Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Citizens is incorporated under the Delaware General Corporation Law and is empowered by Section 145 of that law to indemnify officers and directors against certain expenses, liabilities and payments, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, (the "Securities Act") as therein provided. In addition, Citizens' By-Laws 24 and 24A and a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors in connection with the issuance of certain securities of Citizens provide for indemnification of specified persons, including officers and directors of Citizens, for liabilities, including those arising under the Securities Act, as provided in the By-Laws and resolution. Generally, By-Laws 24 and 24A provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Citizens shall indemnify and hold harmless, among others, any of Citizens' officers or directors or of any other entity for which he or she is acting at the request of Citizens, from and against any loss, damage, or claim incurred by such person by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such person on Citizens' behalf. Such By-Laws, generally speaking, also provide that, consistent with applicable law, expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with such proceeding be advanced by Citizens, subject to specified conditions. Citizens' Certificate of Incorporation further provides that no director shall be liable to Citizens or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, with stated exceptions.

Citizens also maintains insurance providing coverage for the Company and its subsidiaries against obligations incurred as a result of indemnification of officers and directors. The coverage also insures the officers and directors for a liability against which they may not be indemnified by the Company or its subsidiaries but excludes specified dishonest acts.

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement;

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of the Plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
