Notice to the Market

Banco Bradesco S.A. (“Bradesco” or “Company”) recognizes the statement issued by Brazil’s Antitrust Authority (CADE) regarding alleged anti-competitive practices in the national foreign exchange market which states that there is an ongoing investigation into the Brazilian operations of former HSBC, acquired by Bradesco on July 1, 2016, in addition to other financial institutions.

Bradesco emphasizes that:

- the conduct under investigation took place when these operations belonged to the HSBC Group; and
- it does not expect to incur in costs arising from the alleged conduct given the guarantees obtained from the seller (HSBC Group) and, therefore, the fact should have no financial impact on the Company.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
