Comments from the Chief Executive Officer

During the third quarter, several of our initiatives underway began to bear fruit. As a result, the Bank's principal business and financial indicators all moved in the right direction. We were particularly encouraged by the significant amount of new business generated, as reflected in our US$2.0 billion disbursements figure, a level commensurate with historical patterns for the company. The 51% growth in commission income is also an early indicator of both the effectiveness of our marketing plan, and of a market whose fundamentals appear to be moving in our favor.

Internally, we implemented a new credit loss reserve methodology, consistent with the very best practices in our industry. In addition, we finalized and recently announced the contracting of i-flex® solutions to revamp our technology platform, an effort which will afford Bladex a cutting edge solution to support the Bank's evolving business, while improving internal efficiencies to meet the new reporting requirements coming into effect in the international capital markets.

On the business front, we were pleased to sign an exclusive agreement with Identrus® to provide our clients with a world-class digital identity solution that supports their trade, fraud prevention, and general digital credential needs.

The one recent event that we wish had turned out differently was the November 7th, Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting, called to vote on a series of changes to our Articles of Incorporation. During the meeting, a group of our Class A Government Shareholders, opposed to certain aspects of the proposal, exercised their super majority rights and, in voting against it, brought total Class A support to 57%, short of the 75% needed for approval. In practical terms, our current charter serves us well, but we remain convinced that we must continue striving to bring it up to the very best of modern standards. We will thus pursue discussions with our Class A shareholders that opposed the proposal to address their concerns, which related mostly to internal Class A matters, rather than business strategy considerations.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

The credit portfolio at September 30, 2005 stood at US$3.4 billion, the highest level in the last three and a half years. The following graph illustrates the Bank's outstanding credit portfolio for the dates indicated.

The 10% quarterly increase in the trade credit portfolio reflects higher lending activity mostly in Peru, Venezuela, and Trinidad & Tobago. The country distribution of the Bank's credit portfolio is shown in Exhibit VIII.

Credit disbursements during the third quarter of 2005 amounted to US$2.0 billion, compared to US$1.4 billion during the second quarter of 2005, and US$1.0 billion during the third quarter of 2004.

NET INTEREST INCOME AND MARGINS

The table below shows the Bank's net interest income, net interest margin (defined as net interest income divided by the average balance of interest-earning assets), and net interest spread (defined as average yield earned on interest-earning assets, less the average rate paid on interest-bearing liabilities) for the periods indicated:

3Q05 vs. 2Q05

The US$1.7 million, or 17%, increase in net interest income during the third quarter of 2005, was mainly the result of the increase in the Bank's loan and investment portfolio and of higher net interest margins.

The main factors driving the increase in net interest spread and net interest margin were higher lending spreads over LIBOR on the loan portfolio, and a positive effect on the interest rate gap position of the Bank, as market rates increased. The net interest margin also benefited from the increased return on the Bank's available capital, resulting from higher interest rates.

9M05 vs. 9M04

The decreases in net interest income, net interest margin, and net interest spread during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2005, compared to the previous year, was mainly due to lower interest collections on the Bank's non-accruing assets, resulting mostly from principal reductions on the Argentine loan portfolio. In the case of the net interest income and the net interest margin, this effect was partially offset by higher returns on the Bank's available capital, resulting from higher interest rates.

COMMISSION INCOME

The following table shows the components of commission income for the periods indicated:

(In US$ thousands)

	9M04	9M05	3Q04	1Q05	2Q05	3Q05
Letters of credit	$3,147	$2,220	$1,116	$650	$571	$999

Commission Income, net	$4,726	$4,157	$1,569	$1,587	$1,024	$1,546

Commission income, net, for the third quarter of 2005 increased US$522 thousand, or 51%, compared to the second quarter of 2005, mostly due to increased average volumes of Letters of Credit (62% growth) and, to a lesser extent, in loan commitments.

Compared to the same period of 2004, commission income, net, during the first nine months of 2005, decreased by US$569 thousand, or 12%, mostly due to lower pricing in the Letter of Credit business.

REVERSAL OF PROVISION FOR CREDIT LOSSES

Total Reversal of provision for credit losses after effect of a change in the credit loss reserve methodology	$62.5	$33.6	$23.7	$12.9	$8.1	$12.5

During the quarter, Bladex implemented a new methodology for estimating generic allowances for credit losses. The Bank believes that its new methodology represents a significant improvement in the determination of an adequate level of allowances for credit losses, as the new methodology incorporates eight years of statistical data on Bladex's historical portfolio performance in the calculation of Expected Loss and Loss Given Default ratios. This new approach replaces the use of general probability of default information from rating agencies in the former model.

The new methodology also establishes guidelines for the application of management's qualitative judgment to complement the statistical estimate of losses. These guidelines take into consideration the potential impact of portfolio concentrations, the absence of a lender of last resort in a dollarized economy such as Panama, model imprecisions, and external macroeconomic factors.

The US$12.5 million reversal of provisions for credit losses for the third quarter of 2005 was mainly the net result of:

- i. US$29.1 million reversal of specific provisions assigned to restructured credits in Argentina and Brazil, resulting from principal payments and pre-payments on these credits;
- ii. US$9.3 million net increases in generic provisions as a result of increased credit exposures;
- iii. US$2.4 million recoveries, mostly from previously charged-off loans; and a
- iv. US$9.6 million incremental charge due to the change in credit loss reserve methodology.

The US$33.6 reversal of provisions for credit losses for the first nine months of 2005, was mainly the net result of:

- i. US$63.9 million reversal of specific provisions assigned to restructured credits in Argentina and Brazil resulting from principal payments and pre-payments on these credits;
- ii. US$18.7 million net increase in generic provisions as a result of increased credit exposures;
- iii. US$2.5 million recoveries, mostly from previously charged-off loans; and a
- iv. US$13.9 million incremental charge due to the change in credit loss reserve methodology, of which a charge of US$16.7 million corresponds to 2005, and a provision reversal of US$2.7 million to the cumulative effect on prior periods (January 1, 2001 to December 31, 2004).

The following table sets forth the allowance for credit losses for the periods indicated:

(In US$ million)

	For the nine months ended
	30-SEP-04	30-SEP-05
Allowance for credit losses
At beginning of period	$258.3	$139.5
Reversals charged to expense	(62.5)	(33.6)
Credit recoveries ⁽¹⁾	5.9	2.5
Credits written-off against the allowance	(1.6)	(5.1)
Balance at end of period	$200.0	$103.3

⁽¹⁾ During the nine months of 2004 consisted solely of Argentine loan recoveries. In the nine months of 2005, the amount is mostly related to a loan recovery from a Mexican corporation, which was charged-off in the year 2000.

RECOVERY OF IMPAIRMENT LOSS ON SECURITIES

In the third quarter of 2005, the Bank recovered US$0.1 million in impairment losses on securities, as a result of a recovery of an Argentine investment security, which had been charged-off in the first quarter of 2005. During the first nine months of 2005, the Bank recovered US$10.2 million in impairment losses on securities, mainly as a result of payments and pre-payments of obligations from Argentine clients.

OPERATING EXPENSES

The following table shows a breakdown of the components of operating expenses for the periods indicated:

(In US$ thousands)

	9M04	9M05	3Q04	1Q05	2Q05	3Q05
Salaries and other employee expenses	$7,252	$8,971	$2,382	$3,096	$2,728	$3,148

Total Operating Expenses	$15,208	$17,283	$4,792	$5,633	$5,616	$6,034

3Q05 vs. 2Q05

Operating expenses increased US$0.4 million, or 7%, on a quarter-to-quarter basis, mainly as a result of increased personnel expenses in the sale force, and outlays related to marketing.

9M05 vs. 9M04

During the first nine months of 2005 operating expenses increased US$2.1 million or 14%, compared to the same period of 2004, mainly due to increased expenses, primarily associated with the strengthening of the Bank's commercial team, and consulting fees related to new product development.

CREDIT PORTFOLIO

The geographic composition of the Bank's credit portfolio (excluding the non-accruing portfolio and investment securities) by client type and transaction type for the dates indicated, was as follows:

	Brazil	Mexico	Caribbean and Central America	Other South America	Total 30-SEP-05	Total 30-JUN-05	Total 30-SEP-04
Client type
Financial Entities	72%	11%	68%	79%	72%	81%	82%
Non-Financial Entities	28%	89%	32%	21%	28%	19%	18%
Transaction type
Trade	86%	28%	80%	79%	82%	84%	85%
Non-Trade	14%	72%	20%	21%	18%	16%	15%

As of September 30, 2005, 78% of the Bank's outstanding credit portfolio (excluding the non-accruing credits and investment securities), was scheduled to mature within one year, compared to 81% as of June 30, 2005, and compared to 85% as of September 30, 2004.

During the third quarter of 2005, the Argentine non-accruing credit portfolio decreased by US$35 million, or 45%, to US$44 million. This reduction was primarily the net result of principal payments and pre-payments on loans and contingencies. Net of reserves, the Argentine non-accruing credit portfolio amounted to US$20 million at September 30, 2005, compared to US$30 million at June 30, 2005, and to US$178 million at September 30, 2004. During the quarter, the Bank extended US$27 million in new credits to Argentina.

As of September 30, 2005, the Bank's non-accruing credit portfolio amounted to US$69 million, or 2.0% of the total credit portfolio. Of these, US$44 million were in Argentina and US$25 million in Brazil. Past due loans amounted to US$4 million, reflecting a loan to a Brazilian financial institution on non-accrual status.

The geographic distribution of the Bank's credit portfolio at September 30, 2005 was as follows:

Brazilian Exposure

At September 30, 2005, the Bank's credit portfolio in Brazil amounted to US$1.5 billion, representing an increase of US$213 million, or 16%, compared to June 30, 2005.

At September 30, 2005, the Bank's non-accruing credit portfolio in the country amounted to US$25 million, compared to US$36 million at June 30, 2005, and US$43 million at September 30, 2004. Of the US$25 million total, US$21 million was related to a restructured loan, which is current in interest and principal payments. The US$4 million balance represents a past due loan to a financial institution.

At September 30, 2005, the allowance for credit losses allocated to Brazil totaled US$28 million, including a US$9 million specific allowance assigned to the non-accruing loans in the country.

PERFORMANCE AND CAPITAL RATIOS

The following table sets forth the return on average stockholders' equity and the return on average assets for the periods indicated:

	9M04	9M05	3Q04	1Q05	2Q05	3Q05
ROE (return on average stockholders' equity) ⁽¹⁾	19.1%	13.6%	21.2%	18.4%	9.0%	13.0%
ROA (return on average assets) ⁽¹⁾	4.8%	3.3%	5.8%	4.6%	2.2%	3.0%

⁽¹⁾ New credit loss reserve methodology is applied retroactively to January 1, 2005.

Although the Bank is not subject to the capital adequacy requirements of the Federal Reserve Board, if the Federal Reserve Board risk-based capital adequacy requirements were applied, the Bank's Tier 1 and Total Capital Ratios at the dates indicated would be as follows:

	30-SEP-04	30-MAR-05	30-JUN-05	30-SEP-05
Tier 1 Capital Ratio	43.9%	41.6%	46.5%	38.2%
Total Capital Ratio	45.1%	42.9%	47.7%	39.4%

The lower Tier 1 capital ratio was mainly driven by the growth of the credit portfolio, the payment of quarterly dividends, US$8 million in share repurchases under the Bank's previously authorized stock buyback program, and the effect of the new credit loss reserve methodology.

At September 30, 2005, the total number of common shares outstanding was 38.1 million, compared to 38.6 million at June 30, 2005, and compared to 39.1 million at September 30, 2004. The decrease in the number of common shares outstanding was the result of the open market share repurchase program for a total of US$50 million approved by the Board of Directors on August 5, 2004, of which the Bank has executed 43%, or US$21 million, as of September 30, 2005.

Overall, Class A votes in favor of the proposal totaled 57%, short of the 75% super-majority required for approval under the terms of the Bank's Articles of Incorporation.
