4. Describe the main characteristics of derivative instruments the Company may use, where applicable;

The Company may use derivative instruments to acquire term shares on the stock market, which terms and conditions shall be determined on an individual basis, according to the legal limits.

5. Describe, where applicable, eventual deals or orientations for existing vote between the Company and its counterpart in the operations;

Non-applicable. The acquisition of shares will happen by means of stock market operations, and therefore, will not have any existing vote orientations between the Company and its counterparts in the operation.

6. In the chance of operations happened outside securities' markets, inform:

Non-applicable, because the operations will happen on the stock market.

a. the maximum (minimum) price by which the shares will be acquired (alienated); and

b. where appropriate, the reasons that justify the operation at prices over 10% (ten percent) higher, in the case of acquisition, or over 10% (ten percent) inferior, in the case of alienation, at stock price average, weighted average volume, in the last 10 (ten) trading sessions;

7. Inform, where applicable, the impacts the negotiation will have on the shareholding control composition or the society's administrative structure;

There won't be any impact on the shareholding control composition or the Company's administrative structure in the view of the implementation of the Share Buyback Program.

8. Identify the counterparts, if known, and, regarding any party related to the Company, as defined by accounting rules that regulate this matter, provide the informations required by Article 8 of CVM Instruction No. 481, of December 17, 2009;

Non-applicable. The shares' acquisition will happen by means of stock market operations, and therefore, the counterparts will not be acknowledged.

9. Indicate the destination of accrued resources, if applicable;

The decision to cancel or alienate shares acquired in the context of the Share Buyback Program and held in treasury will take place in due time and will be properly communicated to the market.

10. Indicate the maximum period to liquidate the authorized operations;

The maximum period to acquire Company's shares regarding the Share Buyback Program will be of 12 (twelve) months, beginning on October 1st, 2018 and ending on October 1st, 2019, being the Management responsible for defining the dates which the buyback will be effectively executed.

11. Identify the institutions to act as mediators, if applicable;

13. Specify the reasons why the Board members feel comfortable that the Share Buyback will not harm the fulfillment of obligations with creditors nor the payment of obligatory dividends, fixed or minimum.

The Board members feel comfortable that the Company's Share Buyback will not harm the fulfillment of obligations with creditors nor the payment of obligatory dividends.

Appendix II

Tomás Awad + Eric Alencar

Votes and justifications:

I. Election of Chairman of the Board of Directors:

- Mu Hak
- Vote: abstention

II. Removal of the Board of Executive Officers:

- CEO – Sandro Gamba – vote for
- CFO + Gerson (administrative officer) – vote against

Justification: We are carrying out several changes in relevant positions at the same time. Current CFO is fully qualified to perform his position and losing this communication with financial market may result in adverse impacts on the company's funding capacity. The administrative officer is also qualified, he plays an essential role in the elaboration of financial statements. The Company may face adversities in reporting its financial statements in the short term, especially as it is also trades ADRs on the New York Exchange.

III. Election of new CEO (Ana Recart) and Administrative Officer (Karen Sanchez Guimarães):

- Vote against

IV. Waiver of Board Members' compensation:

- Vote: abstention

V. Change of headquarters:

- Favorable vote to leave current headquarters

- Vote against move to the city of São Caetano do Sul

Justification: The Company does not have relevant business volume in the city of São Caetano do Sul. Most suppliers, partners, and customers are based in the city of São Paulo. A change of address to the city of São Caetano do Sul should result in losing qualified labor, which may cause material business discontinuance. We will lose the more qualified professionals. We should move to the regions of Berrini, Paulista or Vila Olímpia in São Paulo.

VI. Shutdown of Rio de Janeiro branch:

- Vote: Abstention

VII. Buyback approval:

- Vote: Against

Justification: The Board of Directors does not have information to make such a decision. We do not have future cash flow projections. The Company's cash burn totals approximately R$50 million up to date, with high leverage of 82% of net debt to Shareholders' Equity. This decision may jeopardize the Company's liquidity, especially in such momentum of several changes in management, and in the communication with lenders.
