GOL Recognized as Global High Performer Forbes Magazine

Sao Paulo, April 2, 2007 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-cost, low-fare airline, was ranked on Forbes Magazine's annual list of the largest 2000 global companies. The magazine also named GOL one of five Global High Performers in the Transportation industry. Global High Performers are an elite list of fast-growing big companies that set the pace for their respective industries.

The Forbes Global 2000 is the publication's list of the world's largest companies based on a composite ranking of sales, profits, assets and market value. Companies on the list must be based in the U.S. or a foreign firm trading here, either as regular shares or as American Depositary Receipts. Forbes requires companies to have at least $1 billion in sales and a share price of at least $5. Relevant companies are then compared against industry peers in long- and short-term return on equity, sales growth, profit growth, return to shareholders and other financial metrics.

GOL is excited to be included on this year's Global 2000 list and is pleased that our low-cost, low-fare business model was recognized as one of the best in the world, says Constantino de Oliveira Junior, GOL's President and CEO. GOL is committed to providing safe, high quality service to customers across Brazil and South America.
