SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Operations

The Company was organized under the laws of the State of Florida on April 26, 2002. The Company is in the development stage. The Company plans to develop a website where individuals subscribe to and interact in an online marketplace for used car parts.

Current Operations

The Company currently has no operations. Any expenses incurred by the company at this time are deemed to be immaterial and insignificant. These expenses are incurred by management without any expectation of reimbursement. When operation commence the company will be directly responsible for its operational expenses.

Basis of Accounting

The Company's policy is to prepare its financial statements using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company has retained January 31 as its annual year end.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and equivalent

Cash and cash equivalent include cash and cash in banks. The company maintains cash and cash equivalent balances at a financial institution that is insured by the federal deposit Insurance Corporations up to $100,000. At October 31, 2003, there is no concentration of credit risk form uninsured bank balances.

Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations." SFAS No. 143, which addresses accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002. We do not expect the adoption of this new standard to have a material impact on our results of operations or financial position.

In July 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, "Impairment of Disposal of Long-Lived Assets," which is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. The provisions of this statement provide a single accounting model for impairment of long-lived assets. We do not expect the adoption of this new standard to have a material impact on our results of operations or financial position.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145, "Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections," which is effective for fiscal years beginning after May 15, 2002.

This statement rescinds the indicated statements and amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings, or describe their applicability under changed conditions, SFAS No. 145 encourages early adoption of the provision of this standard that rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishments of Debt." We do not expect the adoption of these provisions to have a material impact on our results of operations or financial position.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities," which is effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002. This statement nullifies Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)." This statement requires that liabilities associated with exit or disposal activities initiated after adoption be recognized and measured at fair value when incurred as opposed to at the date an entity commits to the exit or disposal plans. We expect the adoption of this new standard to have an impact on the timing of any future restructuring charges.

INCOME TAX

In February 1992, the Financial Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Under SFAS No. 109, deferred assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences between the financial statement carrying amounts of the existing assets and their respective basis.

Deferred assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under SFAS No. 109 the effect on deferred assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the period that includes the enactment date.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Plan of Operation

We plan to develop a website where individuals subscribe to and interact in an online marketplace for used car parts. A website where buyers and sellers of used car parts can come together to purchase or sell such parts at auction pricing. Used Kar Parts, Inc. does not purchase, sell or inventory any such parts. Currently we do not have operations, website or revenue sources. We purchased the domain name for our website, which is www.UsedKarParts.com and entered in a contract with a web hosting service provider. We have developed an initial welcome home page for our visitors until an e commerce website is constructed, to introduce ourselves to potential customers until a fully operational e commerce website is constructed. An internet consultant has been hired to assist the company in the creation of its website.

We anticipate that we will meet our cash requirements for the 12 months with current cash. However, in moving forward, past our twelve-month outlook, we may depend upon capital to be derived from future financing through a subsequent offering of stock. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in raising the capital we may require.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

In the quarter ended October 31, 2003, we did not make any significant changes in, nor take any corrective actions regarding, our internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect these controls. We periodically review our internal controls for effectiveness and we plan to conduct an evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures each quarter.
