PRELIMINARY — SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED FEBRUARY 14, 2018

MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

To the Stockholders of Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation:

On November 16, 2017, Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation, or “Atlantic,” and Ameris Bancorp, or “Ameris,” entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, which we refer to as the “Merger Agreement.” The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Atlantic with and into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving company, which transaction we refer to as the “merger.” Immediately after the merger, Atlantic Coast Bank, a Florida state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Atlantic, will merge with and into Ameris Bank, a Georgia state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameris, with Ameris Bank as the surviving bank, which we refer to as the “bank merger.” Before the merger can be completed, Atlantic stockholders must approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions provided for therein, which we refer to as the “merger proposal.”

In the merger, each share of Atlantic common stock will be converted into the right to receive: (i) $1.39 in cash, without interest; and (ii) 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. Based on the $47.30 closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on November 16, 2017, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, the 0.17 exchange ratio, together with the $1.39 cash consideration, represented $9.43 in value for each share of Atlantic common stock and approximately $146.7 million in aggregate value. Based on the $52.60 closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on February 12, 2018, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the 0.17 exchange ratio, together with the $1.39 cash consideration, represented approximately $10.33 in value for each share of Atlantic common stock and approximately $160.7 million in aggregate value.

Ameris common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “ABCB.” Atlantic common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol “ACFC.” On February 12, 2018, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement/ prospectus, the closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market was $52.60 and the closing price of the Atlantic common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market was $10.17. The market prices for both Ameris common stock and Atlantic common stock will fluctuate before the merger. Based on the 0.17 exchange ratio and the number of shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and assuming no adjustment to the stock portion of the merger consideration paid by Ameris, the maximum number of shares of Ameris common stock issuable in the merger is 2,644,131.

The completion of the merger is subject to a price floor. If the average closing price of one share of Ameris common stock during a specified determination period has declined by more than 15% from its price on November 15, 2017, of $46.95 per share, and the Ameris common stock underperforms the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) by more than 15% during such period, then Atlantic may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Ameris offsets such reduction in the value of Ameris common stock by increasing the number of shares of Ameris common stock to be issued, or paying additional cash consideration, to Atlantic stockholders.

Atlantic will hold a special meeting of its stockholders to approve the merger proposal. The special meeting of stockholders is scheduled to be held on March 21, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Jacksonville Marriott, 4670 Salisbury Road, Jacksonville, FL 32256. No vote of Ameris shareholders is required to complete the merger. This document, which serves as Atlantic’s proxy statement for the special meeting of its stockholders and as a prospectus for the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued in the merger to Atlantic stockholders, gives you detailed information about the special meeting and the merger. The merger cannot be completed unless all closing conditions have been met, including receipt of required regulatory approvals and approval of the merger proposal by the Atlantic stockholders. Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of the majority of the outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock.

Atlantic is asking its stockholders to consider and vote on the merger proposal at the special meeting of stockholders and also to vote on: (i) a proposal to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the compensation that certain executive officers of Atlantic will receive under existing agreements with Atlantic in connection with the merger, which we refer to as the “merger-related compensation proposal;” and (ii) a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger proposal at the time of the special meeting, which we refer to as the “adjournment proposal.” Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of the merger-related compensation proposal, and approval of the adjournment proposal, each requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, to ensure a quorum is present to hold the special meeting, we would ask you to complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed prepaid envelope. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, then your proxy will be counted as a vote “FOR” the merger proposal, “FOR” the merger-related compensation proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal. Failing to instruct your broker how to vote shares held by you in “street name,” will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal, but will have no effect on the outcome of the merger-related compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal.

The board of directors of Atlantic unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal, “FOR” the merger-related compensation proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal.

You should read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices hereto and the documents incorporated by reference herein, because it contains important information about the merger and the related transactions. You may also find this proxy statement/prospectus posted on the Internet at <http://www.irinfo.com/acfc/acfc.html>. In particular, you should read carefully the information set forth under “Risk Factors” beginning on page 29 of this proxy statement/prospectus, which discusses the risks relating to the merger.

On behalf of the board of directors of Atlantic, thank you for your prompt consideration to this important matter.

By Order of the Board of Directors of Atlantic,

Tracy L. Keegan
Executive Vice President,
Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary

The shares of Ameris common stock to be issued in the merger are not savings or deposit accounts or other obligations of any bank or nonbank subsidiary of Ameris or Atlantic, and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved the securities to be issued in the merger or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this proxy statement/prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

This proxy statement/prospectus is dated [•], 2018, and is being first mailed to Atlantic stockholders on or about [•], 2018.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER
AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some answers to certain questions that you may have about the special meeting of Atlantic stockholders, which we refer to as the “special meeting,” and the merger. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus (including “Risk Factors” beginning on page 29) because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the special meeting and the merger. You may also find this proxy statement/prospectus posted on the Internet at <http://www.irinfo.com/acfc/acfc.html>. Additional important information is also contained in the appendices to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/ prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference.”

Q:

What am I being asked to vote on?

A:

You are being asked to vote to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated November 16, 2017, between Ameris and Atlantic, pursuant to which Atlantic will merge with and into Ameris with Ameris as the surviving company subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Merger Agreement, including the transactions provided for in the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Atlantic stockholders also are being asked to approve: (i) on a non-binding advisory basis, the compensation that certain executive officers of Atlantic will receive under existing agreements with Atlantic in connection with the merger; and (ii) a proposal providing for one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal.

Q:

Why do Ameris and Atlantic want to merge?

A:

We believe the combination of Ameris and Atlantic will create one of the leading community banking franchises in the Jacksonville, Florida market, providing our customers with additional branch locations and market share in such market. The board of directors of Atlantic has determined that the merger is in the best interests of Atlantic and its stockholders, and unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal. For more information about the reasons for the merger, see “The Merger — Atlantic’s Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of the Atlantic Board of Directors” and “The Merger — Ameris’s Reasons for the Merger.”

Q:

What will I receive in the merger?

A:

Unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of Atlantic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive: (i) $1.39 in cash, without interest (the “cash consideration”); and (ii) 0.17 shares (the “exchange ratio”) of Ameris common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares (the “stock consideration”). We refer to the cash consideration and the stock consideration to be received for each share of Atlantic common stock as the “per share purchase price.”

Q:

What happens if I am entitled to receive a fractional share of Ameris common stock as part of the stock consideration?

A:

Ameris will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Rather, Atlantic stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of Ameris common stock upon the completion of the merger will instead receive an amount in cash (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fractional part of a share of Ameris common stock multiplied by the exchange ratio multiplied by the average Ameris stock price (as defined under “The Merger Agreement — Merger Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments”).

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q:

Under what circumstances may the merger consideration be adjusted?

A:

The completion of the merger is subject to a price floor. If the average closing price of one share of Ameris common stock during a specified determination period has declined by more than 15% from its price on November 15, 2017, of $46.95 per share, and Ameris common stock underperforms the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) by more than 15% during such period, then Atlantic may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Ameris offsets such reduction in the value of Ameris common stock by:

- increasing the number of shares of Ameris common stock to be issued to Atlantic stockholders: or
- paying additional cash consideration (provided that doing so would not prevent the merger from qualifying as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”)) to Atlantic stockholders.

Also, if the June 30, 2018 termination date of the Merger Agreement is extended by either party as contemplated in the Merger Agreement and described under “The Merger Agreement — Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments,” then provided that it will not cause the merger to fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the aggregate cash consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders in the merger will be increased by the amount of Atlantic’s after-tax net income for the period from January 1, 2018 through June 30, 2018.

Subject to certain exceptions specified in the Merger Agreement, if prior to the effective time of the merger the number of outstanding shares of Ameris common stock or Atlantic common stock is changed as a result of a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification or similar transaction with respect to such shares, then the stock consideration will be proportionately and appropriately adjusted.

We refer to the aggregate per share purchase price payable in the merger, as may be adjusted as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, as the “merger consideration.”

Q:

Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the time the merger is completed?

A:

The value of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/ prospectus and the completion of the merger based upon the market value of Ameris common stock. Any fluctuation in the market price of Ameris common stock after the date of this proxy statement/ prospectus will change the value of the shares of Ameris common stock that Atlantic stockholders will receive, and will therefore change the value of the merger consideration. Based on the 0.17 exchange ratio and the closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market of $47.30 on November 16, 2017, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, the value of the merger consideration was $9.43 for each share of Atlantic common stock and approximately $146.7 million in the aggregate. Based on the 0.17 exchange ratio and the closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on February 12, 2018, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the value of the merger consideration was $10.33 for each share of Atlantic common stock and approximately $160.7 million in the aggregate. The market prices of both Ameris common stock and Atlantic common stock will fluctuate before the merger is completed. We encourage you to obtain current market prices for Ameris common stock and Atlantic common stock.

Q:

How will the merger impact Atlantic restricted share awards?

A:

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding award of shares of Atlantic common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted pursuant to Atlantic's equity-based compensation plans (each, an "Atlantic restricted share award"), will fully vest and be converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration.

As of the date of the Merger Agreement, there were outstanding Atlantic restricted share awards with respect to 44,648 shares of Atlantic common stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q:

Do any of Atlantic's directors or executive officers have interests in the merger that may differ from those of Atlantic stockholders?

A:

Atlantic's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Atlantic stockholders generally. The board of directors of Atlantic was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating the merger proposal, and in recommending that Atlantic stockholders approve the merger proposal. For a description of these interests, see "The Merger — Interests of Atlantic Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger."

Q:

Why am I being asked to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote to approve the compensation payable to certain Atlantic executive officers in connection with the merger?

A:

The SEC, in accordance with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 (the "Dodd Frank Act"), adopted rules that require Atlantic to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote with respect to certain payments that may be made to certain of Atlantic's executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q:

What will happen if Atlantic stockholders do not approve the merger-related compensation proposal?

A:

Certain of Atlantic's executive officers are entitled, pursuant to the terms of their existing employment agreements with Atlantic, to receive certain payments in connection with the merger. If the merger is completed, Atlantic is contractually obligated to make these payments to these executive officers under certain circumstances.

Atlantic stockholder approval of the compensation payable to these executive officers in connection with the merger is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote on the merger-related compensation proposal is advisory and will not be binding on Atlantic (or the combined company that results from the merger) regardless of whether the merger is approved. Accordingly, because the compensation to be paid to certain of Atlantic's executive officers in connection with the merger is contractual, the compensation will be payable if the merger is completed regardless of the outcome of the non-binding, advisory vote on the merger-related compensation proposal.

Q:

What will happen to Atlantic as a result of the merger?

A:

If the merger is completed, then Atlantic will be merged with and into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving company. As a result of the merger, Atlantic will cease to exist, and Atlantic Coast Bank, a Florida state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Atlantic, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameris. See "— What will happen to Atlantic Coast Bank following the merger?"

In addition, if the merger is completed, then Atlantic common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Global Market and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Q:

What will happen to Atlantic Coast Bank following the merger?

A:

Immediately after the merger, Atlantic Coast Bank will merge with and into Ameris Bank, a Georgia state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameris, with Ameris Bank as the surviving bank (the “bank merger”).

Q:

Does the board of directors of Atlantic support the merger?

A:

Yes. The board of directors of Atlantic has determined that the Merger Agreement is in the best interests of Atlantic stockholders and unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal. Additionally, the directors and certain executive officers of Atlantic have entered into a Voting and Support Agreement (the “Voting Agreement”) with Ameris and Atlantic pursuant to which they have agreed, among other things, to vote all of the shares of Atlantic common stock they beneficially own in favor of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. A total of 1,702,982 shares of Atlantic common stock, representing approximately 10.9% of the outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, are subject to the Voting Agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q:

When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A:

Ameris and Atlantic expect the merger to be completed in the second quarter of 2018 and are working towards completing the merger as quickly as possible. To do so, the Atlantic stockholders must approve the merger proposal, Ameris must obtain all regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger, and other customary closing conditions must be satisfied. See “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to Completion of the Merger.” However, it is possible that factors outside the control of both companies could result in the merger being delayed or not completed at all.

Q:

Are there risks associated with the merger that I should consider in deciding how to vote?

A:

Yes. There are a number of risks related to the merger and the other transactions provided for in the Merger Agreement that are discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus, in the appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Please read with particular care the detailed description of the risks described in “Risk Factors” and in Ameris’s and Atlantic’s respective SEC filings incorporated by reference herein and referred to in “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference.”

Q:

When and where is the special meeting of Atlantic stockholders?

A:

The special meeting will take place on March 21, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Jacksonville Marriott, 4670 Salisbury Road, Jacksonville, FL 32256 .

Q:

Who can vote at the special meeting of Atlantic stockholders?

A:

You can vote at the special meeting if you own shares of Atlantic common stock at the close of business on February 12, 2018, the record date for the special meeting. As of the close of business on that date, approximately 15,553,709 shares of Atlantic common stock were outstanding.

Q:

What vote is required to approve the merger proposal?

A:

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding on the record date. We refer to this as the “requisite Atlantic stockholder approval.”

Atlantic stockholders will have one vote for each share of Atlantic common stock they own.

Q:

What vote is required to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the merger-related compensation proposal?

A:

Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of the merger-related compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

Q:

What vote is required to approve the adjournment proposal?

A:

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

Q:

Are participants in the Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan able to vote?

A:

Yes. Participants in the Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the "Atlantic ESOP") will each receive a Voting Instruction Form that reflects all of the shares that the participant may direct the Atlantic ESOP trustee to vote on his or her behalf under the Atlantic ESOP. Under the terms of the Atlantic ESOP, the Atlantic ESOP trustee votes all shares held by the Atlantic ESOP, but each Atlantic ESOP participant may direct the trustee how to vote the shares of Atlantic common stock allocated to his or her account. The Atlantic ESOP trustee will vote all unallocated shares of Atlantic common stock held by the Atlantic ESOP and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received in the same proportion as shares for which it has received timely voting instructions.

Q:

What do I need to do now?

A:

Please read this proxy statement/prospectus and decide how you wish to vote your shares and then indicate that vote on the proxy card included with this proxy statement/prospectus. Sign and return the proxy card in the enclosed prepaid return envelope as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented and voted at the special meeting to be held on March 21, 2018.

Q:

What if I do not vote?

A:

If you do not vote, then it will have the same effect as voting your shares against the merger proposal; however, it will have no effect on the outcome of the merger-related compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal.

Q:

If my shares are held in “street name” by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A:

No. Your broker will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker how to vote your shares, following the directions provided by your broker.

Q:

Can I change or revoke my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A:

Yes. There are three ways in which you may revoke your proxy and change your vote.

First, you may send a written notice to Atlantic’s Corporate Secretary stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you may complete and submit a new proxy card. Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the special meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy.

Q:

Can I exercise dissenters’ rights in connection with the merger?

A:

No, under Maryland law Atlantic stockholders are not eligible to exercise dissenters’ rights in connection with the merger.

Q:

Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A:

No, please do NOT return your stock certificate(s) with your proxy. You should wait until you receive the letter of transmittal that will be mailed shortly after the merger and then you should submit your Atlantic stock certificate(s) along with the completed letter of transmittal. The letter of transmittal will be accompanied by instructions explaining how to complete the letter of transmittal and deliver it and your stock certificate(s) or book-entry shares to the exchange agent for the merger.

Q:
What are the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Atlantic stockholders?

A:
The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it is a condition to the respective obligations of Ameris and Atlantic to complete the merger that each of Ameris and Atlantic receives a legal opinion to that effect. Accordingly, an Atlantic stockholder generally will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Ameris common stock received pursuant to the merger over that holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of Atlantic common stock surrendered); and (ii) the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger. Further, an Atlantic stockholder generally will recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Ameris common stock that the Atlantic stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive. For further information, see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences."

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The United States federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Atlantic common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q:

Ameris has also entered into an agreement to acquire Hamilton State Bancshares, Inc. What impact will Ameris's merger with Hamilton have on Ameris's merger with Atlantic?

A:

On January 25, 2018, Ameris and Hamilton State Bancshares, Inc., a Georgia corporation ("Hamilton"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Hamilton Merger Agreement") pursuant to which Hamilton will merge with and into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving entity (the "Hamilton merger"). The Hamilton merger is expected to close in the third quarter of 2018. The completion of the Atlantic merger is not conditioned upon or subject to the completion of the Hamilton merger. Also see "Risk Factors — If the Atlantic merger and the Hamilton merger were to occur, the pro forma combined company would exceed $10 billion in assets, which would result in increased costs and/ or reduced revenues to the resulting entity and subject it to increased regulatory scrutiny by its primary federal regulators with respect to its risk management and other activities."

Q:

Whom should I call with questions or to obtain additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus?

A:

You may find this proxy statement/prospectus posted on the Internet at <http://www.irinfo.com/acfc/acfc.html>. If you have questions about the merger, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares of Atlantic common stock, or need additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or the enclosed proxy card(s), please contact Atlantic's Assistant Corporate Secretary at (904) 903-2683.

The Companies (see page 44)

Ameris Bancorp

310 First Street, S.E.

Moultrie, Georgia 31768

(229) 890-1111

Ameris Bancorp, a Georgia corporation incorporated in 1980, is a bank holding company headquartered in Moultrie, Georgia. Ameris’s business is conducted primarily through Ameris Bank, a Georgia state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameris. At September 30, 2017, Ameris had total consolidated assets of $7.6 billion, total loans (net of allowance for loan losses) of $5.9 billion, total deposits of $5.9 billion and shareholders’ equity of $801.9 million.

Through Ameris Bank, Ameris provides a full range of banking services to its retail and commercial customers through 97 branches primarily concentrated in select markets in Georgia, Alabama, Northern Florida and South Carolina. These branches serve distinct communities in Ameris’s business areas with autonomy but do so as one bank, leveraging Ameris’s favorable geographic footprint in an effort to acquire more customers.

The Ameris common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “ABCB.”

Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation

4655 Salisbury Road, Suite 110

Jacksonville, Florida 32256

(800) 342-2824

Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation, a Maryland corporation incorporated in 2007, is a bank holding company headquartered in Jacksonville, Florida. Through its principal wholly owned subsidiary, Atlantic Coast Bank, Atlantic serves the Northeast Florida, Central Florida and Southeast Georgia markets. At September 30, 2017, Atlantic had total consolidated assets of $921.9 million, total loans (net of allowance for loan losses) of $785.5 million, total deposits of $676.4 million, and shareholders’ equity of $91.4 million.

Atlantic Coast Bank was established in 1939 as a credit union to serve the employees of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. On November 1, 2000, after receiving the necessary regulatory and membership approvals, Atlantic Coast Federal Credit Union converted to a federal mutual savings bank (and subsequently a federally-chartered savings bank) known as Atlantic Coast Bank. The conversion allowed the bank to diversify its customer base by marketing products and services to individuals and businesses in its market areas and make loans to customers who did not have a deposit relationship with the bank. On December 27, 2016, Atlantic Coast Bank consummated the conversion of its charter from that of a federally-chartered savings bank to that of a Florida state-chartered commercial bank supervised by the Florida Office of Financial Regulation and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”).

Atlantic Coast Bank offers a variety of deposit accounts having a wide range of interest rates and terms, which generally include noninterest-bearing and interest-bearing demand, savings and money market demand, and time deposit accounts with terms ranging from three months to five years. Deposits are primarily solicited in Atlantic Coast Bank’s market areas of Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia to fund loan demand and other liquidity needs; however, late in 2015, Atlantic Coast Bank also started soliciting deposits in Central Florida.

The Atlantic common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol “ACFC.”

Pending Acquisition of Hamilton State Bancshares, Inc. (see page 44)

On January 25, 2018, Ameris and Hamilton entered into the Hamilton Merger Agreement pursuant to which Hamilton will merge into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving entity. The Hamilton Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the Hamilton merger, Hamilton State Bank, a Georgia bank wholly owned by Hamilton, will be merged into Ameris Bank, with Ameris Bank as the surviving bank.

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Hamilton Merger Agreement, Hamilton shareholders will receive $0.93 in cash and 0.16 shares of Ameris common stock for each share of Hamilton voting common stock and non-voting common stock that they hold (collectively, the “Hamilton common stock”), which equates to an aggregate value of approximately $405.7 million based on the $53.45 closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market as of January 25, 2018.

The Hamilton Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of each of Ameris and Hamilton and is expected to close in the third quarter of 2018. The closing of the Hamilton merger is subject to the required approval of Hamilton shareholders, requisite regulatory approvals, the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Ameris with respect to the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued in the Hamilton merger and other customary closing conditions.

The completion of the Atlantic merger is not conditioned upon or subject to the completion of the Hamilton merger, and the completion of the Hamilton merger is not conditioned upon or subject to the completion of the Atlantic merger.

Atlantic Special Meeting (see page 38)

The special meeting will be held on March 21, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Jacksonville Marriott, 4670 Salisbury Road, Jacksonville, FL 32256. At the special meeting, holders of Atlantic common stock will be asked to:

- approve the merger proposal;
- approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the merger-related compensation proposal; and
- approve the adjournment proposal.

You can vote at the special meeting if you owned Atlantic common stock as of the close of business on February 12, 2018, which is the record date for the special meeting. On that date, there were 15,553,709 shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, approximately 10.9% of which were owned and entitled to be voted by Atlantic’s directors and executive officers and their affiliates. As of the record date, neither Ameris nor any of its directors or executive officers owned or had the right to vote any of the outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock. You can cast one vote for each share of Atlantic common stock you owned on that date.

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock entitled to vote. Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of the merger-related compensation proposal, and approval of the adjournment proposal, each requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

The directors and certain executive officers of Atlantic have entered into a Voting Agreement with Ameris and Atlantic under which they have agreed, among other things, to vote all of the shares they beneficially own for approval of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. A total of 1,702,982 shares of Atlantic common stock, representing approximately 10.9% of the outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, are subject to the Voting Agreement.

The Merger (see page 65)

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In the merger, Atlantic will merge with and into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving company. It is expected that immediately after the merger, Atlantic Coast Bank will merge into Ameris Bank, with Ameris Bank as the surviving bank.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger (see page 65)

The completion of the merger is expected to occur during the second quarter of 2018. Unless both Ameris and Atlantic agree to a later date, the closing of the merger will take place no later than five business days after all of the conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or waived in accordance with their terms. We refer to the date on which the closing of the merger occurs as the “closing date.”

On the closing date, Ameris will file a certificate of merger with the Georgia Secretary of State and articles of merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation. The merger will be effective upon the later of: (i) the filing of the certificate of merger with the Georgia Secretary of State and the articles of merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation; and (ii) such later date and time to which Ameris and Atlantic agree and as may be specified in accordance with the Georgia Business Corporation Code. We refer to the date and time at which the merger is effective as the “effective time.”

The Merger Consideration; Merger Consideration Adjustments (see pages 66 and 76)

If the merger is completed and unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of Atlantic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive: (i) $1.39 in cash, without interest; and (ii) 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Ameris will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Rather, Atlantic stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of Ameris common stock upon the completion of the merger will instead receive an amount in cash (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fractional part of a share of Ameris common stock multiplied by the exchange ratio multiplied by the average Ameris stock price (as defined under “The Merger Agreement — Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments”).

The completion of the merger is subject to a price floor. If the average closing price of one share of Ameris common stock during a specified determination period has declined by more than 15% from its price on November 15, 2017, of $46.95 per share, and Ameris common stock underperforms the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) by more than 15% during such period, then Atlantic may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Ameris offsets such reduction in the value of Ameris common stock by increasing the number of shares of Ameris common stock to be issued, or paying additional cash consideration (provided that doing so would not prevent the merger from qualifying as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code), to the Atlantic stockholders.

If the June 30, 2018 termination date of the Merger Agreement is extended by either party as contemplated in the Merger Agreement and described under “The Merger Agreement — Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments,” then provided that it does not prevent the merger from qualifying as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the aggregate cash consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders in the merger will be increased by the amount of Atlantic’s after-tax net income for the period from January 1, 2018 through June 30, 2018.

Subject to certain exceptions specified in the Merger Agreement, if prior to the effective time of the merger the number of outstanding shares of Ameris common stock or Atlantic common stock is changed as a result of a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification or similar transaction with respect to such shares, then the stock consideration will be proportionately and appropriately adjusted.

The value of the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger. The market price of Ameris common stock at closing will not be known at the time of the special meeting and may be more or less than the current market price of Ameris common stock or the price of Ameris common stock at the time of the special meeting. You should obtain current market prices for Ameris common stock and Atlantic common stock prior to voting. The Ameris common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “ABCB.” The Atlantic common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol “ACFC.”

Equivalent Atlantic Per Share Value (see page 36)

The following table presents the closing price of Ameris common stock on November 16, 2017, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger, and February 12, 2018, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also presents the equivalent value of the per share purchase price on those dates, calculated by multiplying the closing price of Ameris common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 0.17 and then adding to such product the cash consideration of $1.39.

Date	Ameris Closing Price	Exchange Ratio	Equivalent Atlantic Per Share Value
November 16, 2017	$ 47.30	0.17	$ 9.43
February 12, 2018	$ 52.60	0.17	$ 10.33

The value of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the merger based upon the market price of Ameris common stock. Any fluctuation in the market price of Ameris common stock after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the shares of Ameris common stock that Atlantic stockholders will receive, and will therefore change the value of the merger consideration. You should obtain current market prices for shares of Ameris common stock and Atlantic common stock.

At the effective time of the merger, each Atlantic restricted share award will fully vest and be converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration.

Each outstanding option to acquire shares of Atlantic common stock issued pursuant to Atlantic’s equity-based compensation plans (each, an “Atlantic stock option”) has an exercise price of $14.95 per share. Because this exercise price is expected to be well in excess of the merger consideration price (as defined below), it is likely that each Atlantic stock option will be canceled without consideration. If, however, the exercise price is less than the merger consideration price at the effective time of the merger, then each Atlantic stock option will fully vest and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a cash payment from Ameris or Ameris Bank (the “cash-out amount”) in an amount equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration price over the exercise price of each such Atlantic stock option; and (ii) the number of shares of Atlantic common stock subject to such Atlantic stock option to the extent not previously exercised.

The term “merger consideration price” means the sum of: (i) the exchange ratio multiplied by the average Ameris stock price (as defined under “The Merger Agreement — Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments”); and (ii) $1.39. Surrender of Stock Certificates (see page 67)

Shortly after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent for the merger will mail to each holder of record of Atlantic common stock a letter of transmittal and instructions for the surrender of the holder’s Atlantic stock certificate(s) or book-entry shares for the merger consideration and any dividends or distributions to which such holder may be entitled to pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

Please do not send in your stock certificates until you receive the letter of transmittal.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Atlantic (see pages 50 and 74)

The board of directors of Atlantic has approved and adopted the Merger Agreement, and determined that the merger is in the best interests of Atlantic and its stockholders, and unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal, “FOR” the merger-related compensation proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

For a discussion of the factors considered by the board of directors of Atlantic in reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, see “The Merger — Atlantic’s Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of the Atlantic Board of Directors.”

Opinion of Hovde Group, LLC, Financial Advisor of Atlantic (see page 52 and Appendix C)

On November 15, 2017, Hovde Group, LLC (“Hovde”) delivered to the board of directors of Atlantic a written opinion regarding the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders from a financial point of view.

The Hovde opinion was directed to the board of directors of Atlantic and relates only to the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders from a financial point of view. Hovde’s opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any Atlantic stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting.

The full text of Hovde’s November 15, 2017 opinion is included as Appendix C in this proxy statement/ prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. Atlantic stockholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the merger proposal.

The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the respective obligations of Ameris and Atlantic to complete the merger that each of Ameris and Atlantic receives a legal opinion to that effect. Accordingly, a, Atlantic stockholder generally will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Ameris common stock received pursuant to the merger over that holder’s adjusted tax basis in its shares of Atlantic common stock surrendered); and (ii) the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger. Further, an Atlantic stockholder generally will recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of Ameris common stock that the Atlantic stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive. The United States federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Atlantic common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Some of Atlantic’s executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are in addition to, or different from, the interests of Atlantic stockholders generally. These interests include the following:

- simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, John K. Stephens, Jr., the President and Chief Executive Officer of Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank, entered into an Executive Non-Competition Agreement with Ameris that provides for the payment to Mr. Stephens of the sum of $605,000, to be paid in equal installments over a period of eighteen months;
- employment agreements with each of Atlantic’s executive officers provide for certain cash severance benefits if such officers’ employment is terminated following a change in control of Atlantic;
- each Atlantic restricted share award will vest and be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration; and
- Atlantic’s directors and executive officers will be entitled to indemnification by Ameris with respect to claims arising from matters occurring at or prior to the closing of the merger and to coverage under a directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policy for six years after the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The board of directors of Atlantic was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving and adopting the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (see page 75)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of customary conditions being satisfied or, where permitted, waived, including:

- receipt of the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval;
- receipt of all regulatory authorizations, consents, orders or approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger and the bank merger (the “required regulatory approvals”), without them containing or resulting in the imposition of any materially burdensome regulatory condition (as defined under “— Regulatory Approvals”);
- no order, injunction or legal restraint preventing the completion of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and no law prohibiting or making illegal the completion of the merger;
- the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, and no stop order being entered with respect thereto;
- the accuracy of the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement, without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or material adverse effect described in the Merger Agreement;
- the performance in all material respects by Ameris and Atlantic of their respective agreements and covenants under the Merger Agreement; and
- receipt by each of Ameris and Atlantic of an opinion of its respective legal counsel as to certain tax matters related to the merger.

No assurance is given as to when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Regulatory Approvals (see page 64)

Under applicable law, the merger must be approved by The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve”) and the bank merger of the two bank subsidiaries must be approved by the FDIC. In addition, the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance (the “GDBF”) must also approve the merger and the bank merger of the two bank subsidiaries.

All of the regulatory applications for the required regulatory approvals from the foregoing banking regulators have been filed and are pending as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. There is no assurance as to whether all required regulatory approvals will be obtained or as to the dates of the approvals. We make no assurance that the required regulatory approvals can be obtained or that any conditions regarding such regulatory approvals would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the surviving company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole (a “materially burdensome regulatory condition”).

Limitations on Discussions With Third Parties (see page 73)

Atlantic has agreed to a number of limitations with respect to soliciting, negotiating and discussing, or accepting acquisition proposals (as defined under “The Merger Agreement — Limitations on Discussions With Third Parties”) involving persons other than Ameris, and to certain related matters. The Merger Agreement does not, however, prohibit Atlantic from considering prior to the special meeting an unsolicited, bona fide acquisition proposal from a third party if certain conditions specified in the Merger Agreement are met.

Termination Rights; Termination Fee (see pages 76 and 78)

Ameris and Atlantic may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the merger at any time prior to the effective time. Subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, the Merger Agreement may be terminated prior to the effective time as follows:

- by either party if, under certain circumstances, the merger is not completed by June 30, 2018 (unless such termination date is extended by either party as provided in the Merger Agreement);
- by either party, if events that have had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the other party have occurred and are continuing;
- by either party, if the other party materially breaches any covenant, obligation or agreement in the Merger Agreement, subject to the cure provisions provided in the Merger Agreement;
- by Ameris, if Ameris learns of any fact or condition that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Ameris or Atlantic and which Atlantic was required, but failed, to disclose;
- by either party, if any required regulatory approval has been denied or any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction has issued a final, nonappealable injunction permanently enjoining or prohibiting the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger or the bank merger of the two bank subsidiaries;
- by either party, if the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval is not obtained; and
- by Atlantic, prior to obtaining the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval, to enter into another proposed offer.

In addition, if the average closing price of one share of Ameris common stock during the determination period has declined by more than 15% from its price on November 15, 2017, of $46.95 per share, and Ameris common stock underperforms the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) by more than 15% during such period, then Atlantic may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Ameris increases the exchange ratio or contributes sufficient additional cash consideration (provided that doing so would not prevent the merger from qualifying as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code) for payment to Atlantic stockholders to offset any reduction in the value of the stock consideration attributable to such decline.

Atlantic must pay to Ameris a termination fee equal to $5.75 million if an acquisition proposal (as defined under “The Merger Agreement — Limitations on Discussions With Third Parties”) is outstanding, or has been accepted by Atlantic, and the Merger Agreement is terminated:

- by either party because the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2018; or
- by Atlantic other than because (i) events have occurred and are continuing that have had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on Ameris, or (ii) Ameris has materially breached any covenant, obligation or agreement in the Merger Agreement, subject to the cure provisions provided therein.

Atlantic also must pay to Ameris the termination fee of $5.75 million if Ameris terminates the Merger Agreement after an adverse Atlantic recommendation change (as defined under “The Merger Agreement — Atlantic Board Recommendation”) by the board of directors of Atlantic.

Accounting Treatment (see page 64)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (“GAAP”).

Dissenters’ Rights (see page 64)

Under Maryland law, holders of Atlantic common stock do not have the right to dissent from the Merger Agreement and seek an appraisal in connection with the merger.

Ameris Bancorp 2017 Financial Results

On January 26, 2018, Ameris announced preliminary, unaudited earnings and operating results for the quarter and twelve months ended December 31, 2017. Ameris reported net income of $73.5 million, or $1.98 per diluted share, for the year ended December 31, 2017, compared with $72.1 million, or $2.08 per diluted share, for 2016. For the quarter ended December 31, 2017, reported results include net income of $9.2 million, or $0.24 per diluted share, compared with $18.2 million, or $0.52 per diluted share, for the same period in 2016. The financial results include a charge of $13.4 million to income tax expense related to the valuation of Ameris’s deferred tax asset, due to the recent tax legislation that reduces the future corporate tax rate for Ameris.

Ameris reported adjusted operating net income of $92.3 million, or $2.48 per diluted share, for the year ended December 31, 2017, compared with $80.6 million, or $2.32 per diluted share, for 2016. Adjusted operating net income for the fourth quarter of 2017 was $23.6 million, or $0.63 per diluted share, compared with $22.2 million, or $0.63 per diluted share, for the same quarter of 2016. For the year ended December 31, 2017, Ameris’s adjusted operating return on average assets was 1.26%, compared with 1.31% for 2016. For the fourth quarter of 2017, Ameris’s adjusted operating return on average assets was 1.20%, compared with 1.34% in the same quarter of 2016.

Highlights. Highlights of Ameris's results for 2017 include the following:

- Growth in operating net earnings of 14.4%;
- Organic growth in loans of $941.0 million, or 20.3%, compared with $660.4 million, or 20.8%, in 2016;
- Adjusted operating return on average assets of 1.26%, compared with 1.31% in 2016, with the decline almost entirely related to lower contribution to earnings from retail mortgage;
- Adjusted operating return on average tangible common equity of 14.66%, compared with 16.85% in 2016;
- Improvement in adjusted operating efficiency ratio to 60.3%, compared with 61.6% for 2016;
- Increase in tangible book value per share of 23.9% to $17.86 at December 31, 2017;
- Excluding accretion, increases in net interest margin of five basis points during 2017 compared with 2016;

- Loan to deposit ratio at the end of 2017 of 91.3%, compared with 94.4% at the end of 2016;
- Increase in total revenue of 12.1% to $364.6 million; and
- Annualized net charge-offs of 0.12% of average total loans and 0.13% of average non-purchased loans.

Increase in Net Interest Income. Net interest income on a tax-equivalent basis increased 19.4% in 2017 to $267.1 million, up from $223.6 million for 2016. Growth in earning assets from internal sources contributed to the increase. Average earning assets increased 20.7% in 2017 to $6.76 billion, compared with $5.60 billion for 2016. Although Ameris's net interest income increased, net interest margin for 2017, including accretion, declined to 3.95%, compared with 3.99% for 2016. Yields on earning assets in 2017 were 4.46%, compared with 4.35% in 2016.

Accretion income for 2017 decreased to $10.6 million, or 2.9% of total revenue, compared with $14.1 million, or 4.3%, respectively, for 2016. Excluding the effect of accretion, Ameris's margin for 2017 was 3.79%, compared with 3.74% for 2016. Yields on all loans, excluding the effect of accretion, increased to 4.63% in 2017, compared with 4.50% in 2016.

Ameris's net interest margin was 3.94% for the fourth quarter of 2017, down slightly from 3.95% reported for both the third quarter of 2017 and for the fourth quarter of 2016. Accretion income for the fourth quarter of 2017 decreased to $2.2 million, compared with $2.7 million for the third quarter of 2017, and from $3.4 million reported for the fourth quarter of 2016. Excluding the effect of accretion, Ameris's margin for the fourth quarter of 2017 was 3.82%, an improvement compared with 3.80% for the third quarter of 2017 and 3.73% for the fourth quarter of 2016.

Yields on all loans, excluding the effect of accretion, increased to 4.70% during the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with 4.65% in the third quarter of 2017. Loan production in the banking division during the fourth quarter of 2017 totaled $419.8 million, with weighted average yields of 4.89%, compared with $409.2 million and 4.74%, respectively, in the third quarter of 2017 and $498.7 million and 4.37%, respectively, in the fourth quarter of 2016. Loan production in the lines of business (to include retail mortgage, warehouse lending, Small Business Administration ("SBA") and premium finance) amounted to an additional $1.5 billion during the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with $1.3 billion during the fourth quarter of 2016.

Total interest expense for 2017 was $34.2 million, compared with $19.7 million for 2016. Deposit costs increased during 2017 to 0.34%, compared with 0.24% for 2016. Noninterest-bearing deposits represented 28.6% of the total average deposits for 2017, compared with 29.1% for 2016.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income decreased 1.3% in 2017 to $104.5 million, compared with $105.8 million for 2016, the result of flat mortgage and service charges during 2017. Noninterest retail mortgage revenues were essentially flat during the year at $48.5 million despite an increase in mortgage volume of approximately $93.7 million, or 6.7%. Gain on sale margins tightened during 2017, as they moved from 3.36% in the fourth quarter of 2016 to 3.17% in the fourth quarter of 2017 because of more industry focus on purchase business and higher rates to borrowers. Ameris increased volume sufficient to make up for the tighter gains on sale, but late season hiring of mortgage bankers impacted profitability which increased by only 10.8%. During 2017, Ameris originated approximately $547 million of government loans with only 11.9% being Ameris's own Government National Mortgage Association securities.

Service charges for the year were also flat, coming in at $42.1 million compared with $42.7 million for 2016.

Declining counts of consumer oriented accounts with the associated balances and revenues were offset by larger commercial accounts, generally with enough balances to offset the analysis charges.

Revenues from Ameris's warehouse lending division decreased slightly during the year, from $7.8 million for 2016 to $7.6 million for 2017, while net income for the division increased 4.8%, from $4.1 million for 2016 to $4.3 million for 2017. Net income for Ameris's retail mortgage division was $2.2 million for the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with $3.0 million in the third quarter of 2017 and $1.9 million for the fourth quarter of 2016. Net income for Ameris's warehouse lending division was $1.4 million for the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with $1.1 million for the third quarter of 2017 and $904,000 for the fourth quarter of 2016.

Revenues from Ameris's SBA division continued to increase during 2017, rising from $8.9 million for 2016 to $10.0 million for 2017. Net income for the division increased to $3.9 million for 2017, compared with $2.8 million for 2016.

Noninterest Expense. Noninterest expense increased $16.1 million, or 7.5%, to $231.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2017, compared with $215.8 million for the year 2016. However, Ameris incurred various expenses related to the new premium finance division that was added late in 2016, compliance-related charges due to exiting the Consent Order (as defined under "The Companies — Ameris Bancorp"), losses on the sale of bank premises, merger-related charges and Hurricane Irma expenses. Excluding these amounts, expenses in 2017 increased by only $7.5 million, or 3.7%, compared with 2016 levels. Growth of noninterest expense in the retail mortgage, warehouse lending and SBA lines of business account for 41% of that increase, leaving core bank noninterest expense increasing only $4.4 million, or 2.8%. The following table shows the detail of these charges and analysis:

Balance Sheet Trends. Total assets increased $964.2 million, or 14.0%, during 2017. Total loans, including loans held for sale, purchased loans and purchased loan pools, were $6.24 billion at the end of 2017, compared with $5.37 billion at the end of 2016. Organic growth in loans totaled $941.0 million, or 20.3%, during 2017, compared with $660.4 million, or 20.8%, in 2016. As expected, loan growth rates in the fourth quarter of 2017 slowed to 10.1% on an annualized basis, compared with 12.1% on an annualized basis in the same quarter of 2016.

During the quarter, Ameris sold or reclassified to loans held for sale approximately $119.5 million of mortgage loans from purchased loan pools, reducing the investment in purchased loan pools to $328.2 million, down 42% compared with the same period in the year ago period.

Loans outstanding for the new premium finance division grew $112.0 million, or 30.2%, from $370.6 million at the end of 2016 to $482.5 million at the end of 2017.

Deposits increased $1.05 billion during 2017 to end the year at $6.63 billion, from $5.58 billion at the end of 2016. At December 31, 2017, noninterest-bearing deposit accounts were $1.78 billion, or 26.8% of total deposits, compared with $1.57 billion, or 28.2% of total deposits, at December 31, 2016. Non-rate sensitive deposits grew $342.4 million, or 10.8%, to $3.52 billion at December 31, 2017, compared with $3.17 billion at the end of 2016. These funds represented 53.1% of Ameris's total deposits at the end of 2017, compared with 56.9% at the end of 2016.

Growth in deposits at the end of the year, along with Ameris's sale of mortgage loans from purchased loan pools lowered the loan to deposit ratio from 101.0% at the end of the third quarter of 2017 to 91.3% at December 31, 2017. Stockholders' equity at December 31, 2017 totaled $804.5 million, an increase of $158.0 million, or 24.4%, from December 31, 2016. The increase in stockholders' equity was the result of the issuance of shares of Ameris common stock in a public offering in the first quarter of 2017, plus earnings of $73.5 million during 2017, offset by dividends paid to shareholders of $14.9 million. Tangible book value per share was $17.86 at the end of 2017, up 23.9% from $14.42 at the end of 2016. Tangible common equity as a percentage of tangible assets was 8.62% at the end of 2017, compared with 7.46% at the end of 2016.

Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation 2017 Financial Results

On January 23, 2018, Atlantic announced preliminary, unaudited earnings and operating results for the quarter and twelve months ended December 31, 2017.

Atlantic reported a loss per diluted share of $0.04 and earnings per diluted share of $0.21 for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017, respectively, compared with earnings of $0.13 and $0.42 for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2016, respectively. The results for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017, included a charge of $1.6 million, or $0.11 per diluted share, related to a reduction in the valuation of Atlantic's net deferred tax assets caused by the recently enacted tax legislation, which reduces the future statutory corporate income tax rate, and $0.4 million, or $0.03 per diluted share, of merger-related costs.

Other significant highlights of Atlantic's fourth quarter of 2017 and the full year included:

- Net interest income was $7.2 million and $27.0 million for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017, respectively, compared with $7.1 million and $26.5 million for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2016, respectively. Net interest margin was 3.24% and 3.20% for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017, respectively, compared with 3.30% and 3.12% for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2016, respectively.

- Total loans (including portfolio loans, loans held-for-sale, and warehouse loans held-for-investment) increased 16% to $842.8 million at December 31, 2017, from $727.0 million at December 31, 2016. Atlantic's loan growth since December 31, 2016, was driven primarily by increased commercial real estate lending in all of its markets. This growth was somewhat offset by lower mortgage loan sales as part of Atlantic's interest rate risk and balance sheet management strategies as well as decreases in warehouse loans held-for-investment.

- Deposits increased 8% to $675.8 million at December 31, 2017, from $628.4 million at December 31, 2016. Deposits, excluding brokered certificates of deposit, increased 15% to $639.8 million at December 31, 2017, from $558.0 million at December 31, 2016. Wholesale funding, which includes brokered certificates of deposit and Federal Home Loan Bank advances, decreased 4% to $249.5 million at December 31, 2017, from $259.2 million at December 31, 2016. The increase in non-brokered deposits and resulting reduced reliance on wholesale funding was driven primarily by Atlantic's commercial deposit strategies put in place during 2016.

- Total assets increased to $983.3 million at December 31, 2017, from $907.5 million at December 31, 2016, primarily due to increases in portfolio loans and warehouse loans held-for-investment, which were partially offset by a decrease in cash and cash equivalents, investment securities and loans held-for-sale.

- Nonperforming assets, as a percentage of total assets, declined to 0.97% at December 31, 2017, from 1.44% at December 31, 2016. Due to Atlantic's generally stable credit quality during 2016 and continuing throughout 2017, reflecting an overall slowing pace of loan reclassifications to nonperforming, Atlantic's loan loss provision remained at a low level for both the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017, while maintaining, in management's view, an adequate ratio of allowance for portfolio loan losses to total portfolio loans.

- Atlantic Coast Bank's ratios of total risk-based capital to risk-weighted assets and Tier 1 (core) capital to adjusted total assets were 12.53% and 9.66%, respectively, at December 31, 2017, and each continued to exceed the levels required by regulation, currently 10% and 5%, respectively, for a bank to be considered well-capitalized.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Bank Regulatory Capital

Key Capital Measures	At December 31,
	2017	2016
Total risk-based capital ratio (to risk-weighted assets)	12.53%	14.83%
Common equity tier 1 (core) risk-based capital ratio (to risk-weighted assets)	11.43%	13.58%
Tier 1 (core) risk-based capital ratio (to risk-weighted assets)	11.43%	13.58%
Tier 1 (core) capital ratio (to adjusted total assets)	9.67%	9.44%

The decrease in risk-weighted capital ratios at December 31, 2017, compared with December 31, 2016, reflected an increase in risk-weighted assets due to growth in portfolio loans and a decrease in cash and cash equivalents and investment securities, as well as an increase in the risk weighting of certain portfolio loan categories, partially offset by an increase in equity due to accumulated earnings. The charge to remeasure net deferred tax assets, together with merger related expenses, reduced Atlantic's Tier 1 (core) capital ratio as of December 31, 2017, by approximately 20 basis points.

Credit Quality

	At December 31,
	2017	2016
	(Dollars in millions)
Nonperforming loans	$ 7.8	$ 10.1
Nonperforming loans to total portfolio loans	1.02%	1.57%
Other real estate owned	$ 1.7	$ 2.9
Nonperforming assets	$ 9.5	$ 13.0
Nonperforming assets to total assets	0.97%	1.44%
Troubled debt restructurings performing for less than 12 months under terms of modification (1)	$ 15.2	$ 14.6
Troubled debt restructurings performing for more than 12 months under terms of modification	$ 15.7	$ 20.3

(1) Includes $5.9 million and $7.9 million of nonperforming loans at December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Nonperforming assets have declined for five consecutive quarters as Atlantic's overall credit quality remained stable and the general pace of loans reclassified to nonperforming remained slow during the last twelve months. Importantly, OREO declined significantly as of December 31, 2017, compared with that at December 31, 2016, primarily due to the sale of a $2.4 million foreclosed property in the second quarter of 2017, partially offset by the foreclosure of a $1.6 million property in the fourth quarter of 2017, which was expected to occur and had been fully reserved for prior to the foreclosure.

Net charge-offs (recoveries) to average outstanding portfolio loans (annualized)	0.02%	(0.01)%	0.02%	0.04%	0.03%

Net charge-offs totaled $39,000 and $38,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively, while net recoveries totaled $18,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2017. This reflects a trend of solid economic conditions across Atlantic's markets, which has led to continued low levels of net charge-offs during the last twelve months.

Atlantic's provision for portfolio loan losses has remained within a relatively narrow range over the past year. However, it was up $185,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2017, compared with the fourth quarter last year, and was up $74,000 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2017, versus full year 2016. The increase in the allowance for portfolio loan losses at December 31, 2017, compared with that at December 31, 2016, was attributable primarily to loan growth, which reflected organic growth supplemented by strategic loan purchases that were offset partially by loan sales, principal amortization, and increased prepayments of one- to four-family residential mortgages and home equity loans. Management believes the allowance for portfolio loan losses at December 31, 2017, is sufficient to absorb losses in portfolio loans as of the end of the period.

Net Interest Income

	Three Months Ended			Year Ended
	Dec. 31, 2017	Sept. 30, 2017	Dec. 31, 2016	Dec. 31, 2017	Dec. 31, 2016
	(Dollars in millions)
Net interest income	$ 7.2	$ 6.8	$ 7.1	$ 27.0	$ 26.5
Net interest margin	3.24%	3.18%	3.30%	3.20%	3.12%
Yield on investment securities	2.09%	2.05%	2.29%	2.25%	2.11%
Yield on loans	4.47%	4.31%	4.40%	4.33%	4.37%

Rates paid on borrowed funds	1.83%	2.02%	1.14%	1.88%	1.70%

The slight decrease in net interest margin during the three months ended December 31, 2017, compared with net interest margin for the three months ended December 31, 2016, reflected an increase in rates paid on deposits and borrowed funds, with little to no change in rates on new loans due to highly competitive lending conditions. In addition, margin remains relatively stable given the improved mix in core deposits and growth in noninterest-bearing accounts. The increase in net interest margin during the twelve months ended December 31, 2017, compared with net interest margin for the twelve months ended

December 31, 2016, primarily reflected a decrease in rates paid on funds due to an increase in noninterest-bearing deposits, and an increase in higher-margin interest-earning assets outstanding, reflecting Atlantic's ongoing redeployment of excess liquidity to grow its portfolio loans, loans held-for-sale, and warehouse loans held-for-investment.

Noninterest Income/Noninterest Expense/Income Tax Expense

	Three Months Ended			Year Ended
	Dec. 31, 2017	Sept. 30, 2017	Dec. 31, 2016	Dec. 31, 2017	Dec. 31, 2016
	(Dollars in millions)
Noninterest income	$ 1.3	$ 1.2	$ 1.9	$ 7.0	$ 9.2
Noninterest expense	$ 6.4	$ 6.1	$ 6.0	$ 25.6	$ 25.1
Income tax expense	$ 2.5	$ 0.6	$ 1.0	$ 4.6	$ 3.6

The decrease in noninterest income for the three months ended December 31, 2017, compared with that of the three months ended December 31, 2016, primarily reflected lower gains on the sale of portfolio loans and loans held-for-sale, as well as reduced service charges and fees. The decrease in noninterest income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2017, compared with that of the twelve months ended December 31, 2016, primarily reflected lower gains on the sale of investment securities, lower gains on the sale of portfolio loans, reduced service charges and fees, and a decrease in miscellaneous operating income related to an escrow account that was forfeited in 2016 in connection with an OREO sale, partially offset by higher gains on the sale of loans held-for-sale.

The increase in noninterest expense during the three months ended December 31, 2017, compared with that of the three months ended December 31, 2016, primarily reflected an increase in compensation and benefits, occupancy and equipment expense, and merger-related costs associated with the proposed merger with Ameris, partially offset by reduced foreclosed asset expense and a decrease in data processing expenses. The increase in noninterest expense during the twelve months ended December 31, 2017, compared with that of the twelve months ended December 31, 2016, primarily reflected an increase in compensation and benefits, increased data processing expenses associated with efforts to improve Atlantic's IT infrastructure, an increase in occupancy and equipment expense, and the aforementioned merger-related costs, partially offset by the positive impact of an adjustment to the rate of accrual for FDIC insurance premiums, reducing the amount accrued for the full year, and a decrease in collection expense.

The increase in income tax expense for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2017, compared with that of the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2016, primarily reflected the impact of newly enacted tax legislation, partially offset by a decline in income before income tax expense.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures. A non-GAAP financial measure is generally defined as a numerical measure of a company's historical or future financial performance, financial position, or cash flows that either excludes or includes amounts, or is subject to adjustments, so as to be different from the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP. Core earnings and core earnings per diluted share exclude the effects of certain transactions that occurred during the period, as detailed in the following reconciliation of these measures.

Core earnings and core earnings per diluted share should be viewed in addition to, and not as a substitute for or superior to, net income and income per diluted share on a GAAP basis. Atlantic's management believes that the non-GAAP financial measures, when considered together with GAAP financial measures, provide information that is useful to investors in understanding period-over-period operating results separate and apart from items that may, or could, have a disproportionately positive or negative impact on results in any particular period. Atlantic's management also believes that the non-GAAP financial measures aid investors in analyzing Atlantic's business trends and in understanding Atlantic's performance. In addition, Atlantic may utilize non-GAAP financial measures as guides in forecasting, budgeting and long-term planning processes and to measure operating performance for some management compensation purposes.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This proxy statement/prospectus and certain documents filed by Ameris with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus contain financial information determined by methods other than in accordance with GAAP. Ameris's management uses these non-GAAP measures in its analysis of Ameris's performance. These measures are useful when evaluating the underlying performance and efficiency of Ameris's operations and balance sheet. Ameris's management believes that these non-GAAP measures provide a greater understanding of ongoing operations, enhance comparability of results with prior periods and demonstrate the effects of significant gains and charges in the current period. Ameris's management believes that investors may use these non-GAAP financial measures to evaluate Ameris's financial performance without the impact of unusual items that may obscure trends in Ameris's underlying performance. These disclosures should not be viewed as a substitute for financial measures determined in accordance with GAAP, nor are they necessarily comparable to non-GAAP performance measures that may be presented by other companies. Non-GAAP measures include tangible common equity and tangible book value per common share. Ameris calculates the regulatory capital ratios using current regulatory report instructions. Ameris's management uses these measures to assess the quality of capital and believes that investors may find them useful in their evaluation of Ameris. These capital measures may or may not be necessarily comparable to similar capital measures that may be presented by other companies.

The following information reconciles Ameris's tangible book value per common share, a non-GAAP financial measure, as of the dates presented to Ameris's book value per common share, a financial measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP, as of the dates presented.

SELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED FINANCIAL DATA

The following table presents selected unaudited pro forma condensed financial data about the financial condition and results of operations of Ameris giving effect to the merger. See “The Merger — Accounting Treatment.”

The following table presents the information as if the merger had become effective on September 30, 2017, with respect to financial condition data, and on January 1, 2017, with respect to the results of operations data. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed financial data have been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical financial information that Ameris and Atlantic have incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus as of and for the indicated periods. See “Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Financial Information” and “Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference.”

The selected unaudited pro forma condensed financial data are presented for illustrative purposes only and do not necessarily indicate the financial results of the combined companies had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of the period presented. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed financial information also does not consider any potential impacts of current market conditions on revenues, potential revenue enhancements, anticipated cost savings and expense efficiencies, or asset dispositions, among other factors.

RISK FACTORS

In deciding how to vote, you should consider carefully all of the information included in this proxy statement/prospectus and its appendices and all of the information incorporated by reference and the risk factors identified by Ameris and Atlantic with respect to their operations included in their respective filings with the SEC, including, in each case, the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-K for the quarter ended September 30, 2017. See “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference.” In addition, you should consider the following risk factors.

Because the market price of the Ameris common stock may fluctuate, Atlantic stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the merger consideration that they will receive in the merger until the closing.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Atlantic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive: (i) $1.39 in cash, without interest; and (ii) 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. The value of the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued to Atlantic stockholders in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger due to a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the parties’ respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond the control of Ameris and Atlantic. Therefore, at the time of the special meeting, Atlantic stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the market value of the Ameris common stock they will receive upon completion of the merger. We make no assurances as to whether or when the merger will be completed.

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected, and Ameris may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Ameris and Atlantic have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently.

The success of the merger will depend on, among other things, Ameris’s ability to combine the businesses of Ameris and Atlantic in a manner that does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of either Ameris or Atlantic or result in decreased revenues from customers of either of them. Additionally, Ameris may not be able to successfully achieve the level of cost savings, revenue enhancements and other synergies that it expects. If Ameris is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, then the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully, if at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. This could have an adverse effect on Ameris’s business, results of operations and stock price.

It is possible that the integration process could take longer than anticipated, result in the loss of key employees, disrupt either Ameris’s or Atlantic’s ongoing businesses or result in inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the ability of Ameris or Atlantic to maintain relationships with their respective clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

If Ameris’s stock price decreases below specified thresholds, then Atlantic has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement and the merger would not occur unless Ameris increases the merger consideration.

If the average closing price of one share of Ameris common stock during a specified determination period has declined by more than 15% from its price on November 15, 2017, of $46.95 per share, and Ameris common stock underperforms the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) by more than 15% during such period, then Atlantic may terminate the Merger Agreement unless Ameris offsets such reduction in the value of Ameris common stock by increasing the number of shares of Ameris common stock to be issued, or paying additional cash consideration, to the Atlantic stockholders.

As a result, even if Atlantic stockholders approve the Merger Agreement, the merger may ultimately not be completed. Although the Ameris board of directors has the ability to increase the merger consideration, and the board of directors of Atlantic has the power to choose not to terminate the Merger Agreement and proceed with the merger if Ameris does not increase the merger consideration, there is no obligation of either board to exercise such power.

The merger is expected to, but may not, qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the Code.

The parties expect the merger to be treated as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and Ameris and Atlantic will receive United States federal income tax opinions to that effect from their respective tax counsel. These tax opinions represent the legal judgement of counsel rendering the opinion and are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) or the courts. If the merger does not qualify as a tax-free reorganization, then the Atlantic stockholders may be required to recognize any gain with respect to all the consideration, including the shares of Ameris common stock and not just the cash, received in the merger. Tax matters are very complicated and the consequences of the merger to any particular Atlantic stockholder will depend on that stockholder’s particular facts and circumstances. You should consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Negative or unexpected consequences of the 2017 Tax Act could adversely affect Ameris’s results of operations. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, signed into law on December 22, 2017 (the “2017 Tax Act”), will make significant changes to the Code, including a reduction in the corporate tax rate and limitations on certain corporate deductions and credits. The new tax law could have negative or unexpected consequences on Ameris’s financial position. By way of example, the 2017 Tax Act will lead to changes in the valuation of certain deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities on Ameris’s consolidated balance sheets, which could materially affect Ameris’s results of operations. Further, the full extent of the impact of the 2017 Tax Act on the financial statements of Ameris cannot reasonably be estimated at this time. No assurance is given that the new tax law will not have an adverse effect on the market price of Ameris common stock after the merger.

The actual financial positions and results of operations of Ameris and Atlantic may differ materially from the pro forma financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The pro forma financial information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of what the combined company’s financial position or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated. The pro forma financial information has been derived from the audited and unaudited historical financial statements of Ameris and Atlantic and includes certain adjustments and assumptions regarding the combined businesses after giving effect to the transactions. The assets and liabilities of Atlantic have been measured at fair value based on various preliminary estimates using assumptions that management believes are reasonable utilizing information currently available. The process for calculating the fair value of acquired assets and assumed liabilities requires the use of estimates in determining the appropriate assumptions and estimates. These estimates may be revised as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. Differences between preliminary estimates in the pro forma financial information and the final acquisition accounting will occur and could have a material impact on the pro forma financial information and the combined company’s financial position and future results of operations. In addition, the assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial information may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company’s financial condition or results of operations following the closing. See “Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Financial Information.”

The opinion that Atlantic has obtained from Hovde has not been, and is not expected to be, updated to reflect any changes in circumstances that may have occurred since the signing of the Merger Agreement.

The opinion issued to the board of directors of Atlantic by Hovde, financial advisor to Atlantic, with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders from a financial point of view, speaks only as of November 15, 2017. Changes in the operations and prospects of Ameris or Atlantic, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Ameris and Atlantic, and on which the opinion was based, may have altered the value of Ameris or Atlantic, or the price of Ameris common stock as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, or may alter such values and prices by the time the merger is completed. Hovde has no obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion to reflect subsequent developments and has not done so. Because Atlantic does not currently anticipate asking Hovde to update its opinion, the opinion will not address the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or at the time the merger is completed. See “The Merger — Opinion of Atlantic’s Financial Advisor” and Appendix C included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The merger and the bank merger are subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from regulatory authorities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Ameris.

Before the merger and the bank merger can be completed, various approvals or consents or waivers must be obtained from bank regulatory authorities. These authorities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or the bank merger or require changes to their terms not favorable to Ameris or Atlantic proceeding with the merger. The required regulatory approvals may not be received at all, may not be received in a timely fashion, or may contain conditions on the completion of the merger and the bank merger that are burdensome, not anticipated or cannot be met. If the consummation of the merger is delayed, including by a delay in receipt of required regulatory approvals, the business, financial condition and results of operations of each company may also be materially adversely affected. See “The Merger — Regulatory Approvals” and “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to Completion of the Merger.” If the merger is not completed, then the parties will have incurred significant expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger and could be subject to additional risks.

Prior to completion of the merger, each of Atlantic and Ameris will incur or have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. If the merger is not completed, then Ameris and Atlantic would have to recognize these expenses without realizing the anticipated benefits of the merger. Ameris or Atlantic also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the merger or to proceedings commenced by Ameris or Atlantic against the other seeking damages or to compel the other to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement. These factors and similar risks could have an adverse effect on the results of operations, business and stock prices of Ameris and Atlantic.

The market price of Ameris common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Ameris or Atlantic currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Atlantic common stock will become holders of Ameris common stock. Ameris’s business differs from that of Atlantic, and accordingly, the results of operations of Ameris will be affected by some factors that are different from those currently affecting the results of operations of Atlantic. For a discussion of the businesses of Ameris and Atlantic and of some important factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see “Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference,” including, in particular, in the section entitled “Risk Factors” in each of Ameris’s and Atlantic’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017.

Atlantic stockholders will not be entitled to dissenters’ or appraisal rights in the merger.

Dissenters’ or appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under the Maryland law, holders of Atlantic common stock do not have the right to dissent from the Merger Agreement and seek an appraisal in connection with the merger.

If the Atlantic merger and the Hamilton merger were to occur, the pro forma combined company would exceed $10 billion in assets, which would result in increased costs and/or reduced revenues to the resulting entity and subject it to increased regulatory scrutiny by its primary federal regulators with respect to its risk management and other activities.

It is currently expected that, if the Atlantic merger and the Hamilton merger were both completed, the pro forma combined company would exceed $10 billion in assets, resulting in the company being subject to additional regulation and oversight that could impact its revenues and/or expenses. Such regulation and oversight include becoming subject to: (i) under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, annual stress testing (or DFAST), designed to assess the company's capital adequacy and risk management practices in the event of certain economic downturn scenarios; (ii) the examination and enforcement authority of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau with respect to consumer and small business products and services; (iii) deposit insurance premium assessments based on an FDIC scorecard based on, among other things, Ameris Bank's CAMELS rating and results of asset-related stress testing and funding-related stress testing; and (iv) a cap on interchange transaction fees for debit cards, as required by Federal Reserve regulations, which will significantly reduce Ameris's interchange revenue after the mergers. It is difficult to predict the overall compliance cost of these provisions, which will become effective (with a phase-in period) when the combined company surpasses $10 billion in consolidated assets as a result of the Atlantic merger and the Hamilton merger. However, compliance with these provisions will likely require additional staffing, engagement of external consultants and other operating costs that could have a material adverse effect on the future financial condition and results of operations of the combined company.

There is no assurance that Ameris will complete the Hamilton merger.

The Hamilton merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the approval of the Hamilton shareholders. If any conditions to the Hamilton merger are not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law, then the Hamilton merger will not be completed. In addition, Ameris and Hamilton may terminate the Hamilton Merger Agreement under certain circumstances even if it is approved by the Hamilton shareholders. If Ameris and Hamilton do not complete the Hamilton merger, then Ameris would not realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the Hamilton merger. There is no assurance that the Hamilton merger will be consummated, or if it is, the timing for its completion.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus, including information included in, or incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus, may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include: (i) statements about the benefits of the merger, including future financial and operating results and cost savings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) statements about our respective plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “estimates” or words of similar meaning. You should note that the discussion of the reasons for the merger contain many forward-looking statements that describe beliefs, assumptions, expectations and estimates of the board of directors or management of Ameris and Atlantic as of the indicated dates, and those assumptions, expectations and estimates may have changed as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Forward-looking statements are based on current beliefs and expectations of management of Ameris and Atlantic, and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of Ameris and Atlantic. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Therefore, actual results may differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements.

The ability to predict results or the actual effects of the combined company’s plans and strategies is inherently uncertain. Some of the factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include those identified under “Risk Factors” and the following:

- the risk that the cost savings and any revenue synergies from the merger may not be realized or take longer than anticipated to be realized;
- disruption caused by the merger with customers, suppliers or employees or other business relationships;
- a material adverse change in the financial condition of Ameris or Atlantic;
- a decline in the market price for Ameris common stock before the completion of the merger due to broader stock market movements or the performance of financial companies and peer group companies;
- lower than expected revenue following the merger;
- Ameris’s ability to complete the Hamilton merger;
- general economic conditions, either nationally or in Alabama, Florida, Georgia or South Carolina, that are less favorable than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration of the quality of the combined company’s loan portfolio and reduced demand for its products and services;
- the failure of the closing conditions to be satisfied or any unexpected delay in closing the merger;
- the possibility that the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events;

- rapid fluctuations or unanticipated changes in interest rates on loans or deposits;
- the possibility that the incremental cost and/or decreased revenues associated with exceeding $10 billion in assets will exceed current estimates;
- changes in state and federal legislation, regulations or policies applicable to banks and other financial service providers, including regulatory or legislative developments; and
- general competitive, economic, political and market conditions.

Additional factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include those discussed in the filings of Ameris and Atlantic with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference.”

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, Ameris’s and Atlantic’s actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus, and attributable to Ameris or Atlantic or any person acting on their behalf, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this “Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.” Ameris and Atlantic undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, unless obligated to do so under the federal securities laws.

UNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER COMMON SHARE DATA

The following table shows per common share data regarding basic and diluted net income, cash dividends and book value for Ameris and Atlantic on a historical basis, Ameris and Atlantic on a pro forma combined basis, and Atlantic on a pro forma equivalent basis. The pro forma information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with: (i) Ameris's audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included in Ameris's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and Ameris's unaudited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included in Ameris's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017, both of which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus; and (ii) Atlantic's audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included in Atlantic's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and Atlantic's unaudited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included in Atlantic's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017, both of which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference."

The pro forma information gives effect to the merger accounted for as a purchase and assumes that the merger occurred as of the beginning of the fiscal year presented (or in the case of book value, as of the date specified). This information is presented for illustrative purposes only. You should not rely on the pro forma combined or pro forma equivalent amounts as they are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been completed as of the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings, opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring and merger-related costs, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

- approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the merger-related compensation proposal;
- approve the adjournment proposal; and
- vote on any other matters as may properly be brought before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

At this time, the board of directors of Atlantic is unaware of any other matters that may be presented for action at the special meeting. If any other matters are properly presented, however, and you have previously voted, the person(s) named as proxy will have the authority to vote your shares in accordance with his or her judgment with respect to such matters.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A, and we encourage you to read it carefully in its entirety.

Recommendation of the board of directors of Atlantic

The board of directors of Atlantic unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal, “FOR” the merger-related compensation proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal. See “The Merger — Atlantic’s Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of the Atlantic Board of Directors.”

Record Date and Quorum

February 12, 2018 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of Atlantic stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. At the close of business on the record date, there were 15,553,709 shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

A quorum is necessary to transact business at the special meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Shares of Atlantic common stock represented at the special meeting but not voted, including shares that a stockholder abstains from voting and shares held in “street name” and voted by a bank, broker or other nominee even though a stockholder does not provide voting instructions, will be counted for establishing a quorum. Once a share of Atlantic common stock is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for determining a quorum not only at the special meeting but also at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the special meeting will be adjourned or postponed.

Required Vote

Each share of Atlantic common stock you own as of the record date for the special meeting entitles you to one vote at the special meeting on all matters properly presented at the meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Atlantic common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to approve the merger proposal. If you vote to abstain or if you fail to vote, then this will have the same effect as voting against the merger proposal.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Approval of the non-binding merger-related compensation proposal and the adjournment proposal each require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Not voting or abstaining on either of these proposals will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on these proposals.

Shares Subject to the Voting Agreement; Shares Held by Directors and Executive Officers

As of the record date, the directors and certain executive officers of Atlantic beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately 1,702,982 shares of Atlantic common stock representing approximately 10.9% of the shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding on that date. Ameris has entered into a Voting Agreement with Atlantic and the directors and certain executive officers of Atlantic, pursuant to which these stockholders have agreed, solely in their capacity as Atlantic stockholders, to vote their shares of Atlantic common stock in favor of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal, subject to certain exceptions. See “The Merger Agreement — Voting Agreement.” A copy of the Voting Agreement is included as Appendix B in this proxy statement/prospectus.

How to Vote — Stockholders of Record

Voting in Person. If you are a stockholder of record, then you can vote in person by submitting a ballot at the special meeting. Nevertheless, we recommend that you vote by proxy as promptly as possible, even if you plan to attend the special meeting. This will ensure that your vote is received. If you attend the special meeting, then you may vote by ballot, thereby canceling any proxy previously submitted.

Voting by Proxy. Your proxy card includes instructions on how to vote by mailing in the proxy card. If you choose to vote by proxy, please mark each proxy card you receive, sign and date it, and promptly return it in the envelope enclosed with the proxy card. If you sign and return your proxy without instruction on how to vote your shares, then your shares will be voted “FOR” the merger proposal, “FOR” the merger-related compensation proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal.

How to Vote — Shares Held in “Street Name”

If your shares of Atlantic common stock are held through a bank, broker or other nominee, then you are considered the beneficial owner of such shares held in “street name.” In such case, this proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded to you by your bank, broker or other nominee. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote the shares by following the voting instructions that they have sent. Without specific instructions from you, your bank, broker or other nominee is not empowered to vote your shares. Not voting these shares will have the effect of voting against the merger proposal but will have no effect on the outcome of the merger-related compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal. Alternatively, if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the special meeting, then you must provide a proxy executed in your favor by your bank, broker or other nominee.

How to Vote — Shares Held in the Atlantic ESOP

Participants in the Atlantic ESOP will each receive a Voting Instruction Form that reflects all of the shares that the participant may direct the Atlantic ESOP trustee to vote on his or her behalf under the plan. Under the terms of the Atlantic ESOP, the Atlantic ESOP trustee votes all shares held by the Atlantic ESOP, but each Atlantic ESOP participant may direct the trustee how to vote the shares of Atlantic common stock allocated to his or her account. The Atlantic ESOP trustee will vote all unallocated shares of Atlantic common stock held by the Atlantic ESOP and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received in the same proportion as shares for which it has received timely voting instructions.

The deadline for returning your Atlantic ESOP Voting Instruction Form is March 14, 2018, at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time.

Revocation of Proxies

You can revoke your proxy at any time before your shares are voted. If you are a stockholder of record, then you can revoke your proxy by:

- submitting another valid proxy card bearing a later date;
- attending the special meeting and voting your shares in person; or
- delivering prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation to Atlantic’s Corporate Secretary.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a proxy.

If you hold your shares in street name with a bank, broker or other nominee, then you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee to change your vote. Your last vote will be the vote that is counted.

Solicitation of Proxies

The proxy for the special meeting is being solicited on behalf of the board of directors of Atlantic. Atlantic will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies. All other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger and the transactions contemplated thereby are to be paid by the party incurring such expenses. See “The Merger Agreement — Expenses.”

Proxies will be solicited principally by mail, but may also be solicited by the directors, officers, and other employees of Atlantic in person or by telephone, facsimile or other means of electronic communication. Directors, officers and employees will receive no compensation for these activities in addition to their regular compensation, but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses in connection with such solicitation.

Attending the Special Meeting

All holders of Atlantic common stock, including stockholders of record and stockholders who hold their shares in street name through banks, brokers or other nominees, are cordially invited to attend the special meeting. You must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted at the special meeting. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cell phones, cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the special meeting without Atlantic’s express written consent is prohibited.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned or postponed, including to solicit additional proxies, if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal, or if a quorum is not present at the special meeting. Other than an announcement to be made at the special meeting of the time, date and place of an adjourned meeting, an adjournment generally may be made without notice. Any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies will allow the stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use at the special meeting as adjourned or postponed.

PROPOSALS FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING

Proposal 1: Approval of the Merger Proposal

Holders of Atlantic common stock are being asked to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Atlantic will merge with and into Ameris with Ameris as the surviving company. Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding on the record date. If your shares of Atlantic common stock are present at the special meeting but are not voted on the merger proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the merger proposal, then it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy, or if your shares of Atlantic common stock are held through a bank, broker or other nominee and you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of Atlantic common stock, then your shares of Atlantic common stock will not be voted, and it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal.

The board of directors of Atlantic unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal.

Proposal 2: Approval, on a Non-binding Advisory Basis, of the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal

Atlantic stockholders are being asked to approve, on a non-binding advisory basis, the compensation that certain executive officers of Atlantic (“named executive officers”) will receive under existing agreements with Atlantic in connection with the merger.

Section 951 of the Dodd-Frank Act and Rule 14a-21(c) under the Exchange Act require that Atlantic seek a non-binding advisory vote from Atlantic stockholders to approve certain compensation that its named executive officers will receive from Atlantic in connection with the merger.

Atlantic is presenting this proposal, which gives Atlantic stockholders the opportunity to express their views on the merger-related compensation by voting “FOR” or “AGAINST” the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that the compensation that will become payable to Atlantic’s named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger, as disclosed under “The Merger — Interests of Atlantic Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” and the related tables and narrative, is hereby approved.”

Approval, on a non-binding advisory basis, of the merger-related compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

If your shares of Atlantic common stock are present at the special meeting but are not voted on the proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the proposal, then it will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the merger-related compensation proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy, or if your shares of Atlantic common stock are held through a bank, broker or other nominee and you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of Atlantic common stock, then your shares of Atlantic common stock will not be voted.

Atlantic stockholder approval of the compensation payable to Atlantic’s named executive officers in connection with the merger is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote on the merger-related compensation proposal is advisory and will not be binding on Atlantic (or the combined company that results from the merger) regardless of whether the merger is approved. Accordingly, because the compensation to be paid to Atlantic’s named executive officers in connection with the merger is contractual, the compensation will be payable if the merger is completed regardless of the outcome of the non-binding, advisory vote on the merger-related compensation proposal.

The board of directors of Atlantic unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote in favor of the merger-related compensation arrangements described in this proxy statement/prospectus by voting “FOR” the merger-related compensation proposal.

Proposal 3: Approval of the Adjournment Proposal

Atlantic stockholders are being asked to grant authority to proxy holders to vote in favor of one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal.

If this proposal is approved, then the special meeting could be successively adjourned to any date. A vote on adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal may be taken in the absence of a quorum.

Atlantic does not currently intend to propose adjournment of the special meeting if there are sufficient votes to approve the merger proposal. If approval of the adjournment proposal is submitted to the Atlantic stockholders for approval, then the approval requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Atlantic common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

If your shares of Atlantic common stock are present at the special meeting but are not voted on the adjournment proposal, or if you vote to abstain on the adjournment proposal, then it will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the adjournment proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy, or if your shares of Atlantic common stock are held through a bank, broker or other nominee and you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of Atlantic common stock, then your shares of Atlantic common stock will not be voted, which will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the adjournment proposal.

The board of directors of Atlantic unanimously recommends that Atlantic stockholders vote “FOR” the adjournment proposal.

THE COMPANIES

Ameris Bancorp

Ameris Bancorp, a Georgia corporation incorporated in 1980, is a bank holding company headquartered in Moultrie, Georgia. The Ameris common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “ABCB.” Ameris’s principal executive offices are located at 310 First Street, S.E., Moultrie, Georgia 31768, and its telephone number is (229) 890-1111. Its website is www.amerisbank.com. The information on Ameris’s website is not part of this proxy statement/prospectus, and the reference to Ameris’s website address does not constitute incorporation by reference of any information on that website into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Ameris’s business is conducted primarily through Ameris Bank, a Georgia state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary. At September 30, 2017, Ameris had total consolidated assets of $7.6 billion, total loans (net of allowance for loan losses) of $5.9 billion, total deposits of $5.9 billion and shareholders’ equity of $801.9 million.

Through Ameris Bank, Ameris provides a full range of banking services to its retail and commercial customers through 97 branches primarily concentrated in select markets in Georgia, Alabama, Northern Florida and South Carolina. These branches serve distinct communities in Ameris’s business areas with autonomy but do so as one bank, leveraging Ameris’s favorable geographic footprint in an effort to acquire more customers.

Ameris’s business model capitalizes on the efficiencies of a large financial services company while still providing the community with the personalized banking service expected by its customers. As a bank holding company, Ameris performs certain shareholder and investor relations functions and seeks to provide financial support, if necessary, to Ameris Bank. Ameris Bank is managed through a balance of decentralized management responsibilities and efficient centralized operating systems, products and loan underwriting standards. The Ameris board of directors and senior managers establish corporate policy, strategy and administrative policies. Within Ameris’s established guidelines and policies, the banker closest to the customer responds to the differing needs and demands of his or her unique market. Throughout Ameris’s history, the strategy has been focused on growing its franchise in its historical markets and in select new markets that Ameris has entered through acquisitions. Ameris believes that this strategy has resulted in a consistent record of strong growth over an extended period of time, as Ameris has grown from $2.1 billion in total assets at December 31, 2007 to $7.6 billion in total assets at September 30, 2017.

On December 11, 2017, the FDIC terminated, effectively immediately, the Consent Order it issued to Ameris Bank on December 16, 2016 (the “Consent Order”). The Consent Order was associated with certain deficiencies in Ameris Bank’s Anti-Money Laundering and Bank Secrecy Act compliance program that arose out of regulatory examinations conducted in 2016.

For a complete description of Ameris’s business, financial condition, results of operations and other important information, please refer to Ameris’s filings with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017. See “Certain Documents Incorporated By Reference.”

Pending Acquisition of Hamilton State Bancshares, Inc.

On January 25, 2018, Ameris and Hamilton entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger pursuant to which Hamilton will merge into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving entity. The Hamilton Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the Hamilton merger, Hamilton State Bank, a Georgia bank wholly owned by Hamilton, will be merged into Ameris Bank, with Ameris Bank as the surviving bank (the “Hamilton bank merger”).

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Hamilton Merger Agreement, Hamilton shareholders will receive $0.93 in cash and 0.16 shares of Ameris common stock for each share of Hamilton common stock that they hold, which equates to an aggregate value of approximately $405.7 million based on the $53.45 closing price of Ameris common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market as of January 25, 2018.

The Hamilton Merger Agreement provides that at the effective time of the Hamilton merger, Hamilton's outstanding restricted stock units, to the extent then vested, will be converted into the right to receive the same consideration per share in the Hamilton merger as the outstanding shares of Hamilton common stock. The Hamilton Merger Agreement further provides that at the effective time of the Hamilton merger, Hamilton's outstanding stock options will fully vest and be cancelled and thereafter entitle the holders thereof to receive cash consideration of $9.06 for each share of Hamilton common stock issuable upon exercise of such options, less the applicable per share exercise price of such options. Under the Hamilton Merger Agreement, the outstanding warrants to acquire shares of Hamilton common stock will be also cancelled at the effective time of the Hamilton merger, entitling the holders thereof to receive cash consideration of $9.06 for each share of Hamilton common stock issuable upon exercise of such warrants, less the applicable per share exercise price of such warrants.

The Hamilton Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of each of Ameris and Hamilton and is expected to close in the third quarter of 2018. The closing of the Hamilton merger is subject to the required approval of Hamilton shareholders, requisite regulatory approvals, the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Ameris with respect to the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued in the Hamilton merger and other customary closing conditions.

The Hamilton Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances, including the following: (i) by mutual written agreement of the parties; (ii) by either party in the event that, under certain circumstances, the Hamilton merger shall not have been consummated by December 31, 2018; (iii) by either party in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty or obligation contained in the Hamilton Merger Agreement which has not been cured within thirty days and which breach would be reasonably likely to result in a failure to satisfy any applicable closing condition; (iv) by either party if final action has been taken by a regulatory agency whose approval is required for the Hamilton merger or the Hamilton bank merger, which final action has become final and nonappealable and does not approve the Hamilton merger or the Hamilton bank merger, or a governmental authority enacts a law or judgment which would make the Hamilton merger or the Hamilton bank merger illegal; (v) by either party if the requisite Hamilton shareholder approval is not obtained; (vi) by Ameris if the Hamilton board of directors fails to make recommendation to the Hamilton shareholders to approve the Hamilton Merger Agreement, or Hamilton has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals; (vii) by Hamilton, prior to Hamilton shareholder approval, to enter into an agreement relating to a superior proposal; or (viii) by Hamilton in the event that the price of Ameris common stock decreases in comparison to the specified ratio provided in the Hamilton Merger Agreement and Ameris elects not to increase the merger consideration to be received by the Hamilton shareholders. Upon termination of the Hamilton Merger Agreement by Hamilton to enter into a superior proposal or by Ameris where the Hamilton board of directors fails to make recommendation to the Hamilton shareholders to approve the Hamilton Merger Agreement or Hamilton has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, Hamilton will be required to pay Ameris a termination fee equal to $14.0 million.

In addition, if the Hamilton Merger Agreement is terminated due to a failure to obtain any regulatory approval that is required for the consummation of the Hamilton merger or the Hamilton bank merger (provided that such failure is not primarily related to the financial or regulatory condition of Hamilton) or due to a failure by Ameris to satisfy any condition contained in any required regulatory approval, then Ameris will be required to pay Hamilton $1.5 million as reimbursement for its transaction expenses.

consolidated assets of $921.9 million, total loans (net of allowance for loan losses) of $785.5 million, total deposits of $676.4 million and shareholders' equity of $91.4 million.

Atlantic Coast Bank was established in 1939 as a credit union serving the employees of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. On November 1, 2000, Atlantic Coast Federal Credit Union converted to a federal mutual savings bank (and subsequently a federally-chartered savings bank). The conversion allowed Atlantic Coast Bank to diversify its customer base by marketing products and services to individuals and businesses in its market areas and make loans to customers who did not have a deposit relationship with the bank. On December 27, 2016, Atlantic Coast Bank consummated the conversion of its charter from that of a federally-chartered savings bank to that of a Florida state-chartered commercial bank supervised by the Florida Office of Financial Regulation and the FDIC.

Atlantic Coast Bank offers a variety of deposit accounts having a wide range of interest rates and terms, which generally include noninterest-bearing and interest-bearing demand, savings and money market demand, and time deposit accounts with terms ranging from three months to five years. Deposits are primarily solicited in the bank's market areas in Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia to fund loan demand and other liquidity needs; however, late in 2015, the bank also started soliciting deposits in Central Florida. Those funds are primarily invested in loans, including commercial real estate loans, consumer loans, first mortgages on owner-occupied one- to four-family residences, and home equity loans. Additionally, the bank invests funds in multi-family residential loans, commercial business loans, and commercial and residential construction loans. The bank also invests funds in investment securities, primarily those issued by U.S. government-sponsored agencies or entities, including Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and Ginnie Mae.

Revenues are derived principally from interest on loans and other interest-earning assets, such as investment securities, as well as from gains on the sale of loans. To a lesser extent, revenue is generated from service charges and other income sources.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

The board of directors of Atlantic has, on a regular basis, considered and deliberated over Atlantic's long-term objectives and strategies, including how Atlantic could increase stockholder value in light of economic, regulatory and competitive factors, and strategies to enhance the profitability of Atlantic Coast Bank by diversifying its asset portfolio and revenue streams. The deliberations of the board of directors have also taken into consideration the possibility of engaging in a merger or acquisition transaction, as a buyer, a seller or a participant in a "merger-of-equals."

As a part of its deliberation process, the board of directors of Atlantic held a retreat on October 19 and 20, 2016. At this retreat, management of Atlantic presented its forecast for the remainder of 2016 and 2017, along with a proposed strategic plan. The board of directors and management engaged in a lengthy discussion of Atlantic's liquidity needs to support projected loan growth and market conditions, as well as the associated risks of effectively executing the strategic plan. On the second day of the retreat, representatives of Hovde made a presentation regarding market conditions and Atlantic's strategic options. The board of directors reviewed those options and discussed different alternatives to achieve its objectives. John K. Stephens, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank, was instructed to reach out to potential "merger-of-equals" partners and report his findings to Jay S. Sidhu, Vice Chairman of the board of directors.

From October 24 to November 3, 2016, Mr. Stephens contacted three Florida-based potential financial institution partners and one out-of-state potential financial institution partner. None expressed any serious interest in pursuing a "merger-of-equals" transaction. During this exploratory process, Mr. Stephens also contacted the investment banking firm B. Riley FBR, Inc. ("FBR") to discuss FBR's perspective on acquisition market conditions and prospective pricing. On November 6, 2016, Messrs. Stephens and Sidhu met to discuss Mr. Stephens's findings to determine what steps the board of directors of Atlantic should be considering.

On December 2 and 3, 2016, Messrs. Stephens and Sidhu met with representatives of FBR and discussed market conditions, potential partners, pricing and different strategies to enhance Atlantic's marketability. On December 18, 2016, Messrs. Stephens and Sidhu, and John J. Dolan, Chairman of the board of directors of Atlantic, as the Strategic Committee of the board of directors, met to discuss which investment banks might be well suited to assist in analyzing options for Atlantic. The Strategic Committee recommended to the board of directors that Atlantic retain FBR to market Atlantic for sale. That same day, the board of directors approved the hiring of FBR for that purpose.

From December 21, 2016 to January 30, 2017, FBR and Atlantic's management populated a due diligence data room and drafted a confidential information memorandum to be used in marketing Atlantic. During that period, Mr. Stephens also met with representatives of three Florida-based banks and one out-of-state bank that he had not contacted earlier in 2016. At the January 23, 2017 meeting of the board of directors of Atlantic, Mr. Stephens provided an update on his meetings and discussed progress on the confidential information memorandum.

On January 30, 2017, FBR began marketing Atlantic to a number of in-state and out-of-state financial institutions that had been active in acquisitions in the Florida market. As part of this process, the confidential information memorandum and non-disclosure agreements were distributed with the request that recipients of the confidential information memorandum provide an indication of their interest by March 1, 2017.

On February 15 and March 4, 2017, the board of directors of Atlantic met to discuss the status and progress of the marketing process. FBR reported at each meeting that it had not received any viable indication of interest from the list of potential acquirers. On March 10, 2017, the board of directors concluded that the marketing process, and Atlantic's engagement with FBR, should be terminated. As part of the termination of FBR's engagement, Atlantic and FBR agreed that FBR would be paid a reduced fee if a merger transaction was consummated during the original term of FBR's engagement.

On March 20, 2017, the board of directors of Atlantic met with representatives of Hovde, who presented an update of market conditions and a review of current transactions in Florida. On March 24,

TABLE OF CONTENTS

2017, Mr. Stephens met again with a representative of one of the Florida-based institutions he had met with in January 2017. On March 25, 2017, Mr. Stephens advised the board of directors that, based on his subsequent discussions, he concluded that a “merger-of equals” transaction was unlikely to be successful. The board of directors agreed with Mr. Stephens’ conclusion and discussed other strategic alternatives. One of those alternatives was a possible strategic alignment with a potential spin-off of a deposit gathering subsidiary from Customers Bancorp, Inc. Due to their affiliations with Customers Bancorp, Inc. and its subsidiary, Messrs. Sidhu and Dolan recused themselves from any consideration of such a transaction.

Between April and June 2017, management and the board of directors of Atlantic evaluated the deposit subsidiary alternative with input from Atlantic’s legal counsel, Iglar and Pearlman, P.A (“Iglar”) and the investment banking firm, UBS AG. After a thorough evaluation of the merits of such a transaction and the fact that the deposit subsidiary was still under contract with another financial institution, the board of directors concluded that the regulatory, operational and economic risks associated with such a transaction made the possibility of successful execution too remote for Atlantic to undertake the acquisition.

During that period, the board of directors of Atlantic continued to consider other alternatives. On May 10, 2017, Mr. Stephens met again with representatives of Hovde to discuss the prior marketing attempt, current market conditions and the potential of Ameris being an interested acquiror. Following Atlantic’s annual meeting of stockholders held on May 22, 2017, the board of directors met and again discussed Atlantic’s strategic plans and alternatives.

At the Florida Bankers Association conference held during the week of June 11, 2017, Mr. Stephens met with management representatives of a number of acquisition-minded financial institutions, including Ameris. During such meetings, there was more interest in a transaction with Atlantic than Atlantic’s earlier efforts had elicited. On July 7, 2017, Atlantic formally engaged Hovde to market the company for sale. On July 13, 2017, Atlantic entered into a non-disclosure agreement with Ameris, thereby enabling its representatives to begin a due diligence review of Atlantic. On July 24, 2017, Ameris contacted Mr. Stephens to advise that Ameris had an interest in a possible acquisition. The Strategic Committee of the board of directors of Atlantic met the same day and agreed to further explore the possibility of a merger transaction. The next day, the Strategic Committee met with the board of directors to present Ameris’s interest in Atlantic. The board of directors instructed management to continue the discussions with Ameris.

On August 4, 2017, Ameris submitted a draft letter of intent to Atlantic, which contemplated the merger consideration to consist solely of Ameris common stock based on a valuation of Atlantic common stock at $10.00 per share. On August 7, 2017, the Strategic Committee of the board of directors of Atlantic and a representative of Hovde met to discuss the letter of intent. The Strategic Committee instructed Hovde to make a counteroffer of $10.50 per share, with 15% of the consideration to be paid in cash.

On August 9, 2017, Ameris provided a new draft letter of intent to Atlantic. Among other customary provisions, the draft contemplated merger consideration of $10.00 per share of Atlantic common stock to be paid 15% in cash and 85% in Ameris common stock, based on the ten-day average closing price prior to the signing of a definitive agreement with respect to the merger. On the same day, the Strategic Committee and representatives of Iglar and Hovde discussed the merits of the letter of intent, as well as next steps. On August 11, 2017, the Strategic Committee had a conference call with Edwin W. Hortman, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of Ameris, and Dennis J. Zember Jr., Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and then-Chief Financial Officer of Ameris, to further discuss the terms of a potential transaction. The following day, the Strategic Committee presented the letter of intent to the board of directors of Atlantic, which unanimously voted to accept its terms and move forward with due diligence and transaction negotiations. On August 14, 2017, Ameris formally presented the letter of intent, which was executed by Mr. Stephens on behalf of Atlantic.

On August 16, 2017, Atlantic convened a due diligence working group, which met to discuss the members’ roles and responsibilities. On August 28, 2017, Atlantic engaged Saltmarsh, Cleaveland & Gund, P.A. (“Saltmarsh”) to assist in a reverse due diligence review of Ameris.

On September 5, 2017, Mr. Stephens and Tracy L. Keegan, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Atlantic, met with Mr. Zember and James LaHaise, Executive Vice President/

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Corporate Banking Executive of Ameris and Ameris Bank, to discuss preliminary due diligence findings and a proposed adjustment to the purchase price. The following day, the Strategic Committee of the board of directors of Atlantic and a representative of Hovde met to discuss the preliminary findings and to evaluate the proposed adjustment to the purchase price. On September 8, 2017, Mr. Stephens and Ms. Keegan had a conference call with Messrs. Zember and LaHaise in which the parties agreed to continue the due diligence process.

On September 15, 2017, Ameris communicated to Hovde that, as a result of Ameris's due diligence, it was offering merger consideration of $9.27 per share of Atlantic common stock, with the cash portion to be fixed at $1.37 per share. Ameris preliminarily committed to an exchange ratio of 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock per share of Atlantic common stock.

On September 25, 2017, the board of directors and management of Atlantic, and representatives of Iglar and Hovde, met to discuss the status of the transaction and pricing issues. The pricing issues were being driven partly by recent fluctuations in the market price of Ameris common stock and Atlantic's recent performance. Based on this discussion, the board of directors directed management and Hovde to continue negotiations with Ameris to increase the purchase price per share.

On September 28, 2017, Ameris's legal counsel provided a draft merger agreement to Iglar so that the parties could begin negotiating the specific terms thereof.

On October 3, 2017, Mr. Stephens, Ms. Keegan, other members of Atlantic's due diligence working group (including representatives of Iglar and Saltmarsh) met with Mr. LaHaise and other members of Ameris's management to conclude Atlantic's reverse due diligence of Ameris.

On October 18, 2017, the board of directors of Atlantic met with the members of the due diligence working group. At this meeting, a representative of Hovde provided an update on the status of the Consent Order issued by the FDIC to Ameris Bank. A representative of Iglar followed such update by stating that it would be very unlikely that the merger would receive regulatory approval while the Consent Order was in effect.

On October 23, 2017, the board of directors of Atlantic met with representatives of Saltmarsh, Hovde and Iglar to review Saltmarsh's final reverse due diligence report. Saltmarsh's representative explained the purpose for the reverse due diligence review of a prospective acquirer. Saltmarsh's representative also discussed the Consent Order, Ameris's financial condition, performance and general loan portfolio, and other operational and regulatory matters. The board of directors also requested Saltmarsh to provide additional clarification on some of the loan portfolio data that had been presented.

On November 7, 2017, the board of directors of Atlantic and representatives of Iglar and Hovde met to discuss whether Atlantic should consider entering into a merger agreement before the Consent Order was terminated.

Mr. Stephens stated that, after discussions with a representative of the FDIC, Mr. Stephens felt relatively confident that the Consent Order would be lifted in the near term.

On November 11, 2017, a similar meeting was held to discuss pricing and the proposed merger agreement. The board of directors of Atlantic also reviewed the terms of the proposed voting agreement and non-solicitation agreements and concluded that they were reasonable and appropriate given the terms and structure of the merger. A representative of Hovde distributed its presentation and opinion to the board of directors and others present. Hovde's representative described the financial terms of the merger and the termination fee. Hovde's representative presented a valuation analysis of the merger, first from a market approach and then from an income approach, and explained in detail the assumptions used in both approaches and answered questions from the board of directors. Hovde's representative concluded the presentation by stating that, in the firm's opinion, the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Atlantic stockholders.

A representative of Iglar then discussed the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of Atlantic and provided a summary of the material terms of the proposed merger agreement. Iglar's representative explained that the proposed merger agreement included all of the technical information regarding the merger and reviewed the representations and warranties to be made by Atlantic and Ameris, the covenants of both parties, the conditions to closing and the termination provisions. Iglar's representative discussed in detail Atlantic's commitment not to market itself, its right to terminate the merger agreement if it received a superior, unsolicited offer and the material terms of the termination fee.

Iglar's representative also covered with the board of directors of Atlantic the other agreements that Atlantic's directors and executive officers would be required to enter into in connection with the merger. Iglar's representative discussed the terms and conditions of the voting agreement and non-solicitation agreements and concluded his presentation by answering questions from the board of directors.

After a thorough review and evaluation of the proposed terms of the merger and merger agreement, as well as Saltmarsh's report and the fairness opinion from Hovde, the board of directors of Atlantic concluded that the merger was in the best interests of Atlantic stockholders. The board of directors asked Mr. Sidhu to contact Ameris's representatives to finalize the terms of the proposed merger agreement and to see if there was a possibility of a price adjustment if the merger did not close as expected by June 30, 2018.

On November 15, 2017, while at a banking industry conference, Mr. Sidhu met with Mr. Zember to discuss the merger. The representatives of Ameris and Atlantic reaffirmed the merger consideration terms as discussed on September 17, 2017, but agreed to increase the merger consideration if the merger did not close by June 30, 2018. In such case, if the parties agreed to continue with the merger transaction, then the merger consideration would be increased by the amount of Atlantic's net earnings for the first six months of 2018. These final revisions were ultimately included in the Merger Agreement.

On November 16, 2017, the board of directors of Atlantic reconvened to discuss the information presented on November 11, 2017, and the final merger consideration terms contained in the Merger Agreement. Hovde issued its formal opinion, which was consistent with its November 11, 2017 presentation to the board of directors. The board of directors discussed the issues regarding the merger transaction at length and concluded that the merger was in the best interests of Atlantic stockholders. The board of directors unanimously agreed to approve the merger and authorized management to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement and ancillary documents. Later that day, Atlantic and Ameris executed and delivered the Merger Agreement and the ancillary documents.

Before the opening of the market on November 17, 2017, Ameris issued a press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement.

Atlantic's Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of the Atlantic Board of Directors

The board of directors of Atlantic believes that the merger presents an opportunity for Atlantic and its stockholders to become part of a strong, $8.6 billion commercial bank, operating in Northern Florida and Southern Georgia, among other Southeastern markets. The board of directors of Atlantic believes that the merger will also afford Ameris the opportunity to expand its revenue sources, provide for earnings per share accretion due to cost savings opportunities, and sustain its robust loan and deposit origination trends in current markets served by Ameris and Atlantic.

The terms of the merger, including the merger consideration, are the result of arm's-length negotiations between representatives of Atlantic and Ameris, including their respective financial, accounting and legal advisors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger, the board of directors of Atlantic consulted with its advisors regarding the terms of the transaction and with management. In approving and adopting the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the board of directors of Atlantic considered, among other things, the following material factors:

- the value of the consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders relative to recent trading prices, book value and earnings per share of Atlantic common stock, including the relationship between the consideration and Atlantic's book value and earnings per share, and the book value and earnings per share of Ameris;
- information about Ameris and Atlantic, including the business and financial condition, results of operations, earnings, business prospects and financial obligations, including financial obligations to be incurred in connection with the merger;

- the fact that a portion of the merger consideration will consist of shares of Ameris common stock, which will allow Atlantic stockholders to participate in the future performance of Ameris's business and synergies resulting from the merger and have greater liquidity for their investment;
- the fact that a portion of the merger consideration will be paid in cash, which will serve as a hedge against the possibility that the market price of the Ameris common stock may decrease after the merger;
- the prospects of the successful execution of the proposed transactions;
- the financial terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions involving banks and bank holding companies, particularly in Florida, and a comparison of the financial metrics of such transactions with the terms of the proposed merger with Ameris;
- the alternatives to the merger, including Atlantic's prospects as an independent financial institution;
- the need for additional capital to support Atlantic's future growth and operations, including the expenses associated with raising such capital and the terms on, and prices at, which Atlantic could obtain such capital;
- the fact that the merger will be structured as a tax-free reorganization, providing certain tax benefits to the extent that Atlantic stockholders receive Ameris common stock in the merger;
- Ameris's history of successful integration of other acquired financial institutions;
- Ameris's larger size, which should allow it to compete more effectively through broader product offerings and a larger legal lending limit;
- the potential that Ameris will receive greater attention from investors and potential strategic partners or acquirers due to its larger size;
- the opinion of Atlantic's financial advisor that the merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Atlantic stockholders; and
- the fact that, if the closing of the merger has not occurred by June 30, 2018, then the merger consideration will be increased by the amount of Atlantic's after-tax net income subject to Ameris or Atlantic electing to extend the term of the Merger Agreement.

The board of directors of Atlantic also considered potential risks associated with the merger in connection with its deliberations, including the following:

- the possibility that Ameris would not be able to obtain the required regulatory approval for the merger in a prompt fashion, or at all, due to the Consent Order;
- the potential diversion of management attention and resources from the operation of Atlantic's business towards the completion of the merger;
- the requirement that Atlantic conduct its business in the ordinary course and subject to certain restrictions prior to the completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent Atlantic from exploiting business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger;
- the potential for other delays in receiving required regulatory approvals and in obtaining an order of effectiveness for the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part;
- the possibility that the $5.75 million termination fee will discourage other parties that might be interested in a transaction with Atlantic from proposing such a transaction; and
- the impact Atlantic's merger-related costs will have on its earnings if the merger is not consummated.

The board of directors of Atlantic considered all of these factors and risks as a whole and believes that the opportunities created by the merger cause the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement to be in the best interests of Atlantic and its stockholders.

The foregoing discussion of the factors and risks that were considered is not exhaustive, but includes the material factors and risks considered by the board of directors of Atlantic. In view of the wide variety of factors and risks considered by the board of directors of Atlantic in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of those matters, the board of directors of Atlantic did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision.

The decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the board of directors of Atlantic on November 11, 2017.

Opinion of Atlantic's Financial Advisor

The fairness opinion and a summary of the underlying financial analyses of Atlantic's financial advisor, Hovde Group, LLC, are described below. As a basis for its opinion, Hovde reviewed, among other things, the draft of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, between Ameris and Atlantic, dated November 10, 2017, provided to Hovde by Atlantic (the "Agreement"). The description contains projections, estimates and other forward-looking statements about the future earnings or other measures of the future performance of Atlantic. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections. You should not rely on any of these statements as having been made or adopted by Atlantic or Ameris. The full text of Hovde's written opinion is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde. The summary of Hovde's opinion included in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

On July 6, 2017, Atlantic engaged Hovde to act as its advisor in connection with the proposed merger. Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with Atlantic and its operations. As part of its investment banking business, Hovde is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with, among other things, mergers and acquisitions. Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and their respective holding companies. The board of directors of Atlantic selected Hovde to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in merger transactions.

Hovde reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger with the board of directors of Atlantic and, on November 15, 2017, delivered a written opinion to the board of directors of Atlantic that the merger consideration to be received by the Atlantic stockholders in connection with the merger is fair to the Atlantic stockholders from a financial point of view. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by Atlantic upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. Hovde's opinion was directed to the board of directors of Atlantic and addresses only the fairness of the merger consideration to be paid to Atlantic stockholders in connection with the merger. Hovde did not opine on any individual stock, cash or other components of consideration payable in connection with the merger. Hovde's opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any of the Atlantic stockholders as to how such stockholder should vote at any meetings of Atlantic stockholders on the merger or any related matter. Other than as specifically set forth in the opinion, Hovde does not express any opinion with respect to the terms and provisions of the Agreement or the enforceability of any such terms or provisions.

As part of its engagement, Hovde has received from Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank a fairness opinion fee upon the delivery of the fairness opinion to the board of directors of Atlantic. Additionally, Hovde will receive a completion fee that is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. The opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the completion fee which will become payable to Hovde upon the consummation of the merger. In addition to Hovde's fees, and regardless of whether the merger is consummated, Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank have agreed to reimburse Hovde for certain of its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank have also agreed to indemnify Hovde and its affiliates for certain liabilities that may arise out of the engagement. In the past two years, Hovde has not provided investment banking or financial advisory services to Atlantic. During the past three years preceding the date of its opinion, Hovde has provided investment banking services to, and received fees from, two banks in connection with their respective sales to Ameris. During the past two years preceding the date of its opinion, Hovde has not provided any investment banking or financial advisory services to Ameris. Hovde or its affiliates may presently or in the future seek or receive compensation from Ameris in connection with future transactions, or in connection with potential advisory services and corporate transactions, although to Hovde's knowledge none are expected at this time. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker/dealer, Hovde may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Atlantic or Ameris or their affiliates, and as a market maker in securities, Hovde may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Atlantic or Ameris for its own accounts and for the accounts of its customers. Except for the foregoing, during the past two years there have not been, and there currently are no mutual understandings contemplating in the future, any material relationships between Hovde and Atlantic or Ameris. Pursuant and subject to the terms of the Agreement, at the effective time, each share of Atlantic common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than treasury stock and certain shares which are cancelled in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and as discussed under "The Merger Agreement — The Merger Consideration"), shall be converted, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, into the right to receive the following consideration: (i) an amount of cash equal to $1.39, without interest; and (ii) 0.17 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Ameris common stock, together with cash in lieu of any fractional shares in accordance with the Agreement.

Pursuant to the Agreement, each Atlantic stock option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time, shall become fully vested and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a cash payment from Ameris or Ameris Bank in an amount equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration price over the exercise price of each such Atlantic stock option; and (ii) the number of shares of Atlantic common stock subject to such Atlantic stock option to the extent not previously exercised. After the effective time, any such cancelled Atlantic stock option shall no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but shall only entitle the holder to the cash-out amount, without interest. In the event the exercise price per share of Atlantic common stock subject to an Atlantic stock option is equal to or greater than the merger consideration price, such Atlantic stock option shall be cancelled without consideration and have no further force or effect. Atlantic advised Hovde to assume for purposes of the opinion that there are 20,776 Atlantic stock options outstanding with a weighted average exercise price of $14.95 per share as of November 13, 2017, and therefore, with Atlantic's consent, Hovde assumed for purposes of the opinion that all such outstanding options will be canceled and not entitled to receive the merger consideration price.

Further, at the effective time, each Atlantic restricted share award granted pursuant to Atlantic's equity-based compensation plans, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time, shall become fully vested and shall be converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of Atlantic common stock underlying such Atlantic restricted share award. Atlantic advised Hovde to assume for purposes of the opinion that there are 63,475 unallocated shares of Atlantic restricted stock outstanding held by the Atlantic ESOP as of November 13, 2017, all of which will be cancelled for the repayment of the Atlantic ESOP Loan (as provided in the Agreement and discussed under "The Merger Agreement — The Atlantic ESOP"). Accordingly, Atlantic advised Hovde that there are a total of 15,490,234 shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding as of November 13, 2017, eligible to receive the merger consideration price, and therefore, based upon the closing price of Ameris common stock as of November 13, 2017, of $46.75, Hovde assumed for purposes of the opinion that the aggregate merger consideration payable by Ameris to the holders of Atlantic common stock is $144,640,060.

Pursuant to Section 7.8 of the Agreement, in the event that the average Ameris stock price (as defined in the Agreement and discussed under "The Merger Agreement — Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments") declines at any time during the determination period, the Agreement may be terminated by

Atlantic or, alternatively, either: (i) the exchange ratio may be increased by Ameris; or (ii) Ameris may pay as part of the merger consideration additional cash consideration, provided that the additional cash consideration complies with the provisions for such additional cash consideration set forth in the Agreement and discussed under “The Merger Agreement — Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments.” However, Atlantic advised Hovde to assume for purposes of the opinion that the provisions of Section 7.8 will not be triggered and that the exchange ratio, the per share purchase price, the merger consideration price and the aggregate merger consideration will not be adjusted and will remain as set forth above.

Hovde’s opinion addresses only the fairness of the merger consideration to be paid in connection with the merger and does not address any individual stock, cash, option or other components of the consideration.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed and matters considered by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed by Hovde. During the course of its engagement and for the purpose of rendering its opinion, Hovde:

- reviewed a draft of the Agreement;
- reviewed unaudited financial statements for Atlantic and Ameris as of September 30, 2017;
- reviewed certain historical annual reports of each of Atlantic and Ameris, including audited annual reports for the year ended December 31, 2016;
- reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning each of Atlantic and Ameris;
- reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Atlantic;
- reviewed financial projections prepared by certain members of senior management of Atlantic over a forward looking six-year period beginning with the year ending December 31, 2017, and ending with the year ending December 31, 2022;
- discussed with certain members of senior management of Atlantic and Ameris the business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects of each entity; the history and past and current operations of Atlantic and Ameris; Atlantic’s and Ameris’ historical financial performance; and their assessment of the rationale for the merger;
- reviewed and analyzed materials detailing the merger prepared by Atlantic and Ameris and by their respective legal and financial advisors, including the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and synergies expected to result from the merger (the “Synergies”);
- analyzed the pro forma financial impact of the merger on the combined company’s earnings, tangible book value, financial ratios and other such metrics Hovde deemed relevant, giving effect to the merger based on assumptions relating to the Synergies;

- reviewed publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Ameris for the years ending December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019;
- assessed current general economic, market and financial conditions;
- reviewed the terms of recent merger, acquisition and control investment transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that were considered relevant;
- took into consideration Hovde's experience in other similar transactions and securities valuations as well as our knowledge of the banking and financial services industry;

- reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of the Ameris common stock;

- reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that Hovde deemed relevant to its analysis; and

- performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as Hovde deemed appropriate.

Hovde assumed, without investigation, that there have been, and from the date of the opinion through the effective time, that there will be no material changes in the financial condition and results of operations of Atlantic, Atlantic Coast Bank, Ameris or Ameris Bank since the date of the latest financial information described above. Hovde assumed, without independent verification, that the representations as well as the financial and other information provided to Hovde by Atlantic and Ameris or included in the Agreement, which has formed a substantial basis for its opinion, are true and complete. Hovde relied upon the management of Atlantic and Ameris as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therein) provided to Hovde by Atlantic and Ameris, and Hovde assumed such forecasts and projections have been reasonably prepared by Atlantic and Ameris on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and Atlantic's and Ameris' judgments and estimates. Hovde assumed that such forecasts and projections would be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby, and did not, in any respect, assume any responsibility for the accuracy or reasonableness thereof. Hovde has been authorized by Atlantic to rely upon such forecasts and projections and other information and data, including the projections, and Hovde expresses no view as to any such forecasts, projections or other forward-looking information or data, or the bases or assumptions on which they were prepared.

In performing its review, Hovde relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to Hovde from public sources, that was provided by Atlantic and Ameris or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Hovde and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering their opinion. Hovde further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Atlantic and Ameris that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Hovde was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information, and does not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Hovde assumed that each party to the Agreement would advise them promptly if any information previously provided to them became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of Hovde's review.

Hovde is not expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto. Hovde assumed that such allowances for Atlantic, Atlantic Coast Bank, Ameris and Ameris Bank are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses, and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity following the merger. Hovde was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities, or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Atlantic, Atlantic Coast Bank, Ameris and Ameris Bank, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, and Hovde was not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals nor did Hovde review any loan or credit files of Atlantic, Atlantic Coast Bank, Ameris or Ameris Bank. Hovde did not conduct a review of any credit mark which may be taken in connection with the merger nor has it evaluated the adequacy of any contemplated credit mark to be so taken.

Hovde's opinion does not consider, include or address: (i) the legal, tax, accounting, or regulatory consequences of the merger on Atlantic or its stockholders; (ii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to the board of directors of Atlantic; (iii) any other strategic alternatives that might be available to Atlantic; or (iv) whether Ameris has sufficient cash or other sources of funds to enable it to pay any consideration contemplated by the merger.

Hovde assumed that the merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by Atlantic or any other party to the Agreement and that the final Merger Agreement will not differ materially from the draft Hovde reviewed. Hovde assumed that the merger will be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Atlantic has advised Hovde that Atlantic is not aware of any factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the merger. Hovde assumed that the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals as granted will not be subject to any conditions that would be unduly burdensome on Atlantic and Ameris or would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the merger. Additionally, Atlantic has advised Hovde to assume that the Consent Order issued by the FDIC will either be removed by such regulatory authorities prior to the effective time, or in the absence of such regulatory action, will not impede or prevent the consummation of the merger as set forth in the Agreement.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Hovde, Atlantic and Ameris. Hovde's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions and circumstances as they existed on, and on the information made available to Hovde as of, the dates used in its opinion. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities may be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Atlantic might engage. In addition, Hovde's fairness opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the board of directors of Atlantic in making its determination to approve the Agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as solely determinative of the decision of the board of directors of Atlantic or Atlantic's management with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by the Atlantic stockholders in connection with the merger.

The following is a summary of the material analyses prepared by Hovde and delivered to the board of directors of Atlantic on November 15, 2017, in connection with the delivery of its fairness opinion. This summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the fairness opinion or the presentation prepared by Hovde, but it summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The analyses and the summary of the analyses must be considered as a whole and selecting portions of the analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses and opinion of Hovde. The tables alone are not a complete description of the financial analyses.

Market Approach — Comparable Transactions. As part of its analysis, Hovde reviewed publicly available information related to two comparable groups (a "Regional Group" and a "Nationwide Group") of select acquisition transactions of banks. The Regional Group consisted of acquisition transactions where targets were headquartered in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia announced since January 1, 2015, in which the target's total assets were between $500 million and $1.5 billion, last-twelve-months ("LTM") return on average assets ("ROAA") were between 0.40% and 1.10%, and non-performing assets ("NPAs") to total assets were greater than 1.00%. The Nationwide Group consisted of acquisition transactions of banks in the United States announced since January 1, 2015, in which the target's total assets were between $500 million and $1.5 billion, last-twelve-months return on average assets were between 0.50% and 1.00%, and non-performing assets to total assets were greater than 1.50%. In each case, for which financial information was available, no transaction that fit the above selection criteria was excluded. Information for the target institutions was based on balance sheet data as of, and income statement data for, the twelve months preceding the most recent quarter prior to announcement of the transactions. The resulting two groups consisted of the following transactions (13 transactions for the Regional Group and 14 transactions for the Nationwide Group):

For each precedent transaction, Hovde compared the implied ratio of the transaction value to certain financial characteristics of Atlantic as follows:

- the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's tangible common book value (the "Price-to-Tangible Common Book Value Multiple");
- the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's adjusted tangible common book value (the "Price-to-Adjusted Tangible Common Book Value");
- the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's LTM net earnings per share (the "Price-to-LTM Earnings Multiple"); and
- the multiple of the difference between the purchase consideration and the acquired company's tangible book value to the acquired company's core deposits (the "Premium-to-Core Deposits Multiple").

The results of the analysis are set forth in the table below. Transaction multiples for the merger were based upon the merger consideration of $144,640,060 for Atlantic and were based on September 30, 2017, financial results for Atlantic.

Price-to-Adjusted Common Tangible Book Value equals the adjusted purchase price divided by core capital where: (i) core capital equals total tangible assets multiplied by 8%; (ii) excess capital equals total tangible book value less core capital; and (iii) adjusted purchase price equals implied value of the merger consideration less excess capital (assumes dollar-for-dollar payment on excess capital).

Price-to-LTM EPS multiples are considered non-meaningful for values greater than 40.0x.

(3)

Core deposits are defined as total deposits less foreign deposits and time deposit accounts greater than $100,000.

Using publicly available information, Hovde compared the financial performance of Atlantic with that of the median of the precedent transactions from both the Regional and Nationwide Groups. The performance highlights are based on September 30, 2017, financial results of Atlantic.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above transaction analyses is identical to Atlantic, and no transaction was consummated on terms identical to the terms of the Agreement. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies. The resulting values of the Precedent Transactions Regional Group using the median values for the four valuation metrics set forth above indicated an implied aggregate valuation ranging between $136.0 million and $147.4 million compared to the proposed merger consideration of $144.6 million. The resulting values of the Precedent Transactions Nationwide Group using the median values for the four valuation metrics set forth above indicated an implied aggregate valuation ranging between $125.9 million and $147.0 million compared to the proposed merger consideration of $144.6 million.

Income Approach — Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Taking into account various factors, including Atlantic’s recent performance, the current banking environment and the local economy in which Atlantic operates, Hovde determined, in consultation with and based on information provided by management of Atlantic, earnings estimates for Atlantic over a forward looking six-year period, and in consultation with Atlantic management, developed the forward-looking projections and key assumptions which formed the basis for the discounted cash flow analyses. The resulting projected Atlantic net income numbers used for the analysis were calculated using an assumed effective tax rate of 35% and were $5.2 million for 2017, $6.6 million for 2018, $7.7 million for 2019, $8.7 million for 2020, $9.9 million for 2021, and $11.3 million for 2022.

To determine present values of Atlantic based on these projections, Hovde utilized two discounted cash flow models, each of which capitalized terminal values using a different methodology: (i) Terminal Price/ Earnings Multiple (“DCF Terminal P/E Multiple”); and (ii) Terminal Price/Tangible Book Value Multiple (“DCF Terminal P/TBV Multiple”). In the DCF Terminal P/E Multiple analysis, an estimated value of the Atlantic common stock was calculated based on the present value of Atlantic’s after-tax net income based on Atlantic management’s forward-looking projections. Hovde utilized a terminal value at the end of 2022 by applying a five point range of price-to-earnings multiples of 21.5x to 25.5x, which range is based around the median price-to-earnings multiple derived from transactions in the Regional Group of 23.5x. The present value of Atlantic’s projected dividends, of which there were none projected, plus the terminal value was then calculated assuming a range of discount rates between 12.40% and 14.40%, with a midpoint of 13.40% discounted over a period of 5.13 years. This range of discount rates was chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Atlantic common stock. The range of discount rates utilized the buildup method to determine such required rates of return and was based upon the risk-free interest rate, an equity risk premium, an industry risk premium, and a size premium which resulted in a discount rate of 13.4% used as the midpoint of the five point range of discount rates of 12.40% to 14.40%. The resulting aggregate values of Atlantic common stock based on the DCF Terminal P/E Multiple applied to the 2022 projected earnings of $11.3 million and then discounted utilizing the five point range of discount rates set forth above resulted in implied aggregate values between $121.4 million and $157.7 million with a midpoint of $138.9 million.

In the DCF Terminal P/TBV Multiple model, the same earnings estimates and projected net income were used as in the preceding DCF Terminal P/E Multiple analysis to determine the projected tangible book value for Atlantic as of December 31, 2022. In arriving at the terminal value at the end of 2022, Hovde applied a five point range of price-to-tangible book value multiples of 1.51x to 1.71x utilizing as a midpoint of the range the median price-to-tangible book value multiple derived from transactions in the Regional Group of 1.61x. The present value of projected dividends, of which there were none projected, plus the terminal value was then calculated assuming the range of discount rates between 12.40% and 14.40%, with a midpoint of 13.40% discounted over a period of 5.13 years as was applied in the DCF Terminal P/E Multiple analysis set forth above. The resulting implied aggregate values of Atlantic common stock based on the DCF Terminal P/TBV Multiple analysis ranged between $103.8 million and $128.7 million with a midpoint of $115.8 million.

These analyses and their underlying assumptions yielded a range of implied multiple values for Atlantic common stock which are outlined in the table below:

Implied Multiple Value for Atlantic common stock Based On:	Implied Aggregate Value	Price-to-Tangible Book Value Multiple(1)	Price-to-LTM Earnings Multiple(1)(2)	Premium-to-Core Deposits Multiple(1)(3)

Hovde noted that while the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, projected dividend payouts, terminal values and discount rates. Hovde's analysis does not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected aggregate values of Atlantic common stock.

Ameris Comparable Companies Analysis: Hovde used publicly available information to compare selected financial and trading information for Ameris and a group of 16 publicly-traded financial institutions selected by Hovde based on publicly-traded banks headquartered in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia with total assets between $4.0 billion and $12.0 billion and LTM ROAA greater than 0.75%.

The analysis compared publicly available financial and market trading information for Ameris and the data for the 16 financial institutions identified above as of and for the most recent twelve-month period which was publicly available. The table below compares the data for Ameris and the median data for the 16 financial institutions identified above, with pricing data as of November 13, 2017.

Ameris fell within the range of pricing metrics of comparable companies. No company used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Ameris. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Accretion/Dilution Analysis: Hovde performed a pro forma merger analysis that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Atlantic and Ameris. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments, cost savings and synergies were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of Ameris. For purposes of this analysis, Hovde used the S&P Cap IQ mean of analyst earnings estimates for Ameris for the years ended or ending December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019, and an effective tax rate of 31% and an earnings growth rate of 10.0% were assumed for December 31, 2020. Additionally, Hovde used earnings estimates provided by Atlantic's management for Atlantic for the years ended or ending December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019, and December 31, 2020. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive by $0.09 per share to Ameris' consensus estimated earnings per share of $3.13 in 2018, accretive by $0.15 per share to Ameris' consensus estimated earnings per share of $3.61 in 2019, and accretive by $0.15 per share to Ameris' consensus estimated earnings per share of $3.97 in 2020. The analysis also indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to tangible book value per share for Ameris by $0.21 per share in 2018, accretive by $0.38 per share in 2019, and accretive by $0.55 per share in 2020 and that Ameris would maintain capital ratios in excess of those required for Ameris to be considered well-capitalized under existing regulations. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Atlantic and Ameris prior to and following the merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Other Factors and Analyses. Hovde took into consideration various other factors and analyses, including: current market environment; merger and acquisition environment; movements in the common stock valuations of selected publicly-traded banking companies; and movements in the S&P 500 Index.

Conclusion. Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions as set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor, analysis or comparison, Hovde determined that, as of the date of the its opinion, the merger consideration to be paid in connection with the merger is fair to the holders of Atlantic common stock from a financial point of view.

Ameris's Reasons for the Merger

The Ameris board of directors has concluded that the merger is in the best interest of Ameris and its shareholders. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Ameris board of directors evaluated the merger and the Merger Agreement in consultation with Ameris's management, as well as Ameris's financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors in favor of the merger, including the following material factors, which are not presented in order of priority:

- each of Ameris's, Atlantic's and the combined company's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of Ameris's due diligence review of Atlantic, which included financial, credit, legal, regulatory and operational due diligence, and the conclusion that Atlantic's financial condition, capital adequacy and asset quality were sound and would complement those of Ameris;
- Ameris's belief that Ameris and Atlantic share a compatible community banking model, including with respect to strategic focus, client service, credit culture and risk profiles;
- the fact that that the merger would enable Ameris to continue its focus, and expand its existing presence, in the high growth, attractive Jacksonville, Florida market by the addition of certain branches operated by Atlantic;
- the belief that the merger would solidify Ameris's position as the largest community bank by deposit market share in the Jacksonville, Florida market;
- the belief that the merger will afford Ameris the opportunity to expand its revenue sources and sustain its robust loan and deposit origination trends in Ameris's and Atlantic's current markets;
- Ameris and Atlantic have complementary footprints in both Northern Florida and Southern Georgia, and Ameris's management's belief that that the significant market overlap will allow for considerable operating efficiencies;

the belief that that the merger will be financially accretive to Ameris's earnings per share due to a combination of revenue synergies, cost efficiencies and other cost savings opportunities for the combined company;

the Ameris board of director's understanding of the current and prospective economic, interest rate, regulatory and competitive environment in which Ameris and Atlantic operate, and the likely effect of these factors on Ameris, both with and without the merger;

- Ameris's past record of integrating acquisitions and of realizing projected financial goals and benefits;

- the fact that Atlantic stockholders would own no more than 6.5% of the outstanding shares of Ameris common stock immediately following the completion of the merger (assuming 2,644,131 shares of Ameris common stock are issued in the merger and there are 38,208,129 shares of Ameris common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time of the merger); and

- the financial and other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including provisions for the payment by Atlantic to Ameris of a termination fee if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances and the fact that the exchange ratio and total number of shares of Ameris common stock to be issued in the merger are essentially fixed.

The Ameris board of directors also considered potential risks relating to the merger, including the following:

- the need to obtain the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval to complete the merger and the risk that that or other conditions would not be satisfied;

- the possibility that Ameris would not be able to obtain the required regulatory approvals for the merger in a prompt fashion, or at all, due to the Consent Order (which has subsequently been terminated);

- the possibility that other merger and acquisition opportunities would be foregone while finalizing the merger with Atlantic;

- the potential risks associated with integrating Atlantic's business, operations and workforce with those of Ameris, including the execution risk of data system conversion and the possible negative effect on customer and employee relationships;

- that Ameris may not realize from the merger all of the anticipated cost synergies and savings in the amounts estimated or in the time frame contemplated;

- the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of the business of Ameris and towards completion of the merger and integration of operations;

- approvals from regulatory authorities could impose conditions that could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs; and

- the expenses to be incurred in working towards completion of the merger.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Ameris board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by the Ameris board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the Ameris board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Ameris board of directors considered the foregoing factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Ameris's management and financial and legal advisors, and unanimously concluded that the positive factors outweighed the negative factors and that the factors as a whole supported a determination to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement.

The decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Ameris board of directors on October 17, 2017.

Interests of Atlantic Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Some of Atlantic's executive officers participated in negotiations of the Merger Agreement with Ameris, and the board of directors of Atlantic adopted the Merger Agreement and is recommending that Atlantic stockholders vote "FOR" the Merger Agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Atlantic's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are in addition to, or different from, the interests of Atlantic stockholders generally.

Golden Parachute Compensation to Executive Officers. Each of Atlantic's three executive officers will receive cash payments and accelerated vesting of their restricted stock awards pursuant to employment agreements which provide for certain severance benefits if such officers' employment is terminated or changed, as defined therein.

At the effective time of the merger, Atlantic's executive officers will each receive cash change-in-control payments pursuant to the terms of their existing agreements with Atlantic, as outlined in the preceding paragraph. Mr. Stephens will receive a payment of approximately $1,150,939, Ms. Keegan will receive a payment of approximately $624,167, and Phillip S. Buddenbohm, Chief Credit Officer and Executive Vice President of Atlantic, will receive a payment of approximately $562,525.

At the effective time of the merger, the unvested shares of restricted stock held by Atlantic's executive officers will vest and will be converted into the merger consideration. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Mr. Stephens' unvested shares total 27,267 shares, Ms. Keegan's unvested shares total 9,326 shares, and Mr. Buddenbohm's unvested shares total 8,055 shares. The values of this compensation is disclosed in the following table:

Golden Parachute Compensation

Represents the value of the accelerated vesting of restricted stock awards, equal to $1.39 in cash and 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock per share of Atlantic common stock. For purposes of this table, each share of Ameris common stock is valued at $48.18 per share, the average closing market price of Ameris common stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger.

Atlantic Executive Officer Executive Non-Competition Agreement. Mr. Stephens and Ameris have entered into an Executive Non-Competition Agreement, which will become effective at the time of the merger. Pursuant to this agreement, Ameris will pay to Mr. Stephens, in 18 equal installments, the sum of $605,000, less any withholding taxes and other deductions or withholdings required by law.

In exchange for such payment, Mr. Stephens has agreed that, for a period of six months following the effective time of the merger, he will not engage in certain defined banking activities within the boundaries of each county in Florida and Georgia where Atlantic Coast Bank operates a banking office at the effective time of the merger and each county that is contiguous to each of such counties. Mr. Stephens has further agreed that for a period of 18 months following the effective time of the merger, he shall not, without the prior written consent of Ameris, directly or indirectly, on behalf of himself or any other person, solicit or attempt to solicit for the purpose of providing prohibited banking activities any customer of Atlantic, Ameris or any of their affiliates, in each case, with whom he had material contact on behalf of Atlantic or Atlantic Coast Bank in the course of his service as an executive officer or director of Atlantic or Atlantic Coast Bank.

Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Insurance. For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Ameris must indemnify and defend, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the present and former directors and executive officers of Atlantic and its subsidiaries (each, an "indemnified party") against all liabilities arising out or related to any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding (a "claim") in which an indemnified party is or is threatened to be made a party or witness arising out of the fact that such indemnified party is or was a director or officer of Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries (or was a director, officer, manager or trustee with another Atlantic entity or benefit plan) prior to the effective time, if such claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring on or prior to the effective time.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In addition to indemnifying former directors and executive officers of Atlantic during the same six-year period, Ameris will provide directors' and officers' liability insurance covering present and former directors and officers of Atlantic and its subsidiaries who are covered by Atlantic's policies, as of the date of the Merger Agreement, on terms similar to such existing insurance.

These obligations are described in more detail under "The Merger Agreement — Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Insurance."

Board of Directors and Management of Ameris Following the Merger

The directors and officers of Ameris immediately after the effective time of the merger will consist of the directors and officers of Ameris immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The directors and officers of the surviving company will hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. Information regarding the executive officers and directors of Ameris is contained in documents filed by Ameris with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including Ameris's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and its Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A for its 2017 annual meeting of shareholders, filed with the SEC on April 3, 2017. See "Certain Documents Incorporated by Reference."

The Hamilton Merger Agreement provides that the directors and officers of the surviving entity in the Hamilton merger will be the directors and officers of Ameris immediately prior to the effective time of the Hamilton merger. Accordingly, if the Hamilton merger is completed, there will be no change in the directors or officers of Ameris.

Regulatory Approvals

The Federal Reserve and the GDBF must approve the merger of Ameris and Atlantic, and the FDIC and the GDBF must approve the bank merger of the two bank subsidiaries. All of the regulatory applications for the required regulatory approvals from the foregoing banking regulators have been filed and are pending as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. In determining whether to grant its approval, the Federal Reserve will consider the effect of the merger on the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the companies and banks concerned and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

The review of the regulatory applications by the Federal Reserve, the FDIC and the GDBF will not include an evaluation of the merger from the financial perspective of the individual Atlantic stockholders. Further, no Atlantic stockholder should construe an approval of the regulatory applications by the Federal Reserve, the FDIC or the GDBF to be a recommendation that the Atlantic stockholders vote to approve the merger proposal. Each Atlantic stockholder entitled to vote should evaluate the merger proposal to determine the personal financial impact of the completion of the merger.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes under GAAP. Ameris will be treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes. After the merger, the results of operations of Atlantic will be included in the consolidated financial statements of Ameris. The merger consideration will be allocated based on the fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Any excess of cost over fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets of Atlantic acquired will be recorded as goodwill. Any identified intangible asset may be amortized by charges to operations under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Dissenters' Rights for Atlantic Stockholders

Dissenters' or appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under Maryland law, holders of Atlantic common stock do not have the right to dissent from the Merger Agreement and seek an appraisal in connection with the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This is a summary of the material provisions of the Merger Agreement, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/ prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger

The boards of directors of Ameris and Atlantic have each unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement, which provides for the merger of Atlantic with and into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving company in the merger. Following the merger, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, corporate identity and existence of Ameris will not be changed, and Atlantic will cease to exist as a separate entity.

Immediately after (and subject to) the completion of the merger, Atlantic Coast Bank will merge with and into Ameris Bank, with Ameris Bank as the surviving bank. The terms and conditions of the bank merger are set forth in a separate Merger Agreement (referred to as the “bank merger agreement”), which was executed by Atlantic Coast Bank and Ameris Bank concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement and the form of which is attached as an exhibit to the Merger Agreement.

As provided in the bank merger agreement, the bank merger agreement will be terminated, and the bank merger will be abandoned automatically, without any further action by any party, if the Merger Agreement is terminated. See “— Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments.” The bank merger agreement otherwise may be terminated, and the bank merger abandoned at any time prior to its effectiveness, by: (i) the mutual consent of the board of directors of Ameris Bank and Atlantic Coast Bank; (ii) the board of directors of either Ameris Bank or Atlantic Coast Bank if the bank merger is not completed by June 30, 2018; or (iii) the board of directors of either Ameris Bank or Atlantic Coast Bank if any of the conditions to the completion of the bank merger cannot be satisfied, through no fault of the terminating party, by June 30, 2018.

If Ameris deems desirable, then Ameris may, at any time and without the approval of Atlantic, change the method of effecting the business combination contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including by providing for the merger of Atlantic with a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameris). In no event shall such change: (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the consideration to be issued to either the Atlantic stockholders or the holders of Atlantic stock options as contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (ii) reasonably be expected to materially impede or delay consummation of the merger; (iii) adversely affect the federal income tax treatment of Atlantic stockholders in connection with the merger or adversely limit or impact the qualification of the merger as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; or (iv) require submission, to or approval of, the Atlantic stockholders after the Merger Agreement has been approved by the Atlantic stockholders.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

Unless both Ameris and Atlantic agree to a later date, the closing of the merger will take place no later than five business days after all of the conditions to the closing of the merger have been satisfied or waived in accordance with their terms. On the closing date, Ameris will file a certificate of merger with the Georgia Secretary of State and articles of merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation. The merger will be effective upon the later of: (i) the filing of the certificate of merger with the Georgia Secretary of State and the articles of merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation; and (ii) such later date and time to which Ameris and Atlantic agree and as may be specified in accordance with the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

The merger is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2018, subject to the receipt of the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval, the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods and the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. However, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required regulatory approvals or in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. No assurance is made as to whether, or when, Ameris and Atlantic will obtain the required approvals or complete the merger. See “— Conditions to Completion of the Merger.”

The Merger Consideration

If the merger is completed and unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of Atlantic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (excluding treasury stock and cancelled shares, as defined below) will be converted into the right to receive: (i) $1.39 in cash, without interest; and (ii) 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Each share of Atlantic common stock owned by Ameris, Atlantic or any of their respective subsidiaries (other than shares in trust accounts, managed accounts or other similar accounts for the benefit of customers or shares held as collateral for outstanding debt previously contracted) immediately prior to the effective time, and each share of Atlantic common stock that is remitted to Atlantic prior to the effective time for purposes of repayment of the Atlantic ESOP Loan (as defined under “— The Atlantic ESOP”), will be cancelled at the effective time without consideration (collectively, the “cancelled shares”).

Ameris will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Rather, Atlantic stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of Ameris common stock upon the completion of the merger will instead receive an amount in cash (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fractional part of a share of Ameris common stock multiplied by the exchange ratio multiplied by the average Ameris stock price (as defined in “— Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments”).

The completion of the merger is subject to a price floor which, if reached prior to the completion of the merger, could result in more shares of Ameris common stock being issued or more cash being paid, or the merger being terminated. See “— Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustment” and “— Termination Fee.”

Subject to certain exceptions specified in the Merger Agreement, if prior to the effective time of the merger, the number of outstanding shares of Ameris common stock or Atlantic common stock is changed as a result of a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification or similar transaction with respect to such shares, then the stock consideration will be proportionately and appropriately adjusted.

The value of the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued to Atlantic stockholders in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger. We make no assurances as to whether or when the merger will be completed, and you are advised to obtain current market prices for the Ameris and Atlantic common stock. See “Risk Factors — Because the market price of the Ameris common stock may fluctuate, Atlantic stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the merger consideration that they will receive in the merger until the closing.”

Treatment of Atlantic Equity Awards

Atlantic Stock Options. At the effective time of the merger, each Atlantic stock option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, will fully vest and be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a cash-out payment from Ameris or Ameris Bank in an amount equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration price over the exercise price of each such Atlantic stock option; and (ii) the number of shares of Atlantic common stock subject to such Atlantic stock option to the extent not previously exercised. After the effective time of the merger, any such canceled Atlantic stock option will no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but will only entitle the holder to the cash-out payment, without interest. If the exercise price per share of Atlantic common stock subject to an Atlantic stock option is equal to or greater than the merger consideration price, then such Atlantic stock option will be canceled without consideration.

Atlantic Restricted Stock Awards. At the effective time of the merger, each Atlantic restricted stock award, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, will fully vest and be converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of Atlantic common stock underlying such Atlantic restricted stock award.

Delivery of Merger Consideration

Ameris will designate Computershare Inc. to act as the exchange agent in connection with the merger. Prior to the effective time of the merger, Ameris will deposit with the exchange agent for the benefit of the Atlantic stockholders sufficient cash and shares of Ameris common stock to satisfy the merger consideration payable under the Merger Agreement.

No later than five business days after the effective time, Ameris will instruct the exchange agent to mail to each record holder, as of the effective time, of Atlantic common stock, a letter of transmittal for use in connection with the exchange and instructions for use in surrendering the applicable stock certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration.

After the effective time, Atlantic stockholders who surrender their stock certificates or book-entry shares to the exchange agent, together with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, will receive the per share purchase price applicable to each of their shares of Atlantic common stock. No interest will be paid or accrue on any merger consideration. Until surrendered, each such stock certificate or book-entry share will represent after the effective time of the merger only the right to receive the merger consideration, without interest, and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled. No dividends or other distributions with respect to Atlantic common stock will be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Atlantic common stock with respect to the shares of Ameris common stock represented thereby until such Atlantic common stock has been properly surrendered. Subject to applicable law, following the proper surrender of previously unsurrendered Atlantic common stock, the record holder thereof will be entitled to receive, without interest: (i) the amount of unpaid dividends or other distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger payable with respect to the whole shares of Ameris common stock represented by such Atlantic common stock and paid prior to such surrender date; and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to shares of Ameris common stock represented by such Atlantic common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger (but before such surrender date) and with a payment date after the issuance of the shares of Ameris common stock issuable in exchange for such Atlantic common stock.

At the effective time of the merger, the stock transfer books of Atlantic will be closed and there will be no further registration of transfers of Atlantic common stock on the records of Atlantic. The merger consideration paid will be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Atlantic common stock. After the effective time, the holders of Atlantic common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will cease to have any rights with respect to such stock, except as otherwise provided for in the Merger Agreement or by applicable law. Neither Ameris nor the exchange agent will be liable to any former Atlantic stockholder for any merger consideration delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. If any stock certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, in order to receive the merger consideration, the holder of that certificate must provide an affidavit of that fact and, if required by either Ameris or the exchange agent in its reasonable discretion, deliver a customary indemnity agreement or post a bond in a customary amount with respect to that certificate.

Ameris and Atlantic have each also agreed that it will, and will cause its subsidiaries to:

- use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it will not take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent the merger from so qualifying, or fail to take any action that would reasonably be expected to be necessary to permit the merger to so qualify.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains generally customary representations and warranties of Ameris and Atlantic relating to their respective businesses that are made as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the merger. The representations and warranties of each of Ameris and Atlantic have been made solely for the benefit of the other party, and these representations and warranties should not be relied on by any other person. In addition, these representations and warranties:

- will not survive consummation of the merger;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Certain representations and warranties of Ameris and Atlantic are qualified as to “materiality” or “material adverse effect.” For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a “material adverse effect,” when used in reference to either Ameris and its subsidiaries, or Atlantic and its subsidiaries, means any change, event, occurrence, development, violation, effect or circumstance which, individually or in the aggregate: (i) has, or is reasonably likely to have, a material adverse effect on the business, operations, properties, assets, liquidity, deposit liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise) or prospects of such party on a consolidated basis; or (ii) prevents or materially impairs, or would be reasonably likely to prevent or materially impair, the ability of such party to timely consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or the bank merger agreement or to perform its agreements or covenants under the Merger Agreement. For purposes of the immediately preceding clause (i), a material adverse effect specifically excludes any adverse effect attributable to or resulting from:

- any change in banking laws of general applicability (so long as Ameris and its subsidiaries, on the one hand, or Atlantic and its subsidiaries, on the other, as the case may be, are not disproportionately affected thereby);
- any change in GAAP or regulatory accounting principles applicable to banks or their holding companies generally (so long as Ameris and its subsidiaries, on the one hand, or Atlantic and its subsidiaries, on the other, as the case may be, are not disproportionately affected thereby);
- any action or omission expressly required by the Merger Agreement or taken with the express prior written consent of the other party to the Merger Agreement;
- general changes in national economic, monetary, market or financial conditions affecting financial institutions (so long as Ameris and its subsidiaries, on the one hand, or Atlantic and its subsidiaries, on the other, as the case may be, are not disproportionately affected thereby);
- changes in national political conditions, including the outbreak or escalation of acts of terrorism;
- the public disclosure of the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; or
- changes in the trading price or trading volume of Ameris common stock or Atlantic common stock.

Regulatory Matters

Ameris has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part to become effective and remain effective through the effective time of the merger. Ameris has also agreed to take any action required to be taken under the applicable state securities laws in connection with the issuance of shares of Ameris common stock upon completion of the merger. Atlantic has agreed to provide Ameris reasonable assistance as necessary in the preparation of the registration statement, including providing Ameris with information concerning Atlantic as and to the extent required for inclusion in the registration statement. Each of Ameris and Atlantic have agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain as promptly as reasonable practicable all required regulatory approvals. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in the Merger Agreement will be deemed to require Ameris, or require or permit Atlantic, to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining the required regulatory approvals that would constitute a burdensome regulatory condition.

Employee Matters

Following the closing date, Ameris or its applicable subsidiary shall provide to employees of Atlantic and its subsidiaries who continue employment with Ameris or any of its subsidiaries following the closing date (“continuing employees”) medical, dental, vacation and long-term disability benefits, medical and dependent care flexible spending accounts, severance and life insurance (collectively, “Ameris employee benefits”) on terms and conditions consistent in all material respects with those then currently provided by Ameris or its subsidiaries to its other similarly-situated employees.

Ameris must give continuing employees credit for their prior service with Atlantic and its subsidiaries for purposes of eligibility and vesting (but not benefit accruals) under any Ameris employee benefits to the extent such service was counted under the similar plan of Atlantic or its subsidiaries. The continuing employees' prior service with Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries shall also be credited for purposes of all waiting periods for participation in any Ameris employee benefits to the extent such service was counted under the similar plan of Atlantic or its subsidiary. Ameris or its applicable subsidiary also: (i) will waive all restrictions and limitations for preexisting conditions under Ameris employee benefits to the extent such restrictions or limitations would not apply to the continuing employees under the similar plan of Atlantic or its subsidiary; and (ii) will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the continuing employees, in the plan year which includes the closing date, with credit under Ameris's group health employee benefits towards any applicable deductibles for the aggregate amounts paid by such employees toward applicable deductibles under Atlantic's group health employee benefit plans for such plan year.

Subject to applicable legal requirements, Ameris and Atlantic will take such other commercially reasonable actions as necessary to terminate or amend, effective as of the closing date, all existing employment agreements and other Atlantic employee benefit plans or arrangements that Ameris directs Atlantic or Atlantic Coast Bank to terminate or amend prior to the completion of the merger. Unless terminated prior to the closing date, Ameris has agreed to honor the existing employment agreements with continuing employees in accordance with their terms or as otherwise amended by the parties.

The Atlantic ESOP

The Atlantic ESOP is a tax-qualified plan that covers substantially all of the employees of Atlantic and its subsidiaries. The Atlantic ESOP received a loan from Atlantic, the proceeds of which were used to acquire shares of Atlantic common stock for the benefit of plan participants (the "Atlantic ESOP Loan"). The Atlantic ESOP has pledged the shares acquired with the loan as collateral for the loan and holds them in a suspense account, releasing them to participants' accounts as the loan is repaid, using contributions received from Atlantic.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, the outstanding Atlantic ESOP Loan will be repaid by the Atlantic ESOP by delivering a sufficient number of unallocated shares of Atlantic common stock to Atlantic and, if after remitting such shares there remains any unpaid amount under the Atlantic ESOP Loan, such unpaid amount, including any unpaid but accrued interest, will be forgiven by Atlantic at the effective time of the merger. Any unallocated shares remaining in the Atlantic ESOP suspense account (after the repayment of the outstanding Atlantic ESOP Loan) will be allocated to the active plan participants pro-rata as earnings. As of the effective time of the merger, the ESOP will be terminated and all allocated shares of common stock held by the Atlantic ESOP will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration.

As soon as practicable following the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS regarding the qualified status of the Atlantic ESOP upon its termination, the account balances in the Atlantic ESOP shall either be distributed to participants and beneficiaries or transferred to an eligible tax-qualified retirement plan or individual retirement account as a participant or beneficiary may direct.

Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Insurance

For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Ameris must indemnify and defend, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the present and former directors and executive officers of Atlantic and its subsidiaries against all liabilities arising out or related to any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding in which an indemnified party is or is threatened to be made a party or witness arising out of the fact that such indemnified party is or was a director or officer of Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries (or was a director, officer, manager or trustee with another Atlantic entity or benefit plan) prior to the effective time, if such claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring on or prior to the effective time.

Ameris shall promptly pay reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in advance of the final disposition of any such claim to each indemnified party to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if such indemnified party is adjudicated not to be entitled to indemnification under the Merger Agreement. Ameris will not have any obligations to an indemnified party under the Merger Agreement if a federal or state banking agency or other governmental authority determines that indemnification of the indemnified person as contemplated under the Merger Agreement is prohibited by applicable law.

Ameris has agreed that it will not consolidate with or merge with any other corporation or entity where Ameris is not the continuing or surviving entity, or transfer all or substantially all of Ameris's property or assets, unless proper provision is made so that the successors and assigns of Ameris assume the obligations of indemnification under the Merger Agreement.

In addition to indemnifying former directors and executive officers of Atlantic during the same six-year period, Ameris will provide directors' and officers' liability insurance covering present and former directors and officers of Atlantic and its subsidiaries who are covered by Atlantic's policies, as of the date of the Merger Agreement, on terms similar to such existing insurance (a "tail insurance policy"). In no event shall Ameris be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such six-year period for the tail insurance policy which exceed 200% of the annual premium payments on Atlantic's policy in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement (the "maximum amount"). If premiums necessary to maintain or procure the tail insurance policy exceed the maximum amount, then Ameris will use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the maximum amount.

NASDAQ Listing

Ameris has agreed to list on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, by the closing date, the shares of Ameris common stock to be issued to Atlantic stockholders in the merger.

Limitations on Discussion With Third Parties

Under the Merger Agreement, Atlantic may not, and may not permit any of its subsidiaries or representatives, to solicit or entertain offers from, negotiate with or encourage, discuss, accept or consider an acquisition proposal (as defined below) of any third party. Atlantic has agreed to immediately cease and cause to be terminated any previously undertaken or ongoing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third party with respect to any acquisition proposal. If Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries or representatives receives any communication regarding an acquisition proposal before the closing date of the merger, then Atlantic shall immediately notify Ameris of the receipt of such acquisition proposal.

An "acquisition proposal" means: (i) any proposal or offer with respect to a merger, joint venture, partnership, consolidation, dissolution, liquidation, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, rights offering, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries; or (ii) any acquisition by any third party resulting in, or proposal or offer, which, if consummated, would result in, any such third party becoming the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 20% of the total voting power of any class of equity securities of Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries, or more than 20% of the consolidated total assets of Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries.

However, prior to obtaining the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval, Atlantic may enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party, or furnish Atlantic non-public information to a third party, in response to a bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal from such party if:

- the acquisition proposal did not result from a breach of Atlantic's obligations under the Merger Agreement regarding limitations on discussions with third parties;
- the board of directors of Atlantic determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal (as defined below);
- the board of directors of Atlantic determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that a failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the board of directors;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Atlantic gives Ameris prompt notice of (i) receipt by Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries or representatives of any acquisition proposal (which notice shall include the identity of such third party and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers), and (ii) Atlantic's entering into discussions or negotiations with, or furnishing Atlantic non-public information to, such third party;

- Atlantic receives from such third party an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms no less favorable to Atlantic than the terms of the confidentiality agreement between Atlantic and Ameris relating to the merger; and

- contemporaneously with, or promptly after, Atlantic furnishes any such nonpublic information to such third party, Atlantic furnishes such nonpublic information to Ameris (if not previously furnished).

Atlantic has agreed to keep Ameris reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status and material terms of any such acquisition proposal, including any material amendments or proposed amendments, and any change in Atlantic's intentions with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

A "superior proposal" means any bona fide written acquisition proposal: (i) that, if consummated, would result in any a third party becoming the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the total voting power of any class of equity securities of Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries, or of more than 50% of the consolidated total assets of Atlantic or any of its subsidiaries; and (ii) with respect to which the board of directors of Atlantic (a) determines in good faith that such acquisition proposal, if accepted, is reasonably likely to be consummated on a timely basis, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the acquisition proposal and the third party making such proposal, and (b) determines in good faith (based on, among other things, the advice of Atlantic's financial advisor) to be more favorable to the Atlantic stockholders than the merger taking into account all relevant factors (including whether, in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of Atlantic, after obtaining the advice of the Atlantic's financial advisor, the third party making such acquisition proposal is reasonably able to finance the transaction and close it timely, and any proposed changes to the Merger Agreement that may be proposed by Ameris in response to such acquisition proposal).

Atlantic Board Recommendation

The Merger Agreement requires Atlantic to hold the special meeting, for purposes of submitting the Merger Agreement and the merger to the Atlantic stockholders for approval, as promptly as reasonably practical after the registration statement of which this proxy/statement forms a part is declared effective by the SEC. Atlantic must use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from the Atlantic stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the merger and take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval. To this end, the board of directors of Atlantic must communicate to the Atlantic stockholders the board of directors of Atlantic's recommendation that they adopt and approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger (the "Atlantic board recommendation").

Except as described under "— Change in Atlantic Board Recommendation," the board of directors of Atlantic may not: (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose publically to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Ameris or its subsidiaries, the Atlantic board recommendation; or (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publically to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal. We refer to any of the actions in clause (i) and (ii) as an "adverse Atlantic recommendation change."

Change in Atlantic Board Recommendation

Prior to obtaining the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval, the board of directors of Atlantic may make an adverse Atlantic recommendation change if:

- the board of directors of Atlantic determines in good faith, after consultation with Atlantic's financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that it has received an acquisition proposal (not resulting from a breach of Atlantic's obligations under the Merger Agreement regarding limitations on discussions with third parties) that is a superior proposal (and such superior proposal has not been withdrawn);

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- the board of directors of Atlantic determines, in good faith, after consultation with Atlantic’s outside legal counsel, that a failure to accept such superior proposal would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the board of directors under applicable law;

- the board of directors of Atlantic delivers to Ameris written notice of its receipt of the superior proposal and its intent to announce an adverse Atlantic recommendation change on the third business day after such delivery, which notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal;

- after providing such written notice, Atlantic negotiates in good faith with Ameris (if requested) and provides Ameris reasonable opportunity during such three-business day period to adjust the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement as would enable the board of directors of Atlantic to proceed without an adverse Atlantic recommendation change; and

- after such three-day period, the board of directors of Atlantic again determines in good faith, after consultation with Atlantic’s financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such acquisition proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a superior proposal and that failure to make an adverse Atlantic recommendation change would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the board of directors under applicable law.

If the board of directors of Atlantic makes an adverse Atlantic recommendation change, then Atlantic could be required to pay Ameris a termination fee of $5.75 million in cash. See “— Termination Fee.”

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where permitted, waived, including:

- receipt of the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval;

- receipt of all required regulatory approvals without them containing or resulting in the imposition of any materially burdensome regulatory condition;

- no order, injunction, decree or judgment preventing the completion of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement issued by any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction, or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the completion of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, is in effect;

- no law has been enacted or enforced by any governmental authority which prohibits or makes illegal the completion of the merger;

- the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part has been declared effective by the SEC, and no stop order has been entered with respect thereto;

the accuracy, in all respects, of the representations and warranties of each party in the Merger Agreement, as of the date of the Merger Agreement and the closing date or such other date specified in the Merger Agreement (without giving effect to any materiality or material adverse effect limitations), except where the failure to be accurate is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the party to which such representation or warranty relates;

- the performance and compliance by each party in all material respects of all agreements and covenants required to be performed by it at or prior to the closing date;
- the delivery of officers' certificates, secretary's certificates and certificates of valid existence to Ameris and Atlantic by the other; and
- receipt by each of Ameris and Atlantic of an opinion of its respective legal counsel as to certain tax matters.

No assurance is given as to when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination; Merger Consideration Adjustments

Termination. Ameris and Atlantic may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the merger at any time prior to the effective time of the merger. Subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, the Merger Agreement also may be terminated as follows:

- by either party, if events that have had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the other party have occurred and are continuing;
- by either party, if the other party materially breaches any covenant, obligation or agreement in the Merger Agreement, which breach has not been cured within 20 days after the giving of written notice to the other party of such breach or, if such breach is not capable of being cured within 20 days, the other party has not actively and in good faith, within 20 days after such written notice, taken steps to cure such breach as promptly as practicable;
- by Ameris, if Ameris learns of any fact or condition that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Ameris or Atlantic and which Atlantic was required, but failed, to disclose;
- by either party, if any required regulatory approval has been denied by the relevant governmental authority, or any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction has issued a final, nonappealable injunction permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- by either party, if the closing date shall not have occurred on or before June 30, 2018 (subject to extension of such termination date as described below), provided that neither party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to such party's failure to perform or observe its covenants and agreements under the Merger Agreement;
- by either party, if the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval is not obtained (provided, in the case of termination by Atlantic, it has complied with its obligations under the Merger Agreement regarding convening the special meeting, soliciting proxies with respect thereto and taking all other actions necessary or advisable to obtain such approval);
- by Atlantic if, prior to obtaining the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval, the board of directors of Atlantic has made an adverse Atlantic recommendation change and Atlantic has complied with its obligations under the Merger Agreement: (i) regarding convening the special meeting, soliciting proxies with respect thereto and taking all other actions necessary or advisable to obtain the required approval, and (ii) as described under “— Limitations on Discussions With Third Parties,” “— Atlantic Board Recommendation” and “— Change in Atlantic Board Recommendation;” and
- by Atlantic, at any time during the four business-day period immediately following the determination date (as defined below), if:

the average Ameris stock price (as defined below) is less than $39.91;

the quotient of the average Ameris stock price (as defined below) divided by $46.95 (which was the closing price of Ameris common stock on November 15, 2017) is less than 85% of the quotient of (x) the average daily current market price of the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) during the determination period divided by (y) the daily current market price of the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) for November 15, 2017; and Ameris elects not to increase the merger consideration to be received by the Atlantic stockholders as discussed under “— Merger Consideration Adjustments” below.

The June 30, 2018 termination date may be extended by Ameris or Atlantic for a period of three additional months, provided that neither party may extend the termination date if the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to such party's failure to perform or observe its covenants and agreements under the Merger Agreement. If the termination date is extended, then the aggregate cash consideration of the merger consideration will be increased as discussed under "— Merger Consideration Adjustments" below.

"Average Ameris stock price" means the average of the closing sale prices of Ameris common stock during the 20 consecutive full trading days (the "determination period") preceding the later to occur of (such date, the "determination date") the effective date of the last required regulatory approval and the date of receipt of the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval.

Merger Consideration Adjustments. If the termination date is extended by either party as discussed under "— Termination" above, then provided that it will not cause the merger to fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the aggregate cash consideration payable as part of the merger consideration to be received by Atlantic stockholders will be increased by the amount of Atlantic's after-tax net income for the period from January 1, 2018 through June 30, 2018.

The merger consideration may also be adjusted as a result of a decline in the Ameris stock price if:

- the average Ameris stock price is less than $39.91;
- the quotient of the average Ameris stock price divided by $46.95 (which was the closing price of Ameris common stock on November 15, 2017) is less than 85% of the quotient of (x) the average daily current market price of the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) during the determination period divided by (y) the daily current market price of the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (KRX) for November 15, 2017;
- at any time during the four business-day period following the determination date, Atlantic provides (and does not withdraw) written notice to Ameris of Atlantic's intention to terminate the Merger Agreement based on the two conditions described above being met; and
- during the three business-day period commencing with Ameris's receipt of Atlantic's written notice, Ameris elects to increase the exchange ratio or (provided that it will not cause the merger to fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code) to pay, as part of the merger consideration, to each Atlantic stockholder, an additional cash payment (the "additional cash consideration"), such that the value of the consideration to be received by each Atlantic stockholder (calculated based on the average Ameris stock price and including any additional cash consideration but excluding the cash consideration of $1.39 per share of Atlantic common stock) equals the minimum amount that, had the average Ameris stock price been equal to such amount, at least one of the first two conditions described above would not have been met.

Even if the first two conditions described above are met, the board of directors of Atlantic may elect not to terminate the Merger Agreement. Any decision to terminate the Merger Agreement will be made by the board of directors of Atlantic in light of all of the circumstances existing at the time. Prior to making any decision to terminate the Merger Agreement, the board of directors of Atlantic would consult with its financial and other advisors and would consider all financial and other information it deemed relevant to its decision, including whether the then-current consideration to be received in the merger would deliver more value to the Atlantic stockholders than the value that could be expected if Atlantic were to continue as an independent company (which would occur if the board of directors of Atlantic were to elect to abandon the merger and Ameris determined not to increase the exchange ratio or pay the additional cash consideration). In addition, the board of directors of Atlantic would consider whether, in light of market and other industry conditions at the time of such decision, the merger consideration continued to be fair from a financial point of view to Atlantic stockholders. If Atlantic elected not to terminate the Merger Agreement, which it could do without any action on the part of Atlantic stockholders, the exchange ratio would remain 0.17 and the cash consideration would remain $1.39 per share of Atlantic common stock.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If each of the first two conditions described above are met and the board of directors of Atlantic elected to terminate the Merger Agreement, then Ameris would have the option of increasing the consideration payable to Atlantic stockholders by either increasing the exchange ratio or paying the additional cash consideration as described above. Ameris is under no obligation to increase the exchange ratio or to pay any such additional cash consideration, and there can be no assurance that Ameris would elect to increase the exchange ratio or pay such additional cash consideration to prevent the termination of the Merger Agreement. Any decision would be made by Ameris in light of the circumstances existing at the time. If Ameris elected to increase the exchange ratio or to pay the additional cash consideration as described above, then Atlantic could not terminate the Merger Agreement as a result of the above-described circumstances.

Termination Fee

Atlantic must pay to Ameris a termination equal to $5.75 million if an acquisition proposal is outstanding, or has been accepted by Atlantic, and the Merger Agreement is terminated:

- by either party because the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2018; or
- by Atlantic, other than due to a termination with respect to (i) a material adverse effect on Ameris, or (ii) a material breach by Ameris of any covenant, obligation or agreement in the Merger Agreement (subject to applicable cure provisions).

Atlantic also must pay to Ameris the termination fee of $5.75 million if Ameris terminates the Merger Agreement as permitted under “Termination” after the board of directors of Atlantic makes an adverse Atlantic recommendation change.

The termination fee will be the sole and exclusive remedy of Ameris for all claims under the Merger Agreement, except that Atlantic shall not be relieved from liability arising from any willful breach of any provision of the Merger Agreement.

Expenses

All expenses incurred by each party in connection with the merger, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants, will be paid by such party.

Amendment and Modification

The Merger Agreement may be amended or modified by an agreement in writing by the parties, except that after the requisite Atlantic stockholder approval has been obtained, no amendment may be made which reduces or modifies the merger consideration.

Voting Agreement

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Ameris and Atlantic entered into a Voting Agreement with each of the directors and certain executive officers of Atlantic, all of whom are Atlantic stockholders. The following summary of the Voting Agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of the Voting Agreement which is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B.

Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, each stockholder who is a party thereto, in its capacity as an Atlantic stockholder, agreed to vote all shares of Atlantic common stock beneficially owned by such stockholder, as follows:

- in favor of the approval or adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;
- in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- against any action or agreement that would be reasonably likely to impair the ability of either Ameris or Atlantic to complete the merger or would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and

- against any proposal that relates to an acquisition proposal, other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, without regard to the terms of such proposal.

The Voting Agreement provides that each stockholder party will not, subject to certain exceptions, with respect to any shares of Atlantic common stock owned by such stockholder:

- sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise), either voluntarily or involuntarily, any such shares;

- enter into any swap or other arrangements that transfer to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of any such shares; or

- enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, lien, hypothecation or other disposition of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise), or otherwise convey or dispose of, any such shares, or any interest therein, including the right to vote any such shares.

The Voting Agreement applies to each stockholder party in such party's capacity as an Atlantic stockholder and does not apply in any manner to any such party's capacity as a director or officer of Atlantic or its subsidiaries or in any other capacity. The Voting Agreement will terminate upon the earlier of: (i) the effective time of the merger; and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following general discussion sets forth the anticipated material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Atlantic common stock. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any United States federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax. This discussion is based upon the Code, the regulations promulgated under the Code and court and administrative rulings and decisions, all as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion.

This discussion addresses only those Atlantic common stockholders that hold their shares of Atlantic common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances or that may be applicable to you if you are subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws, including if you are:

- a financial institution;
- a tax-exempt organization;
- an S corporation or other pass-through entity (or an investor in an S corporation or other pass-through entity);
- an insurance company;
- a mutual fund;
- a dealer or broker in stocks and securities, or currencies;
- a trader in securities that elects mark-to-market treatment;
- a holder of Atlantic common stock subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;
- a holder of Atlantic common stock that received Atlantic common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation;
- a person that is not a U.S. holder (as defined below);
- a person that has a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;
- a holder of Atlantic common stock that holds Atlantic common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion or other integrated transaction; or

- a United States expatriate.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex. They will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within the control of Atlantic or Ameris. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances.

For purposes of this discussion, the term “U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of Atlantic common stock that is for United States federal income tax purposes: (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation, or entity treated as a corporation, organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or (iv) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The United States federal income tax consequences to a partner in an entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes and that holds Atlantic common stock generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners in a partnership holding Atlantic common stock should consult their own tax advisors.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the merger to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Ameris’s obligation to complete the merger that Ameris receive an opinion from Rogers & Hardin LLP (“Rogers & Hardin”), dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Atlantic’s obligation to complete the merger that Atlantic receive an opinion from Iglar and Pearlman, P.A., dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on representation letters provided by Ameris and Atlantic and on customary factual assumptions. Neither of the opinions described above will be binding on the IRS. Ameris and Atlantic have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there is no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below.

In addition, in connection with the effectiveness of this registration statement, each of Rogers & Hardin and Iglar has delivered its opinion to the effect that, on the basis of the facts, representations, assumptions and exclusions set forth in such opinion and certificates obtained from officers of Ameris and Atlantic: (i) the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; and (ii) the following discussion constitutes their opinion as to the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Atlantic common stock. Neither of these opinions is binding on the IRS or the courts, and neither Ameris nor Atlantic intends to request a ruling from the IRS regarding the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Consequently, no assurance is given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which such opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Upon exchanging your Atlantic common stock for Ameris common stock and cash (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share), you will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Ameris common stock received pursuant to the merger over that holder’s adjusted tax basis in its shares of Atlantic common stock surrendered); and (ii) the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share). If you acquired different blocks of Atlantic common stock at different times or different prices, you should consult your tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be determined. Any recognized gain will be long-term capital gain if, as of the effective date of the merger, your holding period with respect to the Atlantic common stock surrendered exceeds one year. If, however, the cash received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the gain will be treated as a dividend to the extent of the holder’s ratable share of accumulated earnings and profits as calculated for United States federal income tax purposes. See “— Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend” below.

The aggregate tax basis in the shares of Ameris common stock that you receive in the merger, including any fractional share interests deemed received and sold as described below, will equal your aggregate adjusted tax basis in the Atlantic common stock you surrender, reduced by the amount of cash received (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share) and increased by the amount of gain, if any recognized by you (excluding any gain recognized with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share) on the exchange. Your holding period for the shares of Ameris common stock that you receive in the merger (including a fractional share interest deemed received and sold as described below) will include your holding period for the shares of Atlantic common stock that you surrender in the exchange.

Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend

In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the exchange will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the exchange reduces the holder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Ameris. For purposes of this determination, the holder is treated as if it first exchanged all of its shares of Atlantic common stock solely for Ameris common stock and then Ameris immediately redeemed, which we refer to in this document as the "deemed redemption," a portion of the Ameris common stock in exchange for the cash the holder actually received. The gain recognized in the deemed redemption will be treated as capital gain if the deemed redemption is: (i) "substantially disproportionate" with respect to the holder; or (ii) "not essentially equivalent to a dividend."

The deemed redemption will generally be "substantially disproportionate" with respect to a holder if the percentage described in clause (ii) below is less than 80% of the percentage described in clause (i) below. Whether the deemed redemption is "not essentially equivalent to a dividend" with respect to a holder will depend upon the holder's particular circumstances. At a minimum, however, in order for the deemed redemption to be "not essentially equivalent to a dividend," the deemed redemption must result in a "meaningful reduction" in the holder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Ameris. In general, that determination requires a comparison of: (i) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Ameris that the holder is deemed actually and constructively to have owned immediately before the deemed redemption; and (ii) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Ameris that is actually and constructively owned by the holder immediately after the deemed redemption. In applying the above tests, a holder may, under the constructive ownership rules, be deemed to own stock that is owned by other persons or stock underlying a holder's option to purchase in addition to the stock actually owned by the holder.

The IRS has ruled that a shareholder in a publicly held corporation whose relative stock interest is minimal (e.g., less than 1%) and who exercises no control with respect to corporate affairs is generally considered to have a "meaningful reduction" if that shareholder has a relatively minor (e.g., approximately 3%) reduction in its percentage stock ownership under the above analysis; accordingly, the gain recognized in the exchange by such a shareholder would be treated as capital gain.

These rules are complex and dependent upon the specific factual circumstances particular to each holder.

Consequently, each holder that may be subject to these rules should consult its tax advisor as to the application of these rules to the particular facts relevant to such holder.

Cash Instead of a Fractional Share

If you receive cash instead of a fractional share of Ameris common stock, then you will be treated as having received the fractional share of Ameris common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having sold that fractional share of Ameris common stock for cash. As a result, you generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis allocable to your fractional share of Ameris common stock. This gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for the shares (including the holding period of Atlantic common stock surrendered therefor) is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Backup Withholding

If you are a non-corporate holder of Atlantic common stock you may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 24%, after recent reduction pursuant to the 2017 Tax Act) on any cash payments you receive. You generally will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if you:

- furnish a correct taxpayer identification number, certify that you are not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the election form/letter of transmittal you will receive and otherwise comply with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or
- provide proof that you are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against your United States federal income tax liability, provided you timely furnish the required information to the IRS.

This summary of material United States federal income tax consequences is not tax advice. You are urged to consult your tax advisor with respect to the application of United States federal income tax laws to your particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the United States federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

The rights of holders of Atlantic capital stock are governed by Maryland law and Atlantic’s articles of incorporation and bylaws. Certain Business
Combination
Restrictions

State Law. Subject to certain exceptions, the Maryland General Corporation Law provides that a "business combination" between a Maryland corporation and an "interested stockholder," or an affiliate of an interested stockholder, is prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder, and after the five-year prohibition, any business combination between a Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder generally must be recommended by the board of directors and approved by the State Law. The Georgia Business Corporation Code contains a business combination statute that protects certain Georgia corporations from hostile takeovers, and from actions following the takeover, by prohibiting some transactions once an acquirer has gained a significant holding in the affirmative vote of at least: (i) 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding shares of voting stock, voting together as a single voting group; and (ii) two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting stock other than the shares held by the interested stockholder or an affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder, voting together as a single voting group.

The supermajority vote requirements do not apply, however, if the corporation's common stockholders receive a minimum price, as defined under the Maryland General Corporation Law, for their shares in the form of cash or other consideration in the same form as previously paid by the interested stockholder for its shares.

The Maryland General Corporation Law generally defines an interested stockholder as: (i) any person who beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of the voting stock after the date on which the corporation had 100 or more beneficial owners of its stock; or (ii) an affiliate or associate of the corporation who was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation's then-outstanding voting stock at any time within the two-year period immediately prior to the date in question, and after the date on which it had 100 or more beneficial owners of its stock.

A person is not an interested stockholder under the statute if the board of directors approved in advance the transaction by which the person otherwise would have become an interested stockholder.

The business combinations covered by the Maryland General Corporation Law generally include mergers, consolidations, statutory share exchanges, or, in certain circumstances, certain transfers of assets, certain stock issuances and transfers, liquidation plans and reclassifications involving interested stockholders and their affiliates, or shareholder that beneficially owns 10% or more of a corporation's voting stock, within five years after the person becomes an interested shareholder, unless:

- prior to the time the person becomes an interested shareholder, the board of directors of the target corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which will result in the person becoming an interested shareholder; after the completion of the transaction in which the person becomes an interested shareholder, the interested shareholder holds at least 90% of the voting stock of the corporation, excluding for purposes of determining the number of shares outstanding, those shares owned by (i) persons who are directors or officers or their affiliates or associates, (ii) subsidiaries of the corporation, and (iii) specific employee benefit plans; or
- after the shareholder becomes an interested shareholder, the shareholder acquires additional shares such that the shareholder becomes the holder of at least 90% of the voting stock of the corporation, excluding for purposes of determining the number of shares outstanding, those shares owned by (i) persons who are directors or officers, their affiliates or associates, (ii) subsidiaries of the corporation, and (iii) specific employee benefit plans, and the business combination was approved by the shareholders of the corporation by holders of a majority of the stock entitled to vote on the transaction (with the number of shares outstanding calculated as above and further excluding shares held by the interested shareholder).

Two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter must vote in favor of granting the “control shares” voting rights. “Control shares” are shares of stock that, taken together with all other voting shares of stock the acquirer previously acquired or in respect of which the acquirer is able to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power (except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy), would entitle the acquirer to exercise voting power in electing directors within one of the following ranges of voting power: (i) one-tenth or more but less than one-third of all voting power; (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power; or (iii) a majority or more of all voting power. Control shares do not include shares of stock the acquiring person is entitled to vote as a result of having previously obtained stockholder approval. (including agreeing to pay expenses), such person may compel the corporation's board of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders to consider the voting rights of the shares. If such a person makes no request for a meeting, the corporation has the option to present the question at any stockholders' meeting.

If voting rights are not approved at a meeting of stockholders or the acquiring person does not deliver an acquiring person statement as required by the statute, then, subject to certain conditions and limitations, the corporation may redeem any or all of the control shares (except those for which voting rights have previously been approved) for fair value. The corporation will determine the fair value of the shares, without regard to the absence of voting rights, as of the date of either: (i) the last control share acquisition; or (ii) the meeting of stockholders where stockholders considered and did not approve voting rights of the control shares.

If voting rights for control shares are approved at a stockholders' meeting and the acquirer becomes entitled to vote a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote, all other stockholders may obtain rights as objecting stockholders and, thereunder, exercise appraisal rights. Under the Maryland General Corporation Law, the fair value may not be less than the highest price per share paid in the control share acquisition. Furthermore, certain limitations otherwise applicable to the exercise of dissenters' rights would not apply in the context of a control share acquisition. The control share acquisition statute would not apply to shares acquired in a merger, consolidation or share exchange if the corporation were a party to the transaction.

Bylaw Provision. Atlantic's bylaws provide that the "control share" acquisition restrictions under the Maryland General Corporation Law shall not apply to any acquisition by any person of shares of stock of

	State Law. Under the Maryland General Corporation Law, a Maryland corporation generally cannot merge, convert, sell all or substantially all of its assets or engage in a statutory share exchange, unless declared advisable by the board of directors and approved by the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. However, a Maryland corporation may provide in its articles of incorporation for approval of these matters by a lesser percentage, but not less than a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.	State Law. Under the Georgia Business Corporation Code, subject to certain exceptions, a merger, share exchange or sale, lease, exchange or transfer of all or substantially all of the corporation’s assets generally must be approved at a meeting of a corporation’s shareholders by the: (i) affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter; and (ii) in addition, with respect to a merger or share exchange, affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by holders of the shares of each voting group entitled to vote separately on the transaction as a group by the articles of incorporation.
Fundamental Business Transactions	Charter Provision. Atlantic’s articles of incorporation provide that, notwithstanding any provision of the Maryland General Corporation Law requiring stockholder authorization of an action by a greater proportion than a majority of the total number of shares of all classes of capital stock or of the total number of shares of any class of capital stock, such action shall be valid and effective if authorized by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total number of shares of all classes outstanding and entitled to vote thereon. ## NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 — Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed balance sheet as of September 30, 2017, and the unaudited pro forma condensed income statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2017, and the year ended December 31, 2016, are based on the historical financial statements of Ameris and Atlantic after giving effect to the completion of the merger and the assumptions and adjustments described in the accompanying notes. Such financial statements do not reflect cost savings or operating synergies expected to result from the merger, or the costs to achieve these cost savings or operating synergies, or any anticipated disposition of assets that may result from the integration of the operations of the two companies.

The transaction will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 805, Business Combinations (“ASC 805”). In business combination transactions in which the consideration given is not in the form of cash (that is, in the form of non-cash assets, liabilities incurred, or equity interests issued), measurement of the acquisition consideration is based on the fair value of the consideration given or the fair value of the asset (or net assets) acquired, whichever is more clearly evident and, thus, more reliably measurable.

Under ASC 805, all of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination are recognized at their acquisition-date fair value, while transaction costs and restructuring costs associated with the business combination are expensed as incurred. The excess of the acquisition consideration over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, if any, is allocated to goodwill. Changes in deferred tax asset valuation allowances and income tax uncertainties after the acquisition date generally affect income tax expense. Subsequent to the completion of the merger, Ameris and Atlantic will finalize an integration plan, which may affect how the assets acquired, including intangible assets, will be utilized by the combined company. For those assets in the combined company that will be phased out or will no longer be used, additional amortization, depreciation and possibly impairment charges will be recorded after management completes the integration plan.

The unaudited pro forma information is presented solely for informational purposes and is not necessarily indicative of the combined results of operations or financial position that might have been achieved for the periods or dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the future results of the combined company.

Note 2 — Preliminary Estimated Acquisition Consideration

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Atlantic stockholders will receive 0.17 shares of Ameris common stock plus $1.39 in cash, without interest, for each share of Atlantic common stock.

Based on Atlantic’s estimated shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding as of September 30, 2017, the preliminary estimated acquisition consideration is as follows, assuming all shares of Atlantic common stock, with the exception of 63,474 unallocated shares of Atlantic common stock held by the Atlantic ESOP which are assumed to be cancelled for the repayment of the Atlantic ESOP Loan, are exchanged for the per share stock consideration (in thousands):

Preliminary Estimated Acquisition Consideration

Total number of shares of Atlantic common stock outstanding at September 30, 2017	15,553

Estimated cash paid at acquisition	$ 21,531
Total Preliminary Estimated Acquisition Consideration	$ 148,439

TABLE OF CONTENTS*Note 3 — Preliminary Estimated Acquisition Consideration Allocation

Under the acquisition method of accounting, the total acquisition consideration is allocated to the acquired tangible and intangible assets and assumed liabilities of Atlantic based on their estimated fair values as of the closing of the merger. The excess of the acquisition consideration over the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, if any, is allocated to goodwill.

The allocation of the estimated acquisition consideration is preliminary because the proposed merger has not yet been completed. The preliminary allocation is based on estimates, assumptions, valuations, and other studies which have not progressed to a stage where there is sufficient information to make a definitive allocation. Accordingly, the acquisition consideration allocation unaudited pro forma adjustments will remain preliminary until Ameris management determines the final acquisition consideration and the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The final determination of the acquisition consideration allocation is anticipated to be completed as soon as practicable after the completion of the merger and will be based on the value of the Ameris common stock at the closing of the merger. The final amounts allocated to assets acquired and liabilities assumed could differ significantly from the amounts presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined consolidated financial statements.

The total preliminary estimated acquisition consideration as shown in the table above is allocated to Atlantic's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities as of September 30, 2017, based on their preliminary estimated fair values as follows (in thousands):

Preliminary Estimated Acquisition Consideration Allocation

Cash and due from banks	$ 4,091
Federal funds sold and interest bearing deposits in banks	38,143
Investment securities available for sale	39,113
Other investments	7,228
Loans held for sale	5,025

Other assets	4,542
Deposits	(676,416)
Other borrowings	(155,140)
Other liabilities	(3,283)
Intangible assets	7,121
Goodwill	59,586
Total Preliminary Estimated Acquisition Consideration	$ 148,439

Approximately $7.1 million has been preliminarily allocated to amortizable intangible assets acquired. The amortization related to the preliminary fair value of net amortizable intangible assets is reflected as a pro forma adjustment to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements.

Identifiable intangible assets. The preliminary fair values of intangible assets were determined based on the provisions of ASC 805, which defines fair value in accordance with ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820"). ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Intangible assets were identified that met either the separability criterion or the contractual-legal criterion described in ASC 805. The preliminary allocation to intangible assets is allocated to core deposit intangibles.

Goodwill. Goodwill represents the excess of the preliminary estimated acquisition consideration over the preliminary fair value of the underlying net tangible and intangible assets. Among the factors that contributed to a purchase price in excess of the fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets are the skill sets, operations, customer base and organizational cultures that can be leveraged to enable the combined company to build an enterprise greater than the sum of its parts. In accordance with ASC Topic 350, Intangibles — Goodwill and Other, goodwill will not be amortized, but instead will be tested for impairment at least annually and whenever events or circumstances have occurred that may indicate a possible impairment. In the event management determines that the value of goodwill has become impaired, the combined company will incur an accounting charge for the amount of the impairment during the period in which the determination is made.

Note 4 — Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma and Acquisition Accounting Adjustments

The unaudited pro forma financial information is not necessarily indicative of what the financial position actually would have been had the merger been completed at the date indicated. Such information includes adjustments which are preliminary and may be revised. Such revisions may result in material changes. The financial position shown herein is not necessarily indicative of what the past financial position of the combined companies would have been, nor necessarily indicative of the financial position of the post-merger periods. The unaudited pro forma financial information does not give consideration to the impact of possible expense efficiencies, synergies, strategy modifications, asset dispositions or other actions that may result from the merger.

The following unaudited pro forma adjustments result from accounting for the merger, including the determination of fair value of the assets, liabilities, and commitments which Ameris, as the acquirer for accounting purposes, will acquire from Atlantic. The descriptions related to these preliminary adjustments are as follows (in thousands):

A 20% difference in per share price at the closing of the merger compared to the amount used in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements would increase or decrease total acquisition consideration and goodwill by approximately $25.4 million.

beneficial owner; (iv) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder and any other person(s) (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such stockholder and any material interest of such stockholder in such business; and (v) a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to bring such business before the meeting. Any business proposed to be brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder must be a proper matter for action by stockholders.

The notice with respect to director nominations must include: (i) as to each individual whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director, all information relating to such person that would indicate such person's qualification to serve on the board of directors of Atlantic, including an affidavit that such person would not be disqualified under the provisions of Article 2, Section 12 of Atlantic's bylaws and all other information relating to such individual that is required to be disclosed in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act or any successor rule or regulation; and (ii) as to the stockholder giving the notice, the name and address of such stockholder as they appear on Atlantic's books and of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made; the class or series and number of shares of Atlantic capital stock which are owned beneficially or of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner; a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder and each proposed nominee and any other person(s) (including their names) pursuant to which the nomination(s) are to be made by such stockholder; a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person(s) named in its notice; and any other information relating to such stockholder that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act or any successor rule or regulation. Such notice must be accompanied by a written consent of each proposed nominee to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director, if elected.

Nothing in this proxy statement/prospectus shall be deemed to require Atlantic to include in its proxy statement and proxy relating to an annual meeting any stockholder proposal that does not meet all of the requirements for inclusion established by the SEC in effect at the time such proposal is received.

Atlantic intends to hold an annual meeting during the year ending December 31, 2018, only if the merger is not completed. If the merger is not completed, Atlantic's 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is expected to be held in the third quarter of 2018. Accordingly, advance written notice for stockholder proposals and nominations for director, to be brought before that annual meeting must be received by Atlantic's Corporate Secretary no earlier than 80 days and no later than 90 days prior to such meeting. However, if less than 90 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of such meeting is given to stockholders, any such notice must be delivered or mailed to Atlantic's Corporate Secretary not later than the 10th day after the notice or prior public disclosure of the meeting date. If notice is received outside of these dates, it will be considered untimely, and we will not be required to present the matter at the stockholders meeting.

Atlantic Stockholder Proposals

In order to be eligible for inclusion in Atlantic's proxy materials for its 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, any stockholder proposal to take action at such meeting must have been received at Atlantic's principal executive office, 4655 Salisbury Road, Suite 110, Jacksonville, Florida 32256, Attention: Corporate Secretary, no later than December 18, 2017. Any such proposals will need to be in writing and shall be subject to the requirements of the proxy rules adopted under the Exchange Act.

1.2 Merger Consideration. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, automatically by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Ameris, Atlantic or the stockholders of either of the foregoing:

(a) Each share of Ameris common stock, $1.00 par value per share (“Ameris Common Stock”), that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain outstanding following the Effective Time and shall be unchanged by the Merger.

(b) Each share of Atlantic common stock, $0.01 par value per share (“Atlantic Common Stock”), owned directly by Ameris, Atlantic or any of their respective Subsidiaries (other than shares in trust accounts, managed accounts or other similar accounts for the benefit of customers or shares held as collateral for outstanding debt previously contracted) immediately prior to the Effective Time, and each share of Atlantic Common Stock that is remitted to Atlantic prior to the Effective Time for purposes of repayment of the Atlantic ESOP Loan as contemplated by Section 5.10(d), shall be cancelled and retired at the Effective Time without any conversion thereof, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto. Such cancelled and retired shares of Atlantic Common Stock are referred to collectively as the “Cancelled Shares”.

(c) Subject to Section 1.2(f), each share of Atlantic Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than treasury stock and the Cancelled Shares) shall become and be converted into the right to receive the following consideration, in each case without interest: (i) an amount of cash equal to $1.39 (the “Cash Consideration”); and (ii) 0.17 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of Ameris Common Stock together with cash in lieu of any fractional shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.2(f) (the “Stock Consideration”, and together with the Cash Consideration, per share, the “Per Share Purchase Price” and, in the aggregate, as adjusted in accordance with the terms hereof, the “Merger Consideration”). Each certificate previously representing such shares of Atlantic Common Stock (each, a “Certificate”) shall thereafter represent, subject to Section 1.3(d), only the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Any reference herein to “Certificate” shall be deemed, as appropriate, to include reference to book-entry account statements relating to the ownership of shares of Atlantic Common Stock, and it being further understood that provisions herein relating to Certificates shall be interpreted in a manner that appropriately accounts for book-entry shares, including that, in lieu of delivery of a Certificate and a Letter of Transmittal, shares held in book-entry form may be transferred by means of an “agent’s message” to the Exchange Agent or such other evidence of transfer as the Exchange Agent may reasonably request.

(d) At the Effective Time, each option to acquire shares of Atlantic Common Stock (an “Atlantic Stock Option”) issued pursuant to Atlantic’s equity-based compensation plans identified in Section 2.28(a) of the Disclosure Schedule (the “Atlantic Stock Plans”), whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall become fully vested and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a cash payment from Ameris or Ameris Bank (the “Cash-Out Amount”) in an amount equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration Price over the exercise price of each such Atlantic Stock Option; and (ii) the number of shares of Atlantic Common Stock subject to such Atlantic Stock Option to the extent not previously exercised. After the Effective Time, any such cancelled Atlantic Stock Option shall no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but shall only entitle the holder to the payment of the Cash-Out Amount, without interest. In the event the exercise price per share of Atlantic Common Stock subject to an Atlantic Stock Option is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration Price, such Atlantic Stock Option shall be cancelled without consideration and have no further force or effect. For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Merger Consideration Price” means the sum of: (x) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the Average Ameris Stock Price; and (y) $1.39.

(e) At the Effective Time, each award of shares of Atlantic Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction (an “Atlantic Restricted Share Award”) granted pursuant to the Atlantic Stock Plans, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall become fully vested and shall be converted automatically into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of Atlantic Common Stock underlying such Atlantic Restricted Share Award. Prior to the Effective Time, Atlantic shall: (i) obtain any necessary consents or make any necessary amendments to the terms of any outstanding Atlantic Restricted Share Awards or Atlantic Stock Plans to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Section 1.2(e); (ii) take all actions as may be necessary to terminate (and, except as provided in this Section 1.2(e), ensure that neither Atlantic nor Atlantic Coast Bank remains bound by or liable for) any outstanding Atlantic Restricted Share Awards or other rights to acquire Atlantic Common Stock; and (iii) ensure that the Atlantic Stock Plans which allow the grant of Atlantic Restricted Share Awards or other rights to acquire Atlantic Common Stock, if any, will be amended to eliminate the ability to grant any such Atlantic Restricted Share Awards or other rights to acquire Atlantic Common Stock effective as of immediately after the Effective Time. At or as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time (which may be in connection with the payment of the first regular base salary payment due to such holder following the Closing, but in any event shall occur within thirty (30) days after the Effective Time), Ameris or Ameris Bank shall deliver the Merger Consideration to the holders of Atlantic Restricted Share Awards, without interest. Such payments may be reduced by any Taxes withheld pursuant to Section 1.3(g).

(f) No scrip or fractional share certificates of Ameris Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger, and an outstanding fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote, to receive dividends or to have any of the rights of a shareholder with respect to such fractional interest. In lieu of any fractional interest, there shall be paid in cash, without interest, an amount (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fraction multiplied by the purchase price per share of Atlantic Common Stock as determined by multiplying: (i) the Exchange Ratio; by (ii) the Average Ameris Stock Price.

(g) If either party should change the number of its outstanding shares as a result of a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification or similar transaction with respect to such shares prior to the Effective Time, then the shares to be issued hereunder to holders of Atlantic Common Stock shall be proportionately and appropriately adjusted; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, no such adjustment shall be made with regard to Ameris Common Stock if: (i) Ameris issues additional shares of Ameris Common Stock and receives consideration for such shares in a bona fide merger, acquisition or other business combination or third-party transaction or in any issuance of securities in a capital-raising transaction; or (ii) Ameris issues stock options, restricted stock or restricted stock units or grants or similar equity awards or Ameris Common Stock upon exercise or vesting of any such grants or awards.

1.3 Delivery of the Merger Consideration.

(a) At or prior to the Effective Time, Ameris shall appoint Computershare Inc. to act as exchange agent (the “Exchange Agent”) and shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, for the benefit of the holders of Atlantic Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Section 1.3, through the Exchange Agent: (i) certificates of Ameris Common Stock or, at Ameris’s option, evidence of shares of Ameris Common Stock in book-entry form (collectively, “New Certificates”) to be issued in exchange for the Stock Consideration; and (ii) cash in an amount sufficient to pay (A) the aggregate cash portion of the Merger Consideration and (B) cash sufficient to pay cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 1.2(f) (such cash and New Certificates described in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii), together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the “Exchange Fund”). Ameris shall, after the Effective Time on the appropriate payment date, if applicable, provide or cause to be provided to the Exchange Agent any dividends or other distributions represented by such deposited shares. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Ameris for Ameris’s benefit pending payment thereof by the Exchange Agent to the holders of Atlantic Common Stock pursuant to this Article I; provided, however, that no investment of such deposited funds directed by Ameris shall relieve Ameris or the Exchange Agent from promptly making the payments required by this Article I, and following any losses from any such investment, Ameris shall promptly provide additional funds to the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of Atlantic Common Stock, in the amount of such losses, which additional funds will be held and disbursed in the same manner as funds initially deposited with the Exchange Agent. Ameris shall direct the Exchange Agent to hold the Exchange Fund for the benefit of the former holders of Atlantic Common Stock and to make payments from the Exchange Fund in accordance with this Article I. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments pursuant to this Article I, except as expressly provided for in this Agreement.

(b) Ameris shall direct the Exchange Agent to mail no later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time (the mailing date of such letter of transmittal being referred to herein as the “Mailing Date”) to each holder of record of Atlantic Common Stock as of the Effective Time: (i) a letter of transmittal, which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the holder’s Certificate or Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of such Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) to the Exchange Agent, and shall otherwise be in such form and have such other provisions as Ameris may reasonably specify (the “Letter of Transmittal”); and (ii) instructions for effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for payment of the Merger Consideration. Upon the surrender of Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, and delivery of a Letter of Transmittal, duly executed and properly completed, with respect to such Certificates, the record holder of such Certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration to be paid therefor pursuant to this Article I. No interest shall be paid or accrue on any cash payable upon surrender of any Certificate. For purposes of this Agreement, a “Business Day” is any day other than Saturday, Sunday, a day which is a legal holiday in Florida or Georgia or a day on which commercial banks in Florida or Georgia are authorized or required by Applicable Law to close.

(c) As of the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Atlantic shall be closed and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of Atlantic Common Stock on the records of Atlantic. The Merger Consideration paid in accordance with the terms of this Article I with respect to any Atlantic Common Stock shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining thereto. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of shares of Atlantic Common Stock outstanding immediately prior thereto shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto except as otherwise provided for herein or by Applicable Law.

(d) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Atlantic Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Atlantic Common Stock with respect to the shares of Ameris Common Stock represented thereby, in each case unless and until the surrender of each outstanding share of such Atlantic Common Stock in accordance with this Section 1.3. Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws, following surrender of any such share of such Atlantic Common Stock in accordance with this Section 1.3, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, without interest: (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore payable with respect to the whole shares of Ameris Common Stock represented by such Atlantic Common Stock and paid prior to such surrender date; and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to shares of Ameris Common Stock represented by such Atlantic Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time (but before such surrender date) and with a payment date subsequent to the issuance of the Ameris Common Stock issuable with respect to such Atlantic Common Stock.

(e) At any time following the first anniversary of the Effective Time (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time when the amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Authority), Ameris shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any portion of the Exchange Fund (including any interest or investment income received with respect thereto) not disbursed to holders of Atlantic Common Stock, and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look only to Ameris (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws) as general creditors thereof with respect to the Merger Consideration payable upon due surrender of their Certificates and compliance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.3, without interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Ameris nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of Atlantic Common Stock for Merger Consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. For purposes of this Agreement, “Governmental Authority” means any governmental, regulatory or administrative body, agency, A-10 commission, board or authority, or any court or judicial authority, to which a party is subject, whether international, national, federal, state or local.

(f) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent or Ameris, as applicable, shall issue in exchange therefor upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, the Merger Consideration into which such shares of Atlantic Common Stock formerly represented thereby were converted pursuant to this Article I; provided, however, that the Exchange Agent, or Ameris, as applicable, may, in its reasonable discretion and as a condition precedent to the payment of such Merger Consideration, as applicable, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate to deliver a customary indemnity agreement or provide a bond in a customary amount.

(g) Ameris and Ameris Bank are entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the Exchange Agent to deduct and withhold, from the Merger Consideration and any other amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any Person such amounts, if any, as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and remitted on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority by or on behalf of Ameris or Ameris Bank, such amounts withheld shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to such Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made. For purposes of this Agreement, "Person" means any natural person, bank, corporation, association, partnership, limited liability company, organization, business, firm, trust, joint venture, unincorporated organization or any other entity or organization, including a Governmental Authority.

1.4Closing. The transactions contemplated herein shall be consummated (the "Closing") at the offices of Rogers & Hardin LLP, 2700 International Tower, 229 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30303, on a date to be specified by the parties, which date shall be no later than five (5) Business Days after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions), unless another time, place or date, or any or all, are agreed to in writing by the parties hereto. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to herein as the "Closing Date." On the Closing Date, Ameris shall file the Certificate of Merger with the Georgia Secretary of State and the Articles of Merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation.

1.7 Tax-Free Reorganization.

(a) Each of Ameris and Atlantic shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. None of Ameris, Atlantic or their respective Subsidiaries shall: (i) take, or agree to take, any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; or (ii) fail to take, or agree to fail to take, any action that would reasonably be expected to be necessary to permit the Merger to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Pursuant to the foregoing, each of Ameris and Atlantic agrees to make such commercially reasonable additions or modifications to the terms of this Agreement as may be reasonably necessary to permit the Merger to so qualify.

(b) Unless otherwise required by Applicable Law, each of Ameris and Atlantic: (i) shall report the Merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; (ii) shall not take any Tax reporting position inconsistent with such characterization; and (iii) shall properly file with its federal income Tax Returns all information required by Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3.

Ameris may at any time and without the approval of Atlantic change the method of effecting the business combination contemplated by this Agreement (including by providing for the merger of Atlantic with a wholly owned Subsidiary of Ameris) if and to the extent that it deems such a change to be desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall (a) alter or change the amount or kind of the consideration to be issued to either the stockholders of Atlantic as Merger Consideration or the holders of Atlantic Stock Options, each as currently contemplated in this Agreement, (b) reasonably be expected to materially impede or delay consummation of the Merger, (c) adversely affect the federal income Tax treatment of stockholders of Atlantic in connection with the Merger or adversely limit or impact the qualification of the Merger as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Code, or (d) require submission, to or approval of, the stockholders of Atlantic after this Agreement has been approved by the stockholders of Atlantic. In the event that Ameris elects to make such a change, Ameris and Atlantic agree to execute appropriate documents to reflect the change.

1.10 Additional Actions. If, at any time after the Effective Time, Ameris shall consider or be advised that any further deeds, documents, assignments or assurances in law or any other acts are necessary or desirable to (a) vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in Ameris its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of Atlantic or (b) otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement, then the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by Ameris.

Each Material Contract is in full force and effect and is valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to the General Enforceability Exceptions, and, to the knowledge of Atlantic, constitutes a legal and binding obligation of the respective parties thereto and is not the subject of any notice of default, termination, partial termination or of any ongoing, pending, completed or threatened investigation, inquiry or other proceeding or action that may give rise to any notice of default, termination or partial termination that would be reasonably expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. A true and complete copy of each Material Contract has been made available to Ameris.

2.24 Licenses; Intellectual Property. Atlantic and its Subsidiaries have all patents, trademarks, trade names, service marks, copyrights, trade secrets and know-how reasonably necessary to conduct their respective businesses as presently conducted. (f) Except as set forth in Section 2.27(f) of the Disclosure Schedule, the buildings and structures owned, leased or used by Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries are, taken as a whole, in good operating order (except for ordinary wear and tear), usable in the ordinary course of business, and are sufficient and adequate to carry on the business and affairs of Atlantic and its Subsidiaries.

With respect to each Atlantic Plan, neither Atlantic nor any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents or any fiduciary of any Atlantic Plan has been engaged in or been a party to any transaction relating to the Atlantic Plan which could reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA or a “prohibited transaction” (as such term is defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code), unless such transaction is specifically permitted under Sections 407 or 408 of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code or a class or administrative exemption issued by the Department of Labor. Each Atlantic Plan that is a group health plan within the meaning of Section 607(l) of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code is in material compliance with: (i) the continuation coverage requirements of Section 501 of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code and other Applicable Laws; and (ii) the applicable requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, as amended.

(f) Each Atlantic Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, and its related trust, respectively, has received a favorable determination letter (or opinion letter) from the IRS as to the qualification of such plan and the tax-exempt status of the related trust (or has filed with the IRS a request for such a determination letter within the applicable remedial amendment period or is a prototype plan for which the prototype plan sponsor has received a favorable opinion letter or advisory opinion from the IRS as to the qualification of the prototype plan on which Atlantic or its applicable Subsidiary may rely) and, to the knowledge of Atlantic, no event has occurred, and no condition exists, that would reasonably be expected to cause the loss of such qualified or tax-exempt status or the imposition of any liability, tax or penalty under ERISA or the Code.

(g) Neither Atlantic nor any of its Subsidiaries provides or has any obligation to provide benefits, including death, health, post-retirement life insurance or medical benefits (whether or not insured), with respect to current or former employees of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries or their spouses, dependents or beneficiaries beyond the employees' retirement or other termination of employment or service with Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries, other than coverage mandated by Applicable Law and at the sole expense of such employees or their spouses, dependents or beneficiaries.

(h) Except as set forth in Section 2.28(h) of the Disclosure Schedule, neither this Agreement nor any transaction contemplated hereby (either alone or in combination with any other event) will: (i) entitle any current or former employee, officer, director or other service provider of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries to any payment or benefit, including any bonus, retention, severance pay, retirement pay, unemployment compensation or any similar or other payment; (ii) accelerate the time of payment or vesting of, or increase the amount of compensation or benefits due any such employee, officer, director or other service provider; (iii) increase any benefits, or accelerate the time of payment or any benefits, otherwise payable under any Atlantic Plan; (iv) trigger any material obligation under any Atlantic Plan, including any funding thereof; or (v) cause the payment of any "excess parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G of the Code). (j) There is no audit or investigation pending with respect to any Atlantic Plan before any Governmental Authority and, to the knowledge of Atlantic, no such audit or investigation is threatened.

(k) Atlantic has properly accrued on its financial statements in all material respects the correct number of days for all vacation, sick leave, personal time and paid time off credited to employees and individual consultants of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries as of the date of such financial statements. Atlantic or its applicable Subsidiary has, for each Atlantic Plan and all other purposes, including Taxes and participation in Atlantic Plans, correctly classified all natural persons and, if applicable, their disregarded entities providing services to Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries as common law employees or independent contractors, as appropriate.

(l) Neither Atlantic nor any of its Subsidiaries has entered into any commitment to modify or amend any Atlantic Plan (other than in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice or as required by Applicable Law) or to establish any new benefit plan, program or arrangement. There has been no amendment to any Atlantic Plan, interpretation or announcement by Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries relating to any Atlantic Plan or written notice or arrangement, or change in eligibility, participation or coverage under any Atlantic Plan, that would increase the expense of maintaining any such Atlantic Plan above the level of expense incurred or with respect to such Atlantic Plan for the most-recently completed fiscal year of Atlantic and its Subsidiaries.

(m) Each pension plan, within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA, that is not intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code is exempt from Parts 2, 3 and 4 of ERISA as an unfunded plan that is maintained primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for a select group of management or highly compensated employees pursuant to Sections 201(2), 301(a)(3) and 401(a)(1) of ERISA. No assets of any such pension plan have been set aside to pay the obligations under such pension plan in a rabbi trust or otherwise.

(n) The Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the "Atlantic ESOP") grants to its participants full voting rights as to all shares of Atlantic Common Stock held by the Atlantic ESOP on behalf of such participants and that have been allocated to their accounts.

2.29 Employment and Labor Matters. Neither Atlantic nor any of its Subsidiaries is, or has been, a party to any collective bargaining agreement or agreement of any kind with any union or labor organization or to any agreement with any of its employees which is not terminable at will or upon ninety (90) days' notice at the election of, and without cost or penalty to, Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries. Neither Atlantic nor any of its Subsidiaries has received at any time in the past five (5) years any demand

Except for: (a) loans and extensions of credit made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions by Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries with other Persons who are not affiliated with Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries, and which do not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features; (b) deposits, all of which are on terms and conditions identical to those made available to all customers of Atlantic Coast Bank at the time such deposits were entered into; and (c) transactions specifically described in Section 2.30 of the Disclosure Schedule, there are no contracts with or commitments to present or former five percent (5%) or greater stockholders, directors, officers or employees involving the expenditure of more than $50,000 as to any one individual, including with respect to any business directly or indirectly controlled by any such Person, or $100,000 for all such contracts or commitments in the aggregate for all such individuals (other than contracts or commitments relating to services to be performed by any officer, director or employee as a currently-employed employee of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries).

2.31 Approvals, Consents and Filings. Except for the Required Regulatory Approvals, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will: (a) require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any Governmental Authority; or (b) violate any Law applicable to Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries or any assets or properties of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries. Atlantic has no knowledge of any fact or condition that would prevent or materially impede or delay Ameris and Atlantic from obtaining the Required Regulatory Approvals without the imposition of any Burdensome Regulatory Condition.

2.32 Absence of Brokers. Except for Hovde Group, LLC (“Hovde”) and B. Riley FBR, Inc. (“B. Such opinion has not been amended or rescinded as of the date of this Agreement. Atlantic has provided Ameris with a true and complete copy of such opinion for informational purposes.

2.34 Takeover Laws and Provisions. Atlantic has taken all necessary action, if any, to render inapplicable to this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated in this Agreement the provisions of any potentially applicable anti-takeover, control share, fair price, moratorium, interested stockholder or similar Law or, if applicable, any shareholder rights or poison pill agreement or similar agreement applicable with respect to Atlantic. Part 364. Furthermore, the board of directors of Ameris Bank has adopted and Ameris Bank has implemented an anti-money laundering program that contains adequate and appropriate customer identification verification procedures and that meets the requirements of Sections 352 and 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act. Other than investments to satisfy regulatory requirements, neither Ameris nor Ameris Bank is a party to any agreement with any Person regarding Community Reinvestment Act matters.

3.11 Approvals, Consents and Filings. Except for the Required Regulatory Approvals, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will: (a) require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any Governmental Authority; or (b) violate any Law applicable to Ameris or any of its Subsidiaries or any assets or properties of Ameris or any of its Subsidiaries. Ameris has no knowledge of any fact or condition that would prevent or materially impede or delay Ameris and Atlantic from obtaining the Required Regulatory Approvals without the imposition of any Burdensome Regulatory Condition.

3.12 Absence of Brokers. Except for Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., which has provided financial advisory services to Ameris, no broker, finder or other financial consultant has acted on behalf of Ameris or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

3.13 Tax Returns; Taxes.

(a) Each of Ameris and Ameris Bank has: (i) duly and timely filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority all Tax Returns required to be filed by it (taking into account any applicable extensions) and all such Tax Returns are true, correct and complete in all material respects and were prepared in compliance with all Applicable Laws; and (ii) timely paid all Taxes due and owing from it (whether or not shown due on any Tax Returns). Neither Ameris nor Ameris Bank is currently the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return. To the knowledge of Ameris, no claim has ever been made by a Governmental Authority in a jurisdiction where Ameris and Ameris Bank do not file Tax Returns that Ameris or Ameris Bank is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction. There are no Liens for Taxes (other than Taxes not yet due and payable) upon any of the assets of Ameris or Ameris Bank.

(b) Neither Ameris nor Ameris Bank has waived any statute of limitations with respect to Taxes or agreed to any extension of time with respect to a Tax assessment or deficiency.

(c) No foreign, federal, state or local Tax audits or administrative or judicial Tax proceedings are pending or being conducted with respect to Ameris or Ameris Bank. Neither Ameris nor Ameris Bank has received from any Governmental Authority (including jurisdictions where Ameris or Ameris Bank has not filed Tax Returns) any: (i) notice indicating an intent to open an audit or other review; (ii) request for information related to Tax matters; or (iii) notice of deficiency or proposed adjustment for any amount of Tax proposed, asserted or assessed by any Governmental Authority against Ameris or Ameris Bank.

(d) Neither Ameris nor Ameris Bank has taken any action, failed to take any action or knows of any fact that would be reasonably expected to prevent the Merger or the Bank Merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

3.14 Financing. Ameris has, or will have available to it, prior to the Closing Date, all funds necessary to satisfy its obligations hereunder.

3.15 Information Supplied. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by Ameris or any of its Subsidiaries for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (a) the Atlantic Proxy Materials, on the date such Atlantic Proxy Materials (or any amendment or supplement thereto) are first mailed to the stockholders of Atlantic or at the time of the Special Meeting, (b) the Ameris Registration Statement, when it or any amendment thereto becomes effective under the Securities Act, or (c) the documents and financial statements of Ameris incorporated by reference in the Atlantic Proxy Materials, the Ameris Registration Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto, will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no representation or warranty is made by Ameris with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information supplied by or on behalf of Atlantic or its Subsidiaries for inclusion in the Atlantic Proxy Materials or the Ameris Registration Statement.

Furthermore, if Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents or advisors receives any communication regarding an Acquisition Proposal between the date hereof and the Closing Date, then Atlantic shall immediately (but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours) notify Ameris of the receipt of such Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the Requisite Atlantic Stockholder Approval, Atlantic shall be permitted to furnish nonpublic information regarding Atlantic to, or enter into a confidentiality agreement or discussions or negotiations with, any Person in response to a bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal submitted by such Person if:

(i) the Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach of this Section 4.19;

ARTICLE V

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

5.1 Registration and Listing of Ameris Common Stock.

(a) Ameris agrees to file with the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement (and in any event, within sixty (60) days) a registration statement (the "Ameris Registration Statement") under the Securities Act on Form S-4 (or other applicable form) covering the issuance of the shares of Ameris Common Stock to the stockholders of Atlantic pursuant to this Agreement and to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Ameris Registration Statement to become effective and to remain effective through the Effective Time. Ameris agrees to take any action required to be taken under the applicable state securities Laws in connection with the issuance of shares of Ameris Common Stock upon consummation of the Merger. Atlantic agrees to provide Ameris reasonable assistance as necessary in the preparation of the Ameris Registration Statement, including providing Ameris with all material facts regarding the operations, business, assets, liabilities and personnel of Atlantic, together with the audited financial statements of Atlantic, all as and to the extent required by the Securities Act and the rules, regulations and practices of the SEC, for inclusion in the Ameris Registration Statement. The Ameris Registration Statement shall not cover resales of

Ameris Common Stock by any of the stockholders of Atlantic, and Ameris shall have no obligation to cause the Ameris Registration Statement to continue to be effective after the Effective Time or to prepare or file any post-effective amendments to the Ameris Registration Statement after the Effective Time.

(b) Ameris agrees to list on The NASDAQ Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”), by the Closing Date, the shares of Ameris Common Stock to be issued to the stockholders of Atlantic pursuant to this Agreement.

5.2 Meeting of Atlantic Stockholders.

(a) Atlantic shall call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of its stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) as promptly as reasonably practicable after the Ameris Registration Statement becomes effective under the Securities Act for the purpose of submitting the Merger and this Agreement to such stockholders for their approval. Except with the prior approval of Ameris, no other matters shall be submitted for the approval of the stockholders of Atlantic at the Special Meeting. In connection with the Special Meeting, Ameris and Atlantic shall together prepare and submit to the Atlantic stockholders a notice of meeting, proxy statement and proxy (the “Atlantic Proxy Materials”), which shall include the final prospectus from the Ameris Registration Statement in the form filed with the SEC. Atlantic shall use reasonable best efforts to solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and approval of the Merger and shall take all other actions necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of the stockholders of Atlantic required by Applicable Law to obtain such approval. Atlantic shall keep Ameris updated with respect to proxy solicitation results as reasonably requested by Ameris. Once the Special Meeting has been called and noticed, Atlantic shall not postpone or adjourn the Special Meeting without the consent of Ameris (other than in order to obtain a quorum of the stockholders of Atlantic or as reasonably determined by Atlantic to comply with Applicable Law).

(b) Except as provided in this Section 5.2(b), the board of directors Atlantic shall communicate to the stockholders of Atlantic the board’s recommendation that the stockholders adopt and approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger (the “Atlantic Recommendation”), and include the Atlantic Recommendation in the Atlantic Proxy Materials. Neither the Atlantic board of directors nor any committee thereof shall: (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Ameris or any of Ameris’s Subsidiaries, the Atlantic Recommendation; or (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (each, an “Adverse Recommendation Change”); provided, however, that, prior to the Requisite Atlantic Stockholder Approval, Atlantic’s board of directors may make an Adverse Recommendation Change if: (A) Atlantic’s board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with Atlantic’s financial advisor and outside counsel, that it has received an Acquisition Proposal (that did not result from a breach of Section 4.19) that is a Superior Proposal and such Superior Proposal has not been withdrawn; (B) Atlantic’s board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with Atlantic’s outside counsel, that a failure to accept such Superior Proposal would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the members of the board of directors of Atlantic under Applicable Law; (C) Atlantic’s board of directors provides written notice (a “Notice of Recommendation Change”) to Ameris of its receipt of the Superior Proposal and its intent to announce an Adverse Recommendation Change on the third (3rd) Business Day following delivery of such notice, which notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal (it being understood that any amendment to any material term of such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Recommendation Change); (D) after providing such Notice of Recommendation Change, Atlantic negotiates in good faith with Ameris (if requested by Ameris) and provides Ameris reasonable opportunity during the three (3)-Business Day period following the Notice of Recommendation Change to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable Atlantic’s board of directors to proceed without an Adverse Recommendation Change; provided, however, that Ameris shall not be required to propose any such adjustments; and (E) Atlantic’s board of directors, following the final such three (3)-Business Day period, again determines in good faith, after consultation with Atlantic’s financial advisor and outside counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a Superior Proposal and that failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the members of the board of directors of Atlantic under Applicable Law.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) The term “Acquisition Proposal” means: (A) any proposal or offer with respect to a merger, joint venture, partnership, consolidation, dissolution, liquidation, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, rights offering, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries; or (B) any acquisition by any Person resulting in, or proposal or offer, which, if consummated, would result in, any Person becoming the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than twenty percent (20%) of the total voting power of any class of equity securities of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries, or more than twenty percent (20%) of the consolidated total assets of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(ii) The term “Superior Proposal” means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal with respect to which the board of directors of Atlantic: (A) determines in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal, if accepted, is reasonably likely to be consummated on a timely basis, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the Acquisition Proposal and the Person making the Acquisition Proposal; and (B) determines in good faith (based on, among other things, the advice of Atlantic’s financial advisor) to be more favorable to Atlantic’s stockholders than the Merger taking into account all relevant factors (including whether, in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of Atlantic, after obtaining the advice of the Atlantic’s financial advisor, the Person making such Acquisition Proposal is reasonably able to finance the transaction and close it timely, and any proposed changes to this Agreement that may be proposed by Ameris in response to such Acquisition Proposal); provided, however that for purposes of the definition of Superior Proposal, the references to twenty percent (20%) in the definition of Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed to be references to fifty percent (50%).

5.3 Access to Properties, Books and Records. Atlantic shall allow Ameris and its authorized representatives full access, upon reasonable prior notice, during normal business hours from and after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date to all of Atlantic’s properties, books, contracts, commitments and records and those of its Subsidiaries and shall furnish Ameris and its authorized representatives such information concerning its affairs and the affairs of its Subsidiaries as Ameris may reasonably request; provided, however, that such request shall be reasonably related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and shall not interfere unreasonably with normal operations. Atlantic shall cause its and its Subsidiaries’ personnel, employees and other representatives to assist Ameris in making any such investigation. During such investigation, Ameris and its authorized representatives shall have the right to make copies of such records, files, Tax Returns and other materials as it may deem advisable and shall advise Atlantic of those items of which copies are made. No investigation made heretofore or hereafter by Ameris and its authorized representatives shall affect the representations and warranties of Atlantic hereunder.

5.4 Confidentiality. Prior to consummation of the Merger, the parties to this Agreement have provided and will provide one another with information which may be deemed by the party providing the information to be confidential, including information regarding such party’s operations, customers (including consumer financial information), business and financial condition. Each party agrees that it will hold confidential and protect all information provided to it by each other party or such party’s affiliates or representatives, except that the obligations contained in this Section 5.4 shall not in any way restrict the rights of any party to use information that: (a) was known to such party prior to the disclosure by the other party; (b) is or becomes generally available to the public other than by breach of this Agreement; (c) is provided by one party for disclosure concerning such party in the Ameris Registration Statement; or (d) otherwise becomes lawfully available to a party to this Agreement on a non-confidential basis from a third party who is not under an obligation of confidence to the other party to this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing, then, upon request, each party hereto agrees to return all documents, statements and other written materials, whether or not confidential, and all copies thereof, provided to it by or on behalf of the other party to this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 5.4 shall survive termination, for any reason whatsoever, of this Agreement, and, without limiting the remedies of the parties hereto in the event of any breach of this Section 5.4, the parties hereto will be entitled to seek injunctive relief against the other party in the event of a breach or threatened breach of this Section 5.4.

5.5Cooperation. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the parties hereto shall use commercially reasonable efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or advisable so as to permit consummation of the Merger as promptly as practicable and shall cooperate fully with each other to that end.

5.6Expenses. All of the expenses incurred by Ameris in connection with the authorization, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants and the fees and expenses related to filing the Ameris Registration Statement and all regulatory applications with state and federal authorities in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, shall be paid by Ameris. All expenses incurred by Atlantic in connection with the authorization, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants in connection with all regulatory applications to be filed with state and federal authorities in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby and the cost of reproducing and mailing the Atlantic Proxy Materials, shall be paid by Atlantic.

5.7Preservation of Business and Goodwill. Each party hereto shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, during the period from the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, conduct its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement or as required by Applicable Law or with the prior written consent of the other party, and use its commercially reasonable efforts to preserve its business organization, to keep available the services of its present employees and to preserve the goodwill of customers and others having business relations with it.

5.8Approvals and Consents. Each party hereto represents and warrants to and covenants with the other that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts, and will cause its officers, directors, employees and agents and its Subsidiaries and any Subsidiary's officers, directors, employees and agents to use their commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain as promptly as is reasonably practicable all regulatory authorizations, consents, orders or approvals from: (a) the Federal Reserve, the FDIC and the GDBF; and (b) any other approvals set forth in Section 2.31 that are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger and the Bank Merger, or those the failure of which to be obtained would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Ameris or Atlantic (collectively, the "Required Regulatory Approvals"). Ameris shall file all applications or notices for Required Regulatory Approvals within forty-five (45) days. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to require Ameris, or require or permit Atlantic, to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining the Required Regulatory Approvals that would: (i) reasonably be expected to result in Ameris or Ameris Bank becoming subject to any cease-and-desist order or other order, formal or informal enforcement action issued by, or written agreement, consent agreement, operating agreement, memorandum of understanding, commitment letter or similar undertaking with, or any request to adopt any board resolutions by, any Governmental Authority; or (ii) reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Ameris and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the Merger (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any determination by any Governmental Authority that the Bank Merger may not be consummated as contemplated in the Bank Merger Agreement or in a substantially similar manner immediately following the Effective Time) (any of the foregoing matters in clauses (i) and (ii), a "Burdensome Regulatory Condition").

5.9Press Releases. Prior to the Closing Date, Ameris and Atlantic must each approve the form, substance and timing of any press release or other public disclosure materially related to this Agreement or any other transaction contemplated hereby; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 5.9 shall be deemed to prohibit Ameris or Atlantic from making any disclosure which its counsel deems necessary or advisable in order to satisfy Ameris's or Atlantic's, as the case may be, disclosure obligations imposed by any Applicable Law or stock exchange listing requirement.

5.10 Employee Benefits and Agreements.

(a) Following the Closing Date, Ameris shall, or shall cause its applicable Subsidiary to, provide generally to employees of Atlantic and its Subsidiaries who continue employment with Ameris or any of its Subsidiaries following the Closing Date (“Atlantic Continuing Employees”) medical, dental, vacation and long-term disability benefits, medical and dependent care flexible spending accounts, severance and life insurance (collectively, “Employee Benefits”), on terms and conditions consistent in all material respects with those then currently provided by Ameris or its Subsidiaries to its other similarly-situated employees. For purposes of eligibility to participate and any vesting determinations (but not benefit accruals) in connection with the provision of any such Employee Benefits by Ameris or its Subsidiaries to the Atlantic Continuing Employees, service with Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Closing Date shall be counted to the extent such service was counted under the similar plan of Atlantic or its Subsidiary. The Atlantic Continuing Employees’ prior service with Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries shall also be credited for purposes of all waiting periods for participation in any of such Employee Benefits to the extent such service was counted under the similar plan of Atlantic or its Subsidiary. Ameris or its applicable Subsidiary shall also waive all restrictions and limitations for preexisting conditions under Ameris’s Employee Benefit plans, to the extent such restrictions or limitations would not apply to the Atlantic Continuing Employees under the similar plan of Atlantic or its Subsidiary. Ameris or its applicable Subsidiary shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Atlantic Continuing Employees with credit under Ameris’s group health Employee Benefit plans, for the plan year of such plans which includes the Closing Date, towards any applicable deductibles under Ameris’s group health Employee Benefit plans for the aggregate amounts paid by such employees toward applicable deductibles under Atlantic’s group health Employee Benefit plans for the plan year of such plans which includes the Closing Date.

(b) Subject to applicable legal requirements, Ameris and Atlantic shall take such other actions prior to the Closing Date as may be reasonably necessary to enable the employees of Atlantic and its Subsidiaries after the Closing Date to rollover the amount credited to their accounts under the Atlantic 401(k) Plan through a rollover contribution into a defined contribution retirement plan with a 401(k) feature of Ameris or its Subsidiaries (the “Ameris 401(k) Plan”), if such employees are Atlantic Continuing Employees, or to transfer the amount credited to their accounts through an eligible rollover contribution to a separate third-party individual retirement account (after the deemed distribution of any participant loans as reflected in such accounts), or to take a cash distribution from the Atlantic 401(k) Plan (after the deemed distribution of any participant loans as reflected in such accounts), provided that: (i) Atlantic’s board of directors shall adopt resolutions to terminate the Atlantic 401(k) Plan and cease all further deferrals with respect to eligible compensation no later than the Business Day immediately prior to the Closing Date; and (ii) the foregoing shall be subject to the receipt of a final favorable IRS determination letter (or prototype sponsor letter) with respect to the Atlantic 401(k) Plan to the extent reasonably required by Ameris and completion of such other actions as may be required by applicable legal requirements. For purposes of any vesting determinations (but not benefit accruals) in connection with the Ameris 401(k) Plan in which any Atlantic Continuing Employees may participate after the Closing Date, service with Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Closing Date shall be counted to the extent such service was counted under the Atlantic 401(k) Plan. For purposes of eligibility to participate in any matching contribution under the Ameris 401(k) Plan, Atlantic Continuing Employees shall be eligible on terms and conditions consistent with those then currently provided by Ameris to its other similarly-situated employees as of their employment date with Ameris or any of its Subsidiaries. Prior to the Closing Date, Atlantic shall make any necessary employer contributions to the Atlantic 401(k) Plan due such Atlantic Continuing Employees for compensation paid by Atlantic prior to termination of the Atlantic 401(k) Plan.

(c) Subject to applicable legal requirements, Ameris and Atlantic shall take such other commercially reasonable actions prior to the Closing Date as may be necessary to terminate or amend the agreements as so designated (and with respect to an amendment, in the manner specified) on Section 2.28(a) of the Disclosure Schedule effective as of the Closing Date and any other Atlantic Plans that Ameris directs Atlantic or Atlantic Coast Bank to terminate or amend prior to the Closing. In connection with such terminations, any compensation to be provided thereunder shall be paid in full in exchange for a settlement and release agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to Ameris to the extent requested by Ameris. Atlantic shall: (i) permit Ameris to review, comment on and approve in advance any documents or notices required to effect any of the foregoing; and (ii) provide to Ameris prior to the Closing written evidence as to satisfaction of the requirements of this Section 5.10(c) as Ameris may reasonably request. Unless terminated prior to Closing pursuant to this Section 5.10(c), Ameris shall honor any existing employment agreements with any Atlantic Continuing Employees in accordance with their terms or as otherwise amended by the parties. (d) The Atlantic ESOP shall be terminated immediately prior to the Effective Time (the “ESOP Termination Date”). On the ESOP Termination Date, Atlantic shall direct the Atlantic ESOP trustee to remit to Atlantic a sufficient number of shares of Atlantic Common Stock held by the Atlantic ESOP’s unallocated suspense account to repay in full the outstanding balance of the loan between the Atlantic ESOP and Atlantic (the “Atlantic ESOP Loan”) (with such Atlantic Common Stock valued as of the ESOP Termination Date). If after remitting all such unallocated shares there remains any unpaid amount outstanding under the Atlantic ESOP Loan, such unpaid amount, including any unpaid but accrued interest, shall be forgiven by Atlantic at the Effective Time. All remaining shares of Atlantic Common Stock held by the Atlantic ESOP as of the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Within thirty (30) days following the date of this Agreement, Atlantic shall file or cause to be filed all necessary documents with the IRS for a determination letter for termination of the Atlantic ESOP. As soon as practicable following the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS regarding the qualified status of the Atlantic ESOP upon its termination, the account balances in the Atlantic ESOP shall either be distributed to participants and beneficiaries or transferred to an eligible tax-qualified retirement plan or individual retirement account as a participant or beneficiary may direct. Atlantic shall adopt such amendments, board resolutions and other documentation as may be necessary to effect the provisions of this Section 5.10(d).

5.11 Directors’ and Officers’ Tail Coverage. Prior to the Closing Date, Ameris shall have, at Ameris’s expense, amended, modified or obtained directors’ and officers’ liability insurance (either through its existing directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policies or under Atlantic’s existing directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policies, in which event Atlantic will designate Ameris’s insurance broker as Atlantic’s broker-of-record, as determined by Ameris in its sole discretion) for a period of six (6) years after the Closing Date, covering any person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Closing Date, a director or officer of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries, who are currently covered by Atlantic’s policies on terms similar to such existing insurance; provided, however, that Ameris shall not be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such six (6)-year period in respect of such policy which exceed two hundred percent (200%) of the annual premium payments on Atlantic’s current policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (the “Maximum Amount”). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, then Ameris shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. The directors and officers of Atlantic and its Subsidiaries shall take all reasonable actions required by the insurance carrier necessary to procure such endorsement.

5.12 Indemnification.

(a) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time (or, in the case of Claims that have not been resolved prior to the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Time, until such Claims are finally resolved), Ameris shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors and executive officers of Atlantic and each of its Subsidiaries (each, an “Indemnified Party”) against all liabilities arising out of, resulting from or related to any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (each, a “Claim”), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness arising out of the fact that such Indemnified Party is or was a director or officer of Atlantic or any of its Subsidiaries (or, at Atlantic’s request, was a director, officer, manager or trustee of, or in a similar capacity with, another Atlantic entity or Atlantic Plan) prior to the Effective Time if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring on or prior to the Effective Time (including the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law. Ameris shall promptly pay reasonable expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in advance of the final disposition of any such Claim to each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if he or she shall be adjudicated not to be entitled to indemnification under this Section 5.12(a). Ameris shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a federal or state banking agency or other Governmental Authority shall determine that indemnification of an Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by Applicable Law (including any Law promulgated, interpreted or enforced by any federal or state banking agency or other Governmental Authority).

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 5.12(a), upon learning of any such Claim, shall promptly notify Ameris thereof in writing (provided that a failure to timely provide such notice shall not relieve Ameris of any indemnification obligation unless, and to the extent that, Ameris is materially prejudiced by such failure). In the event of any such Claim (whether arising before or after the Effective Time): (i) Ameris shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and Ameris shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Ameris elects not to assume such defense for the Indemnified Parties, or if there are substantive issues which raise conflicts of interest between Ameris and the Indemnified Parties, then the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Ameris shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that Ameris shall be obligated pursuant to this Section 5.12(b) to pay for only one firm of counsel for any Indemnified Party in any jurisdiction; (ii) each Indemnified Party will cooperate in good faith in the defense of any such Claim; (iii) Ameris shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); and (iv) without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) Ameris shall not agree to any settlement which does not provide for a release of the Indemnified Party.

(c) Ameris covenants and agrees that neither it, nor any successors or assigns, shall consolidate with or merge into any other Person where Ameris or any such successor or assign shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger, or transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any Person, unless, in each case, proper provision shall have been made to ensure that the successors and assigns of Ameris shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.12.

(d) The provisions of this Section 5.12 are intended to be for the benefit of and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and their respective heirs and legal and personal representatives.

5.13 Certain Litigation. Each party shall promptly advise the other party orally and in writing of any actual or threatened stockholder litigation against such party or the members of such party's board of directors related to this Agreement or the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Atlantic shall: (a) permit Ameris to review and discuss in advance, and shall consider in good faith the view of Ameris in connection with, any proposed written or oral response to such stockholder litigation; (b) furnish Ameris's outside legal counsel with all non-privileged information and documents which outside legal counsel may reasonably request in connection with such stockholder litigation; (c) consult with Ameris regarding the defense or settlement of any such stockholder litigation; and (d) not settle any such litigation prior to such consultation and consideration; provided, however, that Atlantic shall not settle any such stockholder litigation if such settlement requires the payment of money damages without the written consent of Ameris (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) unless the payment of any such damages by Atlantic is reasonably expected by Atlantic, following consultation with outside counsel, to be fully covered (disregarding any deductible to be paid by Atlantic) under Atlantic's existing director and officer insurance policies, including any tail policy.

5.14 Information Systems Conversion. From and after the date hereof, Ameris and Atlantic shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate the integration of Atlantic with the business of Ameris following consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall meet on a regular basis to discuss and plan for the conversion of the telecommunications, data processing and related electronic information systems of Atlantic and each of its Subsidiaries (the “Information Systems Conversion”) to those used by Ameris, which planning shall include the following: (a) discussion of third-party service provider arrangements of Atlantic and each of its Subsidiaries; (b) non-renewal or changeover, after the Effective Time, of personal property leases and software licenses used by Atlantic and any of its Subsidiaries in connection with their systems operations; (c) retention of outside consultants and additional employees to assist with such conversion; (d) outsourcing, as appropriate after the Effective Time, of proprietary or self-provided system services; and (e) any other actions necessary and appropriate to facilitate such conversion, as soon as practicable following the Effective Time. Ameris shall promptly reimburse Atlantic on request for any reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, expenses or charges that Atlantic may incur as a result of taking, at the request of Ameris, any action prior to the Effective Time to facilitate the Information Systems Conversion.

5.15 No Control of Other Party’s Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Ameris, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Atlantic or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Atlantic, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Ameris or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each of Atlantic and Ameris shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries’ respective operations.

5.16 Director Resignations. Atlantic shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to Ameris resignations, to be effective as of the Effective Time, of all the directors of Atlantic and its Subsidiaries.

5.17 Restrictive Covenants Agreements. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and effective at the Effective Time, Atlantic has caused all of the non-employee directors of Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank to execute and deliver the Director Non-Solicitation Agreements and the Chief Executive Officer of Atlantic and Atlantic Coast Bank to execute and deliver the Executive Non-Competition Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Atlantic contained herein shall be true and correct in all respects (without giving effect to any limitation as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect” set forth therein) as of the date of this Agreement and at and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date (unless any such representation or warranty is made only as of a specific date, in which case as of such specific date), except, at each such time, as a result of changes or events expressly permitted or contemplated herein or where the failure to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect” set forth therein), either individually or in the aggregate, is not reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on Atlantic.

(b) Performance of Agreements. Atlantic shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Certificates; Resolutions. Atlantic shall have delivered to Ameris:

(iv) a certificate of the valid existence of Atlantic under the Laws of the State of Maryland, executed by the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation, and dated not more than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Closing Date.

(d) Regulatory Approvals. All Required Regulatory Approvals shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and shall not contain or result in the imposition of any Burdensome Regulatory Condition, and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired or been terminated.

(e) Tax Opinion. Ameris shall have received the written opinion of its counsel, Rogers & Hardin LLP, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Ameris, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinion and dated the Closing Date, to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” described in Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in letters or certificates of officers of Ameris and Atlantic, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

6.3 Conditions to Obligations of Atlantic. The obligation of Atlantic to effect the Merger is subject to the fulfillment on or prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions, any one or more of which may be waived by Atlantic:

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION

7.1 Material Adverse Effect.

- (a) This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by Ameris upon written notice to Atlantic, if, after the date hereof, there shall have occurred and be continuing any events or occurrences that, individually or in the aggregate, have had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Atlantic.
- (b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by Atlantic upon written notice to Ameris, if, after the date hereof, there shall have occurred and be continuing any events or occurrences that, individually or in the aggregate, have had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Ameris.

7.2 Noncompliance.

- (a) This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by Ameris upon written notice to Atlantic: (i) if the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement to be complied with or performed by Atlantic before the Closing shall not have been substantially complied with or substantially performed on or prior to the Closing Date and such noncompliance or nonperformance shall not have been waived by Ameris; or (ii) in the event of a material breach by Atlantic of any covenant, agreement or obligation contained in this Agreement which breach has not been cured within twenty (20) days after the giving of written notice by Ameris of such breach or, if such breach is not capable of being cured within twenty (20) days, Atlantic has not actively and in good faith, within twenty (20) days after such written notice, taken steps to cure such breach as promptly as practicable; provided, however, that in no event shall the cure periods provided in this Section 7.2(a), without the consent of Ameris, extend past June 30, 2018 or otherwise limit Ameris's rights under Section 7.5.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by Atlantic upon written notice to Ameris: (i) if the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement to be complied with or performed by Ameris before the Closing shall not have been substantially complied with or substantially performed on or prior to the Closing Date and such noncompliance or nonperformance shall not have been waived by Atlantic; or (ii) in the event of a material breach by Ameris of any covenant, agreement or obligation contained in this Agreement which breach has not been cured within twenty (20) days after the giving of written notice by Atlantic of such breach or, if such breach is not capable of being cured within twenty (20) days, Ameris has not actively and in good faith, within twenty (20) days after such written notice, taken steps to cure such breach as promptly as practicable; provided, however, that in no event shall the cure periods provided in this Section 7.2(b), without the consent of Atlantic, extend past June 30, 2018 or otherwise limit Atlantic's rights under Section 7.5.

7.3 Failure to Disclose. This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by Ameris upon written notice to Atlantic, if Ameris learns of any fact or condition that would reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Atlantic or Ameris, which fact or condition was required to be disclosed by Atlantic pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and was not disclosed in this Agreement, the Disclosure Schedule or the Atlantic Financial Statements.

7.4 Regulatory Approval. This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by either party upon written notice to the other party, if any Required Regulatory Approval has been denied by the relevant Governmental Authority or any Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final, nonappealable injunction permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.5 Termination Date. This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by either party upon written notice to the other party, if the Closing Date shall not have occurred on or before June 30, 2018 (the "Termination Date"), which Termination Date may be extended for a period of three (3) additional months by either party upon written notice to the other party given on or prior to June 30, 2018; provided, however, that neither party shall have the right under this Section 7.5 to terminate this Agreement or to extend the Termination Date if the failure of the Closing to occur by June 30, 2018 shall be due to the failure of such party to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party under this Agreement. If the Termination Date is extended in accordance with this Section 7.5, then, provided that it does not, and will not, prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the aggregate Cash Consideration payable hereunder as part of the Merger Consideration shall be increased by the amount of Atlantic's after-tax net income (calculated in accordance with GAAP consistently applied and consistent with the preparation of the Atlantic Financial Statements) for the interim period of January 1, 2018 through June 30, 2018.

7.6 Stockholder Vote. This Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Closing Date by either party upon written notice to the other party (provided, in the case of termination by Atlantic, it has complied with its obligations under Section 5.2(a)), if Atlantic shall have failed to obtain the Requisite Atlantic Stockholder Approval at the duly convened Special Meeting or at any adjournment thereof at which a vote on the approval of this Agreement and the Merger was taken.

7.7 Acquisition Proposal.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by Atlantic upon written notice to Ameris, if, prior to obtaining the Requisite Atlantic Stockholder Approval: (i) the board of directors of Atlantic shall have effected an Adverse Recommendation Change; and (ii) Atlantic has complied with the requirements of Section 4.19 and Section 5.2.

(b) If: (i) while an Acquisition Proposal is outstanding or after an Acquisition Proposal has been accepted: (A) either party terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.5; or (B) Atlantic terminates this Agreement other than pursuant to Section 7.1(b) or Section 7.2(b); or (ii) Ameris terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Article VII after an Adverse Recommendation Change, then Atlantic shall pay, or cause to be paid to Ameris, at the time of the termination of this Agreement, an amount equal to $5,750,000, which shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Ameris for all claims under this Agreement based upon, resulting from or arising out of the circumstances giving rise to the termination of this Agreement, except that Atlantic shall not be relieved from liability arising from any willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

7.8 Ameris Stock Price Decline. This Agreement may be terminated by Atlantic, at any time during the four (4) Business Day period immediately following the Determination Date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) the quotient obtained by dividing the Average Ameris Stock Price by the Starting Price (such quotient being the “Ameris Ratio”) shall be less than 0.85; and

(b) the Ameris Ratio shall be less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the quotient of (i) the Average Index Price divided by (ii) the Index Price on the Starting Date (such quotient being the “Index Ratio”);

The following examples are provided only for purposes of illustrating the foregoing conditions:

Example 1: If the Ameris Ratio = 0.80 and the Index Ratio = 0.90, then 85% of the Index Ratio would be  $0.85 \times 0.90$ , or 76.5%, and condition 7.8(a) above would be satisfied, but condition 7.8(b) above would not be satisfied.

Example 2: If the Ameris Ratio = 0.70 and the Index Ratio = 0.84, then 85% of the Index Ratio would be  $0.85 \times 0.84$ , or 71.4%, and both conditions 7.8(a) and 7.8(b) above would be satisfied.

provided, however, that if Atlantic refuses to consummate the Merger pursuant to this Section 7.8, then it shall give prompt written notice thereof to Ameris (and provided that such Atlantic notice of election to terminate may be withdrawn at any time within the aforementioned four (4) Business Day period). During the three (3) Business Day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Ameris shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of Atlantic Common Stock hereunder by either:

(i) increasing the Exchange Ratio (calculated to the nearest one one-thousandth); or

(ii) provided that it does not, and will not, prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, paying, as part of the Merger Consideration, to each recipient of the Per Share Purchase Price, a cash payment (in addition to, and not in lieu of, issuing the Per Share Purchase Price to such recipients in accordance with this Agreement) (such cash payment, the “Additional Cash Consideration”); in each case of the immediately preceding clauses (i) and (ii), such that the value of the consideration (calculated based on the Average Ameris Stock Price and including any Additional Cash Consideration) to be received by each holder of Atlantic Common Stock hereunder, exclusive of Cash Consideration, equals the lesser of the following: (A) an amount equal to the product of the Starting Price, 0.85 and the Exchange Ratio (as in effect immediately prior to any increase in the Exchange Ratio pursuant to this Section 7.8); and (B) an amount equal to (1) the product of the Index Ratio, 0.85, the Exchange Ratio (as in effect immediately prior to any increase in the Exchange Ratio pursuant to this Section 7.8) and the Average Ameris Stock Price, divided by (2) the Ameris Ratio.

If Ameris so elects within such three (3) Business Day period, then it shall give prompt written notice to Atlantic of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio or the Additional Cash Consideration, as applicable, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 7.8 and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms, provided that any references in this Agreement to the “Exchange Ratio” shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio as increased pursuant to this Section 7.8, if applicable, and any references in this Agreement to the Per Share Stock Purchase Price shall thereafter include the Additional Cash Consideration as set forth in this Section 7.8, if applicable.

“Average Ameris Stock Price” shall mean the average of the closing sale prices of Ameris Common Stock as reported on the NASDAQ during the twenty (20) consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date; provided, however, that in the event Ameris Common Stock does not trade on any one or more of the trading days during the twenty (20) consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date, any such date shall be disregarded in computing the average closing sales price and the average shall be based upon the closing sales prices and number of days on which Ameris Common Stock actually traded during the twenty (20) consecutive full trading days ending at the closing of trading on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date.

“Determination Date” shall mean the last of the following dates to occur: (i) the effective date (including expiration of any applicable waiting period) of the last Required Regulatory Approval necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; and (ii) the date of the receipt of the Requisite Atlantic Stockholder Approval.

“Index” shall mean the KBW NASDAQ Regional Banking Index (KRX).

“Index Price” on a given date shall mean the current market price of the Index for that day.

“Starting Date” shall mean November 15, 2017.

“Starting Price” shall mean $46.95 per share.

If Ameris declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, then the prices for Ameris Common Stock shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 7.8.

7.9 Effect of Termination. Except as set forth in Section 7.7, in the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Article VII, this Agreement shall become void and have no effect, and neither party shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever under this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except that: (a) the provisions of this Article VII and Section 5.4 shall survive any such termination; and (b) such termination shall not relieve any party from liability arising from any willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

8.2Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the Disclosure Schedule hereto), together with the Voting Agreement, the Bank Merger Agreement and the other documents and agreements delivered prior to or at the Closing pursuant to the provisions hereof, constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement of the parties hereto in respect of its subject matter, and supersede all prior agreements, understandings (oral and written) and negotiations between or among the parties with regard to such subject matter. The Disclosure Schedule and the NDA constitute a part hereof as though set forth in full herein.

8.3Survival. None of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered under this Agreement will survive the Effective Time. This Section 8.3 does not limit any covenant or agreement of the parties contained in this Agreement which, by its terms, contemplates performance after the Effective Time. The NDA will survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

8.4Waiver; Amendment.

(a) On or prior to the Closing Date, Ameris shall have the right to waive any default in the performance of any term of this Agreement by Atlantic, to waive or extend the time for the fulfillment by Atlantic of any or all of Atlantic's obligations under this Agreement and to waive any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Ameris under this Agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in the violation of any Applicable Law. On or prior to the Closing Date, Atlantic shall have the right to waive any default in the performance of any term of this Agreement by Ameris, to waive or extend the time for the fulfillment by Ameris of any or all of Ameris's obligations under this Agreement and to waive any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Atlantic under this Agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in the violation of any Applicable Law.

(b) This Agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by the parties hereto. An amendment to this Agreement may be made after stockholder approval of this Agreement has been obtained; provided, however, that after any such approval by the holders of Atlantic Common Stock, no amendment shall be made that reduces or modifies in any respect the consideration to be received by holders of Atlantic Common Stock.

8.5Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile, photo or electronic signature and such facsimile, photo or electronic signature shall constitute an original for all purposes.

8.6No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as set forth in Section 5.11 and Section 5.12, no provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to create any third-party beneficiary rights in anyone, including any employee or former employee of Atlantic (including any beneficiary or dependent thereof).

8.7Binding Effect; Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that, except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the prior written consent of the other party.

8.8Governing Law; Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia, without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of laws; provided, however, that the Maryland General Corporation Law shall govern to the extent mandatorily applicable to Maryland corporations. Venue for any action hereunder shall lie exclusively in the Federal or State Courts located in Duval County, Florida.

8.9WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW AT THE TIME OF INSTITUTION OF THE APPLICABLE LITIGATION, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER; (II) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER; (III) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY; AND (IV) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 8.9.

8.10Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

8.11Cumulative Remedies; Specific Performance. All rights and remedies under this Agreement or otherwise afforded by Applicable Law to any party shall be cumulative and not alternative. Without limiting the rights of a party hereto to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for another party's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform their respective obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each party shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure. Each of the parties hereby further waives any requirement under Applicable Law to post security as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

This Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to require any party or other Person to take any action, or fail to take any action, if to do so would violate Applicable Law.

APPENDIX B

FORM OF

VOTING AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS VOTING AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), dated as of November 16, 2017, is entered into by and among Ameris Bancorp, a Georgia corporation (“Ameris”), Atlantic Coast Financial Corporation, a Maryland corporation (“Atlantic”), and each person or entity executing this Agreement or a counterpart to this Agreement as a stockholder of Atlantic (each, a “Stockholder”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger (as the same may be amended or supplemented, the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of the date hereof and to be executed by Ameris and Atlantic concurrently with the execution of this Agreement by the parties hereto, Atlantic will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, merge with and into Ameris, with Ameris being the surviving entity (the “Merger”); and WHEREAS, as an inducement for Ameris to enter into the Merger Agreement, Ameris has required that each Stockholder enter into this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of, and as a material inducement to, the parties entering into the Merger Agreement and proceeding with the transactions contemplated thereby, and in consideration of the expenses incurred and to be incurred by them in connection therewith, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms not defined in this Agreement have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement.

2. Effectiveness. If the Merger Agreement is terminated for any reason in accordance with its terms, this Agreement shall automatically terminate and be null and void and of no effect. The effectiveness of this Agreement shall be conditioned upon the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by the parties thereto.

3. Voting Agreement.

(a) From the date hereof until the earlier of (x) the Effective Time and (y) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the “Support Period”), each Stockholder irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that at any stockholder meeting of Atlantic to approve the Merger Agreement or any adjournment or postponement thereof, such Stockholder shall be present (in person or by proxy) and shall vote (or cause to be voted) all shares of Atlantic Common Stock beneficially owned by such Stockholder as of the date hereof, together with all shares of Atlantic Common Stock over which such Stockholder may acquire beneficial ownership from time to time after the date hereof, in each case that are entitled to vote at such meeting (collectively, the “Owned Shares”), as follows:

(i) in favor of (A) the approval or adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including any amendments or modifications of the terms thereof approved by the board of directors of Atlantic and adopted in accordance with the terms thereof) and (B) the approval of any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement; and

(ii) against (A) any action or agreement that would be reasonably likely to impair the ability of either Ameris or Atlantic to complete the Merger, or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (B) other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, any proposal that relates to an Acquisition Proposal, without regard to the terms of such proposal.

(b) Each Stockholder further agrees not to vote or execute any written consent to rescind or amend in any manner any prior vote or written consent, as a stockholder of Atlantic, to approve or adopt the Merger Agreement unless this Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms.

(c) Each Stockholder represents and warrants and covenants and agrees that, except for this Agreement, such Stockholder (i) has not entered into, and shall not enter into during the Support Period, any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to the Owned Shares and (ii) has not granted, and shall not grant during the Support Period, a proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to the Owned Shares except any proxy to carry out the intent of this Agreement.

(d) With respect to any Stockholder that is an officer, director or other representative of Atlantic or any of Subsidiary of Atlantic, such Stockholder, in its capacity as a stockholder of Atlantic, hereby acknowledges that such Stockholder is bound by the restrictions set forth in Section 4.19 of the Merger Agreement and agrees consistent therewith not to solicit or facilitate any Acquisition Proposal.

4. Grant of Irrevocable Proxy; Appointment of Proxy. During the Support Period, each Stockholder hereby irrevocably and unconditionally grants to, and appoints, Ameris and any designee thereof as such Stockholder's proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution), for and in the name, place and stead of such Stockholder, to vote or cause to be voted (including by proxy or written consent, if applicable) the Owned Shares owned by such Stockholder as of the applicable record date in accordance with Section 3 of this Agreement; provided, however, that each Stockholder's grant of the proxy contemplated by this Section 4 shall be effective if, and only if, such Stockholder has not delivered to Atlantic prior to the meeting at which any of the matters described in Section 3 are to be considered, a duly executed irrevocable proxy card directing that the Owned Shares of such Stockholder be voted in accordance with Section 3 of this Agreement. Each Stockholder hereby affirms that the irrevocable proxy set forth in this Section 4, if it becomes effective, is coupled with an interest and is given in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and that such irrevocable proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of such Stockholder under this Agreement. The parties hereby further affirm that the irrevocable proxy, if it becomes effective, is intended to be irrevocable until the end of the Support Period, at which time it will terminate automatically. If for any reason any proxy granted herein is not irrevocable after it becomes effective, then the Stockholder granting such proxy agrees, until the end of the Support Period, to vote the Owned Shares in accordance with Section 3 of this Agreement. The parties agree that the foregoing is a voting agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this proxy shall automatically terminate and be revoked upon the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

5. Transfer Restrictions Prior to Merger. Each Stockholder agrees that it will not, during the Support Period, sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise), either voluntarily or involuntarily, enter into any swap or other arrangements that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of, enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, lien, hypothecation or other disposition of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise convey or dispose of, any of such Stockholder's Owned Shares, or any interest therein, including the right to vote any Owned Shares, as applicable (a "Transfer"); provided, however, that such Stockholder may Transfer Owned Shares for estate planning purposes so long as the transferee, prior to the date of Transfer, agrees in a signed writing to be bound by and comply with the provisions of this Agreement with respect to such Owned Shares.

6. Cooperation. From time to time, at the reasonable request of Ameris or Atlantic and without further consideration, each Stockholder shall cooperate with Ameris and Atlantic, at Atlantic's expense, to make all filings and obtain all consents of Governmental Authorities and third parties and execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further actions as may be necessary or desirable to effect the actions contemplated by this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, each Stockholder hereby: (i) authorizes Ameris and Atlantic to publish and disclose in any public announcement, disclosure required by the SEC or by Applicable Law or the Atlantic Proxy Materials (and, if applicable, the Ameris Registration Statement), such Stockholder's identity and ownership of the Owned Shares, the nature of such Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement and any other information that Ameris or Atlantic reasonably determines is required to be disclosed in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (ii) agrees to promptly give to Ameris and Atlantic any information Ameris or Atlantic may reasonably require for the preparation of any such disclosure documents; and (iii) agrees to promptly notify Ameris and Atlantic of any required corrections with respect to any information supplied by such Stockholder, if and to the extent that such information shall have become false or misleading in any material respect.

7. Representations and Warranties. Each Stockholder represents and warrants to Ameris that:

- (a) such Stockholder has all requisite capacity and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement;
- (b) this Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Stockholder and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by Ameris and Atlantic, constitutes a valid and legally binding agreement of such Stockholder, enforceable against such Stockholder in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and subject to the general principles of equity, and no other action is necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by such Stockholder or the performance of its obligations hereunder;
- (c) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder does not, and the performance by such Stockholder of its obligations hereunder and the consummation by such Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which such Stockholder is a party or by which such Stockholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which such Stockholder is subject or, in the event that such Stockholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, any charter, bylaw or other organizational document of such Stockholder;
- (d) if such Stockholder is married and any of the Owned Shares constitute community property or spousal approval is otherwise necessary for this Agreement to be legal, binding and enforceable, this Agreement has been (or promptly shall be) duly and validly executed and delivered by, and constitutes a valid and legally binding agreement of, such Stockholder's spouse, enforceable in accordance with its terms;
- (e) the Owned Shares as of the date hereof are equal to the number of shares set forth next to such Stockholder's name on Exhibit A hereto; and
- (f) except as noted on Exhibit A hereto, such Stockholder has, and at all times during the term of this Agreement shall have, beneficial ownership of, good and valid title to and full and exclusive power to vote, without restriction or limitation, the Owned Shares (other than any such shares that are Transferred in the manner permitted by this Agreement).

8. Waiver of Certain Rights. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, each Stockholder hereby waives any rights of appraisal or rights to dissent from the Merger or to demand fair value for such Stockholder's Owned Shares in connection with the Merger, in each case, that such Stockholder may have under Applicable Law. Each Stockholder further agrees not to commence or participate in, and to take all actions necessary to opt out of any class in any class action with respect to, any claim, derivative or otherwise, against Ameris, Atlantic or any of their respective Subsidiaries or successors relating to the negotiation, execution or delivery of this Agreement or the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the Merger.

9. Entire Agreement; Assignment. This Agreement is irrevocable. The exhibits hereto are incorporated as a part of this Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be assigned by operation of law or otherwise and shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto; provided, however, that the rights under this Agreement are assignable by Ameris or Atlantic to any successor-in-interest.

10. Remedies/Specific Enforcement. Each of the parties hereto agrees that this Agreement is intended to be legally binding and specifically enforceable pursuant to its terms and that each of Ameris and Atlantic would be irreparably harmed if any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms and that monetary damages would not provide adequate remedy in such event. Accordingly, in the event of any breach or threatened breach by any Stockholder of any covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement, in addition to any other remedy to which Ameris or Atlantic may be entitled (including monetary damages), each of Ameris and Atlantic shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions hereof. Each Stockholder further agrees that none of Ameris, Atlantic or any other person or entity shall be required to obtain, furnish or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 10, and each Stockholder irrevocably waives any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument. If any legal action or other proceeding is brought against any party hereto to enforce any provision of this Agreement, the prevailing party in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to recover all reasonable expenses relating thereto (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, court costs and expenses incident to arbitration, appellate and post-judgment proceedings) from the party against which such action or proceeding is brought, in addition to any other relief to which such prevailing party may be entitled.

11. Governing Law and Enforceability; Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia, without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of laws; provided, however, that the Maryland General Corporation Law shall govern to the extent mandatorily applicable to Maryland corporations. If any court determines that the restrictions set forth in this Agreement are unenforceable, then the parties request such court to reform these provisions to the maximum restrictions, term or scope that such court finds enforceable. Venue for any action hereunder shall lie exclusively in the Federal or State Courts located in Duval County, Florida.

12. Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) EACH SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 12.

13. Individual Obligations. The obligations of each of the Stockholders under this Agreement are several and not joint. This Agreement is binding on each Stockholder that executes this Agreement regardless of whether any other Stockholder(s) also executed this Agreement.

14. Amendments; Waivers. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed (i) in the case of an amendment, by Ameris, Atlantic and the applicable Stockholder(s), and (ii) in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

15. Number; Gender. Whenever the singular number is used in this Agreement and when required by the context, the same shall include the plural and vice versa, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders and vice versa.

16. Construction. The words "include," "includes" and "including" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation" whether or not such words appear.

17.Capacity as Stockholder. This Agreement shall apply to each Stockholder solely in such Stockholder's capacity as a stockholder of Atlantic and shall not apply any manner to any Stockholder in any capacity as a director or officer of Atlantic or its Subsidiaries or in any other capacity (and shall not limit or affect any actions taken by any Stockholder in the capacity of director or officer of Atlantic or its Subsidiaries).

18.Headings. The headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience and identification only and are in no way intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

19.Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counter-parts, delivery of which may be by facsimile or other electronic transmission, and each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

APPENDIX C

November 15, 2017

Board of Directors

4655 Salisbury Road, Suite 110

Jacksonville, FL 32256

Gentlemen:

Hovde Group, LLC (“we” or “Hovde”) understand that Ameris Bancorp, a Georgia corporation (“Ameris”) and Atlantic Financial Corporation, a Maryland corporation (“Atlantic” and, together with Ameris, the “Parties” and each a “Party”), are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger to be dated on or about November 15, 2017 (the “Agreement”). Pursuant and subject to the terms of the Agreement, Atlantic shall merge with and into Ameris, with Ameris being the surviving entity (the “Merger”). Further, it is contemplated that the Merger will be immediately followed by a merger of Atlantic’s wholly owned banking subsidiary, Atlantic Coast Bank (“Atlantic Coast Bank”), with and into Ameris’s wholly owned banking subsidiary, Ameris Bank (“Ameris Bank”), with Ameris Bank being the surviving entity (the “Bank Merger”). The Merger and the Bank Merger are collectively referred to in the Agreement as the Merger. Capitalized terms used herein that are not otherwise defined shall have the same meanings attributed to them in the Agreement. For purposes of our analysis and opinion, Agreement as used herein shall refer to the draft Agreement dated November 10, 2017 provided to Hovde by Atlantic.

Pursuant and subject to the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, automatically by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Parties or any stockholder of Atlantic, each share of Atlantic Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than treasury stock and the Cancelled Shares), shall be converted, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, into the right to receive the following consideration, in each case without interest: (i) an amount of cash equal to $1.39 (the “Cash Consideration”); and (ii) 0.17 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of Ameris Common Stock together with cash in lieu of any fractional shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.2(f) of the Agreement (the “Stock Consideration”, and together with the Cash Consideration, per share, the “Per Share Purchase Price”, as may be adjusted in accordance with Section 7.8 the Agreement, and in the aggregate, the “Merger Consideration”). As used in the Agreement, the term “Merger Consideration Price” means the sum of: (x) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the Average Ameris Stock Price; and (y) $1.39.

We note that pursuant to the Agreement, each option to acquire shares of Atlantic Common Stock (an “Atlantic Stock Option”) issued pursuant to Atlantic’s equity-based compensation plans (the “Atlantic Stock Plans”), whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall become fully vested and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a cash payment from Ameris or Ameris Bank (the “Cash-Out Amount”) in an amount equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration Price over the exercise price of each such Atlantic Stock Option; and (ii) the number of shares of Atlantic Common Stock subject to such Atlantic Stock Option to the extent not previously exercised. After the Effective Time, any such cancelled Atlantic Stock Option shall no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but shall only entitle the holder to the payment of the Cash-Out Amount, without interest. In the event the exercise price per share of Atlantic Common Stock subject to an Atlantic Stock Option is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration Price, such Atlantic Stock Option shall be cancelled without consideration and have no further force or effect. We have been advised by you that as of November 8, 2017 there are 20,776 Atlantic Stock Options outstanding with a weighted average exercise price of $14.95 per share, and therefore, with your consent, we have assumed for our opinion that all such outstanding options will be canceled and not entitled to receive the Merger Consideration Price.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Further, we note that, at the Effective Time, each award of shares of Atlantic Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction (an “Atlantic Restricted Share Award”) granted pursuant to the Atlantic Stock Plans, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall become fully vested and shall be converted automatically into the right to receive the Merger Consideration Price in respect of each share of Atlantic Common Stock underlying such Atlantic Restricted Share Award. For purposes of the foregoing, you have advised us that there are 63,475 unallocated shares of Atlantic restricted stock outstanding held by the ESOP as of November 13, 2017, all of which will be cancelled for the repayment of the Atlantic ESOP Loan (as provided in the Agreement), and we have relied on such amounts for purposes of our analysis and opinion. Accordingly, you have advised us that there are a total of 15,490,234 shares of Atlantic Common Stock outstanding as of November 13, 2017 eligible to receive the Merger Consideration Price, and therefore, based upon the closing price of Ameris Common Stock as of November 13, 2017 of $46.75, we have assumed for purposes of our analysis and opinion that the aggregate Merger Consideration payable by Ameris to the holders of Atlantic Common Stock is $144,640,060.

We note that pursuant to Section 7.8 of the Agreement, in the event that the Ameris Stock Price declines at any time during the four Business Day period immediately following the Determination Date as set forth in such Section, the Agreement may be terminated by Atlantic or, alternatively, either (i) the Exchange Ratio may be increased by Ameris or (ii) Ameris paying as part of the Merger Consideration a cash payment in addition to the Per Share Purchase Price (such cash payment being the “Additional Cash Consideration”) provided that the Additional Cash Consideration complies with the provisions for such Additional Cash Consideration set forth in the Agreement. For purposes of our analysis and opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that the provisions of Section 7.8 will not be triggered and that the Exchange Ratio, the Per Share Purchase Price, the Merger Consideration Price and the aggregate Merger Consideration will not be adjusted and remain as set forth herein above.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the stockholders of Atlantic. This opinion addresses only the fairness of the Merger Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger, and we are not opining on any individual stock, cash, option, or other components of the consideration.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed a draft of the Agreement dated November 10, 2017, as provided to Hovde by Atlantic;
- (ii) reviewed unaudited financial statements for Atlantic and Ameris for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2017;
- (iii) reviewed certain historical annual reports of each of Atlantic and Ameris, including audited annual reports for the year ending December 31, 2016;
- (iv) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning each of Atlantic and Ameris;
- (v) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Atlantic;
- (vi) reviewed financial projections prepared by certain members of senior management of Atlantic;
- (vii)

discussed with certain members of senior management of Atlantic and Ameris the business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects of each entity; the history and past and current operations of Atlantic and Ameris; Atlantic's and Ameris's historical financial performance; and their assessment of the rationale for the Merger; reviewed and analyzed materials detailing the Merger prepared by Atlantic and Ameris and by their respective legal and financial advisors, including the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and synergies expected to result from the Merger (the "Synergies"); analyzed the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings, tangible book value, financial ratios and other such metrics we deemed relevant, giving effect to the Merger based on assumptions relating to the Synergies;

(viii)

- (x)
reviewed publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Atlantic and Ameris for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018;
- (xi)
assessed current general economic, market and financial conditions;
- (xii)
reviewed the terms of recent merger, acquisition and control investment transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that we considered relevant;
- (xiii)
taken into consideration our experience in other similar transactions and securities valuations as well as our knowledge of the banking and financial services industry;
- (xiv)
reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of Ameris' common stock;
- (xv)
reviewed certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that we deemed relevant to our analysis; and
- (xvi)

We have assumed, without investigation, that there have been, and from the date hereof through the Effective Date will be, no material changes in the financial condition and results of operations of Atlantic or Ameris since the date of the latest financial information described above. We have further assumed, without independent verification, that the representations and financial and other information included in the Agreement and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein or otherwise provided to us by Atlantic and Ameris are true and complete. We have relied upon the management of Atlantic and Ameris as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information provided to Hovde by Atlantic and Ameris, and we assumed such forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information have been reasonably prepared by Atlantic and Ameris on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and Atlantic's and Ameris' judgments and estimates. We have assumed that such forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information would be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby, and we do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy or reasonableness thereof. We have been authorized by Atlantic to rely upon such forecasts, projections and other information and data, and we express no view as to any such forecasts, projections or other forward-looking information or data, or the bases or assumptions on which they were prepared.

In performing our review, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by Atlantic or Ameris or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Atlantic and Ameris that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to undertake, and have not undertaken, an independent verification of any of such information, and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We have assumed that each party to the Agreement would advise us promptly if any information previously provided to us became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of our review.

We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto. We have assumed that such allowances for Atlantic and Ameris are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. We were not requested to make, and have not made, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities, or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Atlantic or Ameris, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals; nor did we review any loan or credit files of Atlantic or Ameris.

We have undertaken no independent analysis of any pending or threatened litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Atlantic or Ameris is a party or may be subject, and our opinion makes no assumption concerning, and therefore does not consider, the possible assertion of claims, outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters. We have also assumed, with your consent, that neither Atlantic nor Ameris is party to any material pending transaction, including without limitation any financing, recapitalization, acquisition or merger, divestiture or spin-off, other than the Merger contemplated by the Agreement; however, we have been informed by Ameris that it is currently a party to a non-binding Letter of Intent (the "LOI") with a third party financial institution that contemplates the potential acquisition of such financial institution by Ameris the outcome of which, if any, cannot be predicted at this time. Consequently, we have assumed, with your consent, that the existence of the LOI would result in no impact upon the assumptions, facts and circumstances stated herein that serve as the basis of our analysis and opinion regarding the Merger as set forth in the Agreement.

We have relied upon and assumed with your consent and without independent verification, that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by Atlantic or any other party to the Agreement and that the final Agreement will not differ materially from the draft we reviewed. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Atlantic has advised us that they are not aware of any factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger. We have assumed that the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals as granted will not be subject to any conditions that would be unduly burdensome on Atlantic or Ameris or would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger. Additionally, we have assumed, with your consent, that the Consent Order issued by the FDIC and the GDBF will either be removed by such regulatory authorities prior to the Effective Time, or in the absence of such regulatory action, will not impede or prevent the consummation of the Merger as set forth in the Agreement.

Our opinion does not consider, include or address: (i) the legal, tax, accounting, or regulatory consequences of the Merger on Atlantic, or its stockholders; (ii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to the Board or Atlantic; (iii) any other strategic alternatives that might be available to Atlantic; or (iv) whether Ameris has sufficient cash or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the consideration contemplated by the Merger.

Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to Atlantic as to whether or not Atlantic should enter into the Agreement or to any stockholders of Atlantic as to how such stockholders should vote at any meetings of stockholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger or the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation, if any, to be received by any of the officers, directors or employees of Atlantic relative to the amount of consideration to be paid with respect to the Merger. Our opinion should not be construed as implying that the Merger Consideration is necessarily the highest or best price that could be obtained in a sale, merger, or combination transaction with a third party. We do not express any opinion as to the value of Ameris' common stock following the announcement of the proposed Merger, or the value of Ameris' common stock following the consummation of the Merger, or the prices at which shares of Ameris' common stock may be purchased or sold at any time. Other than as specifically set forth herein, we are not expressing any opinion with respect to the terms and provisions of the Agreement or the enforceability of any such terms or provisions. Our opinion is not a solvency opinion and does not in any way address the solvency or financial condition of Atlantic or Ameris.

This opinion was approved by Hovde's fairness opinion committee. This letter is directed solely to the board of directors of Atlantic and is not to be used for any other purpose or quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in any registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement, or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement or information statement to be delivered to the holders of Atlantic Common Stock in connection with the Merger if, and only if, (i) this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document, (ii) this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document, and (iii) any description of or reference to Hovde or the analyses performed by Hovde or any summary of this opinion in such filing is in a form acceptable to Hovde and its counsel in the exercise of their reasonable judgment.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and described above, and the economic, market and other circumstances as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or to otherwise comment upon events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof.

In arriving at this opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any single analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying this opinion.

Hovde, as part of its investment banking business, regularly performs valuations of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In addition to being retained to render this opinion letter, we were retained by Atlantic to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. In connection with our services, we will receive from Atlantic a fairness opinion fee that is contingent upon the issuance of this opinion letter and a completion fee that is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger; the opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the completion fee which will become payable to Hovde upon the consummation of the Merger. Atlantic has also agreed to indemnify us and our affiliates for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement.

Other than in connection with this present engagement, in the past two years, Hovde has not provided investment banking or financial advisory services to Atlantic. During the past three years preceding the date of this opinion, Hovde has provided investment banking services to, and received fees from, two banks in connection with their respective sales to Ameris. During the past two years preceding the date of this opinion Hovde has not provided any investment banking or financial advisory services to Ameris. We or our affiliates may presently or in the future seek or receive compensation from Ameris in connection with future transactions, or in connection with potential advisory services and corporate transactions, although to our knowledge none are expected at this time. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker/dealer, we may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Atlantic or Ameris or their affiliates, and as a market maker in securities, Hovde may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Atlantic or Ameris for its own accounts and for the accounts of customers. Except for the foregoing, during the past two years there have not been, and there currently are no mutual understandings contemplating in the future, any material relationships between Hovde and Atlantic or Ameris.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing review, assumptions and limitations, we are of the opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Merger Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is fair to the holders of Atlantic Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,

HOVDE GROUP, LLC

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Subsection (a) of Section 14-2-851 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code (the "GBCC") provides that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) such individual conducted himself or herself in good faith; and (2) such individual reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity, that such conduct was in the best interests of the corporation, (B) in all other cases, that such conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that the individual had no reasonable cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful. Subsection (d) of Section 14-2-851 of the GBCC provides that a corporation may not indemnify a director in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct, or in connection with any proceeding with respect to conduct for which he or she was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to Section 14-2-854 of the GBCC, a court may order a corporation to indemnify a director if such court determines, in view of all the relevant circumstances, that it is fair and reasonable to indemnify or advance expenses to the director, even if the director has not met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 14-2-851 of the GBCC, failed to comply with Section 14-2-853 of the GBCC, or was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (d) of Section 14-2-851 of the GBCC but if the director was adjudged so liable, the indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Section 14-2-852 of the GBCC provides that a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding. Section 14-2-857 of the GBCC provides that a corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding because he or she is an officer of the corporation to the same extent as a director. If the officer is not a director (or if the officer is a director but the sole basis on which he or she is made a party to the proceeding is an act or omission solely as an officer), the corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to such officer to such further extent as may be provided by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation, by a resolution of the board of directors of the corporation, or by contract, except for liability arising out of conduct that constitutes: (1) the appropriation, in violation of their duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation; (2) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (3) the types of liability set forth in Section 14-2-832 of the GBCC; or (4) receipt of an improper personal benefit. An officer of a corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 14-2-852 of the GBCC and may apply to a court under Section 14-2-854 of the GBCC for indemnification or advances, in each case to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification under those provisions. Finally, a corporation may also indemnify an employee or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation or bylaws, by general or specific action by its board of directors or by contract.

Article XI of the articles of incorporation, as amended, of the Registrant provides that, except as may be limited by the GBCC or any successor law, no director shall be personally liable to the Registrant or any of its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of his or her duty of care or other duty as a director.

Article VII of the amended and restated bylaws of the Registrant provides that every person (and the heirs and legal representatives of such person) who is or was a director or officer of the Registrant or any other corporation of which he or she served as such at the request of the Registrant and of which the Registrant directly or indirectly is a shareholder or creditor, or in which or in the stocks, bonds, securities or other obligations of which the Registrant is in any way interested, may be indemnified for any liability and expense resulting from any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, civil, criminal, administrative or investigative or derivative or otherwise, or in connection with any appeal relating thereto, in which he or she may become involved, as a party or prospective party or otherwise, by reason of any action taken or not taken in his or her capacity as a director or officer or as a member of any committee appointed by the board of directors of the Registrant to act for, in the interest of, or on behalf of the Registrant, whether or not he or she continues to be a director or officer at the time such liability or expense is incurred; provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Registrant and, in addition, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, did not have reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, by judgment, order, compromise, settlement (with or without court approval) or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, does not create a presumption that a director or officer did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in the amended and restated bylaws. Expenses incurred with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding of the character described in Article VII of the bylaws of the Registrant may be advanced by the Registrant prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of any undertaking by or on behalf of the recipient to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he or she is entitled to indemnification under the bylaws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Article VII of the Registrant's bylaws provides that no officer or director who was or is a party to any action or suit by or in the right of the Registrant to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an officer or director of the Registrant or such other corporation can be indemnified in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Registrant, unless the court in which such action or suit was brought determines that, despite the adjudication of liability and in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Article VII of the Registrant's bylaws further provides that every person (and the heirs and legal representatives of such person) referred to above who has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, with the respect to such claim, action, suit or proceeding is entitled to indemnification as of right without any further action or approval by the board of directors of the Registrant, and any indemnification pursuant to the bylaws of the Registrant will be made at the discretion of the Registrant only if: (1) the board of directors, acting by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such claim, action, suit or proceeding, present or voting, finds that the director or officer met the standard of conduct set forth in the bylaws; or (2) no such quorum of the board of directors exists, independent legal counsel at the request of either the Registrant or the person seeking indemnification, delivers to the Registrant such counsel's written opinion that such director or officer met such standards; or (3) the holders of a majority of stock then entitled to vote for the election of directors determines by affirmative vote that such director or officer met such standards.

The rights of indemnification provided in Article VII of the Registrant's bylaws are in addition to: (1) any rights to which any director or officer may otherwise be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or otherwise; and (2) the power of the Registrant to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, regardless of whether the Registrant would have the power to indemnify against such liability under the amended and restated bylaws or otherwise.

The Registrant's bylaws further provide that any repeal or modification of the bylaws by the shareholders of the Registrant cannot adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Registrant existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
