Formation tests prove the potential of Iara

Rio de Janeiro, December 8, 2009 PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, announces the completion of the formation tests for well 1-BRSA-618-RJS (1-RJS-656), located in the area informally called Iara, in the block BM-S-11.

The tests proved the area's exploratory potential through of the production of light oil, of approximately 28° API, and allowed the estimated recoverable volume for the Iara area to be maintained between 3 to 4 billion barrels of oil and natural gas, as announced after the drilling that was completed in September 2008.

The well tested happen at of 2,230 meters water depth, at nearly 230 km off the coast of the State of Rio de Janeiro (figure below). Due to the need to relocate the drilling rig, it was not possible to fully complete the test, and another well is expected to be drilled in the area during 2010.

The Consortium, formed by Petrobras (65% - Operator), BG Group (25%), and Galp (10%) will carry on with the exploratory activities and make the investments required to assess the field, pursuant to the Evaluation Plan approved by the ANP.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
