Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 23, 2006, Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (the "Company") entered in to an unsecured Multicurrency Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with Fifth Third Bank, as Administrative Agent and Letter of Credit Issuer and 16 other financial institutions jointly led by Fifth Third Bank and Bank of America Corporation. The Credit Agreement provides for a $500 million revolving credit facility (which includes sublimits for swingline loans up to $10 million and standby letters of credit up to $50 million) with no scheduled maturities other than the five-year term of the Credit Agreement. Borrowings under the Credit Agreement bear interest at a floating rate based upon the prime rate or the LIBOR rate plus a margin. Proceeds from the Credit Agreement will be used to refinance existing indebtedness and to finance general working capital needs, including the funding of acquisitions. The Company has the ability to request an increase in available borrowings under the Credit Agreement by an additional amount of up to $100 million by obtaining the agreement of existing lenders to increase their lending commitments or by adding additional lenders.

Certain of the Company's material subsidiaries have guaranteed the obligations of the Company under the Credit Agreement, and the Company has pledged 65% of the stock of one of subsidiaries (Cleveland-Cliffs International Holding Company) as collateral for its obligations under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement replaces the Company's existing $350 million Multicurrency Credit Agreement ("$350 Million Credit Agreement") dated March 28, 2005 between the Company, Fifth Third Bank, Fleet National Bank, a Bank of America company, as Syndication Agent, and other lenders party thereto, which was scheduled to expire March 2007.

The Credit Agreement contains customary representations and warranties and affirmative and negative covenants including, among others, covenants regarding the maintenance of certain financial ratios, covenants relating to financial reporting, compliance with laws, transactions with affiliates, limitations on liens, mergers and sales of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, limitations on accounting changes, and limitations on changes in the nature of the Company's business.

The Credit Agreement provides for customary events of default, including, among other things, the event of nonpayment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts, a representation or warranty proving to have been incorrect when made or confirmed, failure to perform or observe covenants within a specified period of time, a cross-default to other Company indebtedness of a specified amount, the bankruptcy or insolvency of the Company, monetary judgment defaults of a specified amount, actual or asserted invalidity of any loan documentation, a change of control of the Company, and ERISA defaults resulting in liability of a specified amount. In the event of a default by the Company (beyond any applicable grace or cure period), the requisite number of Lenders (or the Administrative Agent at their request) may declare all amounts owing under the Credit Agreement immediately due and payable, terminate the Lenders' commitments to make loans under the Credit Agreement and/or exercise any and all remedies and other rights under the Credit Agreement. For certain defaults related to insolvency and receivership, the commitments of the Lenders will be automatically terminated and all outstanding loans and other amounts will become immediately due and payable.

Certain of the lenders and other parties under the Credit Agreement were lenders, agents and parties under the $350 Million Credit Agreement, and they and their respective affiliates have performed, and may in the future perform, various commercial banking, investment banking and other financial advisory services for the Company and its subsidiaries for which they have received, and will receive, customary fees and expenses.

The Credit Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 4(a). The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As discussed above under Item 1.01, the Company's existing $350 Million Credit Agreement was replaced by the Credit Agreement.
