BlackRock Global Equity Income Trust, BlackRock World Investment Trust and BlackRock Global Opportunities Equity Trust Announce Shareholder Approval of Two Closed-End Fund Mergers

New York, June 30, 2009 – BlackRock Advisors, LLC today announced that shareholders of BlackRock Global Equity Income Trust (NYSE:BFD), BlackRock World Investment Trust (NYSE:BWC) and BlackRock Global Opportunities Equity Trust (NYSE:BOE) have approved the reorganizations of each of BFD and BWC into BOE at a special meeting held today.

It is currently expected that the reorganizations will be concluded on or about July 24, 2009, subject to all regulatory requirements and customary closing conditions being satisfied. In connection with the reorganizations, BOE will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of BFD and BWC in a tax-free transaction for common shares of BOE. Each reorganization will occur based on the relative net asset values of BOE, BFD and BWC.

This communication is not intended to, and shall not, constitute an offer to purchase or sell shares of any of the BlackRock funds, including BOE, the surviving fund in the reorganizations. Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of their fund(s) carefully and consider in its entirety the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus relating to the reorganizations which contains important information regarding the investment objectives and policies, risks, charges, expenses and other important information about BOE.

BOE's investment objective is primarily to seek current income and current gains, with a secondary objective of long-term capital appreciation. BOE primarily invests in equity securities and utilizes an option writing strategy to enhance current gains.
