Item 4.02(a). Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements.

On March 24, 2006, the Board of Directors of China North East Petroleum Holding Limited (the Company) determined that the Company should restate its financial statements and other financial information for its fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004 (the 2003 and 2004 Financial Statements). The Company determined that it materially overstated its proved oil and gas reserves for the 2003 and 2004 fiscal years as a result of reliance on reserve estimates that did not comply with the Securities and Exchange Commission's Industry Guide 2 and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Management of the Company recently revised its estimates of proved oil and gas reserves based on the Estimated Net Reserves and Income Data Report prepared by R.A. Lenser and Associates, Inc., an energy consulting firm, for the 2003 - 2005 fiscal years. Management believes that the new reserve estimates have been prepared in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Commission's Industry Guide 2 and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Restatement of the 2003 and 2004 Financial Statements is necessary because the reserve estimates, which are outlined in detail in the Supplemental Oil and Gas Disclosures (unaudited) note to the financial statements, also resulted in inappropriate characterization of other results in the Company's balance sheets and statements of income and cash flows of and for the years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004, including, without limitation, depreciation and amortization of oil and gas properties and reserve amounts. Accordingly, the previously issued 2003 and 2004 Financial Statements should no longer be relied upon. The Company intends to file an amendment to its Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2004, in order to restate its 2003 and 2004 Financial Statements to give effect to the new reserve estimates as soon as practicable.

The Board of Directors and senior management of the Company have discussed the matters disclosed in this report with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.
