Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On July 9, 2010, First BanCorp. (the "Corporation") received notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") that the Corporation was not in compliance with the minimum price per share continued listing requirement set forth in Section 802.01C of the NYSE Listed Company Manual (the "Notice"). The Notice indicates that the Corporation is not in compliance with such continued listing requirement because, as of July 6, 2010, the average closing price of the Corporation's common stock was less than $1.00 over the consecutive 30 trading-day period immediately prior to the Notice.

The Corporation must respond in writing to the NYSE within 10 business days of receipt of the Notice to affirm its intent to cure this deficiency within six months following the date of the Notice by bringing the common stock share price and average share price for 30 consecutive trading days above $1.00. During this six-month period, the Corporation's common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE, subject to the Corporation's continued compliance with other NYSE listing standards. The Corporation will inform the NYSE in writing of its intent to seek to cure the deficiency. If, after expiration of the six-month period, both a $1.00 share price and a $1.00 average closing price over the preceding 30 trading-day period are not attained, the NYSE will commence suspension and delisting procedures.

A copy of the Corporation's press release announcing the foregoing is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
