Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 25, 2008, Corinthian Colleges, Inc. (the "Company") received notification that the United States Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit has unanimously affirmed the dismissal by the United States District Court of a consolidated class action lawsuit captioned Metzler Investment GMBH and Conway Investment Club, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v. Corinthian Colleges, Inc., David Moore, Anthony Digiovanni, and Dennis Beal. This case consolidated several federal putative securities class actions originally filed against the Company and three of its officers between July 8, 2004 and August 31, 2004 in which purchasers of the Company's common stock alleged that the defendants made material misrepresentations and failed to disclose certain material facts about the condition of the Company's business and prospects in violation of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company has stated its belief that the plaintiffs' claims in this case were without merit and the Company has defended itself and its officers vigorously against these allegations.

The United States District Court originally granted the Company's motion to dismiss the plaintiff's third consolidated amended complaint with prejudice on April 24, 2006. Following the Ninth Circuit's unanimous affirmance of the dismissal, plaintiffs may seek a rehearing from the panel, an en banc review by the Ninth Circuit, or review by the United States Supreme Court through a petition for writ of certiorari.
