Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 10, 2017, Art's-Way Manufacturing Co., Inc. (the "Company"), as borrower, entered into a Forbearance and Fourth Loan Modification Agreement (the "USB Forbearance") with U.S. Bank National Association ("USB"), and Art's-Way Scientific, Inc. and Ohio Metal Working Products/Art's-Way, Inc., as guarantors, entered into a Ratification of Guaranty, Acknowledgment and Consent with USB, both relating to the Company's financing obligations to USB. Those obligations include a term note dated May 10, 2012 in the original principal amount of $880,000, a revolving credit note dated May 1, 2013 in the original principal amount of $8,000,000 (the "Line of Credit"), term notes dated May 1, 2013 in the original principal amounts of $1,006,500, $1,143, 600 and $1,833,510.26 (collectively, the "2013 Term Notes"), and a term note dated May 29, 2014 in the original principal amount of $1,000,000 (the "2014 Term Note") (such loans, collectively, and with modifications, interest, fees and expenses relating thereto, the "Obligations").

Under the USB Forbearance, USB agrees to forbear from exercising any of its rights or remedies with respect to Company's default under the Obligations, which was a result of Company's failure to maintain a Year-To-Date EBITDA as of May 31, 2017 for the fiscal year to date then ended of not less than $1 (the "Identified Default") until the earliest to occur of: (i) the Company or its subsidiaries (as guarantors pursuant to continuing guaranties) commits an event of default with respect to the Obligations (other than the Identified Default); (ii) the Company fails to make a required payment when due; (iii) any representation or warranty of the Company in the USB Forbearance or the other documents governing the Obligations proves to be false, misleading or incorrect in any respect; (iv) the Company fails to perform any of its covenants or obligations under the USB Forbearance; (v) there is any material adverse change to the business, management or operations of the Company; (vi) any judicial, administrative, or arbitration proceeding against USB is initiated or joined by the Company or its subsidiaries; (vii) the Company fails to pay, when due, any statutory claim or other claim which would result in a lien or other interest having priority over any security granted to secure the Obligations, except as permitted under the documents governing the Obligations; or (viii) September 25, 2017, which is the maturity date of the Obligations. If any of these events shall occur, USB shall be entitled to exercise any and all rights and remedies available to it without further notice to the Company, including foreclosing on any collateral that secures the Obligations.

The USB Forbearance increases the annual interest rate on the 2013 Term Notes and the 2014 Term Note from 1.5% plus the prime rate, with a minimum of 5% per annum, to 2.0% plus the prime rate, with a minimum of 5% per annum. The interest rate will be adjusted each time that the prime rate changes.

The USB Forbearance also amends certain financial covenants that apply to the Line of Credit, the 2013 Term Notes and the 2014 Term Notes. The USB Loan Modification removes the requirement that the Company maintain a fiscal year-to-date EBITDA (with EBITDA meaning income, plus interest expense, plus income tax expense, plus depreciation expense, plus amortization expense, subject to adjustments in USB's sole discretion) of $648,000 as of August 31, 2017 and requires the Company to instead maintain EBITDA as of August 31, 2017 for the fiscal quarter then ended of not less than $411,000. The USB Forbearance also required the Company to provide to USB not later than August 11, 2017, a fully executed Engagement Agreement, evidencing the engagement of a reputable turnaround consulting firm of national or regional standing acceptable to USB, which the Company provided.

In consideration for the accommodations made by USB under the USB Forbearance, the Company releases USB and certain related parties from actions or claims related to the Obligations and the USB Forbearance, agrees not to sue with respect to any claim released, and waives any rights of redemption under the Uniform Commercial Code or other laws of any state. All other terms of the Line of Credit, the 2013 Term Notes and the 2014 Term Notes with USB remain unchanged, and the agreements relating thereto remain in effect, including the various Business Security Agreements; Pledge Agreements; Mortgage, Security Agreement and Assignment of Rents of Iowa Real Estate; Open-End Mortgage, Security Agreement and Assignment of Rents and Leases (Including Fixture Filing Under Uniform Commercial Code); and Continuing Guaranty (Unlimited).

The foregoing description of the material terms of the USB Forbearance does not purport to be a complete description of the rights and obligations of the parties thereunder and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the USB Forbearance, filed herewith and incorporated by reference herein.
