§5. Business Review and Prospects and Management's Discussion and Analysis

5.1 Business Review

The first half of 2012 witnessed an economic slow-down in the United States, the debt crisis and consequent recession in Europe, and slower growth in China and other emerging markets. The Chinese government focused on progress in stability, and took a series of measures to maintain stable growth. China's GDP grew by 7.8% over the same period last year, with 8.1% growth in the first quarter and 7.6% in the second quarter. Given the geo-political uncertainty and the weakening demand due to the global economic slow-down, the international price of crude oil rose and then dropped in the first half of 2012. Brent spot price soared to US$128 per barrel in the first quarter and dropped to US$100 per barrel in the second quarter, averaging at US$113.34 per barrel in the first half, a year-on-year increase of 1.96%. The domestic market for refined oil products was well supplied, and the government made four adjustments in product prices in line with international crude price development, keeping tight price regulation. The chemicals market saw intense competition, leading to a drastic drop in product prices. According to the Company's statistics for the first half of the year, domestic apparent consumption of oil products (including gasoline, diesel and kerosene) increased by 3.0%, and consumption of ethylene equivalents increased by 4.0%.

5.1.1 Production and Operations

(1) Exploration and Production Segment

In oil exploration, we made discoveries in a number of territories, including the Tahe oil field in the Tarim Basin, the southern Ordos Basin, the western and northern rims of the Junngar Basin, and the Jiyang depression of the Shengli oil field. In gas exploration, we made new discoveries in the middle and shallow strata of the western Sichuan Basin, the deep strata of the Yuanba area in northeastern Sichuan, and the northern Ordos Basin. In oil field development and production, we achieved sustained oil production growth as a result of the advances in tapping mature oil fields' potentials, ramping up in key tight oil reservoirs and improving oil recovery rate. In gas field development, our key projects were well under way. We put into operation the Dawan block of the Puguang Gas Field, achieved good progress in the Yuanba Gas Field, and progressed smoothly in middle and shallow strata of the western Sichuan Basin and the Ordos Basin, as momentum continued well on track. The Company produced 163.09 million barrels of crude oil in the first half of 2012, a year-on-year increase of 4.3%. Domestic oil production increased by 1.2% year-on-year and overseas production increased significantly compared with the same period last year due to the overhaul of offshore production facilities in 2011. Natural gas output grew to 289.78 billion cubic feet, representing an increase of 14.1%.

Note 2: For production of natural gas, 1cubic meter=35.31 cubic feet.

(2) Refining Segment

In spite of the tight price regulation on domestic refined oil products and the misalignment with the international crude price in the first half of 2012, we optimized the procurement, transportation and allocation of crude oil to reduce costs, and maintained steady and safe operations of refining facilities. We adjusted the refining throughput and utilization rate in accordance with market changes. We optimized product slate and increased the output of high-spec gasoline. We implemented plans to revamp and expand our refineries in an effort to upgrade the quality of oil products and supply cleaner products. Refinery throughput was 110 million tonnes in the first half of the year, representing a year-on-year increase of 1.1%. Light yield increased by 0.94 percentage point compared with the same period of 2011.

(3) Marketing and Distribution Segment

In the first half of 2012, Sinopec Corp. adjusted operation strategies to actively respond to the changes in the market demand. In the first quarter, the Company increased the proportion of retail volume to achieve higher profitability. In the second quarter, in spite of continued drop in international oil price and weakening market demand, the Company intensified marketing activities and controlled the inventory level effectively. The Company strengthened quality management for outsourced oil products. We provided value-added services including e-commerce and promoted non-fuel businesses. In the first half, the total sales volume of oil products increased to 82.67 million tonnes, up by 2.8% year-on-year.

(4) Chemicals Segment

In the first half of 2012, the Company lowered the plant loads for ethylene and synthetic resin according to supply and demand. We took advantage of production synergies and optimised supply-chain management, leveraging lighter hydrocarbon feedstock and increasing resource efficiency. We produced marketable and high value-added products, accelerated research and development on new products and performance compounds for synthetic resin. As a result, synthetic resin new products and performance compounds reached 52.0%, differentiated fiber reached 67.5% of total produced. We developed a strong customer base by improving service quality. Production of ethylene was 4.81 million tonnes in the first half of 2012, down by 4.1% year on year, and the total sales of chemical products were 26.15 million tonnes, up by 4.2% year on year.

5.1.2 Cost Cutting

To deliver the total cost management target, the Company vigorously reduced non-productive expenditure and kept costs and expenses within our budget in the first half of 2012. The Company strengthened its process management in crude sourcing and logistics, and achieved a better control of crude cost. On finance management, the Company reduced financing cost by strengthening fund operations and broadening fund-raising channels. The Company reduced procurement cost through centralised procurement and storage management.

5.1.3 Safety, Energy Conservation and Emission Reduction

The Company implemented the accountability system and strengthened assessment and supervision on HSE management to ensure safe and stable operation of the facilities in the first half of 2012. The Company has taken green and low-carbon initiatives, advanced technology innovation and energy performance contracts, and focused on energy-saving and environmental protection in the course of energy development, processing and utilization. To well implement corporate social responsibility, the Board of Directors set up the CSR Management Committee to monitor the Company's CSR performance in HSE, green and low-carbon development. In the first half of 2012, the Company's energy intensity dropped by 2.0%, COD in waste water discharge shrank by 4.1% and sulfur dioxide discharge fell by 3.3%.

The change was mainly due to the increase in both the sales volume and the prices of crude oil and natural gas over the same period in 2011.

Petroleum products (mainly consisting of refined oil products and other refined petroleum products) sold by the refining segment and the marketing and distribution segment achieved an external sales revenue of RMB 797.6 billion, representing an increase of 6.9% over the same period of 2011 and accounting for 59.2% of the Company's turnover and other operating revenues. The increase was mainly due to higher prices and sales volume of refined oil products. Sales revenue of other petroleum products was RMB 166.2 billion, representing an increase of 1.7% compared with the first half of 2011, accounting for 20.8% of the sales revenue of petroleum products.

The Company's external sales revenue of chemical products was RMB 173.6 billion, representing a decrease of 5.1% over the same period of 2011, accounting for 12.9% of its turnover and other operating revenues. The decrease was mainly due to the price plunge of chemical products with the average prices of the six major categories of chemical products dropping by RMB 772 per tonne or 9.0% year on year.

Sales revenue of Corporate and Others reached RMB330.9 billion, representing 24.5% of the Company's total turnover and other operating income, up by 24.2% year on year. This was mainly due to the expanded crude and refined of export and import businesses.

5.6.2 Operating expenses

In the first half of 2012, the Company's operating expenses were RMB 1,308.0 billion, representing an increase of 11.3% over the first half of 2011. The operating expenses mainly consisted of the following:

Crude oil procurement, products and operating supplies and expenses were RMB 1,119.3 billion in the first half of 2012, representing an increase of 12.1% over the same period of 2011, accounting for 85.6% of the total operating expenses, of which:

- Procurement cost of crude oil was RMB 458.8 billion, representing an increase of 13.0% over the same period of 2011. Total processed volume of crude oil purchased externally in the first half of 2012 was 84.78 million tonnes (excluding the volume processed for third parties), increased by 2.8% over the first half of 2011. The average unit processing cost of crude oil purchased externally was RMB 5,412 per tonne, increased by 9.9% over the first half of 2011.
- Export and import expenses of crude oil, refined products and other products totaled RMB 328.5 billion, 24.1% more than that of the same period last year. In the first half of 2012, the Company's crude trade volume rose by 23.7% year on year to reach 53.42 million tons while refined products trade volume was down by 22.5% year on year to stand at 3.9 million tons.
- Other procurement cost was RMB332 billion, up by 1.1% year on year, mainly due to the price and volume surge of other raw materials.

Selling, general and administrative expenses of the Company totaled RMB 28.6 billion, representing an increase of 9.0% over the first half of 2011. This was mainly due to the increase in the sales expenses such as freight and miscellaneous costs which was related to the expanded sales volume as well as an increase in the expenses for labor and safety input.

Depreciation, depletion and amortization expenses of the Company were RMB 34.5 billion, representing an increase of 13.2% compared with the first half of 2011. This was mainly due to newly accrued depreciation as a result of continuous investment in fixed assets in recent years.

Exploration expenses in the first half of 2012 were RMB 6.9 billion, representing an increase of 21.8% compared with the same period in 2011. This was mainly because the Company made intensified efforts in the exploration in areas including the Ordos Basin, the Sichuan Basin and the Junggar Basin, etc. as well as in the exploration for unconventional oil and gas.

Personnel expenses were RMB 24.0 billion, accounting for 1.8% of the total operating expenses and representing an increase of RMB 3.4 billion. Excluding the effect of adjusting salary-based insurance and payment, and more employment caused by business growth, the personnel expenses increased by 5.86% year on year. This was mainly an outcome of the pay raise for the front-line employees in the second half of 2011.

Taxes other than income tax totaled RMB 95.3 billion, representing an increase of 2.1% compared with the first half of 2011. It was mainly due to an increase in the consumption tax as a result of expanded product sales volume and the price-based resource tax which increased compared with the same period in 2011.

5.6.3 Operating profit

In the first half of 2012, the Company's operating profit was RMB 40.1 billion, representing a decrease of 31.4% over the same period in 2011. This was mainly due to the aggravated refining loss amid the substantial growth of crude oil cost compared with the regulated prices of gasoline and diesel. In addition, the Company's chemical segment swung to a half-year loss amid the slumping prices of chemical products.

5.6.4 Net finance costs

In the first half of 2012, the Company's net finance costs were RMB 5.0 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 52.5%, mainly attributed to the increased net interest expenses as a result of less profit, higher debt and bigger amount of capital employed. In addition, the exchange rate changes in the first half of 2012 reduced the net exchange gains in the Company's US dollar denominated debts.

5.6.5 Profit before tax

In the first half of 2012, the Company's profit before taxation amounted to RMB 35.4 billion, representing a decrease of 38.9% compared with the same period of 2011.

5.6.6 Income tax expense

In the first half of 2012, the income tax expense of the Company totaled RMB 9.6 billion, decreasing by 30.4% over the same period of 2011, mainly due to the Company's lower profit for the period.

5.6.7 Profit attributable to non-controlling interests

In the first half of 2012, profit attributable to non-controlling shareholders was RMB 1.3 billion, representing a decrease of 57.1% over the same period of 2011.

5.6.8 Profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company

In the first half of 2012, profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company was RMB 24.5 billion, representing a decrease of 40.5% over the same period of 2011.

as RMB 11,289.38 million. As at 30 June 2012, the total cumulative use of proceeds in this project were RMB 11,400 million, which were consistent with the original total promised proceeds. The company has withdrawn RMB 110.62 million from this project and deposited into fundraising special account on 7 August 2012, consequently the actual total cumulative use of proceeds in this project were RMB 11,289.38 million, which were consistent with the adjusted total promised proceeds.

Note 3: The Company's committed financial benefits are expected after-tax financial internal rate of return. The useful life of Yulin-Jinan gas pipeline project is 20 years. This committed project has been put into operation since the first half of 2012, and the operating period is too short to determine whether this committed project achieved the estimated after-tax financial internal rate of return as committed for the entire operating period of the project. The net cash flow realised during current period satisfied the estimated net cash flow in the project budget.

Note 4: The Company's committed financial benefits are expected after-tax internal rate of return. The useful life of Rizhao-Yizheng crude oil pipeline and supporting project is 20 years. This committed project has been put into operation at the end of 2011, and the operating period is too short to determine whether this committed project achieved the estimated after-tax financial internal rate of return as committed for the entire operating period of the project. The net cash flow realised during current period did not satisfy the estimated net cash flow in the project budget.

5.9 Business prospects and operating plan for the second half year

Looking into the second half of the year, the Chinese government is expected to implement a number of fiscal and monetary policies in pursuit of steady economic growth, driving infrastructure investment and domestic consumer spending. Given these macro-control policies to be in place in the second half of 2012, we expect the domestic demand for refined oil products and chemicals will steadily increase, which provides favorable conditions for the Company to scale up business operations.

In line with the macro economic forecast in the second half of 2012, we will step up market development effort, vigorously optimise operations, and strengthen HSE, so as to deliver sustained growth.

In exploration, the Company will focus on reserve and volume growth, advancing exploration in key areas, tracking the evaluation on risk well drilling, ramping up production in key areas and significant natural gas projects, strengthening the development, management and enhanced oil recovery in mature oil fields. The Company will step up efforts in exploration and development of unconventional resources, building production capacity in Fuling continental shale gas project, preparing for the coal-bed-methane production in the southern part of Yanchuan through various pilot well development programs. In the second half of 2012, the Company plans to produce 163.75 million barrels of crude oil (including 154.61 million barrels of domestic production and 9.14 million barrels of overseas production), and 293.07 billion cubic feet of natural gas.

In refining, we will optimise crude sourcing and allocation, increase resource efficiency, and rationalise refinery utilisation. The Company will take into consideration a balanced production and sales of light chemical feedstock, the regional oil products consumption and profitability, and optimise product slate to produce high-spec gasoline. The oil products inventory will be controlled at a rational level to reduce operating cost. The Company will leverage the synergy of centralised sales of lubricant, asphalt and petroleum coke to maximise profitability. For the second half of 2012, the Company plans to process 112 million tonnes of crude oil.

In marketing and distribution, we will leverage the advantage of the distribution network and the value of our brand awareness, making appropriate adjustments to the marketing strategies, expanding marketing activities, extending the sales network, and sharpening competitiveness. In the meantime, the Company will continuously develop non-fuel business, expanding a CNG market and developing e-commerce business to tap new sources of growth. In the second half 2012, the Company plans to sell 80 million tonnes of oil products.

In chemicals, we will respond rapidly to home and overseas market dynamics and adjust the utilisation rate of chemical facilities. The Company will strengthen plant-site management to continuously increase its techno-economic index, optimising feedstock and product mix, maximising the output of marketable and high value-added products. Sinopec will balance marketing with production in line with the market volatility, taking product inventory under control to sell all that is produced. The Company will improve service mechanism for better customer satisfaction. In the second half 2012, the Company expects to produce 4.63 million tonnes of ethylene.

The Company will stick to the objective of building a world-class energy and chemical company and continue to implement the resource strategy, market strategy, integration strategy, international strategy, differentiation strategy and green and low-carbon growth strategy, optimising marketing strategies according to the economic situation at home and abroad, focusing on work safety and cost efficiency to meet all of its targets.

The amendments to the current Article 175 and Article 179 reflect the requirements regarding the articles of association of the domestically listed companies contained in the Notice issued by CSRC. As the shares of Sinopec Corp. are also listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange and regulated by CSRC, Sinopec Corp. should also fulfill the requirements contained in the Notice.

Specifically, the Notice requires the listed companies to amend their articles of association, specifying dividends distribution policy and procedures, especially the distribution of dividends in cash. The Amendments are based on the regulatory requirements with reference to the amendment recommendations contained in the "Notice Regarding Further Improvement of Cash Dividends Distribution of Listed Companies" (Jing Zheng Gong Si Fa [2012] No.101) issued by CSRC Beijing Bureau and the practices of both domestically and overseas listed companies, and Sinopec Corp. also pays due consideration to the investor returns in combination with the actual situation of Sinopec Corp. As such, Sinopec Corp. proposes to add terms in respect of the principle of dividends distribution by Sinopec Corp. (sub-paragraph (1) and (2) of the amended Article 179), a term in respect of the conditions and percentage requirements for the distribution of dividends in cash (sub-paragraph (3) of the amended Article 179), a term in respect of the adjustment of profits distribution policy (sub-paragraph (4) of the amended Article 179), a term in respect of the procedures to approve the profits distribution plan (sub-paragraph (5) of the amended Article 179).

To avoid duplication, it is proposed to delete sub-paragraph (5) of the current Article 175, which will be contained in sub-paragraph (1) of the amended Article 179.

The Amendments will be beneficial in terms of enhancing the transparency of dividends distribution in cash by Sinopec Corp. and offering a steady expectation of return to the investors.

4. GENERAL

The proposed amendments to the Articles of Association are subject to the approval of the shareholders of Sinopec Corp. by way of special resolution at the first extraordinary general meeting for the year 2012 (the "EGM").

If China Petrochemical Corporation proposes to sell to a third party a property which has been leased to the Company, Sinopec Corp. shall have a pre-emptive right to purchase such property under the same terms.

As at the date of this announcement, none of the above annual caps had been exceeded.

3. ESTIMATED CAP AMOUNTS OF THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Sinopec Corp. estimates the annual caps for the applicable Continuing Connection Transactions for the years from 2013 to 2015 to be as follows:

Major Continuing Connected Transactions

- (1) Annual revenues under the Mutual Supply Agreement: The products and services sold by the Company to the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement principally consist of raw materials and petrochemical products such as crude oil, natural gas, refined oil products and petrochemical products. Over the past three years, international prices of raw materials such as crude oil have experienced significant fluctuation. The Brent crude oil price increased from approximately US$ 83.9 per barrel three years ago to the highest of approximately US$ 126.7 per barrel as of the date 8 April 2011.

The annual revenues received by the Company in respect of products and services provided to the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement from 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012, were RMB 49.621 billion, RMB 61.268 billion, RMB 83.081 billion and RMB53.529 billion, respectively.

Taking into account the historical figures for the past three years, the estimated growth of commercial oil reserve and material uncertainties such as possible price fluctuation in raw materials and products such as crude oil, natural gas, refined oil products and petrochemical products in the next three years, and in view of the revenues which will be generated by the Company through the provision of products and services to the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement, Sinopec Corp. is of the view that flexibility should be built into the caps for such transactions. The proposed caps for the transactions regarding the provision of products and services by Sinopec Corp. under the Mutual Supply Agreement are as follows:

- 2013 — RMB 165.8 billion
- 2014 — RMB 172.4 billion
- 2015 — RMB 179.2 billion

(2) Annual expenditures of the Company under the Mutual Supply Agreement: The product and services bought by the Company from the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement principally consist of raw materials, certain ancillary raw materials and services required by the major operating business of Sinopec Corp.

The annual expenditures in respect of products and services bought by the Company from the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement from 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012, were RMB 96.179 billion, RMB 95.318 billion, RMB 134.547 billion, and RMB 61.296 billion, respectively.

Taking into account the historical figures for the past three years and material uncertainties such as possible price fluctuation in raw materials, possible increase of equity production oil and increase of the petroleum, refinery and public projects construction services, etc. provided by the Sinopec Group in the next three years, and in view of the necessity of purchasing products and services from the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement for the Company's continued operation, Sinopec Corp. is of the view that flexibility should be built into the caps for such transactions. The proposed caps for the purchase of products and services by Sinopec Corp. under the Mutual Supply Agreement are as follows:

- 2013 — RMB 216.6 billion
- 2014 — RMB 227.9 billion
- 2015 — RMB 257.2 billion

(3) The total amount of deposits (including accrued interests) under the Mutual Supply Agreement: The maximum daily amount of deposits (including accrued interests) of the Company with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions (i.e., Sinopec Finance and Sinopec Century Bright) under the Mutual Supply Agreement from 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012 were RMB 11.6 billion, RMB 27.1 billion, RMB 41.6 billion and RMB 30.3 billion, respectively.

Sinopec Corp. is of the view that the Sinopec Group's financial institutions can generally offer Sinopec Corp. more favourable terms and interest rates as compared to other financial institutions or banks. Under normal circumstances, the financial institutions offer higher deposit rates and lower lending rates than commercial banks. As such, Sinopec Corp. is of the view that provided that the potential risks associated can be contained, depositing with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions on a continuing basis will bring commercial advantages and better returns to Sinopec Corp. and its Shareholders as a whole.

Deposit amounts with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions may occasionally vary significantly due to the Company's operation demands. For instance, the Company may incur high cash deposit with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions but low cash payments during public holidays in the PRC. Historically, the Company set caps over the aggregate of the average month-end balance of deposits (including accrued interests) which reflected the usual operation demands over the year. However, in order to strengthen monitoring continuing connected transactions, Sinopec Corp.

will set caps over the maximum daily amount of deposits (including accrued interests) for the following years in future. Taking into account the historical figures, the future business development and the indebtedness of Sinopec Corp., the estimated cash flow situation of Sinopec Corp. in the future development, the expected increase operation scale and cash flow, increase in numbers of service stations and average throughput per station, expected increase in oil price and general increase in oil products supplied by the Company, which cause daily cash and deposit balance in the future, the proposed caps regarding the maximum daily amount of deposits (including accrued interests) with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions under the Mutual Supply Agreement are as follows:

- 2013 — RMB 38 billion
- 2014 — RMB 38 billion
- 2015 — RMB 38 billion

Non-Major Continuing Connected Transactions

(4) Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement: during 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012, the rent payable under the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement (and its amendment memos) was RMB 4.225 billion, RMB 6.731 billion, RMB 6.725 billion and RMB 3.384 billion, respectively. According to the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement, China Petrochemical Corporation and Sinopec Corp. may agree to adjust the rent every three years.

Taking into account the significant increase in the domestic land rent in the recent years and the possible payment of additional rent as a result of potential business expansion, Sinopec Corp. estimates that the total annual rent payable under the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement (including the rent previously included under the Land Use Rights Leasing (Addition) Agreement), and in respect of the land leased by the Sinopec Group to the Company, will be RMB 10.8 billion for each year from 2013 to 2015. The revised rent has been considered by a PRC qualified property valuer to be lower than the current market value.

- (5) Cultural, Educational, Hygiene and Community Services Agreement: The annual fees paid under the Cultural, Educational, Hygiene and Community Services Agreement from 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012, were RMB 3.329 billion, RMB 3.693 billion, RMB3.856 billion, and RMB 2.063 billion, respectively. Taking into account the historical figures and the extra needs of cultural, education, hygiene and community services derived from the increase in raw materials and labour costs in future, Sinopec Corp. proposes that the annual caps for the Cultural, Educational, Hygiene and Community Services Agreement from 2013 to 2015 shall be adjusted to RMB 6.8 billion.
- (6) SPI Fund Document: The premium paid under the SPI Fund Document from 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012 were RMB1.612 billion, RMB1.783 billion, RMB1.966 billion and RMB1.072 billion, respectively. Due to the Company's continuous business development, acquisition of the Sinopec Group's assets and the increase in the investment in fixed assets and inventories, the relevant insured amount increased. With the said increase of the insured amount and taking into account the historical figures, it is proposed that the annual cap for the SPI Fund Document from 2013 to 2015 shall be adjusted to RMB3.3 billion.
- (7) Properties Leasing Agreement: The rent paid under the Properties Leasing Agreement from 2009 to 2011 and the six months ended 30 June 2012, were RMB 419 million, RMB 350 million, RMB 377 million and RMB 213 million, respectively. Taking into account the historical figures, the properties leasing rentals increase in the recent years and the potential rental increase in the PRC real estate market in future, and in view of the necessity of the properties leasing from the Sinopec Group under the Properties Leasing Agreement for the Company's continued operation, Sinopec Corp. proposes to maintain an annual cap of RMB 730 million for the rent payable under the Properties Leasing Agreement from 2013 to 2015.

Exempted Continuing Connected Transactions

- (8) Intellectual Property Licence Agreements: Based on the historical figures, Sinopec Corp. estimates that the annual fee payable by the Company to the Sinopec Group under the Intellectual Property License Agreements will be less than 0.1% of each of the percentage ratios (other than the profit ratio). As such, the relevant transactions will be exempt from reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements pursuant to the exemption for de minimis transactions under rule 14A.33 of the HK Listing Rules.

4. THE HK LISTING RULES AND THE SH LISTING RULES REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to the HK Listing rules and the SH Listing Rules, China Petrochemical Corporation, holding approximately 75.79% of the total issued share capital of Sinopec Corp., and its associates constitute connected persons of Sinopec Corp. As such, the continuing transactions between the Company and the Sinopec Group constitute continuing connected transactions of Sinopec Corp. under Chapter 14A of the HK Listing Rules. Sinopec Corp. shall comply with the reporting, announcement and Independent Shareholders' approval (if necessary) requirements in respect of such continuing connected transactions.

Pursuant to Rule 14A.34 of the HK Listing Rules, the proposed annual caps of each of the transactions under 3(4) to (7) above (i.e. the Non-Major Continuing Connected Transactions) are less than 5% of the percentage ratios (other than the profit ratio), but more than 0.1%. Such transactions are therefore subject to the reporting, announcement but exempted from independent shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14A of the HK Listing Rules.

Pursuant to Rule 14A.35 of the HK Listing Rules, the proposed annual caps of each of the transactions under 3(1) to (3) above (i.e. Major Continuing Connected Transactions) exceed 5% of the percentage ratios (other than the profit ratio). Such transactions are therefore subject to the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14A of the HK Listing Rules.

The transactions under 3(1) to (7) (and the relevant proposed caps) above will be subject to the announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements in accordance with Chapter 10 of the SH Listing Rules.

5. REASONS FOR THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

The Sinopec Group operated with the Company as an integrated organization prior to the reorganization of China Petrochemical Corporation and the establishment of Sinopec Corp., and a number of internal transactions were conducted every year. After the reorganization and the listing of the shares of Sinopec Corp. on both the Stock Exchange and the Shanghai Stock Exchange, a number of transactions conducted or to be conducted between the Company and China Petrochemical Corporation and/or its associates have constituted continuing connected transactions under the HK Listing Rules and the SH Listing Rules.

The Continuing Connected Transactions of the Company are conducted in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Company. Such transactions will continue to be conducted on an arm's length basis and on terms that are fair and reasonable to the Company. Owing to the long-term co-operation relationship among the Company, the Sinopec Group and the companies jointly held by the Company and the Sinopec Group and the advantages, good reputation and gigantic scale of the Sinopec Group in various aspects, the Board is of the opinion that the entering into such transactions on an continuing basis is essential to the continuation of Sinopec Corp.'s business and will be beneficial to the Company as the Continuing Connected Transactions facilitate and will facilitate the business operation and growth of the Company and reduce the unnecessary risks which might incur during the course of operation.

6. APPROVAL BY THE BOARD AND INDEPENDENT SHAREHOLDERS

The Board (including the independent non-executive Directors) considers that the terms of each of the Continuing Connected Transactions (and the relevant proposed caps) are based on normal commercial terms, are fair and reasonable to its Independent Shareholders and are in the interests of Sinopec Corp. and the shareholders as a whole.

On 24 August 2012, the second meeting of the fifth session of the Board was convened by way of a video conference, at which the non-connected Directors approved the resolution on Renewal of Major Continuing Connected Transactions (and the relevant proposed caps), and the Non-Major Continuing Connected Transactions (and the relevant proposed caps). Each of Fu Chengyu, Wang Tianpu, Zhang Yaocang, Cao Yaofeng, Li Chunguang and Liu Yun abstained from voting due to their position as connected Directors. Save as disclosed above, none of the Directors has any material interest in the transactions abovementioned.

According to the requirements of the HK Listing Rules, an Independent Board Committee has been formed and will advise the Independent Shareholders in respect of, among other things, the fairness and the reasonableness of the Renewal of Major Continuing Connected Transactions (and the relevant proposed caps), and whether such transactions are in the interests of Sinopec Corp. and its Shareholders as a whole. Furthermore, the Independent Board Committee will advise Shareholders on how to vote, taking into account the recommendations of the Independent Financial Adviser.
