GOL ranked Most Competitive Airline in Latin America

So Paulo, May 15, 2006 GOL Linhas Areas Inteligentes (Bovespa: GOLL4 and NYSE: GOL), Brazil's low-cost, low-fare airline, was named the most competitive airline of Latin America, according to rankings disclosed by America Economia Magazine. In the general ranking, GOL ranked fourth out of all 100 companies included in the listing, which included several industries.

To elaborate the ranking, it was calculated each company's three past year average Return on Assets (ROA). The result of each Company was compared with the average ROA of its respective industry. GOL ranked first in the airline industry, as its average ROA grew to 19.6%; the industry recorded a drop in ROA of 0.6%.

This recognition confirms the continued success of our business model. Our focus on maintaining low costs, offering affordable fares and popularizing air transportation throughout South America have allowed us to become a highly competitive global company, says Constantino de Oliveira Junior, President of GOL Linhas Areas Inteligentes.
