Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 31, 2010, Mr. Peter F. Volanakis retired as President and Chief Operating Officer of Corning Incorporated (the "Company"), following 28 years of distinguished service. As previously announced, Mr. Volanakis had retired from the Board of Directors and Finance and Executive Committees on December 1, 2010. Please refer to the Company's Forms 8-K filed on July 30, 2010 and December 1, 2010.

As a result of Mr. Volanakis' retirement as President, the Company's Board of Directors elected Wendell P. Weeks as President effective December 31, 2010. Mr. Weeks will retain his role as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Weeks, 51, joined Corning in 1983 and was named a vice president and deputy general manager of the Telecommunications Products division in 1995; vice president and general manager in 1996; senior vice president in 1997; senior vice president of Opto-Electronics in 1998; executive vice president in 1999; president, Corning Optical Communications in 2001; president and chief operating officer of Corning in 2002; and president and chief executive officer in 2005. Mr. Weeks became chairman and chief executive officer on April 26, 2007. He is a director of Merck & Co. Inc. and has been a Company Director since 2000.

There was no amendment to any material plan, contract, or arrangement in connection with Mr. Weeks assuming his additional role as President. Mr. Weeks has had no direct or indirect material interest in any reportable related party transaction with the Company.

On December 31, 2010, Mr. Carlos M. Gutierrez resigned from the Corning Board of Directors, its Finance Committee, and its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee due to taking a new position with Citigroup. He had been a Company Director since 2009.

On January 3, 2011, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors met and approved a two-year retention compensation arrangement for Mr. James B. Flaws, Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. That arrangement is designed to encourage Mr. Flaws' continued employment at the Company beyond his expected retirement date, and to allow for staggered executive successions. As a retention incentive, Mr. Flaws will be eligible to receive a cash payment of $1,500,000 on April 1 in each of 2012 and 2013, so long as he remains an officer of the Company as of each such date. Additionally, the Compensation Committee approved Mr. Flaws continuing to receive certain services and benefits upon his retirement, including home security, and computer/information technology support.
