Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 11, 2018, Dunkin' Brands Group, Inc. (the "Company") announced the retirement of Nigel Travis as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the appointment of David Hoffmann, currently President, Dunkin' Donuts U.S., to the additional role of Chief Executive Officer of the Company, each effective July 11, 2018.

Additionally, the Company announced that Mr. Travis has been named Executive Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"). In his new role, Mr. Travis will remain actively involved with the Company, with a particular focus on the continued development of the Company's international businesses.

Mr. Hoffmann, 50, joined the Company as President of Dunkin' Donuts U.S. in October 2016. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Hoffmann worked for McDonald's Corporation for 22 years, where he most recently served as President, High Growth Markets, an area that included China, Russia, South Korea, and several European markets and before that served as President for Asia Pacific, Middle East & Africa.

On July 10, 2018, the Board also elected Mr. Hoffmann as a member of the Board, effective July 11, 2018. The Board increased the size of the Board from nine to ten members and appointed Mr. Hoffmann to fill the vacancy. Mr. Hoffmann will serve as a Class I director, which class will stand for re-election at the 2021 annual meeting of stockholders. Mr. Hoffmann will not receive additional compensation for his role as a director.

Compensation for Mr. Hoffmann

In connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Hoffmann with a term through July 11, 2021. Under this agreement, Mr. Hoffmann will receive an annual base salary of $900,000, payable in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices.

Mr. Hoffmann will continue to participate in the Company's annual management incentive plan (the "Annual Plan"). Under the Annual Plan, Mr. Hoffmann is eligible to receive an annual target cash incentive opportunity equal to 125% of his annual base salary.

In connection with his promotion, Mr. Hoffmann received an award of restricted stock units with a grant date fair value equal to approximately $1,500,000. The restricted stock units will vest in three annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the grant, generally subject to Mr. Hoffmann's continued employment. Mr. Hoffmann will remain eligible for future awards under the Company's annual long-term incentive award program in effect for other senior executives of the Company and will be eligible to receive an equity award grant for calendar year 2019 under such program with an expected approximate grant date fair value of $3,500,000, subject to the approval of the Board and Compensation Committee of the Board.

Mr. Hoffmann will also be entitled to benefits as are generally made available to other senior executives of the Company, including participation in health/medical and insurance programs.

In the event that Mr. Hoffmann's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or he resigns for good reason, each as defined in his employment agreement, he will be entitled to severance equal to 18 months of his then current base salary, as well as payment of an amount equal to 100% of his target bonus under the Annual Plan for the year in which such termination or resignation occurred, payable in the form of salary continuation in accordance with the terms of his agreement. The agreement also includes customary confidentiality and non-competition provisions.
