NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements of Littelfuse, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “company”) have been prepared in accordance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) for interim financial information, the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulations S-X. Accordingly, certain information and disclosures normally included in the consolidated balance sheet, statements of net income and comprehensive income and cash flows prepared in conformity with U.S. GAAP have been condensed or omitted as permitted by such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the period ended June 28, 2014 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 27, 2014. For further information, refer to the company’s consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto incorporated by reference in the company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2013. The company evaluated subsequent events through the date of its financial statements when filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”).

2. Acquisition of Businesses

The company accounts for acquisitions using the purchase method in accordance with ASC 805, “Business Combinations.” The results of operations of each acquisition have been included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements as of the dates of the acquisition.

SymCom, Inc.

On January 3, 2014, the company acquired 100% of SymCom, Inc. (“SymCom”) for $52.8 million net of cash acquired. Headquartered in Rapid City, South Dakota, SymCom provides overload relays and pump controllers primarily to the industrial market. The acquisition allows the company to strengthen its position in the relay products market by adding new products and new customers within its Electrical business unit segment. SymCom is based in Rapid City, South Dakota. The company funded the acquisition with available cash and proceeds from credit facilities.

The following table sets forth the preliminary purchase price allocation for SymCom acquisition-date net assets, in accordance with the purchase method of accounting with adjustments to record the acquired net assets at their estimated fair values. The company expects to finalize the purchase price allocation for SymCom in the third quarter of 2014 as certain areas remain to be finalized; however, the adjustments are not anticipated to be significant.

SymCom preliminary purchase price
allocation (in thousands):

Cash	$325
Current assets, net	9,479
Property, plant and equipment	11,193
Goodwill	14,738
Trademarks	17,020
Patents	1,500
Other non-current assets	20
Current liabilities	(1,182)
	$53,093

All SymCom goodwill and other assets and liabilities were recorded in the Electrical business unit segment and reflected in the Americas geographical area. The trademarks are being amortized over 15 to 20 years. The patents are being amortized over 16 to 17 years. The goodwill resulting from this acquisition consists largely of the company's expected future product sales and synergies from combining SymCom's products with the company's existing electrical product offerings. Goodwill for the above acquisition is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

As required by purchase accounting rules, the company initially recorded a $2.6 million step-up of inventory to its fair value as of the acquisition date based on the preliminary valuation. During the first quarter of 2014, as a portion of this inventory was sold, cost of goods sold included a $1.4 million non-cash charge for this step-up.

During the second quarter of 2014, the inventory step-up valuation was finalized at $2.8 million which resulted in an additional $1.4 million non-cash charge to cost of goods sold for the second quarter of 2014.

Pro forma financial information is not presented for the SymCom acquisition due to amounts not being materially different than actual results.

Hamlin, Inc.

On May 31, 2013, the company acquired 100% of Hamlin, Inc. (“Hamlin”) from Key Safety Systems, for $144.4 million (net of cash acquired). Hamlin is a manufacturer of sensor technology providing standard products and custom solutions for leading global manufacturers in the automotive and electronic industries. The acquisition allows the company to expand its automotive and electronics product offerings in the global sensor market in both the Automotive and Electronics business segments. Hamlin is headquartered in Lake Mills, Wisconsin and has manufacturing, engineering and sales offices in the U.S., Mexico, Europe and Asia. The company funded the acquisition with available cash raised from borrowings on the company’s new credit arrangement. (See Note 6).

The following table sets forth the final purchase price allocation, as of May 31, 2014, for Hamlin acquisition-date net assets, in accordance with the purchase method of accounting with adjustments to record the acquired net assets at their estimated fair values.

Hamlin final purchase price allocation (in thousands):

Cash	$15,984
Current assets, net	27,811
Property, plant and equipment	24,728
Goodwill	51,218
Distribution network	35,327
Patents and licenses	16,276
Trademarks	6,522
Non-current assets	2,452

Current liabilities	(7,734)
Non-current liabilities	(12,217)
	$160,367

All Hamlin goodwill and other assets and liabilities were recorded in the Automotive and Electronics business unit segments and reflected in the Americas, Europe and Asia-Pacific geographical areas. The distribution network, trademarks and patents and licenses are all being amortized over 10 years. The goodwill resulting from this acquisition consists largely of the company's expected future product sales and synergies from combining Hamlin's products with the company's existing product offerings. A portion of the goodwill for the acquisition is not expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

As required by purchase accounting rules, the company recorded a $2.1 million step-up of inventory to its fair value as of the acquisition date. During the second quarter of 2013, as a portion of this inventory was sold, cost of goods sold included $1.7 million of non-cash charges for this step-up.

The following unaudited pro forma results are provided below for the company's acquisition of Hamlin and assume that the acquisition of Hamlin had been completed as of the beginning of fiscal year 2012.

	(In thousands except for per share amounts)

For the three three months ended June 28, 2014, Hamlin added approximately $14.7 million in revenue and $0.9 million net income to the company's consolidated results. For the six months ended June 28, 2014, Hamlin added approximately $36.5 million in revenue and $1.2 million net income to the company's consolidated results.

3. Inventories

The components of inventories at June 28, 2014 and December 28, 2013 are as follows (in thousands):

June 28, 2014	December 28, 2013
------------------------------	----------------------

Raw material	$28,609	$ 28,228
Work in process	18,449	17,576
Finished goods	49,616	46,787
Total inventories	$96,674	$ 92,591

4. Other Investments

The company's other investments represent shares of Polytronics Technology Corporation Ltd. ("Polytronics"), a Taiwanese company. The Polytronics investment was acquired as part of the Heinrich Companies acquisition in 2004. The fair value of the Polytronics investment was €11.6 million (approximately $15.8 million) at June 28, 2014 and €9.0 million (approximately $12.3 million) at December 28, 2013. Included in 2014 other comprehensive income is an unrealized gain of $2.3 million, due to the increase in fair market value of the Polytronics investment. The remaining movement was due to the impact of changes in exchange rates.

5. Impairment of Investment in Unconsolidated Affiliate

During the first quarter of 2013, the company fully impaired its investment in and loan receivable from Shocking Technologies, Inc. owing to their filing for Chapter 7 bankruptcy on March 12, 2013. The impairment charge of approximately $10.7 million consisted of the remaining equity method investment of $8.7 million and a $2.0 million loan receivable, and reduced the carrying value of both the investment and loan receivable to zero at March 30, 2013.

The loss was recorded as a component of impairment and equity loss of unconsolidated affiliate in the Consolidated Statements of Net Income for the six months ended June 29, 2013.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)6. Debt

The carrying amounts of long-term debt at June 28, 2014 and December 28, 2013 are as follows (in thousands):

	June 28, 2014	December 28, 2013
Term loan	$96,250	$98,750
Revolving credit facility	199,000	121,000
Total debt	295,250	219,750
Less: Current maturities	204,000	126,000
Total long-term debt	$91,250	$93,750

On May 31, 2013, the company entered into a new credit agreement with J.P Morgan Securities LLC for up to $325.0 million which consisted of an unsecured revolving credit facility of $225.0 million and an unsecured term loan of $100.0 million. The new credit agreement is for a five year period. On January 30, 2014, the company increased the unsecured revolving credit facility entered into on May 31, 2013, by $50.0 million thereby increasing the total revolver borrowing capacity from $225.0 million to $275.0 million. The company incurred debt issuance costs of $0.1 million which will be amortized over the life of the existing credit agreement. As of June 28, 2014, the company had available $75.4 million of borrowing capacity under the revolving credit agreement at an interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.250% (1.4% as of June 28, 2014). At June 28, 2014, the company was in compliance with all covenants under the revolving credit facility.

7. Fair Value of Assets and Liabilities

In determining fair value, the company uses various valuation approaches within the fair value measurement framework. Fair value measurements are determined based on the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

Applicable accounting literature establishes a hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Applicable accounting literature defines levels within the hierarchy based on the reliability of inputs as follows:

Level 1—Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets;

Level 2—Valuations based on quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities or identical assets or liabilities in less active markets, such as dealer or broker markets; and

Level 3—Valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable, such as pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques not based on market, exchange, dealer or broker-traded transactions.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for instruments measured at fair value and their classification in the valuation hierarchy.

Investment in Polytronics

The company holds an investment in the equity securities of Polytronics as described in Note 4. Equity securities listed on a national market or exchange are valued at the last sales price. Such securities are classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy.

There were no changes during the six months ended June 28, 2014 to the company's valuation techniques used to measure asset and liability fair values on a recurring basis. As of June 28, 2014 and December 28, 2013 the company held no non-financial assets or liabilities that are required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

The company's other financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable and debt. The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable and debt approximate their fair values. The company's debt fair value approximates book value at June 28, 2014 and December 28, 2013, respectively, as the variable interest rates fluctuate along with market interest rates.

8. Earnings Per Share

In 2013, the company calculated its earnings per share using the two-class method which included an earnings allocation formula that determined earnings per share for each class of common stock according to dividends declared and undistributed earnings for the period. Previously, the company's reported net earnings were reduced by the amount allocated to participating securities to arrive at the earnings allocated to common stock shareholders for purposes of calculating earnings per share under the two-class method. As of January, 2014, the company no longer has "participating securities" as defined under ASC 260. As such, the company now calculates its earnings per share using the treasury method. All of the previous participating securities that resulted in the company using the two-class method have become fully vested or have otherwise expired.

Under the previous two-class method calculation, the dilutive effect of participating securities was calculated using the more dilutive of the treasury stock or the two-class method. The company previously determined the two-class method to be the more dilutive. As such, the earnings allocated to common stock shareholders in the basic earnings per share calculation was adjusted for the reallocation of undistributed earnings to participating securities to arrive at the earnings allocated to common stock shareholders for calculating the diluted earnings per share.

9. Income Taxes

The effective tax rate for the second quarter of 2014 was 22.1% compared to an effective tax rate of 24.7% in the second quarter of 2013. The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 28, 2014 was 23.6% as compared to an effective tax rate of 28.5% for the six months ended June 29, 2013. The effective tax rates for both the second quarter and six month periods of 2014 and 2013 are lower than the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to the result of more income earned in low tax jurisdictions.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)10. Pensions

The components of net periodic benefit cost for the three and six and months ended June 28, 2014, compared with the three and six months ended June 29, 2013, were (in thousands):

	U.S. Pension Benefits				Foreign Plans
	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended		Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 28, 2014	June 29, 2013	June 28, 2014	June 29, 2013	June 28, 2014	June 29, 2013	June 28, 2014	June 29, 2013

Net periodic benefit (credit) cost	$(153)	$(63)	$(306)	$(126)	$377	$408	$754	$811

The expected rate of return assumption on domestic pension assets is approximately 6.75% in 2014 and 2013. The expected return on foreign pension assets is approximately 5.14% and 3.00% in 2014 and 2013, respectively.

As described in Note 13, on July 31, 2014, the company terminated the Littelfuse, Inc. Retirement Plan (the "Pension Plan", a plan that was previously offered to all full-time Company employees but frozen as to new participants and benefit accruals as of April 1, 2009).

11. Business Unit Segment Information

The company and its subsidiaries design, manufacture and sell circuit protection devices throughout the world. The company reports its operations by the following business unit segments: Electronics, Automotive, and Electrical. Each operating segment is directly responsible for sales, marketing and research and development. Manufacturing, purchasing, logistics, customer service, finance, information technology and human resources are shared functions that are allocated back to the three operating segments. The CEO allocates resources to and assesses the performance of each operating segment using information about its revenue and operating income (loss) before interest and taxes, but does not evaluate the operating segments using discrete balance sheet information.

Sales, marketing and research and development expenses are charged directly into each operating segment. All other functions are shared by the operating segments and expenses for these shared functions are allocated to the operating segments and included in the operating results reported below. The company does not report inter-segment revenue because the operating segments do not record it. The company does not allocate interest and other income, interest expense, or taxes to operating segments. Although the CEO uses operating income (loss) to evaluate the segments, operating costs included in one segment may benefit other segments. Except as discussed above, the accounting policies for segment reporting are the same as for the company as a whole.

An operating segment is defined as a component of an enterprise that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, and about which separate financial information is regularly evaluated by the Chief Operating Decision Maker (“CODM”) in deciding how to allocate resources. The CODM is the company’s President and Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”).

(b) Balances are net of tax of $0 and $0 for 2014 and 2013, respectively.

13. Subsequent Events

On July 31, 2014, the company terminated the Pension Plan. Distribution of plan assets resulting from the Pension Plan termination will not be made until the Internal Revenue Service and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation determine that the termination satisfies applicable regulatory requirements. As a result of the termination of the Pension Plan, each participant will become fully vested in his or her benefits under the Pension Plan without regard to age and years of service. All participants will have a choice of receiving a lump sum payment or an annuity in full payment of their benefits accrued under the Pension Plan.

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Littelfuse Overview

Littelfuse, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “company” or “Littelfuse”) is the worldwide leader in circuit protection offering the industry’s broadest and deepest portfolio of circuit protection products and solutions. The company’s devices protect products in virtually every market that uses electrical energy, from consumer electronics to automobiles to industrial equipment. The company’s worldwide revenue in 2013 was $757.9 million and net earnings were $88.8 million. The company conducts its business through three reportable segments, which are defined by markets and consist of Electronics, Automotive, and Electrical. The company’s customer base includes original equipment manufacturers, tier one automotive suppliers and distributors.

In addition to protecting and growing its core circuit protection business, Littelfuse has been investing in power control and sensing technologies. These newer platforms combined with the company’s strong balance sheet and operating cash flow, provide opportunities for increased organic and acquisition growth. The company has set a target to grow 15% per year, 5% organically and 10% through acquisitions.

To maximize shareholder value, the company’s primary strategic goals are to:

- Grow organically faster than its markets;
- Double the pace of acquisitions;
- Sustain high-teens operating margins;
- Improve return on investment; and
- Return excess cash to shareholders.

The company serves markets that are directly impacted by global economic trends with significant exposures to the consumer electronics, automotive, industrial and mining end markets. The company’s results will be impacted positively or negatively by changes in these end markets.

Electronics Segment

The Electronics segment sells passive and semiconductor components and modules primarily into the global consumer electronics, general industrial and telecommunications markets. The core electronics markets are characterized by significant Asia competition and price erosion. As a result the company is focusing additional efforts on higher growth, less price sensitive niche markets and higher-power industrial applications. The Hamlin acquisition in 2013 expands the company’s product offering into reed switches which are used in a wide variety of electronic products and go through the same channels as the company’s core electronics products.

Automotive Segment

The Automotive segment is comprised of passenger vehicle circuit protection, commercial vehicle products and sensors. The primary growth drivers for these businesses are increasing global demand for passenger and commercial vehicles and increasing content per vehicle for both circuit protection and sensing products. The move away from internal combustion engines to hybrid and electric drive systems that require more circuit protection is expected to be an additional growth driver. The Hamlin acquisition in 2013 significantly expands the company's position in automotive sensors.

Electrical Segment

The Electrical segment derives its revenues from power fuses, protection relays and custom products selling primarily into the industrial, mining, solar and oil and gas markets. Custom products sales, after several years of strong growth, have declined due to several large Canadian potash mining projects nearing completion. The company intends to expand this business by moving into new markets such as non-potash mining and oil and gas. Protection relay sales have also slowed due to the general slowdown in the global mining market.

The following table is a summary of the company's net sales by business unit and geography:

Results of Operations – Second Quarter, 2014 compared to 2013

The following table summarizes the company's consolidated results of operations for the periods presented. The results include incremental activity from the company's business acquisitions as described, where applicable, in the below analysis. There was an additional $1.4 million accounting adjustment (expense) during the second quarter of 2014 ($2.8 million year-to-date) for the write-off of stepped-up inventory valuation related to the SymCom acquisition as described in Note 2. The company also incurred $2.0 million of severance charges resulting from restructuring at the Hamlin-Mexico plant as well as $2.4 million ($2.1 million year-to-date) of foreign exchange losses during the second quarter of 2014 due primarily to balance sheet revaluation in the Philippines.

(In thousands, unaudited)	Second Quarter			Year-to-Date

Net income	$24,578	$26,648	(8	%)	$49,967	$38,136	31	%

Net sales increased $33.1 million or 18% to $220.9 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $187.8 million in the second quarter of 2013 due primarily to an incremental $19.9 million from business acquisitions and strong organic growth in automotive and electronics, partially offset by lower electrical sales. The company also experienced $2.3 million in favorable foreign currency effects in the second quarter of 2014 as compared to the second quarter of 2013. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, net sales increased $10.9 million or 6% year-over-year.

Electronics sales increased $18.5 million or 20% to $109.9 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $91.5 million in the second quarter of 2013 due primarily to strong growth for both semiconductor and passive components and an incremental $6.9 million from the addition of Hamlin. The electronics segment experienced $0.9 million in favorable currency effects in the second quarter of 2014 primarily from sales denominated in euro. Excluding the impact from incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, sales increased $10.7 million or 12% year-over-year.

Automotive sales increased $17.5 million or 27% to $82.0 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $64.5 million in the second quarter of 2013 due to strong organic growth for passenger car fuses, commercial vehicle products and Accel sensors and an incremental $7.7 million from the addition of Hamlin. The automotive segment experienced $1.6 million in favorable currency effects in the second quarter of 2014 primarily due to sales denominated in euros. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, net sales increased $8.1 million or 13% year-over-year.

Electrical sales decreased $2.8 million or 9% to $28.9 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $31.8 million in the second quarter of 2013 primarily from declines in custom and relay sales into the mining market and power fuses into the industrial market. These declines more than offset incremental sales of $5.3 million from the SymCom acquisition. The electrical segment experienced $0.2 million in unfavorable currency effects in the second quarter of 2014 primarily from sales denominated in Canadian dollars. Excluding incremental sales from SymCom and currency effects, net sales decreased $8.0 million or 25% year-over-year.

On a geographic basis, sales in the Americas increased $9.3 million or 11% to $95.9 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $86.5 million in the second quarter of 2013 due to incremental sales of $11.9 million from business acquisitions offset by $0.3 million in unfavorable currency effects from sales denominated in Canadian dollars. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, the Americas sales decreased $2.2 million or 3% due to the decline in electrical sales partially offset by increased automotive and electronics sales.

Europe sales increased $10.8 million or 32% to $44.3 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $33.5 million in the second quarter of 2013 mainly due to strong demand for automotive and electronic products, incremental sales of $3.7 million from Hamlin and $2.4 million in favorable currency effects. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, Europe sales increased $4.7 million or 14% year-over-year primarily due to an increase in demand for automotive and electronics products.

Asia-Pacific sales increased $13.0 million or 19% to $80.7 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $67.8 million in the second quarter of 2013 primarily due to strong demand for electronics and electrical products and incremental sales from Hamlin of $4.3 million and $0.3 million in favorable currency effects primarily from sales denominated in Korean won. Excluding incremental sales from Hamlin and currency effects, net sales increased $8.3 million or 12% year-over-year.

Gross profit was $83.0 million or 38% of net sales for the second quarter of 2014 compared to $73.6 million or 39% of net sales in the same quarter last year. Gross profit for the second quarter of 2014 included a $1.4 million non-cash charge to cost of goods sold for inventory that was stepped up to fair value as a result of the SymCom acquisition and $2.0 million of severance charges resulting from restructuring at the Hamlin-Mexico plant. Gross profit for the second quarter of 2013 included a $1.7 million non-cash charge to cost of goods sold for inventory that was stepped-up to fair value as a result of the Hamlin acquisition. Excluding the impact of these charges, gross profit was 39% in the second quarter of 2014 as compared to 40% in the second quarter of 2013. The decline in gross margin is primarily attributable to lower sales in the Electrical market.

Total operating expense was $49.3 million or 22% of net sales for the second quarter of 2014 compared to $42.2 million or 22% of net sales for the same quarter in 2013. The increase in operating expenses primarily reflects incremental operating expenses of $3.1 million from business acquisitions and higher stock compensation expense.

Operating income for the second quarter of 2014 was approximately $33.7 million compared to operating income of $31.4 million for the same quarter in 2013 primarily due to higher sales partially offset by slightly higher operating expenses as described above.

Interest expense was $1.2 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to $0.6 million in the second quarter of 2013.

Foreign exchange loss (gain), reflecting net gains and losses from balance sheet revaluation, was approximately $2.4 million of expense for the second quarter of 2014 and $3.7 million of income for the second quarter of 2013 and primarily reflects fluctuations in the Philippine peso against the U.S. dollar.

Other (income) expense, net, consisting of interest income, royalties and non-operating income and expense was approximately $1.5 million of income for the second quarter of 2014 compared to $0.9 million of income in the second quarter of 2013.

Income before income taxes was $31.6 million for the second quarter of 2014 compared to income before income taxes of $35.4 million for the second quarter of 2013. Income tax expense was $7.0 million with an effective tax rate of 22.1% for the second quarter of 2014 compared to income tax expense of $8.7 million with an effective tax rate of 24.7% in the second quarter of 2013. The effective tax rates for both the second quarter of 2014 and 2013 are lower than the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to income earned in countries with lower tax rates than the U.S.

Net income for the second quarter of 2014 was $24.6 million or $1.08 per diluted share compared to net income of $26.6 million or $1.18 per diluted share for the same quarter of 2013.

Results of Operations – Six Months, 2014 compared to 2013

Net sales increased $69.1 million or 19% to $427.8 million for the first six months of 2014 compared to $358.7 million in the first six months of 2013 due primarily to an incremental $46.3 million from business acquisitions. The company also experienced $3.6 million in favorable foreign currency effects in the first six months of 2014 as compared to 2013. The favorable foreign currency impact primarily resulted from sales denominated in euros. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, net sales increased $19.1 million or 5% year-over-year.

Electronics sales increased $35.1 million or 21% to $206.0 million in the first six months of 2014 compared to $170.9 million in the first six months of 2013 due primarily to incremental sales of $16.3 million from the Hamlin acquisition. The electronics segment experienced $1.3 million in favorable currency effects in the first six months of 2014 primarily from sales denominated in euro. Excluding incremental sales from Hamlin and currency effects, net sales increased $17.6 million or 10% year-over-year.

Automotive sales increased $40.5 million or 33% to $164.4 million in the first six months of 2014 compared to $123.9 million in the first six months of 2013 due primarily to incremental sales of $20.2 million from Hamlin and strong growth in the passenger vehicle business. The automotive segment experienced $2.8 million in favorable currency effects in the first six months of 2014 primarily due to sales denominated in euros. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, net sales increased $17.4 million or 14% year-over-year.

Electrical sales decreased $6.5 million or 10% to $57.4 million in the first six months of 2014 compared to $63.9 million in the first six months of 2013 due primarily to slowing demand for custom and relay products as a result of a slow-down in the mining industry. This more than offset incremental sales of $9.8 million from the SymCom acquisition. The electrical segment experienced $0.5 million in unfavorable currency effects in the first six months of 2014 primarily from sales denominated in Canadian dollars. Excluding incremental sales from SymCom and currency effects, net sales decreased $15.8 million or 25% year-over-year.

On a geographic basis, sales in the Americas increased $20.7 million or 13% to $185.0 million in the first six months of 2014 compared to $164.4 million in the first six months of 2013 due to incremental sales from business acquisitions of $26.5 million and increased sales of power fuses, offset by weaker custom and relay sales and $0.8 million in unfavorable currency effects from sales denominated in Canadian dollars. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, net sales decreased $5.1 million or 3% year-over-year.

Europe sales increased $23.4 million or 36% to $88.2 million in the first six months of 2014 compared to $64.9 million in the first six months of 2013 mainly due to strong demand for both automotive and electronics products, incremental sales of $9.4 million from Hamlin and $4.1 million in favorable currency effects. Excluding incremental sales from acquisitions and currency effects, Europe sales increased 15% year-over-year.

Asia-Pacific sales increased $25.1 million or 19% to $154.5 million in the first six months of 2014 compared to $129.5 million in the first six months of 2013 primarily due to higher demand for automotive and electronics products, incremental sales from Hamlin of $10.4 million and $0.3 million in favorable currency effects primarily from sales denominated in Korean won. Excluding incremental sales from Hamlin and currency effects, net sales increased $14.3 million or 11% year-over-year.

Gross profit was $161.5 million or 38% of net sales for the first six months of 2014 compared to $138.2 million or 39% of net sales in the first six months of 2013. Gross profit for the first six months of 2014 included a $2.8 million non-cash charge to cost of goods sold for inventory that was stepped up to fair value as a result of the SymCom acquisition and $2.0 million of severance charges resulting from restructuring at the Hamlin-Mexico plant. Gross profit for the first six months of 2013 included a $1.7 million non-cash charge to cost of goods sold for inventory that was stepped-up to fair value as a result of the Hamlin acquisition. Excluding the impact of these charges, gross profit was 39% for both the first six months of 2014 and 2013.

Total operating expense was $94.2 million or 22% of net sales for the first six months of 2014 compared to $78.7 million or 22% of net sales for the first six months in 2013. The increase in operating expenses primarily reflects incremental operating expenses of $9.7 million from business acquisitions and higher stock compensation expense.

Operating income for the first six months of 2014 was $67.3 million compared to operating income of $59.5 million for the first six months in 2013 primarily due to higher sales partially offset by slightly higher operating expenses as described above.

Interest expense was $2.4 million for the first six months of 2014 and $1.0 million the first six months of 2013.

Foreign exchange loss (gain), reflecting balance sheet revaluation, was approximately $2.1 million of expense for the first six months of 2014 and $3.4 million of income for the first six months of 2013 and primarily reflects fluctuations in the Philippine peso against the U.S. dollar.

Other (income) expense, net, consisting of interest income, royalties and non-operating income and expense was approximately $2.6 million of income for the first six months of 2014 compared to $2.2 million of income in the first six months of 2013.

Income before income taxes was $65.4 million for the first six months of 2014 compared to income before income taxes of $53.4 million for the first six months of 2013. Income tax expense was $15.4 million with an effective tax rate of 23.6% for the first six months of 2014 compared to income tax expense of $15.2 million with an effective tax rate of 28.5% in the first six months of 2013. The effective tax rates for both the first six months of 2014 and 2013 are lower than the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to income earned in countries with lower tax rates than the U.S.

Net income for the first six months of 2014 was $50.0 million or $2.20 per diluted share compared to net income of $38.1 million or $1.70 per diluted share for the same six months of 2013.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of June 28, 2014, $332.0 million of the $346.4 million of the company's cash and cash equivalents was held by foreign subsidiaries. Of the $332.0 million held by foreign subsidiaries, approximately $16.1 million could be repatriated with minimal tax consequences. The company expects to maintain its foreign cash balances (other than the aforementioned $16.1 million) for local operating requirements, to provide funds for future capital expenditures and for potential acquisitions. The company does not expect to repatriate these funds to the U.S.

The company historically has financed capital expenditures through cash flows from operations. Management expects that cash flows from operations and available lines of credit will be sufficient to support both the company's operations and its debt obligations for the foreseeable future.

Revolving Credit Facilities

On May 31, 2013, the company entered into a new credit agreement with J.P. Morgan Securities LLC for up to $325.0 million which consisted of a revolving credit facility of $225.0 million and an unsecured term loan of $100.0 million. The new credit agreement is for a five year period. On January 30, 2014, the company increased the unsecured revolving credit facility entered into on May 31, 2013, by $50.0 million thereby increasing the total revolver borrowing capacity from $225.0 million to $275.0 million. At June 28, 2014, the company had available $75.4 million of borrowing capacity under the revolving credit agreement at an interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.250% (1.4% as of June 28, 2014). The credit agreement replaces the company's previous credit agreement dated June 13, 2011 which was terminated on May 31, 2013.

This arrangement contains covenants that, among other matters, impose limitations on the incurrence of additional indebtedness, future mergers, sales of assets, payment of dividends, and changes in control, as defined in the agreement. In addition, the company is required to satisfy certain financial covenants and tests relating to, among other matters, interest coverage and leverage. At June 28, 2014, the company was in compliance with all covenants under the revolving credit facility.

The company also had $0.8 million outstanding in letters of credit at June 28, 2014. No amounts were drawn under these letters of credit at June 28, 2014.

Cash Flow

The company started 2014 with $305.2 million of cash and cash equivalents. Net cash provided by operating activities was approximately $42.5 million for the first six months of 2014 reflecting $50.0 million in net income and $26.7 million in non-cash adjustments (primarily $20.8 million in depreciation and amortization) offset by $34.2 million in net changes to various operating assets and liabilities.

Changes in operating assets and liabilities for the first six months of 2014 (including short-term and long-term items) that impacted cash flows negatively consisted of increases in accounts receivables ($17.9 million), prepaid and other assets ($2.2 million) and decreases in accrued payroll and severance ($7.3 million), accrued expenses (including post-retirement) ($7.6 million) and accrued and deferred taxes ($2.1 million). The increase in accounts receivables was due to increased sales in the first six months. The decrease in accrued payroll and severance was due primarily to payouts for the 2013 management incentive plan which occurred in the first quarter. The decrease in accrued expenses was due primarily to $9.9 million in pension contributions made during the first quarter. Other changes having a positive impact on cash flows were increases in accounts payable ($2.5 million) and accrued and inventories ($0.4 million).

Net cash used in investing activities was approximately $65.9 million and included $13.1 million in capital spending and $52.8 million for the acquisition of SymCom.

Net cash provided by financing activities was approximately $64.5 million and included $75.5 million in net proceeds from borrowing and $13.3 million from the exercise of stock options, including tax benefits, partially offset by debt issuance costs of $0.1 million, cash dividends paid of $9.9 million and the repurchase of common stock for $14.3 million. The effects of exchange rate changes increased cash and cash equivalents by less than $0.1 million. The net cash provided by operating activities combined with the effects of exchange rate changes less net cash used in investing and financing activities resulted in a $41.2 million increase in cash, which left the company with a cash and cash equivalents balance of $346.4 million at June 28, 2014.

The ratio of current assets to current liabilities was 2.2 at the end of the second quarter of 2014 compared to 2.7 at year-end 2013 and 2.4 at the end of the second quarter of 2013. Days sales outstanding in accounts receivable was approximately 60 days at the end of the second quarter of 2014 compared to 64 days at the end of the second quarter of 2013 and 59 days at year-end 2013. Days inventory outstanding was approximately 64 days at the end of the second quarter of 2014 compared to 67 days at end of the second quarter of 2013 and 70 days at the year-end 2013.

Outlook

Sales for the third quarter are expected to be similar to sales for the second quarter of 2014. The electrical segment is expected to remain weak at least through the remainder of this year due primarily to continued softness in the mining market. The company issued the following guidance for the third quarter of 2014:

Sales for the third quarter are expected to be in the range of $215.0 million to $225.0 million which represents 9% year-over-year growth at the midpoint.

Earnings for the third quarter are expected to be in the range of $1.29 to $1.43 per diluted share, excluding any special items.

Capital expenditures are expected to be approximately $35.0 million for the year.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (“PSLRA”).

The statements in this section and the other sections of this report that are not historical facts are intended to constitute “forward-looking statements” entitled to the safe-harbor provisions of the PSLRA. These statements may involve risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, risks relating to product demand and market acceptance, economic conditions, the impact of competitive products and pricing, product quality problems or product recalls, capacity and supply difficulties or constraints, coal mining exposures reserves, failure of an indemnification for environmental liability, exchange rate fluctuations, commodity price fluctuations, the effect of the company’s accounting policies, labor disputes, restructuring costs in excess of expectations, pension plan asset returns less than assumed, integration of acquisitions and other risks which may be detailed in the company’s other Securities and Exchange Commission filings. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize or should the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results and outcomes may differ materially from those indicated or implied in the forward-looking statements. This report should be read in conjunction with information provided in the financial statements appearing in the company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2013. For a further discussion of the risk factors of the company, please see Item 1A. “Risk Factors” to the company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2013.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk.

The company is exposed to market risk from changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and commodity prices.

Interest Rates

The company had $295.3 million in debt outstanding at June 28, 2014 at variable interest rates. While 100% of this debt has variable interest rates, the company's interest expense is not materially sensitive to changes in interest rate levels since debt levels and potential interest expense increases are small relative to earnings.

Foreign Exchange Rates

The majority of the company's operations consist of manufacturing and sales activities in foreign countries. The company has manufacturing facilities in the U.S., Mexico, Canada, Denmark, China, Lithuania and the Philippines. During the first six months of 2014, sales to customers outside the U.S. were 63.6% of total net sales. Substantially all sales in Europe are denominated in euros and substantially all sales in the Asia-Pacific region are denominated in U.S. dollars, Japanese yen, Korean won, Chinese yuan or Taiwanese dollars.

The company's foreign exchange exposures result primarily from sale of products in foreign currencies, foreign currency denominated purchases, employee-related and other costs of running operations in foreign countries and translation of balance sheet accounts denominated in foreign currencies. The company's most significant long exposure is to the euro, with lesser long exposures to the Canadian dollar, Japanese yen and Korean won. The company's most significant short exposures are to the Chinese yuan, Mexican peso and Philippine peso. Changes in foreign exchange rates could affect the company's sales, costs, balance sheet values and earnings. The company uses netting and offsetting intercompany account management techniques to reduce known foreign currency exposures where possible. From time to time, the company has utilized derivative instruments to hedge certain foreign currency exposures.

Commodity Prices

The company uses various metals in the manufacturing of its products, including copper, zinc, tin, gold and silver. Prices of these commodities can and do fluctuate significantly, which can impact the company's earnings. The most significant of these exposures is to copper, zinc, gold, and silver where at current prices and volumes, a 10% price change would affect annual pre-tax profit by approximately $2.3 million for copper, $0.9 million for zinc, $0.2 million for gold, and $1.1 million for silver. From time to time, the company has utilized derivative instruments to hedge certain commodity exposures deemed to be material.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

With the participation of our management, including the company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer, the company has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")) as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based upon that evaluation and the fact that the company is in the process of remediating the material weakness, which is expected to be completed by the fourth quarter of 2014, the company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the company's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of the end of the period ended June 28, 2014.

The errors resulted from the treatment of tax deductions related to the company's write-off of its investment in Shocking Technologies, Inc. The tax deductions were determined to be a capital loss for tax purposes, instead of an ordinary loss as the company had previously determined in consultation with a third party expert.

Material Weakness and Related Remediation Initiatives

On February 4, 2014, the company concluded there was a material weakness in internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act as it relates to deferred tax valuation allowance accounting at March 30, 2013. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statement will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

The material weakness in internal control over financial reporting relates to the company's evaluation of the income tax considerations, including deferred tax valuation allowances relating to the write-off of its investment in Shocking Technologies, Inc. during the first quarter of 2013. Management has commenced steps to remediate the material weakness associated with this misstatement and has begun the process of implementing an enhanced process to review and approve the income tax accounting treatment for any material items that are of an unusual or complex nature. In accordance with the company's internal control over financial reporting compliance program, however, the material weakness designation cannot be remediated fully until the remediation processes have been operational for a period of time and successfully tested. Such remediation is anticipated to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2014.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Except as has been described above, there has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the period ended June 28, 2014, that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Reference is made to Exhibits 31.1 and 31.2 for the Certification statements issued by the company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, regarding the company's disclosure controls and procedures, and internal control over financial reporting, as of June 28, 2014.
