SAIC Elects New Director

On February 23, 2015, Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) announced that Deborah B. Dunie was appointed as a member of the SAIC Board of Directors. Ms. Dunie also was appointed as a member of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee of SAIC's Board of Directors. With the appointment of Ms. Dunie, SAIC increased the size of its Board to ten members.

Ms. Dunie has over 30 years' experience in the aerospace and defense industry with senior positions in the U.S. Department of Defense and private industry. She previously served within the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence, Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Counterintelligence and Security and as Director, Plans and Analysis. She also served as Director, Business Transformation Office, at the National Imagery and Mapping Agency (now the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency). Dunie formerly served as Executive Vice President and Chief Technology Officer of CACI International Inc. from October 2006 to December 2014. She also held senior management positions throughout her career at Martin Marietta Corporation, Raytheon Company and Oracle Corporation.

Ms. Dunie will receive an initial cash retainer of $12,500 and a grant of SAIC restricted stock units (RSUs) with a value of $25,000. Ms. Dunie will then be entitled to receive the standard annual cash and equity compensation paid to all SAIC directors. The annual cash compensation paid to all directors currently consists of a retainer of $50,000 (one fourth of which is paid quarterly) and meeting fees of $2,000 for each meeting attended of the Board and any Board Committee. In addition, directors currently receive an annual equity award of RSUs with a value of $100,000 and stock options with a value of $50,000, which currently are granted following the director's election at SAIC's annual meeting of stockholders. Finally, as a director, Ms. Dunie will be entitled to participate in the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan, which allows directors to defer 100% of the cash retainer and meeting fees they receive.

A copy of the press release announcing the election of Ms. Dunie is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
