CSN issues US$1 billion in perpetual bonds

Companhia Siderúrgica Nacional (CSN) announces that it priced today an issuance, through its wholly-owned subsidiary CSN Islands XII Corp., of perpetual bonds totaling US$1 billion (Bonds), at a rate of 7.00 % p.a., according to the U.S. Rule 144A and Regulation S of the United States of America. The Bonds will be guaranteed by CSN and funds raised with the issuance will be used to redeem the perpetual bonds issued in 2005, through its wholly-owned subsidiary CSN Islands X Corp., also guaranteed by CSN, at a rate of 9.50% p.a. and principal amount of US$750 million, as well as to general corporate purposes.

Bonds were not and will not be registered according to the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and cannot be offered or sold in the United States of America. Therefore, bonds will not be registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any other capital-market regulatory agency or body in any other country; and thus, bonds cannot be offered or sold in the U.S. without an applicable registration exemption. Once the bonds will not be offered or placed in Brazil, they will also not be registered with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM). This notice does not constitute an offer for the sale or bid for any securities.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
