With a strong fundamental credit backdrop, the fixed income market has been performing well relative to US Treasuries and we expect that to continue for the foreseeable future.

Meanwhile, although a cooling housing market is an issue of potential concern, other economic indicators remain solid—job growth and corporate profitability are both stable, and we anticipate that they should remain so over the months ahead.

We thank you for your continued support and welcome any comments or questions you may have. For additional information regarding the fund, please contact your financial advisor, or visit us at www.ubs.com/globalam-us.

Notes to financial statements September 30, 2006

Organization and significant accounting policies

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc. (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a diversified closed-end management investment company whose shares trade on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and the Chicago Stock Exchange (CHX). The Fund invests principally in investment grade long-term fixed income debt securities. The Fund's primary objective is to provide shareholders with a stable stream of current income consistent with external interest rate conditions and provide a total return over time that is above what they could receive by investing individually in the investment grade and long-term maturity sectors of the bond market. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved.

In the normal course of business the Fund may enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations or that provide indemnification for certain liabilities. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, the Fund has not had prior claims or losses pursuant to these contracts and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with US generally accepted accounting principles requires the Fund's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies:

Valuation of investments—The Fund calculates its net asset value based on the current market value, where available, for its portfolio securities. The Fund normally obtains market values for its securities from independent pricing sources and broker-dealers. Independent pricing sources may use reported last sale prices, current market quotations or valuations from computerized matrix systems that derive values based on comparable securities. A matrix system incorporates parameters such as security quality, maturity and coupon, and/or research and evaluations by its staff, including review of broker-dealer market price quotations, if available, in determining the valuation of the portfolio securities. Securities traded in the over-the-counter (OTC) market and listed on The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (NASDAQ) normally are valued at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price. Other OTC securities are valued at the last bid price on the valuation date available prior to valuation. Securities which are listed on US and foreign stock exchanges normally are valued at the last sale price on the day the securities are valued or, lacking any sales on such day, at the last available bid price. In cases where securities are traded on more than one exchange, the securities are valued on the exchange designated as the primary market by UBS Global Asset Management (Americas) Inc. ("UBS Global AM" or the "Advisor"), the investment advisor of the Fund. UBS Global AM is an indirect wholly owned asset management subsidiary of UBS AG, an internationally diversified organization with headquarters in Zurich and Basel, Switzerland and operations in many areas of the financial services industry. If a market value is not available from an independent pricing source for a particular security, that security is valued at fair value as determined in good faith by or under the direction of the Fund's Board of Directors (the "Board"). The amortized cost method of valuation, which approximates market value, generally is used to value short-term debt instruments with sixty days or less remaining to maturity, unless the Board determines that this does not represent fair value.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Notes to financial statements September 30, 2006

Certain securities in which the Fund invests are traded in markets that close before 4:00 p.m. Eastern time. Normally, developments that occur between the close of the foreign markets and 4:00 p.m. Eastern time will not be reflected in the Fund's NAV. However, such developments may be determined to be so significant that they will materially affect the value of the Fund's securities. The Fund may use a systematic fair valuation model provided by an independent third party to value securities principally traded in foreign markets in order to adjust for possible stale pricing that may occur between the close of the foreign exchanges and time for valuation. If a security is valued at a "fair value", that value is likely to be different from the last quoted market price for the security. Previous closing prices may be adjusted to reflect what the Board believes to be fair value of these securities as of 4:00 p.m. Eastern time.

Mortgage-backed securities and other investments—The Fund invests in Mortgage-Backed Securities (MBS), representing interests in pools of mortgage loans. These securities provide shareholders with payments consisting of both principal and interest as the mortgages in the underlying mortgage pools are paid. MBS issued by private entities are not government securities and are not directly guaranteed by any government agency. They are secured by the underlying collateral of the private issuer. Yields on privately issued MBS tend to be higher than those of government backed issues. However, risk of loss due to default and sensitivity to interest rate fluctuations is also higher.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Notes to financial statements September 30, 2006

The Fund invests in Collateralized Mortgage Obligations (CMOs). A CMO is a bond, which is collateralized by a pool of MBS. The Fund may also invest in REMICs (Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduit) which are simply another form of CMO. These MBS pools are divided into classes or tranches with each class having its own characteristics. The different classes are retired in sequence as the underlying mortgages are repaid. For instance, a Planned Amortization Class (PAC) is a specific class of mortgages, which over its life will generally have the most stable cash flows and the lowest prepayment risk. A Graduated Payment Mortgage (GPM) is a negative amortization mortgage where the payment amount gradually increases over the life of the mortgage. The early payment amounts are not sufficient to cover the interest due, and therefore, the unpaid interest is added to the principal, thus increasing the borrower's mortgage balance. Prepayment may shorten the stated maturity of the CMO and can result in a loss of premium, if any has been paid.

The Fund invests in Asset-Backed Securities, representing interests in pools of certain types of underlying installment loans or leases or by revolving lines of credit. They often include credit enhancement that help limit investors exposure to the underlying credit. These securities are valued on the basis of timing and certainty of cash flows compared to investments with similar durations.

Inflation protected securities—Inflation protected securities are debt securities whose principal and/or interest payments are adjusted for inflation, unlike debt securities that make fixed principal and interest payments. Inflation protected securities include Treasury Inflation Protected Securities (TIPS), which are securities issued by the US Treasury. The interest rate paid by TIPS is fixed, while the principal value rises or falls based on changes in a published Consumer Price Index (CPI). Thus, if inflation occurs, the principal and interest payments on the TIPS are adjusted accordingly to protect investors from inflationary loss. During a deflationary period, the principal and interest payments decrease, although the TIPS principal amounts will not drop below their face amounts at maturity. In exchange for the inflation protection, TIPS generally pay lower interest rates than typical US Treasury securities. Only if inflation occurs will TIPS offer a higher real yield than a conventional Treasury bond of the same maturity.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Notes to financial statements September 30, 2006

Investment transactions and investment income Investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains and losses from investment and foreign exchange transactions are calculated using the identified cost method. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Discounts are accreted and premiums are amortized as adjustments to interest income and the identified cost of investments.

Securities traded on to-be-announced basis The Fund may from time to time purchase securities on a to-be-announced ("TBA") basis. In a TBA transaction, the Fund commits to purchasing or selling securities for which all specific information is not yet known at the time of the trade, particularly the face amount and maturity date of the underlying security transactions. Securities purchased on a TBA basis are not settled until they are delivered to the Fund, normally 15 to 45 days later. Beginning on the date the Fund enters into a TBA transaction, cash, US government securities or other liquid securities are segregated in an amount equal in value to the purchase price of the TBA security. These transactions are subject to market fluctuations, and their current value is determined in the same manner as for other securities.

Dividends and distributions Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains and/or return of capital is determined in accordance with US federal income tax regulations, which may differ from US generally accepted accounting principles. These "book/tax" differences are either considered temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal tax-basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification.

Concentration of risk The ability of the issuers of the debt securities held by the Fund to meet their obligations may be affected by economic and political developments, including those particular to a specific industry, country, state or region.

Capital stock

At September 30, 2006, there were 12,000,000 shares of $0.01 par value capital stock authorized, and 8,775,665 shares issued and outstanding. During the year ended September 30, 2006, no new shares were issued as part of the dividend reinvestment plan.

Investment advisory fees and other transactions with affiliates

Under an agreement between the Fund and UBS Global AM, UBS Global AM manages the Fund's investment portfolio, maintains its accounts and records, and furnishes the services of individuals to perform executive functions for the Fund. In return for these services, the Fund pays UBS Global AM 0.50% per annum of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to $100,000,000 and 0.40% per annum of average weekly net assets in excess of $100,000,000. At September 30, 2006, the Fund owed UBS Global AM $320,132 in investment advisory fees.

Supplementary Trust is offered as a cash management option only to mutual funds and other accounts managed by the Advisor.

The Fund pays no management fees to Supplementary Trust. Distributions from Supplementary Trust are reflected as affiliated interest income on the statement of operations. Amounts relating to those investments at September 30, 2006 and for the period then ended are summarized as follows:

Fund	Purchases	Sales proceeds	Interest income	Value	% of net assets
UBS Supplementary Trust—U.S. Cash Management Prime Fund	$37,132,662	$33,070,583	$110,133	$6,000,402	4.33%

The tax character of distributions paid during the fiscal years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 were as follows:

Undistributed ordinary income	$ 317,284

At September 30, 2006, the Fund had net capital loss carryforwards of $130,279 for federal income tax purposes available to offset future capital gains through September 30, 2014.

Post-October losses are deemed to arise on the first business day of the Fund's next taxable year. For the year ended September 30, 2006, the Fund incurred, and elected to defer, net capital losses of $783,570.

For federal income tax purpose which was substantially the same for book purposes, tax cost of investments and components of net unrealized appreciation of investments at September 30, 2006 were as follows:

Tax cost of investments	$ 135,079,553

Net unrealized appreciation of investments	$ 4,138,333

To reflect reclassifications arising from permanent "book/tax" differences for the year ended September 30, 2006, accumulated undistributed net investment income was increased by $80,264 and accumulated net realized gain from investment activities was decreased by $80,264. These differences are primarily due to paydown losses.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Notes to financial statements September 30, 2006

On July 13, 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) released FASB Interpretation No. 48 (Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes) (FIN 48). FIN 48 provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in the financial statements. FIN 48 requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Fund's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are more-likely-than-not of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Adoption of FIN 48 is required for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. At this time, management is evaluating the implications of FIN 48, and its impact on the financial statements has not yet been determined.

Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of September 30, 2006, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc. at September 30, 2006, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with US generally accepted accounting principles.

The Fund

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc. (the "Fund") is a diversified, closed-end management investment company whose shares trade on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") and the Chicago Stock Exchange ("CHX"). The primary objective of the Fund is to provide its shareholders with a stable stream of current income consistent with external interest rate conditions and provide a total return over time that is above what they could receive by investing individually in the investment grade and long-term maturity sectors of the bond market. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved. The Fund's NYSE trading symbol is "FDI". Comparative net asset value and market price information about the Fund is available weekly in various publications. The Fund's investment advisor is UBS Global Asset Management (Americas) Inc. ("UBS Global AM"), an indirect wholly owned asset management subsidiary of UBS AG.

On October 1, 2006, Thomas Clarkson assumed lead portfolio management responsibilities for the Fund. Mr. Clarkson has been with UBS Global Asset Management since 1991 and is Head of US Long Duration Fixed Income Investments. He is responsible for the US Long Bond desk and sets the strategy for US Bond and Core Plus accounts. Craig Ellinger, who managed the Fund through the end of its fiscal year, remains with the team and will assume global credit research management duties.

Quarterly form N-Q portfolio schedule

The Fund will file its complete schedule of portfolio holdings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") for the first and third quarters of each fiscal year on Form N-Q. The Fund's Forms N-Q are available on the SEC's Web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Fund's Forms N-Q may be reviewed and copied at the SEC's Public Reference Room in Washington, D.C. Information on the operation of the SEC's Public Reference Room may be obtained by calling 1-800-SEC 0030. Additionally, you may obtain copies of Forms N-Q from the Fund upon request by calling 1-800-647 1568.

Stock repurchase plan

On July 28, 1988, the Board of Directors of the Fund approved a resolution to repurchase up to 700,000 of its common shares. The Fund may repurchase shares, at a price not in excess of market and at a discount from net asset value, if and when such repurchases are deemed appropriate and in the shareholder's best interest. Any repurchases will be made in compliance with applicable requirements of the federal securities law.

Proxy voting policies, procedures and record

You may obtain a description of the Fund's (1) proxy voting policies, (2) proxy voting procedures and (3) information regarding how the Fund voted any proxies related to portfolio securities during the most recent 12-month period ended June 30 for which an SEC filing has been made, without charge, upon request by contacting the Fund directly at 1-800-647 1568, online on the Funds Web site: www.ubs.com/ubsglobalam-proxy, or on the Edgar Database on the SEC's Web site (<http://www.sec.gov>.)

Dividend reinvestment plan

The Fund has established a dividend reinvestment plan (the "Plan") under which all shareholders whose shares are registered in their own names, or in the name of a participating broker or its nominee, may elect to have all dividends and other distributions automatically reinvested in additional Fund shares. Shareholders who elect to hold their shares in the name of a broker or nominee should contact such broker or nominee to determine whether, or how, they may participate in the Plan. The ability of such shareholders to participate in the Plan may change if their shares are transferred into the name of another broker or nominee. More information regarding the Plan is provided below.

The Plan is applicable in each case where the Fund declares a dividend or other distribution payable in cash and simultaneously gives to its shareholders who are participants under the Plan ("Participants") the option to receive such dividend or other distribution in Fund shares.

Commencing seven trading days prior to the date of payment of such dividend or other distribution, but only if the market price plus brokerage commission at the time of purchase is lower than the net asset value as of the close of business on the eighth trading day prior to such date of payment ("Base Net Asset Value"), the agent (the "Agent"), on behalf of the Participants, will purchase shares in the open market(s) available to it. There can be no assurance that shares will be available in such open market(s) at a cost lower than Base Net Asset Value or in sufficient quantities to permit such purchases by the Agent. These purchases may be made on any securities exchange where such shares are traded, in the over-the-counter market or by negotiated transactions and may be subject to such terms of price, delivery, etc., to which the Agent may agree. If the market price for the shares is greater than the net asset value as of the close of business on the eighth trading day prior to the date of payment, then the Fund will issue shares in payment of the dividend.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

General information (unaudited)

On the date of payment of such dividend or other distribution, the Agent will elect to have the Fund pay the dividend or other distribution in cash to the extent of the cost, including brokerage commission, of the shares to be purchased by the Agent, and will elect to have the Fund pay the balance, if any, of the dividend or other distribution in shares. Such payments will be made by the Fund to Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (["Computershare"]) as administrator of the Plan for the Participants. Computershare, in turn, will immediately settle the open market purchases with the Agent. If shares are distributed in payment of a dividend or distribution because market price exceeded net asset value, a Participant will be required to include in gross income an amount equal to the greater of net asset value or 95% of fair market value (average of the high and low sales price on the date of the distribution) of the shares received by the Participant rather than the amount of such dividend. Distributions of shares will be subject to the right of the Fund to take such actions as may be deemed necessary in order to comply with or conform to the requirements of any applicable law or regulation.

The shares credited to the accounts of Participants at Computershare will be determined on the basis of the amount of dividend or distribution to which each Participant is entitled, whether shares are purchased on the open market or issued by the Fund. Each Participant will be furnished with periodic statements.

A Participant will have the right to vote the full shares credited to the Participant's account under the Plan on the record date for a vote. Proxies sent to a Participant by Computershare will include the number of full shares held for the Participant under the Plan.

The investment of dividends and distributions under the Plan does not relieve the Participant of any income tax which may be payable on such dividends or distributions. Annually, each participant will be provided with information for tax purposes with respect to the dividends and distributions on the shares held for the account of the Participant. The Fund strongly recommends that all Participants retain each year's final statement on their Plan participation as a part of their permanent tax record.

Shareholders who wish to elect to participate in the Plan should contact Computershare for further information. A Participant may terminate participation in the Plan at any time by notice in writing to Computershare. All correspondence concerning the Plan should be directed to Computershare at Computershare Dividend Reinvestment Services, P.O. Box 43081, Providence, RI 02940-3081. You may also contact Computershare directly at 1-800-446 2617. In order to be effective on the payment date of any dividend or distribution, notice of such termination must be received by Computershare before the record date for the payment of such dividend or distribution. If a notice to discontinue is received by Computershare on or after the record date for a dividend payment, such notice to discontinue may not become effective until such dividend has been reinvested and the shares purchased are credited to the Participant's account under the Plan. Computershare, in its sole discretion, may either pay such dividend in cash or reinvest it in shares on behalf of the terminating Participant. Computershare may terminate, for whatever reason at any time as it may determine in its sole discretion, an individual's participation in the Plan upon mailing a notice of termination to the Participant at the Participant's address as it appears on Computershare's records.

When an account is terminated, the Participant will receive a certificate for the number of full shares credited to the Participant's account under the Plan, unless the sale of all or part of such shares is requested. Such sale may, but need not, be made by purchase of the shares for the account of other Participants and any such transaction shall be deemed to have been made at the then current market price less any applicable brokerage commissions and any other costs of sale. The terminating Participant's fractional share interest in the Plan will be aggregated with the fractional share interests of other terminating Participants and sold. The net proceeds of such sales will be distributed to the Participants in payment for their fractional share interests.

The Fund may terminate or amend the Plan upon thirty (30) days' notice in writing to each Participant, such termination or amendment to be effective as to all dividends and distributions payable to shareholders of record on any date more than thirty (30) days after mailing of such notice.

There is no direct service charge (other than brokerage commissions) by the Agent to Participants in the Plan. All costs of the Plan, except brokerage commissions, will be paid by the Fund. However, the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan in the future to include a service charge.

Board approval of investment advisory agreement (unaudited)

At the meeting of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc. (the "Fund"), held on June 2, 2006 (the "Meeting"), the Board, consisting entirely of Directors who are not "interested persons" (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Fund or UBS Global Asset Management (Americas) Inc. (the "Advisor") and its affiliates (together, the "Independent Directors"), considered the continuation of the investment advisory agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") between the Fund and the Advisor. Prior to the Meeting, the Independent Directors' counsel had sent to the Advisor a request detailing the information that the Independent Directors wished to receive in connection with their consideration of the continuation of the Advisory Agreement. The Independent Directors met with their independent counsel, as well as independent consultants engaged by the Board to assist in the annual Advisory Agreement review process, on May 17, 2006 and June 1, 2006 to discuss the materials provided to them in response to the information request, including materials prepared by the Advisor, as well as reports prepared by Lipper Inc. ("Lipper Reports"), an independent statistical compilation company, providing comparative expense information and comparative performance for the Fund. The Board also made reference to information and material that had been provided to the Independent Directors throughout the year at quarterly Board meetings.

At the Meeting, the Board considered a number of factors in connection with their deliberations concerning the continuation of the Advisory Agreement for the Fund, including: (i) the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Advisor to the Fund; (ii) the performance of the Fund and the Advisor; (iii) the Fund's expenses, costs of the services to be provided and profits to be realized by the Advisor and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund; and (iv) whether economies of scale are realized by the Advisor with respect to the Fund, as it grows larger, and the extent to which the economies of scale are reflected in the level of the management fees charged.

Nature, extent and quality of services—In considering the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Advisor to the Fund, the Board reviewed the material presented by the Advisor describing the various services provided to the Fund. The Board noted that in addition to investment management services, the Advisor provides the Fund with operational, legal and compliance support. The Board also considered the scope and depth of the Advisor's organization and the experience and expertise of the professionals currently providing investment management and other services to the Fund. The Board considered that the Advisor was a well-established investment management organization employing investment personnel with significant experience in the investment management industry. The Board also considered the Advisor's in-house research capabilities, as well as other research services available to it, including research services available to the Advisor as a result of securities transactions effected for the Fund and the Advisor's other investment management clients, and noted that the Advisor had extensive global research capabilities. The Board also evaluated the Advisor's portfolio management process for the Fund, including the use of risk management techniques and the proprietary technologies utilized to structure the Fund's portfolio. The Board noted that various presentations had been made by investment personnel at Board meetings throughout the year concerning the Fund's investment performance and investment strategies.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Board approval of investment advisory agreement (unaudited)

The Board also discussed the annual written compliance report from the Chief Compliance Officer and noted enhancements planned with respect to the compliance program, such as an upgrade to the investment guideline monitoring system. The Board noted the growth of Fund assets across the Fund complex. The Advisor described for the Board the portfolio management and research enhancements that had been undertaken over the previous year as a result of the increase in assets across the complex. The Board also discussed with the Advisor the need to ensure that the operational infrastructure at the Advisor is maintained at a level sufficient to meet the requirements of the Fund and other funds in the Fund complex. In response to the Board's concerns, the Advisor committed to dedicating additional resources to enhance the operational infrastructure that supports the Fund. After analyzing the services provided by the Advisor to the Fund, both quantitatively and qualitatively, including the impact of these services on investment performance, and the Advisor's commitment to invest in its operational infrastructure, the Board concluded that the nature, extent, and quality of services provided to the Fund were consistent with the operational requirements of the Fund, and met the needs of the Fund's shareholders.

Performance—In evaluating the performance of the Fund, the Board analyzed the Lipper Reports, which compared the performance of the

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Board approval of investment advisory agreement (unaudited)

Fund with other funds in its respective peer universe over various time periods. In reviewing the Lipper Reports, the Board noted that the Fund's short-term performance has lagged the other funds in its peer group. The Advisor explained that many of the Fund's peers have the flexibility to invest in a wider range of investment options, including high yield, emerging market debt and non-traditional asset classes such as warrants, convertibles and restricted securities. The Advisor stated that the peer funds' more flexible investment strategies allowed the peer funds to invest in securities in which the Fund was not permitted to invest, which contributed positively to the performance of those funds in comparison to the Fund. The Advisor also stated that the Fund's more conservative investment approach also may tend to limit its yield generating capability, which is likely a significant contributor to the Fund's wider than average discount. The Advisor stated that the Fund's investment strategy, which focuses on less volatile investments, is intended to provide the Fund with stability of income. The Board discussed the Fund's portfolio holdings and determined that the Fund's holdings were consistent with the Fund's investment strategy and risk profile as communicated to shareholders. The Board noted that the Fund's performance for the five-year, ten-year and since inception periods compared favorably to the Fund's peers. After analyzing the performance for the Fund, the Board determined that the performance of the Fund was acceptable as compared with relevant performance standards, given the investment strategies and risk profile of the Fund and the expectations of the shareholder base.

Fund fees and expenses—When considering the fees and expenses borne by the Fund, and the reasonableness of the management fees paid to the Advisor in light of the services provided to the Fund, the Board compared the fees charged by the Advisor to the Fund to the fees charged to the funds in its peer group for comparable services, as provided in the Lipper Reports. In examining the Lipper Reports, and in reviewing comparative costs, it was noted that the results of such expense comparisons showed that the management fee rate and total expenses for the Fund were comparable to the funds in its Lipper expense group.

The Board also received and considered information about the fee rates charged to other funds and accounts that are managed by the Advisor. After discussing the information about the other funds and accounts with the Advisor, the Board determined that the fees charged by the Advisor to the Fund were within a reasonable range, giving effect to differences in services performed for such other funds and accounts as compared to such fee rates. The Board, after reviewing all pertinent material, concluded that the management fee payable under the Fund's Advisory Agreement was fair and reasonable, both on an absolute basis and in comparison with the fees of other funds identified in its peer group.

Fort Dearborn Income Securities, Inc.

Board approval of investment advisory agreement (unaudited)

Costs and profitability—The Board considered the costs of providing services to the Fund and the profitability of the Fund to the Advisor and its affiliates by reviewing the profitability analysis provided by the Advisor, including information about its fee revenues and expenses. The Board reviewed the profitability of the Fund to the Advisor and the compensation that was received for providing services to the Fund. The profitability analysis, which provided information for the last three calendar years, included schedules relating to the revenue and expenses attributable to the investment advisory and administration services provided by the Advisor. In reviewing the cost methodology used in the profitability analysis, the Board recognized that there are a number of reasonable allocation methodologies that may be used in a profitability analysis and determined that the consultant hired by the Board should work with management to enhance the methodology used next year. Also, in reviewing the profitability of the Fund, the Board considered the fact that the Advisor was prepared in the upcoming year to dedicate additional Advisor resources to improving the infrastructure for mutual fund operations. The Board also considered "fall-out" or ancillary benefits to the Advisor or its affiliates as the result of their relationship with the Fund; for example, the ability to attract other clients due to the Advisor's role as investment advisor to the Fund. Upon closely examining the information provided concerning the Advisor's profitability, the Board concluded that the level of profits realized by the Advisor with respect to the Fund was reasonable in relation to the nature and quality of the services that were provided.

Economies of scale—The Board also discussed whether economies of scale are realized by the Advisor with respect to the Fund as it grows larger, and the extent to which this is reflected in the level of management fees charged. The Board noted that the Fund's management fee was one of the lowest in its peer group and that the Advisor was not experiencing a significant profit with respect to the Fund. Based on this analysis, the Board concluded that economies of scale and the reflection of such

Board approval of investment advisory agreement (unaudited)

economies of scale in the level of management fees charged were inapplicable to the Fund at the present time due to the current level of fees and the profitability of the Fund and because as a closed-end fund that does not continuously offer shares, any increase in the Fund's assets will primarily result from market appreciation which will benefit the Fund's shareholders.

After full consideration of the factors discussed above, with no single factor identified as being of paramount importance, the Board, with the assistance of independent counsel, concluded that the continuation of the Advisory Agreement for the Fund was in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.

Item 6. Schedule of Investments

Included as part of the report to shareholders filed under Item 1 of this form.

Item 7. Disclosure of Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures for Closed-End Management Investment Companies.

The registrant's Board of Directors believes that the voting of proxies on securities held by the registrant is an important element of the overall investment process. As such, the Board has delegated the responsibility to vote such proxies to the registrant's advisor. Following is a summary of the proxy voting policy of the advisor.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PHILOSOPHY, VOTING GUIDELINES AND POLICY SUMMARY

The proxy voting policy of UBS Global AM is based on its belief that voting rights have economic value and must be treated accordingly. Generally, UBS Global AM expects the boards of directors of companies issuing securities held by its clients to act as stewards of the financial assets of the company, to exercise good judgment and practice diligent oversight with the management of the company. While there is no absolute set of rules that determines appropriate corporate governance under all circumstances and no set of rules will guarantee ethical behavior, there are certain benchmarks, which, if substantial progress is made toward, give evidence of good corporate governance. UBS Global AM may delegate to an independent proxy voting and research service the authority to exercise the voting rights associated with certain client holdings. Any such delegation shall be made with the direction that the votes be exercised in accordance with UBS Global AM's proxy voting policy.

When UBS Global AM's view of a company's management is favorable, UBS Global AM generally supports current management initiatives. When UBS Global AM's view is that changes to the management structure would probably increase shareholder value, UBS Global AM may not support existing management proposals. In general, UBS Global AM (1) opposes proposals which act to entrench management; (2) believes that boards should be independent of company management and composed of persons with requisite skills, knowledge and experience; (3) opposes structures which impose financial constraints on changes in control; (4) believes remuneration should be commensurate with responsibilities and performance; and (5) believes that appropriate steps should be taken to ensure the independence of auditors.

UBS Global AM has implemented procedures designed to identify whether it has a conflict of interest in voting a particular proxy proposal, which may arise as a result of its or its affiliates' client relationships, marketing efforts or banking and broker/dealer activities. To address such conflicts, UBS Global AM has imposed information barriers between it and its affiliates who conduct banking, investment banking and broker/dealer activities and has implemented procedures to prevent business, sales and marketing issues from influencing our proxy votes. Whenever UBS Global AM is aware of a conflict with respect to a particular proxy, its appropriate local corporate governance committee is required to review and agree to the manner in which such proxy is voted.

Item 8. Portfolio Managers of Closed-End Management Investment Companies.

Thomas Clarkson has primary responsibility for the day-to-day management of the registrant.

Other accounts managed. In addition to managing the registrant, the portfolio manager is also primarily responsible for the day-to-day management of the following accounts:

Portfolio Manager	Type of Account	Number of Accounts	Total Assets*
Thomas Clarkson	Registered investment Companies	0	0
	Other Pooled Vehicles	0	0
	Other Accounts	5	1,884,515

* Assets are through September 30, 2006. None of the assets in these accounts are subject to an advisory fee based on performance.

Portfolio Manager Biography

Mr. Clarkson is a senior portfolio manager in the Fixed Income Group at UBS Global AM Americas region (since 1995). Mr. Clarkson is also Head of US Long Duration for UBS Global AM Americas region (since 2003). Mr. Clarkson is a Portfolio Manager of one investment company (consisting of one portfolio) for which UBS Global AM Americas region serves as investment advisor.

The portfolio management team's management of a Fund and other accounts could result in potential conflicts of interest if the Fund and other accounts have different objectives, benchmarks and fees because the portfolio management team must allocate its time and investment expertise across multiple accounts, including the Fund. A portfolio manager and his or her team manage a Fund and other accounts utilizing a model portfolio approach that groups similar accounts within a model portfolio. The Registrant manages accounts according to the appropriate model portfolio, including where possible, those accounts that have specific investment restrictions. Accordingly, portfolio holdings, position sizes and industry and sector exposures tend to be similar across accounts, which may minimize the potential for conflicts of interest.

If a portfolio manager identifies a limited investment opportunity that may be suitable for more than one account or model portfolio, the Fund may not be able to take full advantage of that opportunity due to an allocation of filled purchase or sale orders across all eligible model portfolios and accounts. To deal with these situations, the Registrant has adopted procedures for allocating portfolio trades across multiple accounts to provide fair treatment to all accounts.

The management of personal accounts by a portfolio manager may also give rise to potential conflicts of interest. The Registrant has adopted Codes of Ethics that govern such personal trading but there is no assurance that the Codes will adequately address all such conflicts.

The compensation received by the portfolio managers at UBS Global Asset Management, including the Funds' portfolio managers, includes a base salary and incentive compensation, as detailed below. UBS Global Asset Management's compensation and benefits programs are designed to provide its investment professionals with incentives to excel, and to promote an entrepreneurial, performance-oriented culture. They also align the interests of the investment professionals with the interests of UBS Global Asset Management's clients. Overall compensation can be grouped into three categories:

- Competitive salary, benchmarked to maintain competitive compensation opportunities.
- Annual bonus, tied to individual contributions and investment performance.
- UBS equity awards, promoting company-wide success and employee retention.

Base salary is fixed compensation used to recognize the experience, skills and knowledge that the investment professionals bring to their roles. Salary levels are monitored and adjusted periodically in order to remain competitive within the investment management industry.

Annual bonuses are correlated with performance. As such, annual incentives can be highly variable, and are based on three components: 1) the firm's overall business success; 2) the performance of the respective asset class and/or investment mandate; and 3) an individual's specific contribution to the firm's results. UBS Global Asset Management strongly believes that tying bonuses to both long-term (3-year) and shorter-term (1-year) portfolio pre-tax performance closely aligns the investment professionals' interests with those of UBS Global Asset Management's clients. Each portfolio manager's bonus is based on the performance of each Fund the portfolio manager manages as compared to the Fund's broadbased index over a three-year rolling period.

UBS AG Equity. Senior investment professionals, including each portfolio manager of the Funds, may receive a portion of their annual performance-based incentive in the form of deferred or restricted UBS AG shares or employee stock options. UBS Global Asset Management believes that this reinforces the critical importance of creating long-term business value and also serves as an effective retention tool as the equity shares typically vest over a number of years. Broader equity share ownership is encouraged for all employees through Equity Plus. This long-term incentive program gives employees the opportunity to purchase UBS stock with after-tax funds from their bonus and/or salary. Two UBS stock options are given for each share acquired and held for two years. UBS Global Asset Management feels this engages its employees as partners in the firm's success, and helps to maximize its integrated business strategy.

Item 9. Purchases of Equity Securities by Closed-End Management Investment Company and Affiliated Purchasers.

There were no purchases made by or on behalf of the registrant or any affiliated purchaser, as defined in Rule 10b-18(a)(3) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, of shares of the registrant's equity securities made in the period covered by this report.

Item 10. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by Qualifying Fund Shareholders if a vacancy occurs among those board members who are not interested persons as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. A Qualifying Fund Shareholder is a shareholder that: (i) owns of record, or beneficially through a financial intermediary, $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% or more of the Fund's outstanding shares and (ii) has been a shareholder of at least $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of the Fund's total outstanding shares for 12 months or more prior to submitting the recommendation to the Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee. - (b) The registrant's principal executive officer and principal financial officer are aware of no changes in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal half-year that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
