Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 15, 2009, China Direct Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an engagement letter (the “Engagement Letter”) with Rodman & Renshaw, LLC (“Rodman”) relating to the Company’s registered offer and sale of shares of its common stock and warrants to purchase its common stock. A copy of the Engagement Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.1.

The Company also entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the “Securities Purchase Agreement”) with the investors signatory thereto. The Securities Purchase Agreement relates to the issuance and sale in a public offering by the Company of an aggregate of 2,702,702 shares of its common stock, at a price of $1.85 per share (each a “Share,” and, collectively, the “Shares”) and warrants (the “Warrants”) to purchase up to an additional 1,351,352 shares of common stock. The Company received gross proceeds of approximately $5 million before placement agent fees and other expenses. The Securities Purchase Agreement contains representations, warranties, and covenants of the Company and the investors that are customary for transactions of this type. The Securities Purchase Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.

The Warrants are exercisable beginning 6 months after their initial issuance at an exercise price of $2.31 per share until June 15, 2014. The exercise price and number of shares issuable upon exercise are subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits or dividends, business combinations, sale of assets or other similar transactions. A copy of the form of Warrant is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2.

Pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Rodman is receiving an aggregate fee of 3% of the proceeds raised in the offering plus expenses of $25,000.

The description of the offering provided herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Engagement Letter, the Securities Purchase Agreement and the Warrant which are attached hereto as exhibits. The Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) the Engagement Letter, the Securities Purchase Agreement and the Warrant in order to provide investors and the Company’s stockholders with information regarding their respective terms and in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the Commission. Each agreement contains representations and warranties that the parties made to, and solely for the benefit of, the other in the context of all of the terms and conditions of that agreement and in the context of the specific relationship between the parties. The provisions of the Engagement Letter and the Securities Purchase Agreement, including the representations and warranties contained therein, are not for the benefit of any party other than the parties to such agreements and are not intended as documents for investors and the public to obtain factual information about the current state of affairs of the parties to those documents and agreements. Rather, investors and the public should look to other disclosures contained in the Company’s filings with the Commission.

The Shares are being issued pursuant to a prospectus supplement dated June 16, 2009, filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, as part of a shelf takedown from the Company’s registration statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-151648), including a related prospectus, which was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 1, 2008.

Pursuant to the terms of our Series A Convertible Preferred Stock offering conducted in February 2008, the Company will reduce the price on warrants to purchase 143,750 shares of common stock from $8.00 to $1.85 per share. Accordingly, remaining holders of our Series A Convertible Preferred Stock will have the conversion price adjusted.
