PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF FIRST PRESTONSBURG BANCSHARES INC.

PROSPECTUS OF PEOPLES BANCORP INC.

MERGER PROPOSAL- YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Peoples Bancorp Inc. (“Peoples”) and First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc. (“FPB”), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of October 29, 2018, as amended on December 18, 2018 (the “Merger Agreement”), which provides for the merger of FPB with and into Peoples (the “Merger”). Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, but not limited to, obtaining the requisite vote of the shareholders of FPB and the approval of the Merger by various regulatory agencies.

The board of directors of FPB, which unanimously approved the Merger, has called a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The time, date and place of the FPB special meeting is as follows: 3:00 p.m., local time, on February 12, 2019, at FPB's main office at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653. The adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of FPB requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of FPB's shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of FPB will be entitled to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each FPB share of common stock they own at the effective time of the Merger. In addition, immediately prior to the merger, FPB will pay a special cash distribution of $140.30 per share to its shareholders (referred to herein as the “special cash distribution”). Although the number of Peoples common shares that FPB shareholders will be entitled to receive (sometimes referred to herein as the “merger consideration”) is fixed, the market value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Peoples common shares and will not be known at the time FPB shareholders vote on the Merger. Therefore, at the time of the FPB special meeting, FPB shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the precise market value of the merger consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the Merger. Based on the closing price of $34.28 per Peoples common share on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® on October 29, 2018 (the last trading day before public announcement of the Merger), the merger consideration represented approximately $428.91 in value for each share of FPB common stock. Based on Peoples' closing price on December 17, 2018 of $31.78, the merger consideration represented approximately $397.63 in value for each share of FPB common stock. Based on Peoples' closing price on December 17, 2018, the aggregate value of the merger consideration and the special cash distribution to be paid by FPB immediately prior to the Merger was $537.93. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Peoples (trading symbol “PEBO”).

However, as described in “THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Termination of the Merger Agreement” on page 54, under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the market value of Peoples common shares decreases by a certain percentage and also decreases by a certain percentage relative to the NASDAQ Bank Index, FPB would have a right to terminate the Merger Agreement, unless Peoples elects to increase the exchange ratio, which would result in additional Peoples common shares being issued.

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of FPB common stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all FPB common stock owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent) equal to the product of (a) the fractional Peoples common share interest (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by (b) the volume weighted average closing price per share of Peoples common shares on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on and including the day immediately preceding the effective date of the Merger.

This document is a proxy statement that FPB is using to solicit proxies for use at its special meeting of shareholders to be held on February 12, 2019, to vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. It is also a prospectus relating to Peoples' offer and sale of its common shares in connection with the Merger. This proxy statement/prospectus describes the special meeting, the Merger proposal and other related matters.

The board of directors of FPB approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and the FPB's board of directors recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, and "FOR" the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

You are encouraged to read this document, including all annexes and the materials incorporated by reference into this document, carefully. In particular, you should read the "Risk Factors" section beginning on page 20 for a discussion of the risks related to the Merger and owning Peoples common shares after the Merger.

Your vote is important regardless of the number of shares you own. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders of FPB, please complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Not voting your FPB common stock will have the same effect as voting against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The FPB board of directors urge you to read carefully this proxy statement/prospectus, which contains a detailed description of the special meeting, the Merger proposal, Peoples common shares to be issued in the Merger and other related matters.

Sincerely,

Burl Wells Spurlock
President, Chair & Chief Executive Officer

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are answers to certain questions that you may have regarding the FPB special meeting and the Merger. You are urged to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section may not provide all the information that might be important to you in determining how to vote. Additional important information is also contained in the appendices to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

You are receiving this proxy statement/prospectus because Peoples Bancorp Inc. (“Peoples”) and First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc. (“FPB”) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of October 29, 2018, as amended on December 18, 2018 (the “Merger Agreement”), attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, pursuant to which FPB will be merged with and into Peoples (the “Merger”). Immediately following the Merger, The First Commonwealth Bank of Prestonsburg Inc., a Kentucky banking corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of A: FPB (“First Commonwealth Bank”), will merge with and into Peoples Bank, an Ohio chartered commercial bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Peoples (“Peoples Bank”), with Peoples Bank being the surviving entity, which transaction is referred to as the “subsidiary bank merger.” The Merger Agreement must be adopted and approved by the holders of at least a majority of FPB’s common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, in accordance with Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the Kentucky Business Corporation Act (“KBCA”) and FPB’s Articles of Incorporation, as amended.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the Merger and the special meeting of the shareholders of FPB, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed proxy card will allow you to vote your FPB common stock without attending the special meeting. Your vote is important. We encourage you to vote as soon as possible.

Q: Why do Peoples and FPB want to merge?

FPB believes that the Merger is in the best interests of its shareholders and other constituencies because, among other reasons, the merger consideration and special cash distribution will provide enhanced value and increased liquidity to FPB shareholders. Furthermore, as a result of the Merger, FPB will become part of a larger banking A: institution, improving its ability to compete with larger financial institutions and better serve its customers’ needs, while maintaining the community bank philosophy that both institutions currently share. To review FPB’s reasons for the Merger in more detail, see “THE MERGER- FPB’s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors” beginning on page 30 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Peoples believes that the Merger will benefit Peoples and its shareholders by enabling Peoples to further expand into the markets currently served by FPB and strengthening the competitive position of the combined organization. Furthermore, Peoples believes its increased asset size after the Merger will create additional economies of scale and provide opportunities for asset and earnings growth in an extremely competitive banking environment. To review the reasons for the Merger in more detail, see “THE MERGER-Peoples’ Reasons for the Merger” on page 32 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will FPB shareholders receive in the Merger?

A: Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, FPB shareholders will be entitled to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each share of FPB common stock they own at the effective time of the Merger. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, FPB will pay its shareholders a one-time special cash distribution of $140.30 per share or approximately $11.275 million in the aggregate (referred to herein as the “special cash distribution”).

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of FPB common stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all FPB common stock owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent) equal to the product of (a) the fractional Peoples common share interest (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, multiplied by (b) the volume weighted average closing price per share of Peoples common shares on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on and including the day immediately preceding the effective date of the Merger.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the time the Merger is completed?

Yes. In all likelihood, the value of the merger consideration received by FPB shareholders receiving Peoples common shares will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the Merger A: based upon the market value of Peoples common shares. Any fluctuation in the market price of Peoples common shares after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the Peoples common shares that FPB shareholders will receive and the total value of the consideration received in the Merger.

On October 29, 2018, which was the last business day on which Peoples common shares traded preceding the public announcement of the proposed Merger, the closing price of Peoples common shares was $34.28 which, after giving effect to the 12.512 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $428.91 per share. As of December 17, 2018, the most reasonably practicable date before the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of Peoples common shares was $31.78, which, after giving effect to the 12.512 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $397.63. In addition, FPB shareholders will receive a special cash distribution to be paid by FPB to its shareholders immediately prior the effective time of the Merger of $140.30 per share. The amount of the special cash distribution is fixed and will not change.

The market price of Peoples common shares will likely fluctuate before the Merger is completed. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Peoples common shares, which can be found online at www.Nasdaq.com, among other places.

Q: What are the federal income tax consequences of the Merger?

The Merger has been structured to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the "Internal Revenue Code." It is a condition to the completion of the Merger that FPB receive a written tax opinion from Crowe LLP to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is expected that FPB shareholders will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of their shares of FPB common stock for shares of Peoples common shares pursuant to the Merger, except with respect to any cash received by a FPB shareholder in lieu of a fractional Peoples common share. A:

This tax treatment may not apply to all shareholders of FPB. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to FPB shareholders can be complicated. FPB shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the Merger's tax consequences that are particular to them. Please see "MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER" beginning on page 41 for further discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger.

Q: Does FPB anticipate paying any dividends prior to the effective date of the Merger?

Yes. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, FPB is permitted to pay to its shareholders: (i) the special cash distribution described above, (ii) its normal and customary quarterly cash dividend in the amount of $5.00 per share for each full calendar quarter preceding the effective date of the Merger, except for the cash dividend for the quarter A: ended March 31, 2019, which shall be in the amount of $3.00 per share, and (iii) a cash dividend equal to 31% of FPB's estimated taxable income from the commencement of the calendar quarter in which the Merger occurs through the effective date of the Merger (not to exceed $5.00 per share).

Q: When and where will the FPB special meeting of shareholders take place?

A:

Edgar Filing: PEOPLES BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

The special meeting of shareholders of FPB will be held at 3:00 p.m., local time, on February 12, 2019, at FPB's main office at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653.

Q: What matters will be considered at the FPB special meeting?

The shareholders of FPB will be asked to: (1) vote to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; and (2) vote to approve the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

Q: Is my vote needed to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement?

The adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of FPB requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of FPB's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. Certain shareholders of FPB, who, collectively, beneficially own 29,549 shares of FPB common stock, or approximately 36.7% of FPB's outstanding common shares, entered into a voting agreement with Peoples, pursuant to which they agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to vote all of their shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

The special meeting may be adjourned, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the FPB common stock represented, in person or proxy, at the special meeting is required to adjourn the special meeting.

Q: How do I vote?

If you were the record holder of FPB common stock as of January 7, 2019, you may vote in person by attending the special meeting or, to ensure that your FPB common stock are represented at the special meeting, you may vote your shares by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided.

Q: What will happen if I fail to vote or abstain from voting?

If you fail to vote or if you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy card with respect to the proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal.

If you mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy card with respect to the proposal to approve the adjournment of the FPB special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal.

The failure to vote, however, will have no effect on the proposal to approve the adjournment of the FPB special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: How will my shares be voted if I return a blank proxy card?

If you sign, date and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want your FPB common stock to be voted, then your shares will be voted "FOR" the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, "FOR" the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

Yes. If you are a record holder of your shares, you may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the President of FPB, at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653;

executing and returning another proxy card with a later date than the earlier proxy card you wish to revoke, which later proxy card must be received by the President of FPB, at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653, before it is voted at the special meeting; or attending the special meeting and either giving notice of revocation in person, or voting by ballot at the special meeting.

Your attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

Q: If I do not favor the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, what are my rights?

A: If you are an FPB shareholder as of January 7, 2019, the record date, and you do not vote your shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, you will have the right under Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA to demand the fair cash value for your FPB common stock. To exercise your dissenters' rights, you must deliver to FPB a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of your shares before the vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement is taken at the special shareholders' meeting. The demand for payment must include your address, the number and class of FPB common stock owned by you, and the amount you claim to be the fair cash value of your FPB common stock, and should be mailed to: First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc., Attention: Burl Wells Spurlock, 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653. FPB shareholders who wish to exercise their dissenters' rights must: (i) vote against the Merger or elect not to return the proxy card, and (ii) deliver written demand for payment prior to the FPB shareholder vote as described above. For additional information regarding dissenters' rights, see "THE MERGER-Dissenters' Rights" on page 45 of this proxy statement/prospectus and the complete text of the applicable sections of Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. No holder of Peoples common shares is entitled to exercise any rights of a dissenting shareholder under the KBCA.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as we can. We expect to complete the Merger in the second quarter of 2019, assuming shareholder approval and all applicable regulatory approvals have been received and all other conditions precedent to the Merger have been satisfied or waived.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, FPB shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares in connection with the Merger, and FPB will remain an independent company and will continue to own First Commonwealth Bank. In addition, if the Merger is not completed, FPB will not pay the special cash distribution to shareholders of FPB.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee may be required to be paid by FPB to Peoples. Please see "THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee" beginning on page 55 for a complete discussion of the circumstances under which a termination fee will be required to be paid.

Q: Should I send in my FPB stock certificates now?

A: No. You should NOT send your FPB stock certificates with your proxy card or at any time prior to the FPB special meeting. Peoples, through its appointed exchange agent, will send FPB shareholders instructions for exchanging their stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After carefully reviewing this proxy statement/prospectus, including its annexes and the materials incorporated by reference, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible. By submitting your proxy, you authorize the individuals named in the proxy to vote your FPB common stock at the special meeting of shareholders of FPB in accordance with your instructions. Peoples Bancorp Inc. is a registered financial holding company incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio in 1980. Peoples operates principally through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Peoples Bank. Peoples’ other wholly-owned subsidiary is Peoples Investment Company, and Peoples holds all of the common securities of NB&T Statutory Trust III, which were acquired in connection with the acquisition of NB&T Financial Group, Inc. on March 6, 2015. Peoples Bank’s operating subsidiaries include Peoples Insurance Agency, LLC (“Peoples Insurance”) and an asset management company Peoples Tax Credit Equity, LLC.

Peoples Bank was first chartered in 1902 as an Ohio banking corporation under the name “The Peoples Banking and Trust Company” in Marietta, Ohio, and in 2000 was reorganized as a national banking association under the name “Peoples Bank, National Association.” Effective December 30, 2015, the banking subsidiary converted from a national banking association back to an Ohio state-chartered bank, which is a member of the Federal Reserve System. As a result of the charter conversion, the legal name of Peoples’ banking subsidiary was changed to “Peoples Bank” and the converted bank continues to operate under the trade name and federally registered service mark “Peoples Bank.” Peoples Insurance was first chartered in 1994 as an Ohio corporation under the name “Northwest Territory Property and Casualty Insurance Agency, Inc.” In late 1995, Peoples Insurance was awarded insurance agency powers in the state of Ohio, becoming the first insurance agency in Ohio to be affiliated with a financial institution. In 2009, Peoples Insurance was converted from an Ohio corporation to an Ohio limited liability company under its current name. Peoples Investment Company was formed in 2001, and Peoples Tax Credit Equity, LLC was formed in 2014, to optimize Peoples’ consolidated capital position and provide new investment opportunities as a means of enhancing profitability. These opportunities include, but are not limited to, investments in affordable housing tax credit funds or projects, historical tax credit funds, venture capital and other higher risk investments, which are either limited or restricted as investments by Peoples Bank. Presently, the operations of these companies do not represent a material part of Peoples’ overall business activities.

Peoples makes available a complete line of banking, insurance, investment and trust solutions through its financial subsidiaries, Peoples Bank and Peoples Insurance. These products and services include the following:

- various demand deposit accounts, savings accounts, money market accounts and certificates of deposit;
- commercial, consumer and real estate mortgage loans (both commercial and residential) and lines of credit;
- debit and automated teller machine (“ATM”) cards;
- credit cards for individuals and businesses;
- merchant credit card transaction processing services;
- corporate and personal trust services;
- safe deposit rental facilities;
- money orders and cashier’s checks;
- a full range of life, health and property and casualty insurance products;

•brokerage services; and
•custom-tailored fiduciary, employee benefit plans and asset management services.

At September 30, 2018, Peoples had total consolidated assets of approximately $4.0 billion, total loans of approximately $2.7 billion, total deposits of approximately $3.0 billion, and total shareholders' equity of approximately $504.3 million.

Peoples common shares are traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® under the symbol “PEBO.” Peoples is subject to the reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and, therefore, files reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. Further important business and financial information about Peoples is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc.

First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc.

311 N. Arnold Avenue

Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653

Phone: (606) 886-2321

First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc. is a registered bank holding company and was incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky in 1978. FPB’s wholly-owned subsidiary, The First Commonwealth Bank of Prestonsburg Inc., operates eight offices in Eastern Kentucky.

The First Commonwealth Bank of Prestonsburg Inc. is a full service community bank offering a range of commercial and personal banking services. Deposit services include a variety of checking accounts, savings accounts and certificates of deposit.

At September 30, 2018, FPB, on a consolidated basis, had total assets of approximately $320.8 million, total loans of approximately $139.2 million, total deposits of approximately $246.7 million and total shareholders’ equity of approximately $30.6 million. There is no established public trading market for FPB’s common stock.

The Merger (page 29)

The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, FPB will be merged with and into Peoples, with Peoples surviving. Immediately following the Merger, First Commonwealth Bank will be merged with and into Peoples Bank. The Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated in this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. We encourage you to carefully read the Merger Agreement, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

What FPB Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (page 29)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of FPB will be entitled to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each share of FPB common stock. Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of FPB common stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share will receive cash, in an amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent) equal to the product of (a) the fractional Peoples common share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by (b) the volume weighted average closing price per share of Peoples for the twenty consecutive trading day period specified in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement also provides that FPB will pay a special cash distribution of $140.30 per share to shareholders of FPB immediately prior to the effectiveness of the Merger. Peoples common shares are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® under the symbol “PEBO”. FPB’s common stock is not listed on any national securities exchange or quoted on any interdealer quotation system. The following table shows the closing sale prices of Peoples common shares on October 29, 2018, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the proposed Merger, and on December 17, 2018, the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the merger consideration payable for each share of FPB common stock, which was calculated by multiplying the closing price of Peoples common shares on those dates by the exchange ratio of 12.512. Finally, the table shows the aggregate of the implied value of the merger consideration plus the value of the special cash distribution to be paid by FPB with respect to each share of FPB common stock.

Edgar Filing: PEOPLES BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

December 17, 2018	$ 31.78	$ 397.63	$ 537.93

The values in the table above are illustrative only. The value of the merger consideration that a FPB shareholder actually receives will be based on the actual closing price on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® of Peoples common shares upon completion of the Merger, which is likely to be different than the amounts set forth above. Finally, if, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, both the market value of Peoples common shares and the NASDAQ Bank Index drop below certain specified thresholds, FPB will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement, unless Peoples increases the exchange ratio to an extent specified in the Merger Agreement.

Exchange of FPB Common Stock (page 48)

Within five business days after the effective time, Peoples will instruct Equiniti Trust Company (the “Exchange Agent”) to send to each FPB shareholder a letter of transmittal for use in the exchange with instructions explaining how to surrender FPB common stock certificates to the Exchange Agent. Within ten days following receipt of a properly completed letter of transmittal, the Exchange Agent will cause Peoples common shares to be issued in book-entry form and make any necessary cash payments in respect of cash to be paid in respect of any fractional share interests or dividends or distributions which such shareholder is entitled to receive.

FPB Special Meeting of Shareholders (page 26)

A special meeting of shareholders of FPB will be held at 3:00 p.m., local time, on February 12, 2019, at FPB's main office at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653, for the purpose of considering and voting on the following matters:

- a proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; and
- a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned FPB common stock as of the close of business on January 7, 2019. As of December 17, 2018, a total of 80,362 FPB common stock were outstanding and eligible to be voted at the FPB special meeting. As of the same date, there were no FPB preferred shares outstanding or eligible to be voted at the FPB special meeting.

Required Vote (page 26)

The adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 40,182 FPB common stock, which is a majority of the FPB common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the FPB special meeting. A majority of FPB's outstanding common stock must be present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting to constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the FPB common stock represented, in person or proxy, at the special meeting is required to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Certain directors of FPB, who own FPB common stock, along with Ms. Elizabeth Lambert, vice president of FPB, and Mr. Burl Wells Spurlock II, who collectively have the power to vote 29,549 shares of FPB common stock, or approximately 37% of the outstanding FPB common stock, entered into a voting agreement with Peoples on October 29, 2018, pursuant to which they agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to vote all of their shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. Excluding such shares held by parties that entered into the aforementioned voting agreement, the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 11,436 shares of FPB common stock, or approximately 14% of the outstanding shares not previously committed under the voting agreement.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Peoples and its directors, executive officers and affiliates beneficially owned no shares of FPB common stock, and FPB and its directors, executive officers and affiliates beneficially owned no Peoples common shares.

Recommendation to FPB Shareholders (page 26)

The board of directors of FPB unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. The board of directors of FPB believes that the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of FPB and its shareholders, and, as a result, the directors unanimously recommend that FPB shareholders vote “FOR” the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

In reaching this decision, the board of directors of FPB considered many factors which are described in the section captioned “THE MERGER- FPB’s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors” beginning on page 30 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

On October 29, 2018, ProBank Austin rendered its opinion to the board of directors of FPB that as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received in the Merger, when considered together with the special cash distribution to be paid by FPB to its shareholders immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, was fair, from a financial point of view, to FPB's shareholders. The full text of ProBank Austin's written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this document as Annex C. FPB shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. ProBank Austin's written opinion is addressed to the board of directors of FPB and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of FPB common stock should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and the Special Cash Distribution (pages 41 and 43)

We intend that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"), and that, accordingly, for federal income tax purposes (i) no gain or loss will be recognized by Peoples or FPB as a result of the Merger, and (ii) FPB shareholders will recognize no gain or loss upon the exchange of FPB common stock for Peoples common shares pursuant to the Merger (other than the gain or loss to be recognized as to cash received in lieu of fractional Peoples common shares), and their basis in and holding periods for Peoples common shares received may vary among shares if blocks of FPB common stock were acquired at different times or for different prices. With respect to the special cash distribution, FPB shareholders will be taxed only on the amount, if any, that the distribution exceeds such shareholder's adjusted tax basis in their FPB common stock.

All FPB shareholders should read carefully the description under the sections captioned "THE MERGER-Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" and "THE MERGER-Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Special Cash Distribution" beginning on pages 41 and 43 of this proxy statement/prospectus and should consult their own tax advisors concerning these matters. All FPB shareholders should consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences of the Merger and special cash distribution to them, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

Interests of Directors and Officers of FPB (page 40)

The directors and executive officers of FPB have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of FPB shareholders generally. These include:

- upon the consummation of the Merger, change in control and severance cash payments to certain executive officers, and continued at-will employment and benefits for Greg A. Wilson;

- continued indemnification for events occurring before the Merger; and

- coverage under a directors' and officers' insurance policy for six years following the effective date of the Merger.

FPB's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the Merger Agreement. See "THE MERGER-Interests of FPB Directors and Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 40 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Dissenters' Rights of FPB shareholders (page 45)

Under Kentucky law, FPB shareholders of record who do not vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement, deliver a written demand for payment for the fair cash value of their FPB common stock prior to the FPB special meeting, and who otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13 of the KBCA will be entitled, if and when the Merger is completed, to receive the fair cash value of their FPB common stock. The right to make this demand is known as “dissenters’ rights.” FPB shareholders’ right to receive the fair cash value of their FPB common stock, however, is contingent upon strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA. An FPB shareholder’s failure to vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder’s dissenters’ rights, provided that such shareholder does not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement or return an unmarked proxy card.

For additional information regarding your dissenters’ rights, see “THE MERGER-Dissenters’ Rights” on page 45 of this proxy statement/prospectus and the complete text of Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. You are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising your dissenters' rights, FPB shareholders who are considering exercising such rights are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel. Failure to strictly comply with these provisions will result in the loss of dissenters' rights.

Certain Differences in Shareholder Rights (page 56)

When the Merger is completed, some FPB shareholders will receive Peoples common shares and, therefore, will become Peoples shareholders. As Peoples shareholders, your rights will be governed by Peoples' Amended Articles of Incorporation, and Regulations, as well as Ohio law. Notably, FPB shareholders will own less of the combined company and as such will have decreased voting power. See "COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF FPB AND PEOPLES SHAREHOLDERS" beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 39)

The Merger cannot be completed until Peoples receives the required regulatory approvals or waivers of applications, which include the approval of both the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve") and the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions ("ODFI") for the subsidiary bank merger and the Federal Reserve's waiver request to consummate the Merger. In addition, First Commonwealth Bank is required to seek approval from the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions in connection with the special cash distribution. Peoples will submit an application to both the Federal Reserve and ODFI for the subsidiary bank merger, as well as a waiver request to the Federal Reserve relating to the approval of the Merger. First Commonwealth Bank will submit the required application to the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions in connection for approval of the special cash distribution.

Conditions to the Merger (page 49)

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, the completion of the Merger depends on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by FPB's shareholders and receipt of the required regulatory approvals, in addition to satisfaction of, or where legally permissible, waiver of, other customary conditions. Although Peoples and FPB anticipate the closing of the Merger will occur in the second quarter of 2019, neither Peoples nor FPB can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or, where permissible, waived, or that the Merger will be completed. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Conditions to Consummation of the Merger" beginning on page 49 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 54)

Peoples and FPB may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective, whether before or after shareholder approval, if the board of directors of each approves such termination by vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors. In addition, either Peoples or FPB, acting alone, may terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective under the following circumstances:

if there is a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement that cannot be or has not been cured within 30 calendar days of notice of the breach;

by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors, in the event that the Merger has not been consummated by June 30, 2019, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that date is due to the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate;

by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors, in the event that (i) regulatory approval has been denied, (ii) FPB shareholders do not adopt and approve the Merger Agreement at the FPB special shareholder meeting, or (iii) the SEC advises that it will not declare this registration statement effective; or if FPB desires to enter into a superior competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or FPB's board changes its recommendation in favor of the transaction, in each case after payment to Peoples of the termination fee described below.

FPB, acting alone, may also terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective upon written notice to Peoples:

if, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, the market value of Peoples common shares decreases by a certain percentage and also decreases by a certain percentage relative to the NASDAQ Bank Index; provided, however, that Peoples will have the right to prevent FPB's termination by increasing the exchange ratio pursuant to a formula set forth in the Merger Agreement.

See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Termination of the Merger Agreement" on page 54 for a more complete description of these circumstances.

Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee (page 55)

Because FPB has entered into the Merger Agreement, a binding legal agreement, if FPB or First Commonwealth Bank desires to terminate the Merger Agreement in favor of entering into a superior competing transaction with any third party, FPB must pay Peoples the sum of $1,800,000. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee" beginning on page 55 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

This amount represents a non-GAAP financial measure since it excludes the balance sheet impact of intangible assets acquired through acquisitions on total shareholders' equity and total assets. See "Non-GAAP financial measures," below for a reconciliation of these measures to their most comparable GAAP measures.

(c) Data presented as of the end of the period indicated.

Total other expenses (less amortization of other intangible assets) as a percentage of fully tax-equivalent net interest income plus total non-interest income (excluding all gains and all losses). This amount represents a non-GAAP financial measure since it excludes amortization of other intangible assets, and all gains and/or losses included in earnings, and uses fully tax-equivalent net interest income. See "Non-GAAP financial measures," below for a reconciliation of this measure to its most comparable GAAP measure.

This ratio represents a non-GAAP financial measure since it excludes the provision for (recovery of) loan losses and all gains and/or losses included in earnings. See "Non-GAAP financial measures," below for a reconciliation of this measure to its most comparable GAAP measure.

- (f) Nonperforming loans include loans 90+ days past due and accruing, renegotiated loans and nonaccrual loans.
- (f) Nonperforming assets include nonperforming loans and other real estate owned.
- (g) Includes loans categorized as special mention, substandard and doubtful.
- (h) Includes loans categorized as substandard and doubtful.

The decreases since 2013 were primarily due to a reduction in the five year historical loss rates. Additional information regarding the allowance for loan losses can be found in "ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS" of Peoples' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 under the caption "Allowance for Loan Losses".

(i) Net charge-offs (recoveries) as a percent of average total loans increased in 2015 as Peoples recorded a $13.1 million charge-off associated with one large commercial relationship, resulting in 0.67% of the reported amount of 0.78%.

(j) Peoples' capital conservation buffer was 6.30% at September 30, 2018 and 6.62% at December 31, 2017, compared to 2.50% for the fully phased-in capital conservation buffer required January 1, 2019.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Tangible Capital Measures

Peoples' management uses tangible capital measures to evaluate the adequacy of Peoples' shareholders' equity. Such ratios represent non-GAAP financial information since their calculation removes the impact on the consolidated balance sheets of intangible assets acquired through acquisitions. Peoples' management believes this information is useful to investors since it facilitates the comparison of Peoples' operating performance, financial condition and trends to peers, especially those without a similar level of intangible assets to that of Peoples. Further, intangible assets generally are difficult to convert into cash, especially during a financial crisis, and could decrease substantially in value should there be deterioration in the overall franchise value. As a result, tangible equity represents a conservative measure of the capacity for Peoples to incur losses but remain solvent.

The following table reconciles the calculation of these non-GAAP financial measures to amounts shown in Peoples' selected historical consolidated financial data:

Core Fee-Based Income and Expense

Core fee-based income and core non-interest expense are financial measures used to evaluate Peoples' recurring revenue and expense streams. These measures are non-GAAP since they exclude the impact of all gains and/or losses, core banking system conversion revenue and costs, acquisition-related costs, pension settlement charges and other non-recurring expenses.

The following tables provide reconciliations of these non-GAAP measures to the amounts reported in Peoples' Consolidated Financial Statements for the periods presented:

Efficiency Ratio

The efficiency ratio is a key financial measure used to monitor performance. The efficiency ratio is calculated as total other expenses (less amortization of other intangible assets) as a percentage of fully tax-equivalent net interest income plus non-interest income. This measure is non-GAAP since it excludes amortization of other intangible assets and all gains and/or losses included in earnings, and uses fully tax-equivalent net interest income.

Pre-Provision Net Revenue

Pre-provision net revenue (“PPNR”) has become a key financial measure used by federal bank regulatory agencies when assessing the capital adequacy of financial institutions. PPNR is defined as net interest income plus non-interest income minus total other expenses and, therefore, excludes the provision for, or recovery of, loan losses and all gains and losses included in earnings. As a result, PPNR represents the earnings capacity that can be either retained in order to build capital or used to absorb unexpected losses and preserve existing capital.

The following table provides a reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure to the amounts of income before income taxes shown in Peoples’ selected historical consolidated financial data for the periods presented:

UNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth for Peoples and FPB certain historical, pro forma and pro forma-equivalent per share financial information as of and for the year ended December 31, 2017, and as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2018. The information in the table below, in part, is derived from and should be read together with the historical consolidated financial statements of Peoples and FPB incorporated by reference into and included in this proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect certain anticipated costs and benefits of the Merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the Merger been consummated at the beginning of the periods presented. The pro forma data gives effect to the Merger and is based on numerous assumptions and estimates. The pro forma combined per share data and FPB equivalent pro forma per share data are prepared assuming a maximum of 1,005,490 common shares will be issued in the Merger. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Merger Consideration” on page 48.

There is no established public trading market for FPB’s common stock. FPB believes that there was a total of one (1) transaction involving FPB common stock during the periods reported above, and the pricing information for that transaction was not reported to FPB.

(2) No pricing information reported.

The market value of Peoples common shares to be issued in exchange for FPB common stock upon the completion of the Merger will not be known at the time of the Peoples or FPB shareholder meeting. The above tables, with respect to Peoples, show only historical comparisons. Because the market prices of Peoples common shares and FPB common stock will likely fluctuate prior to the Merger, these comparisons may not provide meaningful information to FPB shareholders in determining whether to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. Shareholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for Peoples common shares and to review carefully the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See “WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION” in the forepart of this document.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading “CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS” commencing on page 24 and the matters discussed under the caption “Risk Factors” in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by Peoples for the year ended December 31, 2017 and other reports filed with the SEC, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote on adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The following is a discussion of the most significant factors that make an investment in Peoples common stock speculative or risky, but does not purport to present an exhaustive description of such risks. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See “WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION” in the forepart of this document.

Risks Related to the Merger

The market value of Peoples common shares you receive in the Merger may decrease if there are fluctuations in the market price of Peoples common shares following the Merger.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of FPB will be entitled to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each share of FPB common stock, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement.

FPB does not have a right to terminate the Merger Agreement based upon changes in the market price of Peoples common shares, subject to the limited exception described below. Accordingly, the dollar value of Peoples common shares to FPB shareholders upon completion of the Merger will depend upon the market value of Peoples common shares at the time of completion of the Merger, which may be lower or higher than the closing price of Peoples common shares on the last full trading day preceding public announcement that Peoples and FPB entered into the Merger Agreement, the last full trading day before the date this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed or the date of the FPB special meeting. The market values of Peoples common shares and FPB common stock have varied since Peoples and FPB entered into the Merger Agreement and will continue to vary in the future due to changes in the business, operations or prospects of Peoples and FPB, market assessments of the Merger, regulatory considerations, market and economic considerations, and other factors, most of which are beyond Peoples’ and FPB’s control. Accordingly, at the time of the FPB special meeting, FPB shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the precise market value of the stock consideration they will be entitled to receive upon completion of the Merger. FPB shareholders should obtain current market quotations for Peoples common shares. See “MARKET PRICE AND DIVIDEND INFORMATION” on page 19 for ranges of historic market prices of Peoples common shares.

FPB has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if, prior to the effective time of the Merger and during the time period specified in the Merger Agreement, the market value of Peoples common shares decreases by a certain percentage and also decreases by a certain percentage relative to the NASDAQ Bank Index; provided, however, that Peoples will have the right to prevent FPB’s termination by increasing the exchange ratio pursuant to a formula set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Peoples could experience difficulties in managing its growth and effectively integrating the operations of FPB and First Commonwealth Bank.

The earnings, financial condition and prospects of Peoples after the Merger will depend in part on Peoples’ ability to integrate successfully the operations of FPB and First Commonwealth Bank and to continue to implement its own business plan. Peoples may not be able to fully achieve the strategic objectives and projected operating efficiencies anticipated in the Merger. The costs or difficulties relating to the integration of FPB and First Commonwealth Bank with the Peoples organization may be greater than expected or the cost savings from any anticipated economies of scale of the combined organization may be lower or take longer to realize than expected. Inherent uncertainties exist in integrating the operations of any acquired entity, and Peoples may encounter difficulties, including, without limitation, loss of key employees and customers, and the disruption of its ongoing business or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. These factors could contribute to Peoples not fully achieving the expected benefits from the Merger.

The Merger Agreement limits FPB's ability to pursue alternatives to the Merger with Peoples, may discourage other acquirers from offering a higher valued transaction to FPB and may, therefore, result in less value for the FPB shareholders.

The Merger Agreement contains a provision that, subject to certain limited exceptions, prohibits FPB from maintaining, initiating, soliciting or encouraging any inquiries or the making of any proposal that could reasonably be expected to lead to a competing proposal to acquire FPB. In addition, if FPB desires to terminate the Merger Agreement in favor of such competing proposal, the Merger Agreement provides that FPB must pay a $1,800,000 termination fee to Peoples. These provisions of the Merger Agreement could discourage other companies from trying to acquire FPB even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to FPB's shareholders than Peoples has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee, if paid, also could have a material adverse effect on FPB's financial condition.

The fairness opinion obtained by FPB from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the opinion.

ProBank Austin, the financial advisor to FPB, delivered a written fairness opinion to the board of directors of FPB dated October 29, 2018. The fairness opinion states that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration, when considered together with the special cash distribution, was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FPB common stock. However, the fairness opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date on which it was delivered, including changes to the operations and prospects of Peoples or FPB, changes in general market and economic conditions, or other changes. Should any such changes occur, it may alter the relative value of Peoples and FPB.

FPB shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management of the combined organization.

The Merger will result in FPB's shareholders having an ownership stake in the combined company that is smaller than their current stake in FPB. Upon completion of the Merger, we estimate that continuing Peoples shareholders will own 95.2% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the combined company, and former FPB shareholders will own 4.8% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the combined company. Consequently, FPB shareholders, as a general matter, will have less influence over the management and policies of the combined company after the effective time of the Merger than they currently exercise over the management and policies of FPB.

Failure to complete the Merger could negatively impact the value of FPB common stock and future businesses and financial results of Peoples and FPB.

If the Merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Peoples and FPB may be adversely affected and Peoples and FPB will be subject to several risks, including the following:

- FPB may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay Peoples a termination fee of $1,800,000 under the Merger Agreement;

- Peoples and FPB will be required to pay certain costs relating to the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, financial advisor and printing fees;

- under the Merger Agreement, FPB is subject to certain restrictions regarding the conduct of its business before completing the Merger, which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and matters relating to the Merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by Peoples and FPB management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to Peoples and FPB as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the Merger is not completed, FPB may experience negative reactions from its customers and employees. Some FPB and First Commonwealth Bank employees may resign and obtain other employment as a result of the potential Merger. FPB also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger.

If the Merger is not completed, FPB will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the Merger.

FPB has incurred and will incur substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, as well as the costs and expenses of filing, printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus. If the Merger is not completed, FPB would have to recognize these expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the Merger.

The Peoples common shares to be received by FPB shareholders upon completion of the Merger will have different rights from FPB shares.

Upon completion of the Merger, FPB shareholders will no longer be shareholders of FPB but will instead become shareholders of Peoples, and their rights as shareholders of Peoples will be governed by the Ohio Revised Code and by Peoples' Amended Articles of Incorporation and Regulations. The terms of Peoples' Amended Articles of Incorporation and Regulations are in some respects materially different than the terms of FPB's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws. See "COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF FPB AND PEOPLES SHAREHOLDERS" on page 56 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Completion of the Merger is subject to many conditions and if these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Merger will not be completed.

The respective obligations of Peoples and FPB to complete the Merger are subject to the fulfillment or written waiver of many conditions, including approval by the requisite vote of the FPB shareholders, receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, absence of orders prohibiting completion of the Merger, effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties, and the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Conditions to Consummation of the Merger” on page 49 of this proxy statement/prospectus. These conditions to the consummation of the Merger may not be fulfilled and, accordingly, the Merger may not be completed. In addition, if the Merger is not completed by June 30, 2019, either Peoples or FPB, by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire board, may choose not to proceed with the Merger, or the parties can mutually decide to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time, before or after approval by the requisite vote of the FPB shareholders. In addition, Peoples or FPB may elect to terminate the Merger Agreement in certain other circumstances. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Termination of the Merger Agreement” on page 54 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a more complete description of these circumstances.

FPB will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees, customers, suppliers and vendors may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of FPB, which could negatively affect Peoples’ and FPB’s combined business operations. These uncertainties may impair FPB’s ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel, depositors and borrowers pending the consummation of the Merger, as such personnel, depositors and borrowers may experience uncertainty about their future roles following the consummation of the Merger.

Additionally, these uncertainties could cause customers (including depositors and borrowers), suppliers, vendors and others who deal with FPB to seek to change existing business relationships with FPB or fail to extend an existing relationship with FPB. In addition, competitors may target each party’s existing customers by highlighting potential uncertainties and integration difficulties that may result from the Merger.

The pursuit of the Merger and the preparation for the integration may place a burden on each company’s management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business concerns and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could have a material adverse effect on each company’s business, financial condition and results of operations. Retention of certain employees by FPB also may be challenging while the Merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Peoples after the Merger. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with FPB, FPB’s business could be harmed.

In addition, in the Merger Agreement FPB has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing and is restricted from taking certain actions without Peoples’ consent while the Merger is pending. These restrictions may, among other matters, prevent FPB from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities, selling assets, incurring indebtedness, engaging in significant capital expenditures in excess of certain limits set forth in the Merger Agreement, entering into other transactions or making other changes to FPB’s business prior to consummation of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement. These restrictions could have a material adverse effect on FPB’s business, financial condition and results of operations. Please see the section entitled “THE MERGER AGREEMENT-Conditions to Consummation of the Merger” beginning on page 49 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to FPB.

Risks Related to the Combined Company if the Merger is Completed

The integration of Peoples Bank and First Commonwealth Bank will present significant challenges that may result in the combined business not operating as effectively as expected or in the failure to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction.

The benefits and synergies expected to result from the proposed transaction will depend in part on whether the operations of First Commonwealth Bank can be integrated in a timely and efficient manner with those of Peoples Bank. Peoples Bank may face challenges in consolidating its functions with those of First Commonwealth Bank, and integrating the organizations, procedures and operations of the two businesses. The integration of Peoples Bank and

First Commonwealth Bank will be complex and time-consuming, and the management of both companies will have to dedicate substantial time and resources to it. These efforts could divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from day-to-day operational matters during the integration process. Failure to successfully integrate the operations of Peoples Bank and First Commonwealth Bank could result in the failure to fully achieve some of the anticipated benefits from the transaction, including cost savings and other operating efficiencies, and Peoples Bank may not be able to capitalize on the existing relationships of First Commonwealth Bank to the extent anticipated, or it may take longer, or be more difficult or expensive than expected to achieve these goals. This could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of Peoples and/or Peoples Bank after the transaction.

Unanticipated costs relating to the Merger could reduce Peoples' future earnings per share.

Peoples and Peoples Bank believe that each has reasonably estimated the likely costs of integrating the operations of Peoples Bank and First Commonwealth Bank, and the incremental costs of operating as a combined company.

However, it is possible that unexpected transaction costs such as taxes, fees or professional expenses or unexpected future operating expenses such as increased personnel costs or increased taxes, as well as other types of unanticipated adverse developments, could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of the combined company. If unexpected costs are incurred, the Merger could have a dilutive effect on Peoples' earnings per share. In other words, if the Merger is completed, the earnings per Peoples common share could be less than anticipated or even less than they would have been if the Merger had not been completed.

Estimates as to the future value of the combined company are inherently uncertain. You should not rely on such estimates without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, including estimates regarding the earnings per share of the combined company, are inherently uncertain. The future value of the combined company will depend upon, among other factors, the combined company's ability to achieve projected revenue and earnings expectations and to realize the anticipated synergies described in this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to the risks and uncertainties described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including these risk factors. Accordingly, you should not rely upon any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, whether made before or after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus by Peoples' and FPB's respective management or affiliates or others, without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Related to Peoples' Business

You should read and consider risk factors specific to Peoples' business that will also affect the combined company after the Merger, described in Peoples' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, as updated by subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed by Peoples with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this document. See "INCORPORATION OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE" on page 59 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, including statements included or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, are not statements of historical fact and constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are intended to be protected by the safe harbor provided by the same. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and include information about possible or assumed future results of operations of Peoples after the Merger is completed as well as information about the Merger. Words such as “believes,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “intends,” “would,” “continue,” “should,” “may,” or similar expressions, or the negatives thereof, are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. Many possible events or factors could affect the future financial results and performance of each of Peoples and FPB before the Merger or Peoples after the Merger, and could cause those results or performance to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. The ability to predict results or the actual effects of the combined company’s plans and strategies is inherently uncertain. Some of the factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those identified in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled “RISK FACTORS” beginning on page 20, as well as the following:

- the parties’ ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Peoples and FPB, and of First Commonwealth Bank and Peoples Bank , including unexpected transaction costs, including the costs of integrating operations, severance, professional fees and other expenses;
- the risk that the expected cost savings, synergies and other financial benefits from the Merger may not be realized or take longer than anticipated to be realized;
- lower than expected revenues or earnings following the Merger;
- higher than expected loan losses following the Merger;
- the diversion of management’s time on issues related to the Merger;
- greater than expected deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the Merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees;
- the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed Merger is not obtained or is obtained subject to non-standard conditions that are not anticipated;
- the failure of FPB’s shareholders to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement;
- general economic conditions, either nationally, in Ohio or in certain MSAs in Ohio that are less favorable than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration of the quality of the combined company’s loan portfolio and the demand for its products and services;
- changes in interest rates, deposit flows, loan demand and real estate values;
- material changes in the value of Peoples common shares;
- changes in estimates of future reserve requirements based upon the periodic review thereof under relevant regulatory and accounting requirements;
- inaccuracy of Peoples’ or FPB’s management’s assumptions and estimates used in applying critical accounting policies;
- a decline in the sale price of Peoples common shares before the completion of the Merger, including as a result of the financial performance of Peoples, or of FPB, or more generally due to broader stock market movements and the performance of financial companies and peer group companies;
- inflation and, interest rate, securities market and monetary fluctuations;
- changes in interest rates, spreads on earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, and interest rate sensitivity;
- the risk of litigation related to the Merger or the exercise of dissenters’ rights and related costs and expenses;
- an increase in competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions that affects pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues;
- changes in laws and regulations (including laws and regulations concerning taxes, banking and securities) with which Peoples and FPB must comply;
- the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve;

legislation affecting the financial services industry as a whole, and/or Peoples and its subsidiaries, individually or collectively;
governmental and public policy changes;

Peoples' inability to integrate the FPB acquisition and any future acquisition targets or increased difficulty, time-consumption or cost than expected in doing so; and the impact on Peoples' businesses, as well as on the risks set forth above, of various domestic or international military or terrorist activities or conflicts.

Additional factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed under "Risk Factors" and those discussed in the filings of Peoples with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, which are available online at www.sec.gov. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION" at the beginning of this document.

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, Peoples' and FPB's actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the Merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus, and attributable to Peoples or FPB or any person acting on their behalf, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this "Cautionary Statement about Forward-Looking Statements." Peoples and FPB undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, unless obligated to do so under the federal securities laws.

THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF FPB

This section contains information about the FPB special meeting at which FPB shareholders will have the opportunity to vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. The FPB board of directors is mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to you, as an FPB shareholder, on or about January 10, 2019. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, the FPB board of directors also is sending to you a notice of the FPB special meeting and a form of proxy that the FPB board of directors is soliciting for use at the FPB special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the FPB special meeting.

Time, Date and Place

The FPB special meeting of shareholders is scheduled to be held at 3:00 p.m., local time, on February 12, 2019, at FPB's main office at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653, including any adjournments of the special meeting.

Matters to be Considered

At the special meeting, the shareholders of FPB will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

- a proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement; and
- a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors

The board of directors of FPB believes that the Merger with Peoples is in the best interests of FPB shareholders and recommends that you vote (1) "FOR" the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and (2) "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting of FPB shareholders, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies. See "THE MERGER -Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors."

Record Date; Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote

The board of directors of FPB has fixed the close of business on January 7, 2019, as the record date for determining the FPB shareholders who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the FPB special meeting of shareholders. Only holders of FPB common stock at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the FPB special meeting.

As of the close of business on December 18, 2018, there were 80,362 shares of FPB common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. As of the same date, there were no shares of FPB preferred stock outstanding. The FPB common stock were held of record by approximately 20 shareholders. Each share of FPB common stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters properly presented at the special meeting.

Votes Required; Quorum

Your vote is important. FPB's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of FPB's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the FPB special meeting in order to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. Approval of an adjournment of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of FPB common stock represented, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting.

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding FPB common stock, must be present in person or by proxy at the FPB special meeting before any action, other than the adjournment of the special meeting, can be taken. Properly executed proxy cards marked "ABSTAIN" and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

The FPB board of directors does not expect any matter other than the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies, to be brought before the FPB special meeting.

Share Ownership of Directors, Officers and Certain Shareholders; Voting Agreement

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the directors and executive officers of FPB and their affiliates collectively owned 14,964 shares of FPB common stock, or approximately 18.6% of FPB's outstanding shares.

On the date of the execution of the Merger Agreement, those directors owning shares of FPB common stock along with Elizabeth Lambert, vice president of FPB, and Mr. Burl Wells Spurlock II, entered into a voting agreement with Peoples pursuant to which they agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to vote all of their shares in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. As of December 18, 2018, these individuals owned an aggregate of 29,549 shares of FPB common stock, an amount equal to approximately 37% of the outstanding FPB common stock. When considering the FPB board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that, in addition to their interests as shareholders of FPB, the directors and executive officers of FPB have financial interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of shareholders of FPB. See “THE MERGER-Interests of FPB’s Directors and Officers in the Merger” beginning on page 40.

Solicitation and Revocation of Proxies

A proxy card accompanies each copy of this proxy statement/prospectus mailed to FPB shareholders. Your proxy is being solicited by the board of directors of FPB. Whether or not you attend the special meeting, the FPB board of directors urges you to return your properly executed proxy card as soon as possible. If you return your properly executed proxy card prior to the special meeting and do not revoke it prior to its use, the FPB common stock represented by that proxy card will be voted at the special meeting or, if appropriate, at any adjournment of the special meeting. FPB common stock will be voted as specified on the proxy card or, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, will be voted “FOR” the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, “FOR” the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

If you have returned a properly executed proxy card, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the President of FPB, at 311 N. Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653;

executing and returning another proxy card with a later date; or attending the special meeting and either giving notice of revocation in person, or voting by ballot at the special meeting.

Your attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

FPB will bear its own cost of solicitation of proxies on behalf of the FPB board of directors. Proxies will be solicited by mail, and may be further solicited by additional mailings, personal contact, telephone, facsimile or electronic mail, by directors, officers and employees of FPB, none of whom will receive additional compensation for their solicitation activities. FPB will also pay the standard charges and expenses of brokerage houses, voting trustees, banks, associations and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, who are record holders of FPB common stock not beneficially owned by them, for forwarding this proxy statement/prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials to, and obtaining proxies from, the beneficial owners of FPB common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

PROPOSALS SUBMITTED TO FPB SHAREHOLDERS

FPB Merger Proposal

As discussed throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, FPB is asking its shareholders to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement. FPB shareholders should carefully read this document in its entirety for more detailed information regarding the Merger Agreement and the Merger. In particular, shareholders are directed to, and encouraged to read carefully in its entirety, the copy of the Merger Agreement attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Vote Required for Approval

The affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of FPB common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the Merger Agreement. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the approval of the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors

THE FPB BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

FPB Adjournment Proposal

The FPB special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, the solicitation of additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the FPB special meeting to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement. If, at the time of the FPB special meeting, the number of common shares of FPB present or represented and voting in favor of the Merger Agreement proposal is insufficient to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, FPB intends to move to adjourn the FPB special meeting in order to enable the FPB board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the proposal. In that event, FPB will ask the FPB shareholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal and not the merger proposal.

In the FPB adjournment proposal, FPB is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the FPB board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy holders to adjourn the FPB special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the FPB shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, FPB could adjourn the FPB special meeting and any adjourned session of the FPB special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from FPB shareholders who have previously voted. If, after the adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the adjourned special meeting, notice of the adjourned special meeting will be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Vote Required for Approval

The affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of votes cast at the FPB special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting. Abstentions will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors

THE FPB BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

THE MERGER

The Proposed Merger

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger, upon receipt of the required regulatory approvals, of FPB with and into Peoples, with Peoples as the surviving entity (the “Merger”). Immediately following the Merger, First Commonwealth Bank will be merged with and into Peoples Bank, with Peoples Bank as the surviving bank (referred to herein in as the “subsidiary bank merger”). The Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated in this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. You are encouraged to read the Merger Agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, FPB shareholders will be entitled to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each share of FPB common stock they own at the effective time of the Merger. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, FPB will pay its shareholders a one-time special cash distribution of $140.30 per share or approximately $11.275 million in the aggregate.

Background of the Merger

FPB’s board of directors and senior management team regularly review and evaluate FPB’s strategic plan as part of their ongoing efforts to provide long-term value to FPB’s shareholders, taking into account economic, competitive, regulatory and other conditions, and historical and projected industry trends and developments. As part of this review, the board of directors and senior management team also consider and evaluate options and alternatives designed to enhance shareholder value, including, from time to time, potential strategic alternatives.

Starting in 2014, FPB began having regular dialogue with ProBank Austin, an investment banking firm, about the community bank mergers and acquisitions environment in eastern Kentucky.

During FPB’s 2014 strategic planning process, the board recognized the aging nature of the shareholder base and noted the majority shareholder family’s expectations and objectives for dividends and liquidity. About that time, FPB was introduced to Peoples, and Peoples expressed interest in acquiring FPB.

In 2014, and again in early 2015, Peoples and FPB engaged in discussions surrounding a potential business combination transaction. These discussions did not result in any informal or formal agreement; however, the principals of both organizations developed greater familiarity and mutual respect for each other and their respective companies. Over the ensuing years, Burl Wells Spurlock, President, Chair & Chief Executive Officer of FPB, Greg Wilson, President and Chief Executive Officer of First Commonwealth Bank, and Charles W. Sulerzyski, President and Chief Executive Officer of Peoples, maintained periodic communication, and continued to discuss the possible combination of FPB with Peoples.

Discussions towards a transaction accelerated in July 2018 following a meeting between Mr. Wilson and Mr. Sulerzyski. FPB requested the assistance of ProBank Austin to evaluate a possible transaction with Peoples. ProBank Austin prepared an analysis in early August 2018 that estimated a control level valuation range of $41 million to $45 million for FPB based on June 30, 2018 financial data. After reviewing the analysis, FPB requested ProBank Austin to initiate formal discussions with Peoples towards a possible business combination.

On August 22, 2018, a representative of ProBank Austin reached out to Mr. Sulerzyski to discuss how best to move the process forward. On August 28, 2018, ProBank Austin provided preliminary information to Peoples to begin its evaluation. On September 4, 2018, FPB and Peoples executed a Mutual Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement. ProBank Austin representatives then exchanged information with representatives of Raymond James & Associates, Inc., as financial advisor to Peoples. On or around September 20, 2018, ProBank Austin set up a virtual data room to allow FPB to begin populating documents to assist Peoples’ and its advisors with the due diligence process.

After extensive negotiation, FPB and Peoples reached a tentative verbal agreement on September 24, 2018, as to the substantive financial terms of a possible transaction, and agreed to meet at Peoples’ main office in Marietta on October 1, 2018. Peoples initiated its formal due diligence process and communicated its interest in reaching a formal definitive agreement and deal announcement by October 29, 2018.

FPB formally engaged ProBank Austin as its exclusive financial advisor on October 3, 2018, to act as financial advisor to FPB in connection with a potential sale. FPB selected ProBank Austin because of ProBank Austin’s qualifications and experience and familiarity with the community bank business model, environment and industry as a whole. ProBank Austin continued to work with FPB in facilitating Peoples' due diligence in early October. Beginning on or about October 19, 2018 and through October 29, 2018, with assistance from ProBank Austin and Stoll Keenon Ogden PLLC, its legal counsel, FPB began negotiating the terms of a definitive merger agreement with Peoples and its counsel. As part of the negotiations, FPB's legal counsel discussed with legal counsel of Peoples various key points, including that the definitive merger agreement provide a fiduciary out for FPB's board of directors if a superior proposal was received.

On October 26, 2018, the FPB and First Commonwealth Bank boards of directors met at a regularly scheduled joint meeting to discuss the proposed merger and related matters. A substantially final form of the definitive merger agreement was also made available for review to FPB's directors on or about October 26, 2018.

The FPB board of directors met again on October 29, 2018 to review the execution version of the merger agreement and review the final fairness opinion letter. At the meeting, FPB's senior management team and representatives of FPB's financial advisor and legal counsel discussed the proposed merger and merger agreement at length with FPB's board of directors. Additionally, FPB's legal counsel led a discussion regarding the board's fiduciary duties in the context of a merger involving FPB in which FPB shareholders would receive a combination of stock and cash consideration for their shares. The board was updated on the acquisition process that led to the proposed merger and the negotiations with Peoples. At this meeting, ProBank Austin reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered to FPB's board an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by ProBank Austin as set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of FPB common stock in the merger, including the special cash distribution, was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FPB common stock.

Thereafter, the board engaged in a detailed and thorough discussion and analysis of the merger proposal and proposed merger agreement, during which discussion and analysis all board members were actively engaged and asked questions of and received answers from FPB's senior management team, financial advisor and legal counsel. Following such detailed discussions and careful deliberation, the FPB board of directors unanimously adopted resolutions (1) determining that it is in the best interest of FPB and its shareholders to enter into the merger agreement, (2) adopting the merger agreement and approving FPB's execution, delivery and performance of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (3) recommending that the shareholders of FPB approve the Merger Agreement, and (4) directing that the Merger Agreement be submitted to FPB's shareholders for approval at a meeting of FPB's shareholders duly held for such purpose.

After the board meeting, FPB and Peoples executed the Merger Agreement. On October 29, 2018, after close of the market, the transaction was publicly announced through a joint press release announcing the parties' entry into the Merger Agreement.

FPB's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the FPB Board of Directors

FPB's board determined that the Merger and the merger consideration were in the best interests of FPB and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that FPB's shareholders vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement.

In its deliberations and in making its determination, FPB's board considered many factors, including, without limitation, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

- the form and amount of merger consideration and the ability of FPB's shareholders to participate in the future performance of the combined company;
- the financial analysis prepared by ProBank Austin and ProBank Austin's opinion dated as of October 29, 2018 that the merger consideration, together with the special cash distribution, was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FPB common stock;
- the quarterly dividend historically paid by Peoples;
- the belief of FPB's board that Peoples is a high-quality financial services company with a similar approach to customer service and increasing shareholder value;
- the potential ability of the combined company to increase shareholder value and to create opportunities for enhanced earnings and dividends;
- the significantly increased stock liquidity that would be created for FPB's shareholders;
- the continuing consolidation in the financial institutions industry;
- the benefits of doing a transaction now versus risks and uncertainties of waiting to do so;

the size of the resulting institution, which would permit more efficient competition in a highly competitive industry;
increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions;
future uncertainties in the regulatory and economic climate;

30

• succession planning concerns for senior management positions at FPB and First Commonwealth Bank;

• the current and prospective business and economic environment in which FPB and Peoples operate, including local and regional economic conditions;

• the similarities of the markets served by FPB and Peoples;

• the business, earnings, operations, financial condition, capital levels and asset quality of FPB and Peoples;

• Peoples' intention to retain First Commonwealth Bank's existing locations and the belief of the FPB board that Peoples will retain many of First Commonwealth Bank's employees, enabling First Commonwealth Bank's customers to continue to interact with many of the same employees at the banking locations with which they are familiar;

• the increased lending opportunities in the communities served by FPB as a result of the combined bank's increased lending limits; and

• the effect of the Merger on FPB's employees, including the prospects for continued employment and the other benefits agreed to be provided by Peoples to FPB's employees.

The following negative factors were also considered:

• the loss of autonomy associated with being an independent financial institution;

• the possibility that the Merger will not be consummated, resulting in negative effects on FPB from costs incurred, the diversion of management and employee attention, employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

• the lack of assurance that all conditions to closing will be satisfied, including the risks of failure to get regulatory or shareholder approval;

• possible hesitation of First Commonwealth Bank's customers to engage with a larger financial institution;

• the restrictions on the conduct of FPB's and First Commonwealth Bank's business prior to completion of the Merger, which could have a negative effect on FPB's financial condition and results of operations;

• the possibility of litigation in connection with the Merger;

• the lack of a fairness opinion as of the time of the closing of the Merger;

• changes to the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration that will occur prior to closing due to changes in the price of Peoples common shares;

• the fact that the market price of Peoples common shares after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those that affect FPB's and Peoples' market prices currently; and

• the reduced share ownership percentage and voting and management control that FPB's shareholders will have in the combined company.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by FPB's board is not intended to be exhaustive but includes all material factors considered by FPB's board in arriving at its determination to approve, and to recommend that FPB's shareholders vote to approve and adopt, the Merger Agreement. FPB's board did not assign any relative or specific weights to the above factors, and individual directors may have given differing weights to each factor.

The board of directors of FPB approved the Merger Agreement by a unanimous vote of the directors. The board believes that the Merger is in the best interests of FPB and its shareholders, and, as a result, the directors unanimously recommend that FPB's shareholders vote "FOR" the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement.

Peoples' Reasons for the Merger

Peoples believes that the Merger is in the best interests of Peoples and its shareholders. In reaching this determination, the Peoples board of directors consulted with senior management, Peoples' financial advisor and legal counsel, and considered the projected pro forma impact of the Merger and a number of other factors, including, without limitation, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

- the long-term interests of Peoples and its shareholders, as well as the interests of its employees, customers, creditors and the communities in which Peoples operates;
- the enhanced shareholder value that is expected to result from the Merger for Peoples' shareholders;
- the compatibility of the cultures of Peoples and FPB, particularly with respect to meeting local banking needs and fostering strong community ties;
- an enhanced market share in Kentucky with increased high-quality, low-cost core deposits;
- the Merger will expand and enhance Peoples' existing franchise in eastern Kentucky market;
- the anticipated operating efficiencies, cost savings, new branding and opportunities for revenue enhancements of the combined bank following the completion of the Merger, and the likelihood that they would be achieved after the Merger;
- the Merger should assist Peoples in maintaining its status as an independent holding company and Peoples Bank as a community bank; and
- the ability of Peoples to maintain its strong capital position that will allow the combined organization to expand within its new markets.

While management of Peoples believes that revenue opportunities will be achieved and costs savings will be obtained following the Merger, Peoples has not quantified the amount of enhancements or projected the areas of operation in which such enhancements will occur.

All business combinations, including the Merger, also include certain risks and disadvantages. The material potential risks and disadvantages to Peoples and its shareholders that Peoples' board of directors and management identified and the board of directors considered include the following material matters, which are not presented in order of priority:

- potential run-off of deposits and loans following announcement and/or the closing of the Merger;
- the potential for diversion of management attention during the period prior to the completion of the Merger and after the Merger while merging First Commonwealth Bank's business with Peoples Bank;
- the costs to be incurred in connection with the Merger, including the transaction expenses arising from the Merger Agreement and the Merger;
- the risk that projected earnings, tangible book value increases and/or cost savings will not materialize or will be less than expected;
- the likelihood that Peoples common shares may trade down post-announcement and/or post-Merger;
- the risk that FPB's loans and other items were not appropriately valued; and
- the risk that FPB terminates the Merger Agreement by reason of a superior competing proposal.

In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger, the Peoples board did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the factors it considered. Further, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. In addition, the Peoples board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination. Rather, the board conducted an overall analysis of the factors it considered material, including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, Peoples' management. After deliberating with respect to the proposed merger with FPB, considering, among other things, the factors discussed above, the Peoples board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger with FPB and declared the Merger advisable.

There can be no certainty that the above benefits of the merger anticipated by the Peoples board of directors will occur. Actual results may vary materially from those anticipated. For more information on the factors that could affect actual results, see "CAUTIONARY STATEMENT ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS" and "RISK FACTORS."

Opinion of FPB's Financial Advisor

On October 3, 2018, FPB retained ProBank Austin to serve as exclusive financial advisor in connection with evaluating and implementing a potential transaction involving the sale or merger of FPB. ProBank Austin is an investment banking and consulting firm specializing in community bank mergers and acquisitions. FPB selected ProBank Austin as its financial advisor on the basis of its experience and expertise in representing financial institutions in similar transactions and its familiarity with FPB.

In its capacity as financial advisor, ProBank Austin provided a fairness opinion (the "ProBank Austin Opinion") to the board of directors of FPB in connection with the Merger. The ProBank Austin Opinion dated October 29, 2018 is based on and subject to various factors, assumptions and limitations as set forth in such opinion, including ProBank Austin's experience as investment bankers. The ProBank Austin Opinion states the merger consideration and special cash distribution, as described and set forth in the Merger Agreement, are fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of FPB common stock.

The full text of the ProBank Austin Opinion, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the ProBank Austin Opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

ProBank Austin's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The ProBank Austin Opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the FPB board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration and special cash distribution to be received by FPB shareholders. It did not address the underlying business decision of FPB to engage in the Merger or enter into the Merger Agreement or constitute a recommendation to the FPB board of directors in connection with the Merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of FPB common stock or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the Merger proposal or any other matter.

The ProBank Austin Opinion was reviewed and approved by the fairness opinion committee of ProBank Austin. ProBank Austin expressed no view or opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or any terms or other aspects of the Merger Agreement or the Merger. ProBank Austin expressed no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the Merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of FPB or as to the underlying decision by FPB to engage in the Merger or enter into the Merger Agreement. ProBank Austin did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by FPB officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by the holders of FPB common stock.

The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the ProBank Austin Opinion.

You should consider the following when reading the discussion of ProBank Austin's Opinion in this document:

The opinion letter details the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations of the review undertaken by ProBank Austin in connection with its opinion, and should be read in its entirety;

• ProBank Austin expressed no opinion as to the price at which FPB's or Peoples' common stock would actually trade at any given time;

• ProBank Austin's opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger and the other business strategies considered by the FPB board of directors, nor does it address the board's decision to proceed with the Merger; and

• ProBank Austin's opinion rendered in connection with the Merger does not constitute a recommendation to any FPB shareholder as to how he or she should vote their shares.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. It is, therefore, not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In performing its analyses, ProBank Austin made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of FPB and Peoples and may not be realized. Any estimates contained in ProBank Austin's analyses are not necessarily predictive of future results or values, and may be significantly more or less favorable than the estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which the companies or their securities may actually be sold. Unless specifically noted, none of the analyses performed by ProBank Austin was assigned a greater significance by ProBank Austin than any other. The relative importance or weight given to these analyses is not affected by the order of the analyses or the corresponding results. The summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables should be read together with the text of those summaries.

With respect to the expected transaction costs, accounting adjustments and cost savings, FPB's and Peoples' management and advisors verbally confirmed to ProBank Austin that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of FPB and Peoples, respectively, and ProBank Austin assumed that such performance would be achieved. ProBank Austin also assumed that there has been no material change in FPB's or Peoples' assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. ProBank Austin assumed in all respects material to its analysis that FPB and Peoples will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to the analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Merger Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Merger Agreement, and that the closing conditions in the Merger Agreement are not waived. Finally, ProBank Austin has relied upon the advice FPB has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

ProBank Austin has relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of the information it reviewed for the purpose of rendering its opinion. ProBank Austin did not undertake any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of FPB or Peoples, nor was it furnished with any appraisals. ProBank Austin has not reviewed any individual credit files of FPB or Peoples, and has assumed that FPB's and Peoples' allowances are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover inherent credit losses. ProBank Austin's opinion is based on economic, market and other conditions existing on the date of its opinion. No limitations were imposed by the FPB Board or its management on ProBank Austin with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by ProBank Austin in rendering its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, ProBank Austin made the following assumptions:

all material governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger would be obtained without any adverse effect on FPB, Peoples or on the anticipated benefits of the Merger; and FPB and Peoples have provided all of the information that might be material to ProBank Austin in its review.

In connection with its opinion, ProBank Austin reviewed:

the Agreement dated October 29, 2018;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of FPB and Peoples that it deemed relevant;

the historical financial performance, current financial position, budgets and management forecasts, and general prospects of FPB, as discussed with executive management of FPB;

the estimated pro forma financial impact of the Merger to Peoples' financial metrics, based on assumptions (including without limitation the cost savings expected to be derived from the Merger and the transaction-related expenses expected in the Merger) prepared by ProBank Austin and reviewed with management of FPB, Peoples and its advisors;

publicly reported historical stock price and trading activity for Peoples' common stock, including an analysis of certain financial and stock information of certain other publicly traded companies deemed comparable to Peoples;

comparison of financial performance metrics between FPB's subsidiary bank, First Commonwealth Bank and banks deemed comparable to First Commonwealth Bank;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available, deemed comparable to the Merger;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations, financial, economic, and market criteria as it considered relevant.

ProBank Austin also discussed with certain members of senior management of FPB the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of FPB, including certain operating, regulatory and other financial matters.

ProBank Austin held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Peoples regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Peoples.

The following is a summary of the material factors considered and analyses performed by ProBank Austin in connection with its opinion dated October 29, 2018. The summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by ProBank Austin. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Merger Agreement.

Summary of Financial Terms of Merger Agreement. FPB has 80,362 shares of common stock outstanding. The financial terms of the Merger Agreement provide for each share of FPB common stock to be exchanged for 12.512 shares of Peoples common stock (the “Exchange Ratio”). In addition, each share of FPB common stock shall receive a special distribution of $140.30 per share in cash contingent upon and immediately prior to the closing of the Merger (the “special cash distribution”). Based on the volume weighted average price of Peoples Common Shares for the 20 trading days ending on October 26, 2018, the value of transaction is approximately $45.4 million, consisting of $34.125 million in stock and $11.275 million in cash.

The implied combined value of the merger consideration and special cash distribution of $45.4 million equals $564.94 per share, based on 80,362 shares of FPB outstanding common stock. The sum of the merger consideration and special cash distribution represents:

- 61 percent of FPB’s September 30, 2018 tangible equity of $28.2 million;
- 4.0 times FPB’s twelve-month period ending September 30, 2018 stated net income of $3.2 million; and
- 14.8 times FPB’s twelve-month period ending September 30, 2018 normalized net income of $3.1 million (normalized net income excludes security gains and is tax-adjusted).

(2) Peer and First Commonwealth Bank's performance was tax-adjusted for those institutions which are S-Corporations.

This comparison indicated that First Commonwealth Bank approximated the median of the peer group in terms of ROAA and ROAE and was below the median of the peer group in terms of PTPP earnings to average assets. First Commonwealth Bank's nonperforming asset levels were higher compared to the median of the peer group. First Commonwealth Bank's tangible equity to asset ratio was between the 25th percentile and median of the peer group. FPB Control-Level Valuation. In August 2018, ProBank Austin developed control-level indications of value for FPB using both an income approach and a market approach based on June 30, 2018 financial information. ProBank Austin's indications of value under the income approach ranged from $43.7 million to $45.6 million, while multiple indications of value were developed using the market approach, ranging from $39.8 million to $47.5 million. Based on its analysis, ProBank Austin advised FPB that a control-level valuation range of between $41 million and $45 million would be a reasonable expectation in the event the company solicited acquisition proposals from one or more third parties.

The median ROAA ratios of the selling banks in the Kentucky and Kentucky/West Virginia guideline transactions were 0.36 percent and 0.25 percent, respectively compared to 0.98 percent for FPB (normalized to exclude security gains and tax-adjusted). FPB's normalized ROAE of 9.38 percent was above both the Kentucky and Kentucky/West Virginia's 75th percentile of 6.63 percent and 3.23 percent, respectively. The nonperforming assets ("NPA") to asset ratio of FPB measured 0.90 percent and was more favorable than the 75th percentile of both the Kentucky and the Kentucky/West Virginia guideline peers of 1.20 percent and 1.03 percent, respectively. The indicated price to tangible book ratio being paid by Peoples for FPB of 161 percent approximates the 75th percentile of the Kentucky guideline peer and is above the 75th percentile of the Kentucky/West Virginia guideline peer of 144 percent. The implied price-to-normalized earnings multiple for the FPB transaction with Peoples of 14.8 times is lower than both the Kentucky 25th percentile of 21.1 times and the Kentucky/West Virginia 25th percentile of 24.7 times.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. ProBank Austin performed a pro forma merger analysis that considered the projected income statement, balance sheet impact and performance metrics of the Merger on Peoples. ProBank Austin's analysis was prepared on a basis reflecting consensus analyst earnings estimates for Peoples and the best currently available information and judgement of the management of FPB. Assumptions were made regarding the fair value accounting adjustments, cost savings, restructuring charges and other acquisition adjustments based on discussions with management of FPB and Peoples and their representatives. The pro forma merger analysis indicated the Merger would be dilutive to Peoples' tangible book value per share at closing and such dilution would be recovered within approximately 2.1 years. ProBank Austin also calculated the Merger would be accretive to Peoples' earnings per share (excluding nonrecurring transaction expenses) for the 12-month period following closing by approximately 4.0 percent and this accretion would increase going forward into the second year following closing based on cost savings becoming fully implemented. These results are comparable to those publicly disclosed by Peoples. The actual results achieved by Peoples following the Merger may vary from the projected results, and the variance may be material.

Pro Forma Equivalent Dividends to FPB. Based on the 12.512 Exchange Ratio and Peoples' current annual cash dividend rate of $1.20 per share, the pro forma equivalent cash dividend equals $15.01 for each current FPB common share.

ProBank Austin's Compensation and Other Relationships with FPB and Peoples. ProBank Austin acted exclusively for the FPB Board in rendering this opinion and has received a fee from FPB for the issuance of the ProBank Austin Opinion. FPB has also agreed to pay ProBank Austin customary fees for its services as exclusive financial advisor in connection with the Merger. A portion of the fee was payable upon execution of the Merger Agreement, and a significant portion is contingent upon completion of the transaction.

FPB agreed to reimburse ProBank Austin for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and to indemnify ProBank Austin against certain liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws. ProBank Austin has provided various consulting services to FPB in the past, including investment banking services. ProBank Austin has not provided services within the last two years and does not have any existing or pending engagements with Peoples.

Summary. Based on the preceding summary discussion and analysis, and subject to the qualifications described herein, ProBank Austin determined the merger consideration and special cash distribution to be fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FPB common stock.

The opinion expressed by ProBank Austin was based on market, economic and other relevant considerations as they existed and could be evaluated as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of issuance of the opinion, including, but not limited to, changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the financial condition of either FPB or Peoples, could materially affect the assumptions and underlying analyses supporting this opinion.

Regulatory Approvals Required

The Merger must receive approval from both ODFI and the Federal Reserve before the proposed Merger may be consummated. In addition, First Commonwealth Bank is required to seek approval from the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions in connection with the special cash distribution. The approval of any regulatory applications merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include review of the adequacy or fairness of the merger consideration to FPB shareholders. Furthermore, regulatory approvals do not constitute or imply any endorsement or recommendation of the Merger or the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Interests of FPB Directors and Officers in the Merger

As described below, certain of FPB's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of FPB shareholders generally. The FPB board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the Merger Agreement.

Employment and Severance Agreements

FPB or First Commonwealth Bank is party to employment or severance agreements with certain of its executive officers that provide for severance or change in control payments and the benefits described below.

Greg A. Wilson has an employment agreement with First Commonwealth Bank and Peoples has agreed to pay Mr. Wilson a lump sum change in control benefit equal to 2.99 times his annual base salary in order to fulfill its terms. In addition, Peoples and Mr. Wilson have agreed to terminate the employment agreement within 15 days of the consummation of the Closing and enter into a settlement agreement whereby Mr. Wilson will receive a lump sum severance payment of $253,671.42 in exchange for a one year non-compete.

Burl Wells Spurlock has a severance agreement with FPB. If Mr. Spurlock's employment is terminated any time in the first two years following a change in control, either voluntarily, due to a material change in duties, or involuntarily, other than for cause or due to death, disability or retirement, then he will be entitled to receive 2.99 times his base annual salary.

Compensation Arrangements Entered into in Connection with the Merger

In connection with the Merger, Peoples Bank anticipates entering into an employment agreement with Mr. Wilson. The principal terms of the employment agreement, will provide that Mr. Wilson's title with Peoples Bank will be senior vice president with an annual base salary of $200,000. Additionally, Mr. Wilson will receive an award of restricted Peoples common shares in an amount equal to $100,000 and a one-time bonus of $20,000 and be eligible to participate in Peoples' incentive plans. Under certain circumstances, upon Mr. Wilson's termination, he will be subject to non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions.

Retention Bonuses

FPB plans on offering retention bonuses to Phillip Elliot in the amount of $30,000 and Robert Allen in the amount of $20,000 prior to the consummation of the Merger. Should FPB desire to change such amounts, they may only do so in consultation with Peoples.

Severance Payments

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, subject to any regulatory restrictions, Peoples has agreed to pay to each employee, including officers, of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank who (i) is not subject to an existing contract providing for severance and/or a change in control payment, (ii) is an employee of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank immediately before the effective time of the Merger, (iii) has been an employee of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank for at least six months prior to the effective time of the Merger, and (iv) is not offered continued employment by Peoples or any of its subsidiaries in a similar position for at least six months after the effective time of the Merger, a severance amount equal to two weeks base pay multiplied by the number of whole years of service of such employee with FPB or First Commonwealth Bank, less applicable local, state and federal tax withholding; provided, however, that the minimum severance payment will equal four weeks of base pay, and the maximum severance payment will not exceed 26 weeks of base pay.

Further, for any employee of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank participating in FPB's or First Commonwealth Bank's group health program at the effective time of the Merger who is entitled to a severance payment, the employee will be able to purchase health insurance coverage for the employee and for any spouse or other dependent covered by FPB's or First Commonwealth Bank's group health program at the effective time of the Merger, at the full premium rate for the entire COBRA period.

Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance

For a period of six years following the effective time of the Merger and subject to compliance with applicable state and federal laws, Peoples will indemnify each person who served as a director or officer of FPB before the effective time of the Merger to the fullest extent provided by FPB's governing documents, from and against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that the person was an officer or director of FPB. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that, prior to the Merger, FPB will purchase up to six years of extended tail coverage available under its current directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

This section describes the intended, material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to Peoples, FPB, and U.S. holders of FPB common stock who exchange their common shares for Peoples common shares pursuant to the Merger. Peoples and FPB intend for the Merger to be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, and Peoples and FPB intend that each will be a “party to a reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. The closing of the Merger is conditioned upon the receipt by FPB of an opinion of Crowe LLP, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, substantially to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in that opinion (including factual representations contained in certificates of officers of Peoples and FPB), the Merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. This section summarizes the matters which are expected to be addressed in the tax opinion of Crowe LLP filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part.

Peoples and FPB have not requested and do not intend to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, and the tax opinion to be delivered in connection with the Merger is not binding on the IRS. Consequently, there is no assurance of the accuracy of the anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences to Peoples, FPB, and the U.S. holders of FPB common stock described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, existing final, temporary and proposed Treasury Department regulations promulgated thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. holder” is a beneficial owner of FPB common stock who, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is:

- a citizen or resident of the U.S.;
- a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any state or political subdivision thereof;
- a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the U.S. and (B) the authority of one or more U.S. persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Department regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or
- an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

Holders of FPB common stock that are not U.S. holders may have different tax consequences than those described above and are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment to them under U.S. and non-U.S. laws.

This discussion addresses only those holders of FPB common stock that hold their FPB common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code (generally, property held for investment), and does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of FPB common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of FPB common stock that are subject to special rules, such as:

- financial institutions;
- S corporations or other pass-through entities and investors in those entities;
- retirement plans or pension funds;
- insurance companies;
- tax-exempt organizations;
- dealers or brokers in stocks and securities, or foreign currencies;
- traders in securities that elect to use the mark-to-market method of accounting;
- regulated investment companies;
- real estate investment trusts;
- persons that exercise dissenters’ rights;

persons that hold FPB common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction; persons that purchase or sell their FPB common stock as part of a wash sale;

41

expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; persons that are not U.S. holders; and persons that acquired their FPB common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, this discussion does not address any U.S. federal estate or gift tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the Merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to a holder of FPB common stock may be complex. All holders of FPB common stock should consult with their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences of the Merger to them, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Reorganization Treatment

The Merger is intended to be a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, and Peoples and FPB are each intended to be a “party to the reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the intended reorganization treatment is respected by the IRS and the courts, then the material federal income tax consequences described below are anticipated.

Federal Income Tax Consequences to Peoples and FPB

No Gain or Loss. No gain or loss will be recognized by Peoples or FPB as a result of the Merger.

Tax Basis. The tax basis of the assets of FPB in the hands of Peoples will be the same as the tax basis of such assets in the hands of FPB immediately prior to the Merger.

Holding Period. The holding period of the assets of FPB to be received by Peoples will include the period during which such assets were held by FPB.

Tax Consequences to FPB Shareholders who Receive Only Peoples Common Shares

No gain or loss will be recognized by a U.S. holder of FPB common stock who receives solely Peoples common shares (except for cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below) in exchange for all of its FPB common stock. The tax basis of the Peoples common shares received by U.S. holders of FPB common stock in such exchange will be equal (except for the basis attributable to any fractional Peoples common shares, as discussed below) to the basis of FPB common stock surrendered in exchange for Peoples common shares. The holding period of the Peoples common shares received will include the holding period of FPB common stock surrendered in exchange for Peoples common shares, provided that such shares were held as capital assets of the FPB shareholder at the effective time of the Merger.

If a U.S. holder of FPB common stock acquired different blocks of FPB common stock at different times or at different prices, the tax basis and holding periods of Peoples common shares received in exchange for such blocks will be determined separately. U.S. holders of FPB common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding their bases and holding periods in the particular Peoples common shares received in the Merger.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

A U.S. holder of FPB common stock that receives cash in lieu of a fractional Peoples common share generally will be treated as having received such fractional share and then having received such cash in redemption of such fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the portion of the U.S. holder’s aggregate adjusted basis in the FPB common stock surrendered which is allocable to the fractional share. Subject to possible dividend treatment (as discussed in more detail under “Possible Dividend Treatment”, below), such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder’s holding period for its FPB shares exceeds one year at the effective time of the Merger.

Possible Dividend Treatment

In some cases, if a U.S. holder of FPB common stock actually or constructively owns Peoples common shares other than the Peoples common shares received pursuant to the Merger, the gain recognized by such holder could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each holder’s particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, U.S. holders of FPB common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Backup Withholding and Reporting Requirements

Under certain circumstances, cash payments made to a U.S. holder of FPB common stock pursuant to the Merger may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% of the cash payable to the holder, unless the holder furnishes its taxpayer identification number in the manner prescribed in applicable Treasury Department regulations, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. A U.S. holder of FPB common stock owning at least 1% (by vote or value) of the outstanding FPB common stock or having a basis of $1,000,000 or more in its FPB common stock, immediately before the Merger, is required to file a statement with such holder's U.S. federal income tax return setting forth such holder's tax basis in and the fair market value of shares of the FPB common stock exchanged by such holder pursuant to the Merger. In addition, all holders of FPB common stock will be required to retain records pertaining to the Merger.

The following discussion does not address the tax consequences associated with the special cash distribution of $140.30 per share to be paid by FPB to its shareholders immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger. See "MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE SPECIAL CASH DISTRIBUTION" below for a description of the tax consequences of the special cash distribution to FPB shareholders. The preceding discussion of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger is included in this proxy statement/prospectus for general information only, and is intended only as a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you.

Each FPB shareholder should consult with his, her or its own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences to the shareholder of the Merger, including the application and effect of state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Special Cash Distribution

The following discussion is a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the $140.30 per share special cash distribution to be paid to shareholders of FPB immediately prior to the closing of the Merger. The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, existing final, temporary and proposed Treasury Department regulations promulgated thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

This discussion neither binds nor precludes the Internal Revenue Service from adopting a position contrary to that expressed in this proxy statement/prospectus, and we cannot assure you that such a contrary position could not be asserted successfully by the Internal Revenue Service or adopted by a court if the positions were litigated. FPB does not intend to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or a written opinion from tax counsel with respect to the federal income tax consequences discussed below.

This discussion assumes that a FPB shareholder holds his or her common shares as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. This discussion is for general information only and does not address all aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to a FPB shareholder in light of his or her personal circumstances or if such shareholder is subject to certain rules, such as those relating to foreign persons, tax-exempt organizations, pass-through entities, taxpayers who own FPB common stock as part of a "straddle," "hedge" or "conversion transaction" or who have a "functional currency" other than United States dollars or individual persons who have received FPB common stock as compensation or otherwise in connection with the performance of services. Further, this discussion does not address non-income tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the special cash distribution.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the special cash distribution to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within Peoples' or FPB's control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the special cash distribution in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Special Cash Distribution Generally

Generally, distributions to shareholders from a corporation taxed under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code are not taxable to the extent of the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in his or her S corporation stock, with any distribution in excess of his or her adjusted tax basis being treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property. However, if an S corporation has C corporation earnings and profits from prior C corporation years, as FPB does, distributions by the S corporation to its shareholders may be taxable as dividends under certain limited circumstances.

Under the Internal Revenue Code, distributions made by an S corporation which has C corporation earnings and profits are divided into three tiers, with varying tax consequences. First, distributions are deemed to come from the S corporation's "accumulated adjustment account," which generally tracks the cumulative taxable income of the S corporation that can be distributed to shareholders as a reduction of their tax basis. Distributions deemed made from the accumulated adjustment account are not taxable to the extent of a shareholder's adjusted tax basis in his or her S corporation stock and any such distribution in excess of his or her adjusted tax basis is treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property. Second, the amount of any distribution in excess of the balance of the accumulated adjustment account up to the amount of the C corporation earnings and profits of the corporation is taxable as a dividend. Third, the amount of any distribution in excess of the accumulated adjustment account and C corporation earnings and profits is taxed in the same manner as the first tier of distributions, that is, such distributions are not taxable to the extent of a shareholder's remaining adjusted tax basis in his or her S corporation stock, with any distribution in excess of his or her adjusted tax basis treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property.

As of December 31, 2017, the accumulated adjustment account of FPB was approximately $8 million. The accumulated adjustment account generally increases by the amount of any income or gain of FPB prior to the closing of the merger and decreases by the amount of any distributions, losses, deductions or nondeductible expenses incurred by FPB, which would include shareholder distributions since January 1, 2018.

Under the Merger Agreement, FPB is permitted to make distributions to its shareholders under three circumstances. First, FPB is permitted to pay a special cash distribution in the amount of $140.30 per share, or approximately $11.275 million in the aggregate, prior to closing. Second, FPB may pay to its shareholders its normal and customary quarterly cash dividend in the amount of $5.00 per share for each full calendar quarter preceding the effective date of the Merger, except for the cash dividend for the quarter ended March 31, 2019, which shall be in the amount of $3.00 per share. Finally, FPB is entitled to continue to pay a cash dividend equal to 31% of FPB's estimated taxable income from the commencement of calendar quarter in which the Merger occurs through the effective date of the Merger so long as the dividend does not exceed $5.00.

To the extent that the distribution is under the first or third tier, and is further not taxable due to the shareholder's basis prior to the distribution exceeding the amount received, the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in his or her FPB common shares would decrease by the amount of the distributions paid and affect the amount of the shareholder's adjusted carryover tax basis in the Peoples common shares received in exchange for the FPB common shares in the Merger. See "MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER" above.

As described above, to the extent that any such distribution exceeds the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in his or her S corporation stock, that excess portion would be taxable for federal income tax purposes as a gain from the sale or exchange of property. That gain would be a capital gain and would be long-term if such shareholder has held his or her shares for more than one year at the time that the taxable distribution is made.

Net long-term capital gain is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 20% for taxpayers with taxable income that exceeds certain threshold amounts and at a maximum rate of 15% for taxpayers with taxable income below those threshold amounts. Net short-term capital gain is taxed at the holder's ordinary income tax rate. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the availability of the preferential tax rates in light of such holder's particular circumstances.

In the event that a shareholder is required to recognize gain to the extent that a distribution exceeds the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in his or her shares, the shareholder may also be subject to a 3.8% tax on net investment income. Generally, distributions made by corporations before a merger are disregarded in determining whether the merger is treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and are not treated as cash received in the merger (which could result in the recognition of gain by the shareholders as a result of the merger), unless the source of funds for such distributions can be traced to the acquiring entity. FPB intends to make the distributions described above out of its own funds and does not expect that such distributions would cause the Merger to fail to be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or that such distributions would be treated as cash received in the Merger, but there can be no assurances that the Internal Revenue Service or a court would not adopt a contrary position.

Backup Withholding and Reporting Requirements

A shareholder who receives payments treated as a dividend or who recognizes gain to the extent that a distribution exceeds his or her adjusted tax basis in the shares may also be subject to information reporting and backup withholding in the same manner as discussed above in “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER-Backup Withholding and Reporting Requirements.”

The preceding discussion of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger is included in this proxy statement/prospectus for general information only, and is intended only as a summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you.

Each FPB shareholder should consult with his, her or its own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences to the shareholder of the Merger, including the application and effect of state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of FPB will be recorded and assumed at estimated fair values at the time the Merger is consummated. The excess of the estimated fair value of Peoples common shares issued and the cash proceeds paid over the net fair values of the assets acquired, including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities assumed will be recorded as goodwill and will not be deductible for income tax purposes. Goodwill will be subject to an annual test for impairment and the amount impaired, if any, will be charged as an expense at the time of impairment.

Dissenters' Rights

Kentucky law provides certain rights to shareholders who dissent from certain corporate actions, including the proposed merger. Shareholders of FPB are entitled to certain dissenters' rights pursuant to Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA. Subtitle 13, generally provides that shareholders of FPB will not be entitled to such rights without strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Subtitle 13, and failure to take any one of the required steps may result in the termination or waiver of such rights. Specifically, any FPB shareholder who is a record holder of FPB common stock on January 7, 2019, the record date for the FPB special meeting, and whose shares are not voted in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement may be entitled to be paid the “fair cash value” of such FPB common stock after the effective time of the Merger.

Only a shareholder of record may assert dissenters' rights. A beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder (as in the case of shares held in a brokerage account) must direct the shareholder of record to assert dissenters' rights on behalf of the beneficial owner unless the right to dissent is granted to the beneficial owner by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

A shareholder of record may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one beneficial owner and notifies FPB in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he or she asserts dissenters' rights. A beneficial owner may assert dissenters' rights only if the beneficial owner submits to FPB the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial owner asserts dissenters' rights, and does so with respect to all shares of FPB common stock of which he or she is the beneficial owner or over which he or she has power to direct the vote.

To be entitled to such payment, a shareholder of record:

- must deliver to FPB a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares held by such shareholder before the vote on the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement proposal is taken at the FPB special meeting;
- must not vote in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement; and
- must otherwise comply with Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13.

An FPB shareholder's failure to vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's name and address, the number and class of shares held by him, her or it on the FPB record date, and the amount claimed as the “fair cash value” of such FPB common stock.

See the text of Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus for specific information on the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights. FPB is notifying each of the holders of record of its common shares as of January 7, 2019 that dissenters' rights are available and intends that this proxy statement/prospectus constitutes such notice.

Within 10 days after the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting, FPB will send a dissenters' notice to all shareholders who have timely provided a notice of intent to demand payment in accordance with the procedures described above. The dissenters' notice will state the dates and place for receipt of the payment demand and the deposit of FPB stock certificates, inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received, supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to the news media or shareholders of the terms of the proposed merger and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not he or she acquired beneficial ownership of his or her shares before that date, set a date by which FPB must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the dissenters' notice is delivered, and be accompanied by a copy of the dissenters' rights provisions of the KBCA.

If FPB so requests, dissenting shareholders must submit their stock certificates to FPB within 15 days of such request, for endorsement on such certificates by FPB that a demand for appraisal has been made. Failure to comply with such a request will terminate the shareholder's dissenters' rights. Any such certificates will be promptly returned to the dissenting shareholders by FPB. If FPB and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the "fair cash value" of FPB common stock, either may, within three months after service of demand by the shareholder, file a petition in the Common Pleas Court of Scioto County, Ohio, for a determination of the "fair cash value" of such dissenting shareholder's FPB common stock. The fair cash value of a share of FPB common stock to which a dissenting shareholder is entitled to under Section 271B.13 will be determined as of the day prior to the special meeting. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to determine the "fair cash value" and, if the court approves the appraisers' report, judgment will be entered for the "fair cash value," and the costs of the proceedings, including reasonable compensation of the appraisers, will be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable.

If an FPB shareholder exercises his or her dissenters' rights under Section 271B.13, all other rights with respect to such shareholder's FPB common stock will be suspended until FPB purchases the shares, or the right to receive the fair cash value is otherwise terminated. Such rights will be reinstated should the right to receive the fair cash value be terminated other than by the purchase of the shares.

The foregoing description of the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights available to holders of FPB common stock pursuant to Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA may not be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. Ensuring perfection of dissenters' rights can be complicated. The procedural rules are specific and must be followed precisely. An FPB shareholder's failure to comply with these procedural rules may result in his or her becoming ineligible to pursue dissenters' rights.

Resale of Peoples Common Shares

Peoples has registered its common shares to be issued in the Merger with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of Peoples common shares issued in the Merger will be imposed solely as a result of the Merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Peoples common shares issued to any FPB shareholder who may become an "affiliate" of Peoples for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term "affiliate" is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers and directors of Peoples, and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding Peoples common shares.

Employee Matters

Generally

The Merger Agreement provides that employees of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank who become employees of Peoples as a result of the Merger will, as determined by Peoples, participate in either FPB's or First Commonwealth Bank's employee benefit plans or, as soon as administratively practicable, in the employee benefit plans sponsored by Peoples for Peoples' employees. Such employees of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank will receive credit for their years of service with FPB or First Commonwealth Bank, as applicable, for participation and vesting purposes under the applicable Peoples employee benefit plans, to the extent such plans permit, including credit for years of service and for seniority under vacation and sick pay plans and programs, but subject to the eligibility and other terms of such plans. In addition, to the extent FPB or First Commonwealth Bank employees participate in Peoples' group health plan instead of continued participation in FPB's group health plan, Peoples will waive all restrictions and limitations for pre-existing conditions under Peoples' group health plan and applicable insurance policy to the extent that Peoples' group health plan and insurance policy permit such waiver. Furthermore, FPB shall, or shall cause First Commonwealth Bank, to pay to each FPB and First Commonwealth Bank employee all accrued and unused sick days (as defined under FPB's Compensation and Benefit Plans) on or before the effective time of the Merger.

Employee Severance

Subject to any regulatory restrictions, Peoples has agreed to pay to each employee of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank who (i) is not subject to an existing contract providing for severance and/or a change in control payment, (ii) is an employee of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank immediately before the effective time of the Merger, (iii) has been an employee of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank for at least six months prior to the effective time of the Merger, and (iv) is not offered continued employment in a similar position by Peoples or any of its subsidiaries for at least six months after the effective time of the Merger, a severance amount equal to two weeks base pay multiplied by the number of whole years of service of such employee with FPB or First Commonwealth Bank, less applicable local, state and federal tax withholding; provided, however, that the minimum severance payment will equal four weeks of base pay, and the maximum severance payment will not exceed 26 weeks of base pay; provided further, that the base pay for any hourly employee will be determined based on such employee's rate of pay at the effective time of the Merger and the average hours worked by such employee over the 12 months preceding the completion of the Merger, or such shorter period of time that such employee was employed by FPB or First Commonwealth Bank.

Further, Peoples has agreed to make available COBRA continuation coverage to COBRA Qualified Beneficiaries under FPB's or First Commonwealth Bank's group health plan so long as Peoples maintains said plan and thereafter, if necessary, under Peoples group health plan.

In exchange for the severance pay described above, terminated employees will be required to execute a final and binding general release in which such employee releases and waives any and all claims the employee may have against Peoples and its affiliates.

FPB's 401(k) Plan

FPB is required to terminate the 401(k) Plan effective as of a date immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger. In addition, as soon as feasible after the closing of the Merger, Peoples will take commercially reasonable steps to allow FPB or First Commonwealth Bank employees who continue as employees of Peoples or Peoples Bank to participate in the Peoples 401(k) Plan and to accept roll-overs of benefits from the FPB 401(k) Plan to the Peoples 401(k) Plan.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a description of the material terms of the Merger Agreement. A complete copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of FPB and Peoples. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from the standard of materiality generally applicable to statements made by a corporation to shareholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, or for any other purpose, at the time they were made or otherwise.

The Merger and Subsidiary Bank Merger

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, FPB will merge with and into Peoples, with Peoples surviving the Merger and continuing as an Ohio corporation and a registered financial holding company. Immediately following the Merger, Peoples will cause First Commonwealth Bank to be merged with and into Peoples Bank, with Peoples Bank surviving the subsidiary bank merger and continuing as an Ohio chartered commercial bank.

Effective Time

Peoples and FPB will cause the effective time of the Merger to occur as soon as practicable after the last of the conditions precedent set forth in the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived. Unless Peoples and FPB otherwise agree in writing, the effective time of the Merger will not be later than June 30, 2019. The Merger will become effective upon the latest to occur of (i) the filing of a certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State and the articles of merger with the Kentucky Secretary of State, or (ii) at a later time that Peoples and FPB agree to in writing and specify in the certificate of merger.

Peoples and FPB currently anticipate closing the Merger in the second quarter of 2019.

Merger Consideration

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger is completed, shareholders of FPB will be entitled to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each share of FPB common stock.

Peoples will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of FPB common stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a Peoples common share (after taking into account all shares of FPB common stock owned by such holder at the effective time of the Merger) will receive cash, without interest, in an amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent) equal to the product of (a) the fractional Peoples common share interest (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by (b) the volume weighted average closing price per share of Peoples common shares on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on and including the day immediately preceding the effective date of the Merger.

At the effective time of the Merger, FPB common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and cease to exist, and holders of FPB common stock will cease to be, and will have no rights as, shareholders of FPB, other than to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement (and dissenters' rights under Chapter 271B, Subtitle 13, of the KBCA in the case of FPB common stock as to which the holder has properly exercised dissenters' rights).

Surrender of Certificates

Peoples will engage Equiniti Trust Company (the "Exchange Agent") to act as its exchange agent to handle the exchange of FPB common stock for the Merger Consideration. Within five business days after the effective time, Peoples will instruct the Exchange Agent to send to each FPB shareholder a letter of transmittal for use in the exchange with instructions explaining how to surrender FPB common stock certificates to the Exchange Agent. FPB shareholders that surrender their certificates to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive the Merger Consideration.

Within ten days following receipt of a properly completed letter of transmittal, the Exchange Agent will cause new certificates representing Peoples common shares (in book-entry form) into which a shareholder's FPB common stock were converted in the Merger, and a check in respect of cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional share interests or dividends or distributions which such shareholder is entitled to receive, to be delivered to the shareholder. No interest will be paid on any cash to be paid in exchange for FPB common stock or in respect of any fractional share interests, dividends or distributions which any shareholder is entitled to receive under the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Until surrendered, each FPB stock certificate will be deemed after the effective time of the Merger to represent only the right (a) to receive any dividend or other distribution with respect to such FPB common stock with a record date occurring prior to the effective time of the Merger, (b) to receive 12.512 Peoples common shares for each share of FPB common stock they own at the effective time of the Merger, and (c) rights in the case of dissenting shares.

An FPB shareholder will not be entitled to receive payment of any dividends or distributions with respect to Peoples common shares with a record date occurring after the effective time of the Merger until the shareholder has followed the procedures described above for surrendering his or her FPB stock certificates. After a FPB shareholder has properly surrendered his or her FPB stock certificates in exchange for Peoples common shares, the shareholder will be entitled to receive any dividends or distributions on Peoples common shares with a record date occurring on or after the effective time of the Merger. No interest will be paid on any such dividends or distributions.

If any FPB stock certificate has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, the transmittal materials received from the Exchange Agent will explain the steps that the FPB shareholder must take.

Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance

For a period of six years following the effective time of the Merger and subject to compliance with applicable state and federal laws, Peoples will indemnify each person who served as a director or officer of FPB before the effective time of the Merger, to the fullest extent provided by FPB's governing documents, from and against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that the person was an officer or director of FPB. In addition, FPB will purchase six years of extended tail coverage available under its current directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

NASDAQ Stock Listing

Peoples common shares currently are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market® under the symbol "PEBO." The shares to be issued to FPB's shareholders as merger consideration also will be eligible for trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market®. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Peoples will cause the Peoples common shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market®.

• knowingly take or fail to take any action intended to materially delay Peoples ability to get receipt of the regulatory approvals and perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement; or • agree or commit to do any of the foregoing.

Expenses of the Merger

Peoples and FPB are each required to bear their own expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Termination by Mutual Consent. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Peoples and FPB may mutually consent to terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective, if the board of directors of each approves the termination by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors.

Termination by either Peoples or FPB. Either Peoples or FPB, acting alone, upon written notice to the other party may terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective, if the Peoples or FPB board of directors approves the termination by a vote of a majority of the members of its board of directors in the following circumstances:

• if there is a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement that cannot be or has not been cured within 30 calendar days of notice of the breach provided, however, that such breach would be reasonably likely, individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches, in the reasonable opinion of the non-breaching party, to result in a material adverse effect;

• in the event that the Merger has not been consummated by June 30, 2019, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that date is due to the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate;

• in the event that (i) regulatory approval has been denied, or (ii) FPB shareholders do not adopt and approve the Merger Agreement at the FPB special shareholder meeting; or

• if FPB desires to enter into a superior competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or if FPB's board changes its recommendation in favor of the Merger, in each case after payment to Peoples of the termination fee described below.

Termination by FPB. FPB, acting alone, may also terminate the Merger Agreement and abandon the Merger at any time before the Merger is effective upon written notice to Peoples:

• if, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the first day following the date on which all regulatory approvals necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received, which is referred to as the determination date, both of the following conditions are satisfied:

the average of the daily closing value of Peoples common shares as reported on the NASDAQ for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date, which is referred to as the Peoples market value, is less than (a) the average of the daily closing value of Peoples common shares on the NASDAQ during the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of execution of the Merger Agreement, which is referred to as the initial Peoples market value, multiplied by (b) 0.80; and the number obtained by (a) dividing the Peoples market value on the determination date by (b) the initial Peoples market value, is less than the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the average of the closing prices of the NASDAQ Bank Index for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date by (y) the closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the last trading day immediately preceding the date of the first public announcement of entry into the merger agreement, which is known as the index ratio, and subtracting 0.20 from the quotient.

If the FPB board of directors exercises the termination right described immediately above, Peoples will have the option to increase the exchange ratio to equal a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the initial market value, the exchange ratio, and the index ratio minus 0.20, and the denominator of which is equal to the Peoples market value on the determination date. If Peoples elects to increase the exchange ratio pursuant to the preceding sentence, no termination will occur.

In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Merger abandoned, Peoples and FPB will have no liability or further obligation to the other party, except for continued compliance with certain surviving covenants and agreements identified in the Merger Agreement. In addition, the termination of the Merger Agreement will not relieve a breaching party from liability for any willful breach of the Merger Agreement giving rise to such termination.

Voting Agreements

Under the Merger Agreement, the directors who own FPB common stock, Elizabeth Lambert, vice president of FPB, and Burl Wells Spurlock II, executed a voting agreement pursuant to which they agreed to vote such FPB common stock owned by them in favor of the Merger. The parties to the voting agreement collectively own 29,549 shares of FPB common stock.

Acquisition Proposals and Termination Fee

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, FPB and First Commonwealth Bank must not, and must cause their officers, directors, employees and other agents not to, directly or indirectly, continue or otherwise maintain, initiate, solicit or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action to facilitate, any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or reasonably may be expected to lead to, any competing proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), or enter into or maintain discussions or negotiate with any third party in furtherance of or relating to such inquiries or to obtain a competing proposal, or agree to or endorse any competing proposal, or authorize or permit any representative of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank to take any such action, and FPB shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Representatives of FPB not to take any such action, and FPB shall promptly notify Peoples if any such inquiries or proposals are made regarding a competing proposal, and FPB shall keep Peoples informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposals; provided, however, that prior to FPB shareholder adoption, nothing in the Merger Agreement shall prohibit FPB from, in connection with a superior competing transaction, furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any third party that makes an unsolicited bona fide proposal to acquire FPB and/or First Commonwealth Bank pursuant to a merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction if, and only to the extent that, (A) the FPB Board, after consultation with and based upon the advice of independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that such action is reasonably required for the FPB board to comply with its fiduciary duties to shareholders imposed by applicable law, (B) prior to furnishing such information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such third party, FPB provides written notice to Peoples to the effect that it is furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such third party, (C) prior to furnishing such information to such third party, FPB receives from such third party an executed confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to FPB than those governing confidentiality between Peoples and FPB, and (D) FPB keeps Peoples informed, on a current basis, of the status and details of any such discussions or negotiations.

In the event that FPB or First Commonwealth Bank determines in good faith to pursue a superior competing transaction and terminate the Merger Agreement in order to fulfill its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of FPB under applicable law, FPB must, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement, pay to Peoples the sum of $1,800,000.

Amendment

The Merger Agreement may be amended or modified at any time prior to the effective time of the Merger by an agreement in writing signed by Peoples and FPB, except that the Merger Agreement may not be amended after the FPB special meeting if such amendment would void adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by FPB's shareholders under Ohio law.

COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF FPB AND PEOPLES SHAREHOLDERS

Peoples is incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio and, accordingly, the rights of its shareholders are governed by Ohio law and its Amended Articles of Incorporation and Regulations, as amended. FPB is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and, accordingly, the rights of its shareholders are governed by Kentucky law and its Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws, as amended. Those shareholders of FPB that do not exercise dissenters' rights will receive Peoples common shares in the Merger and, therefore, will become shareholders of Peoples. Although the rights of the holders of Peoples common shares and those of the holders of FPB common stock are similar in many respects, there are some differences. These differences relate to differences between provisions of Peoples' Amended Articles of Incorporation and FPB's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and differences between provisions of the Regulations of Peoples and the Bylaws of FPB.

The following chart compares certain rights of the holders of FPB common stock to the rights of holders of Peoples common shares in areas where those rights are materially different. This summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of such differences and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the relevant provisions of Ohio law and the respective corporate governance instruments of FPB and Peoples.

At the Effective Time:

(i) The Peoples Articles, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until amended in accordance with the OGCL;

(ii) The Peoples Regulations, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the regulations of the Surviving Corporation until amended in accordance with the OGCL; and

(iii) Each individual serving as a director of Peoples immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain a director of the Surviving Corporation for the balance of the term for which such individual was elected and shall serve as such until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified in the manner provided for in the Peoples Articles and the Peoples Regulations or as otherwise provided by the OGCL or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal in the manner provided in the Peoples Articles or the Peoples Regulations or as otherwise provided by the OGCL.

(b) Option to Change Method of Merger. Peoples may at any time prior to the Effective Time change the method of effecting the Parent Merger and/or the Subsidiary Merger (including, without limitation, changing the provisions of this Article II), if and to the extent Peoples deems such change to be necessary, appropriate or desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall:

- (ii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;
- (iii) materially adversely affect the Tax consequences to the holders of FPB Common Stock as a whole resulting from receiving the consideration in the Merger as set forth in Article III, including by causing the Merger to fail to qualify as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code; or
- (iv) otherwise materially adversely affect the holders of FPB Common Stock as a whole.

Subject to the foregoing, FPB, if reasonably requested by Peoples, shall enter into one or more amendments to this Agreement in order to effect any such change.

2.02 The Subsidiary Merger. At the time specified by Peoples Bank in its certificate of merger filed with the OSS (which shall not be earlier than after the Effective Time), First Commonwealth Bank shall merge with and into Peoples Bank (the “Subsidiary Merger”) pursuant to an agreement to merge (the “Agreement to Merge”) to be agreed upon and executed by First Commonwealth Bank and Peoples Bank. Upon the consummation of the Subsidiary Merger, the separate corporate existence of First Commonwealth Bank shall cease and Peoples Bank shall survive the Subsidiary Merger and continue to exist as an Ohio banking corporation and the separate corporate existence of First Commonwealth Bank shall cease. ARTICLE III

Merger Consideration.

3.01 Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Parent Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof:

(a) Conversion of FPB Common Stock. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and in accordance with the OGCL and the KBCA, each share of FPB Common Stock issued and outstanding at the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive a number of Peoples Common Shares equal to the Exchange Ratio (the “Per Share Consideration”). The aggregate Per Share Consideration paid by Peoples to all stockholders of FPB, including any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 3.03(d), is sometimes referred to collectively herein as the “Merger Consideration.”

(b) Adjustments to the Merger Consideration.

(i) If the number of shares of FPB Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time exceeds the number of shares of FPB Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration will not be adjusted as a result of such excess, though appropriate adjustments will be made to the Exchange Ratio and the FPB Special Distribution.

(ii) If Peoples changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of Peoples Common Shares issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time by way of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, acquisition or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Peoples Common Shares, and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted so the shareholders of FPB at the Effective Time shall receive Merger Consideration that produces in all respects the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such action.

(c) Treasury Shares. All Treasury Shares shall be canceled and retired at the Effective Time and no consideration shall be issued in exchange therefor.

(d) Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of FPB Common Stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and with respect to which the shareholders thereof have given notice of their intention to assert the right to dissent in accordance with Section 271B.13-210 of the KBCA and which shareholders have not voted in favor of the Parent Merger and otherwise complied with the provisions of Subtitle 13 of the KBCA to become a “dissenter” as defined therein (collectively, the “Dissenting Shares”) shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Such shareholders instead shall be entitled to receive payment of the fair value of such shares held by them in accordance with Subtitle 13 of the KBCA, except that all Dissenting Shares held by shareholders who shall have failed to perfect or who effectively shall have withdrawn or otherwise lost their rights as dissenting shareholders under the KBCA shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into and to have become exchangeable, as of the Effective Time, for the right to receive, without any interest thereon, the Merger Consideration. FPB shall give Peoples (i) prompt notice of any written demands for payment of fair value of any shares of FPB Common Stock, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the KBCA and received by FPB relating to shareholders’ dissenters’ rights and (ii) the opportunity to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands under the KBCA consistent with the obligations of FPB thereunder. FPB shall not, except with the prior written consent of Peoples, (A) make any payment with respect to such demand, (B) offer to settle or settle any demand for payment of fair value or (C) waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for payment of fair value or timely take any other action to perfect payment of fair value rights in accordance with the KBCA.

3.02 Rights as Shareholders; Share Transfers. At the Effective Time, holders of FPB Common Stock shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, shareholders of FPB, other than (a) to receive any dividend or other distribution with respect to such FPB Common Stock with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time, (b) to receive the Merger Consideration, or (c) appraisal rights in the case of Dissenting Shares. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of FPB or the Surviving Corporation of any FPB Common Stock.

3.03 Exchange and Payment Procedures.

(a) Exchange Agent. Equiniti Trust Company will act as agent (the “Exchange Agent”) for purposes of conducting the exchange and payment procedures as described in this Section 3.03.

(b) Exchange Fund. At or prior to the Effective Time, Peoples shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of Old Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this Article III, (i) certificates representing Peoples Common Shares (subject to Section 3.03(i)) and (ii) cash in an aggregate amount sufficient to make appropriate payment of (A) cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 3.03(d), and (B) any dividends or distributions on account of Peoples Common Shares (the “Peoples Dividend”) to be exchanged for FPB Common Stock with a record date occurring on or after the Effective Time, and without any interest on any such cash, dividends or distributions (such cash being hereinafter referred to as the “Exchange Fund”) to be paid pursuant to this Article III in exchange for outstanding FPB Common Stock. Promptly after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall distribute Peoples Common Shares and make payment of the Exchange Fund as provided herein. The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the Peoples Common Shares held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold in trust for the recipients of the Peoples Common Shares until distributed thereto pursuant to the provision of this Agreement all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such Peoples Common Shares for the account of the persons entitled thereto.

(c) Exchange Procedures.

(i) Within five business days after the Effective Time, Peoples shall instruct the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of an outstanding certificate or certificates which, as of the Effective Time, represented FPB Common Stock (other than Treasury Shares and Dissenting Shares) (“Old Certificates”) or uncertificated shares (i) a letter of transmittal which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the shares of Old Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Old Certificates, if applicable, or upon delivery of the letter of transmittal in the case of uncertificated shares, to the Exchange Agent, and which shall be in customary form as directed by Peoples and reasonably acceptable to FPB, and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Old Certificates, if applicable, or the letter of transmittal in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon the proper surrender of the Old Certificates, if applicable, and a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal to the Exchange Agent, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by Peoples or the Exchange Agent, the holders of such Old Certificates or uncertificated shares shall be entitled to receive the number of whole shares of Peoples Common Shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 3.01(a) and a check in the amount equal to the cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 3.03, and any Peoples Dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.02. Old Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. Within ten days following receipt of the properly completed letter of transmittal and any necessary accompanying documentation, the Exchange Agent shall distribute Peoples Common Shares and cash as provided herein. If there is a transfer of ownership of any shares of FPB Common Stock not registered in the transfer records of FPB, the Merger Consideration shall be issued to the transferee thereof if the Old Certificates representing such FPB Common Stock are presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required, in the reasonable judgment of Peoples and the Exchange Agent, to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer Taxes have been paid.

- (ii) No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Peoples Common Shares issued pursuant to this Agreement shall be remitted to any person entitled to receive shares of Peoples Common Shares hereunder until such Person surrenders his, her or its Old Certificates, if applicable, and the letter of transmittal in accordance with this Section 3.03. Upon the surrender of such Person's Old Certificates, if applicable, and the letter of transmittal, such Person shall be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions, without interest thereon, which subsequent to the Effective Time had become payable but not paid with respect to shares of Peoples Common Shares represented by such Person's Old Certificates or uncertificated shares.
- (d) No Fractional Peoples Common Shares.
- (i) No certificates or scrip representing fractional Peoples Common Shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Old Certificates, and such fractional Peoples Common Share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of the Surviving Corporation.
- (ii) Each holder of FPB Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional Peoples Common Share shall receive from the Exchange Agent an amount of cash, without interest, in an amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent) equal to the product of (a) the fractional Peoples Common Share interest (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) to which such holder (after taking into account all shares of FPB Common Stock exchanged by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by (b) the volume weighted average closing price per share of Peoples Common Shares on the NASDAQ Capital Market® for the twenty consecutive trading days ending on and including the day immediately preceding the Effective Date.
- (e) Release of Exchange Fund. Peoples may request that any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of FPB for six months after the Effective Time be returned to Peoples and any shareholders of FPB who have not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to Peoples for payment of the Merger Consideration.
- (f) No Liability. None of Peoples, FPB, the Exchange Agent or the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any former holder of FPB Common Stock for any payment of the Per Share Consideration, any cash in lieu of a fractional Peoples Common Share interest, or any dividends or distributions with respect to Peoples Common Shares delivered to a public official if required by any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.
- (g) Lost Certificates. If any Old Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Old Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Exchange Agent and, if reasonably required by Peoples, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as Peoples or the Exchange Agent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Old Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration and any Peoples Dividends owing on Peoples Common Shares payable in respect of the shares of FPB Common Stock represented by such Old Certificate.

(h) Withholding Rights. Peoples or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of FPB Common Stock such amounts as Peoples or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any Tax Laws. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Peoples or the Exchange Agent, such deducted and withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the FPB Common Stock.

(i) Book Entry. All shares of Peoples Common Shares to be issued pursuant to this Agreement may be issued in book entry form without physical certificates in Peoples' discretion.

(j) Waiver. The Surviving Corporation may from time to time, in the case of one or more Persons, waive one or more of the rights provided to it in this Article III to withhold certain payments, deliveries and distributions; and no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of its rights to withhold any such payment, delivery or distribution in the case of any Person.

Either (i) the results of each Phase I as reported shall be reasonably satisfactory to Peoples or (ii) any violation or potential violation of the representations and warranties contained in Section 5.03(p) disclosed in any Phase I report shall have been remedied by FPB or its Subsidiaries to the reasonable satisfaction of Peoples.

(g) D&O Policy. FPB shall have procured the D&O Policy in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of Section 6.18(b).

(ii) FPB shall use its commercially best efforts to have delivered to Peoples an estoppel certificate from the applicable counterparty, in such form as is reasonably acceptable to Peoples for the lease agreements in which FPB or its Subsidiaries is the lessor and the subject property is located at 311 North Arnold Avenue, Prestonsburg, Kentucky and the lessee is (A) the Commonwealth of Kentucky and (B) the United States of America. FPB shall deliver to Peoples an estoppel certificate from the applicable counterparty, in such form as is reasonably acceptable to Peoples, for each other lease agreement set forth in FPB's Disclosure Schedule in which FPB or its Subsidiaries is the lessor.

ARTICLE VIII

Termination

8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Merger may be abandoned:

(a) At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the mutual written consent of Peoples and FPB, if the board of directors of each so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its board.

(b) At any time prior to the Effective Time, by Peoples or FPB upon written notice to the other party, if its board of directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its board, in the event of either (i) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained herein (subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.02), which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 calendar days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach; or (ii) a breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements contained herein, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 calendar days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach; provided, however, that such breach (whether under subsection (i) or (ii)) would be reasonably likely, individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches, in the reasonable opinion of the non-breaching party, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) At any time prior to the Effective Time, by Peoples or FPB upon written notice to the other party, if its board of directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its board, in the event that the Parent Merger is not consummated by June 30, 2019, except to the extent that the failure of the Parent Merger to be consummated arises out of or results from the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c).

(d) By Peoples or FPB upon written notice to the other party, if its board of directors so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its board, in the event (i) the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied, (ii) the FPB shareholders fail to adopt this Agreement and approve the Merger at the FPB Meeting or (iii) Peoples or FPB has been advised that the SEC will not declare the Registration Statement to be effective.

(e) By either Peoples or FPB, if FPB has complied with Section 6.06, and FPB has given written notice to Peoples that FPB desires to enter into a Superior Competing Transaction subject to termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, or that the FPB Board has determined to change its recommendation in favor of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that such termination under this Section 8.01(e) shall not be effective unless and until FPB shall have complied with breakup fee provisions of Section 9.05, but shall be effective immediately upon compliance therewith.

(f) By written notice of FPB to Peoples if, and only if, both of the following conditions are satisfied at any time during the five-day period commencing on the Determination Date, such termination to be effective on the tenth day following the Determination Date:

(i) the Peoples Market Value on the Determination Date is less than the Peoples Market Price multiplied by 0.80; and

(ii) the number obtained by dividing the Peoples Market Value on the Determination Date by the Peoples Market Price shall be less than the Index Ratio minus 0.20;

Subject, however, to the following three sentences: If FPB elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 8.01(f), it shall give prompt written notice thereof to Peoples. During the five business day period commencing with Peoples receipt of such notice, Peoples shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio to equal a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Peoples Market Price, the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and the Index Ratio minus 0.20 and the denominator of which is equal to the Peoples Market Value on the Determination Date. If within such five business day period, Peoples delivers written notice to FPB that it intends to proceed with the Parent Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, and notifies FPB of the revised Exchange Ratio, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 8.01(f), and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified).

For purposes of this Section 8.01(f), the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

“Determination Date” shall mean any date following the first date on which all regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) and prior to the Effective Date.

“Final Index Price” means the average of the daily closing value of the Index for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

“Index” means the NASDAQ Bank Index or, if such Index is not available, such substitute or similar index as substantially replicates the NASDAQ Bank Index.

“Index Ratio” means the Final Index Price divided by the Initial Index Price.

“Initial Index Price” means $3,575.26, the closing value of the Index on October 26, 2018.

“Peoples Market Value” means, as of any specified date, the average of the volume weighted daily closing sales prices of a share of Peoples Common Shares as reported on The NASDAQ Global Select Market® for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date.

8.02 Effect of Termination and Abandonment. In the event of termination of this Agreement and the abandonment of the Merger pursuant to this Article VIII, none of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties herein shall survive such termination, and no party to this Agreement shall have any liability or further obligation to any other party hereunder except (i) as set forth in Sections 6.16, 9.01 and 9.05 and (ii) that termination will not relieve a breaching party from liability for any willful breach of this Agreement giving rise to such termination.

ARTICLE IX

Miscellaneous

9.01 Survival. None of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time, except for those covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement which by their terms apply in whole or in part after the Effective Time, including but not limited to Section 6.10, Section 6.18 and Article IX.

9.02 Waiver; Amendment. Prior to the Effective Time, any provision of this Agreement may be (i) waived by the party benefited by the provision or (ii) amended or modified at any time, by an agreement in writing between the parties hereto executed in the same manner as this Agreement; provided, however, that after the FPB Meeting, this Agreement may not be amended if it would void the approval of this Agreement under the KBCA.

9.03 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered, shall constitute an original, but all of which together shall constitute but one instrument. Signatures transmitted by facsimile or electronic transmission (such as an email of a .pdf or scanned signature) shall have the same effect as original signatures.

9.04 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the State of Ohio applicable to contracts made and to be performed entirely within the State of Ohio.

9.05 Expenses; Breakup Fee. Each party hereto will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.01(e), FPB shall pay Peoples a breakup fee of $1,800,000. In the event that FPB owes the breakup fee to Peoples pursuant to this Section 9.05, then the payment of such amount shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for those termination events, and shall constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty and neither Peoples nor any of its Subsidiaries will have any other rights or claims against FPB or First Commonwealth Bank, or their respective affiliates, officers, directors, agents, representatives, advisors, attorneys and financial advisors under this Agreement as such rights or claims relate to those termination events.

EXHIBIT A

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

THIS VOTING AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into as of October 29, 2018, by and among Peoples Bancorp Inc., a financial holding company incorporated under Ohio law (“Peoples”), First Prestonsburg Bancshares Inc., a bank holding company incorporated under Kentucky law (“FPB”), and the undersigned shareholders of FPB, each in their individual capacity (collectively, the “Shareholders”).

WHEREAS, the Shareholders collectively own 29,549 shares of common stock, no par value, of FPB (such common stock, together with all shares of FPB stock which may hereafter be acquired by the Shareholders prior to the termination of this Agreement, shall be referred to herein as the “Shares”);

WHEREAS, Peoples and FPB propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the “Merger Agreement”), which provides, among other things, that FPB will merge with and into Peoples pursuant to the Parent Merger (this and other capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Merger Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Peoples and FPB have made it a condition to their entering into the Merger Agreement that the Shareholders agree to support the Merger Agreement and vote the Shares in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

Voting of Shares

1.1 Voting Agreement. The Shareholders, individually and not jointly, hereby agree that, during the time this Agreement is in effect, at any meeting of the shareholders of FPB, however called, and in any action by consent of the shareholders of FPB, they shall vote their Shares (i) in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement (as amended from time to time) and (ii) against any proposal for any recapitalization, merger, sale of assets or other business combination between FPB or any of its Subsidiaries and any person or entity other than Peoples or any of its Subsidiaries, or any other action or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of FPB under the Merger Agreement or that would result in any of the conditions to the obligations of FPB under the Merger Agreement not being fulfilled. Shareholder makes no agreement or understanding in this Agreement in Shareholder’s capacity as a director or officer of FPB or First Commonwealth Bank (if Shareholder holds such office) and nothing in this Agreement: (a) will limit or affect any actions or omissions taken by Shareholder in Shareholder’s capacity as such a director or officer, including in exercising rights under the Merger Agreement, and no such actions or omissions shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement; or (b) will be construed to prohibit, limit or restrict Shareholder from exercising Shareholder’s fiduciary duties as a director or officer to FPB, First Commonwealth Bank or their respective shareholders.

ARTICLE 2

Representations and Warranties

Each of the Shareholders, individually and not jointly, hereby represents and warrants to Peoples as follows:

2.1 Authority Relative to this Agreement. Such Shareholder has all necessary power and authority or capacity, as the case may be, to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform his, her or its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Shareholder and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Shareholder, enforceable against such Shareholder in accordance with its terms.

2.2 No Conflict.

(a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Shareholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by him, her or it will not, (i) conflict with or violate any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree applicable to him, her or it or by which the Shares are bound or (ii) result in any breach of or constitute a default (or event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or encumbrance on any of the Shares held by him, her or it pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which such Shareholder is a party or by which such Shareholder or any Shares held by him, her or it are bound, except for any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults or other occurrences which would not prevent or delay the performance by such Shareholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Shareholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by him, her or it will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any federal, state, local or foreign regulatory body.

2.3 Title to the Shares. Each of the Shareholder is the owner of the number and class of Shares as specified on Annex I hereto, free and clear of all security interests, liens, claims, pledges, options, rights of first refusal, agreements, limitations on voting rights, charges and other encumbrances of any nature whatsoever except as otherwise specified on Annex I. No Shareholder has appointed or granted any proxy, which appointment or grant is still effective, with respect to the Shares. Each Shareholder has sole voting power with respect to his, her or its Shares except as otherwise specified on Annex I.

Additional Covenants

3.1 Transfer of the Shares. Each of the Shareholders hereby covenants and agrees that, during the term of this Agreement, the Shareholder will not, without the prior written consent of Peoples, sell, pledge, transfer, or otherwise voluntarily dispose of any of the Shares which are owned by the Shareholder or take any other voluntary action which would have the effect of removing the Shareholder's power to vote his, her or its Shares or which would otherwise be inconsistent with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4

Miscellaneous

4.1 Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect on the earlier to occur of (i) the date of consummation of the Merger or (ii) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement for any reason.

4.2 Specific Performance. The Shareholders agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that Peoples shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or in equity.

4.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof.

4.4 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by all the parties hereto.

4.5 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

4.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio.

4.7 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed and delivered electronically and in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

4.8 Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned by operation of law or otherwise.

4.9 Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

4.10 Transfers, Successors and Assigns.

(a) The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective successors and assigns of the parties. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto or their respective successors and assigns any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

(b) Each transferee or assignee of the Shares subject to this Agreement shall continue to be subject to the terms hereof and, as a condition to the recognition of such transfer, each transferee or assignee shall agree in writing to be subject to each of the terms of this Agreement by executing and delivering an Adoption Agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. Upon the execution and delivery of an Adoption Agreement by any transferee, such transferee shall be deemed to be a party hereto as if such transferee's signature appeared on the signature page of this Agreement. By execution of this Agreement or any Adoption Agreement, each of the parties appoints FPB as its attorney in fact for the purpose of executing any Adoption Agreement that may be required to be delivered under the terms of this Agreement. FPB shall not permit the transfer of Shares subject to this Agreement on its books or issue a new certificate representing any such Shares unless and until such transferee shall have complied with the terms of this Section 4.10. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto or their respective executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

 1. If shareholder approval is required for the merger by KRS 271B.11-030 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or
 2. If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under KRS 271B.11-040;

(d) Consummation of a plan of conversion of the corporation into a limited liability company or statutory trust;
(e) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

2. Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;
3. Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or
4. Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share, if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under KRS 271B.6-040;

(f) Any transaction subject to the requirements of KRS 271B.12-210 or exempted by KRS 271B.12-220(2); or

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his shares under this chapter shall not challenge the corporate action creating his entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

271B.13-030. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he shall dissent with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one (1) person and notify the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection shall be determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

(a) He submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(b) He does so with respect to all shares of which he is the beneficial shareholder or over which he has power to direct the vote.

Procedure for Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

271B.13-200. Notice of dissenters' rights.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under KRS 271B.13-020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this subtitle and the corporation shall undertake to provide a copy of this subtitle to any shareholder entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting upon request of that shareholder.

(2) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under KRS 271B.13-020 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in KRS 271B.13-220.

271B.13-210. Notice of intent to demand payment.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under KRS 271B.13-020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a) Shall deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) Shall not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not be entitled to payment for his shares under this chapter.

271B.13-220. Dissenters' notice.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under KRS 271B.13-020 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of KRS 271B.13-210.

(2) The dissenters' notice shall be sent no later than ten (10) days after the date the proposed corporate action was authorized by the shareholders, or, if no shareholder authorization was obtained, by the board of directors, and shall:

(a) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(b) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

(c) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(d) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than thirty (30), nor more than sixty (60) days after the date the notice provided in subsection (1) of this section is delivered; and

(e) Be accompanied by a copy of this subtitle.

271B.13-230. Duty to demand payment.

(1) A shareholder who is sent a dissenters' notice described in KRS 271B.13-220 shall demand payment, certify whether he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of KRS 271B.13-220, and deposit his certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(2) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits his share certificates under subsection (1) of this section shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, shall not be entitled to payment for his shares under this subtitle.

271B.13-240. Share restrictions.

(1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under KRS 271B.13-260.

(2) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

271B.13-250. Payment.

(1) Except as provided in KRS 271B.13-270, as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken, or upon receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with KRS 271B.13-230 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of his shares, plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment shall be accompanied by:

(a) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(b) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(c) An explanation of how the interest was calculated; and

(d) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under KRS 271B.13-280.

271B.13-260. Failure to take action.

(1) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it shall send a new dissenters' notice under KRS 271B.13-220 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

271B.13-270. After-acquired shares.

(1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by KRS 271B.13-250 from a dissenter unless he was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of his demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under KRS 271B.13-280.

271B.13-280. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(1) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of his estimate (less any payment under KRS 271B.13-250), or reject the corporation's offer under KRS 271B.13-270 and demand payment of the fair value of his shares and interest due, if:

(a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under KRS 271B.13-250 or offered under KRS 271B.13-270 is less than the fair value of his shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(b) The corporation fails to make payment under KRS 271B.13-250 within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment; or

- (c) The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment.
- (2) A dissenter waives his right to demand payment under this section unless he shall notify the corporation of his demand in writing under subsection (1) of this section within thirty (30) days after the corporation made or offered payment for his shares.

Judicial Appraisal of Shares

271B.13-300. Court action.

(1) If a demand for payment under KRS 271B.13-280 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty (60) days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty (60) day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the Circuit Court of the county where a corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this state) whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties shall be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section shall be plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one (1) or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters shall be entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding shall be entitled to judgment:

(a) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(b) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of his after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under KRS 271B.13-270.

271B.13-310. Court costs and counsel fees.

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under KRS 271B.13-300 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under KRS 271B.13-280.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters, if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of KRS 271B.13-200 to 271B.13-280; or

(b) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this subtitle.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

ProBank Austin held similar discussions with senior management of Peoples regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Peoples.

Management of FPB and Peoples, respectively, have represented there has been no material adverse change in their respective company's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that FPB and Peoples will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement, and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived. Finally, ProBank Austin expresses no view or opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated by the Agreement or any terms or other aspects of the Agreement, the Merger or any such other transactions.

ProBank Austin's opinion was given in reliance on information and representations made or given by FPB and Peoples, and their respective officers, directors, auditors, counsel and other agents, and on filings, releases and other information issued by each of FPB and Peoples, including, without limitation, financial statements, financial projections, and stock price data as well as certain other information from recognized independent sources. ProBank Austin assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and data, and did not independently verify any of such information or data for purposes of its opinion. ProBank Austin does not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness of such information or data provided by FPB, Peoples or third party independent source.

As part of the due diligence process, ProBank Austin made no independent verification as to the status and value of FPB's or Peoples' assets, including the value of the loan portfolio and allowance for loan and lease losses, and have instead relied upon representations and information concerning the value of assets and the adequacy of reserves of both companies in the aggregate. In addition, we have assumed in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the transaction, no condition will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the transaction to FPB and its shareholders.

ProBank Austin's opinion does not address the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of FPB's officers, directors or employees, or any class of persons, relative to any compensation to the holders of FPB common stock or relative to the Merger Consideration. This opinion has been approved by the fairness opinion committee of ProBank Austin.

Based upon our analysis and subject to the qualifications described herein, we believe that as of the date of this letter, the Merger Consideration and FPB Special Distribution are fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FPB common stock.

Respectfully,

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a) Ohio General Corporation Law

Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code grants corporations broad powers to indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents. Section 1701.13(E) provides:

(E)(1) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if the person had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(2) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any of the following:

(a) Any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court shall deem proper;

(b) Any action or suit in which the only liability asserted against a director is pursuant to Section 1701.95 of the Revised Code.

(3) To the extent that a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in the action, suit, or proceeding, the person shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding.

(4) Any indemnification under division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section. Such determination shall be made as follows:

(a) By a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the indemnifying corporation who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section;

(b) If the quorum described in division (E)(4)(a) of this section is not obtainable or if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation or any person to be indemnified within the past five years;

(c) By the shareholders;

(d) By the court of common pleas or the court in which the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section was brought.

Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (E)(4)(a) or by independent legal counsel under division (E)(4)(b) of this section shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought the action or suit by or in the right of the corporation under division (E)(2) of this section, and, within ten days after receipt of that notification, the person shall have the right to petition the court of common pleas or the court in which the action or suit was brought to review the reasonableness of that determination.

(5)(a) Unless at the time of a director's act or omission that is the subject of an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, the articles or the regulations of a corporation state, by specific reference to this division, that the provisions of this division do not apply to the corporation and unless the only liability asserted against a director in an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section is pursuant to section 1701.95 of the Revised Code, expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director in defending the action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director in which the director agrees to do both of the following:

(i) Repay such amount if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation;

(ii) Reasonably cooperate with the corporation concerning the action, suit, or proceeding.

(b) Expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent to repay that amount, if it ultimately is determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

(6) The indemnification or advancement of expenses authorized by this section shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses under the articles, the regulations, any agreement, a vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacities and as to action in another capacity while holding their offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of that person. A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising under a provision of the articles or the regulations shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to that provision after the occurrence of the act or omission that becomes the subject of the civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding for which the indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of that act or omission explicitly authorizes that elimination or impairment after the act or omission has occurred.

(7) A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including, but not limited to, trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of or for any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under this section. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

(8) The authority of a corporation to indemnify persons pursuant to division (E)(1) or (2) of this section does not limit the payment of expenses as they are incurred, indemnification, insurance, or other protection that may be provided pursuant to divisions (E)(5), (6), and (7) of this section. Divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section do not create any obligation to repay or return payments made by the corporation pursuant to division (E)(5), (6), or (7).

(9) As used in division (E) of this section, "corporation" includes all constituent entities in a consolidation or merger and the new or surviving corporation, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, trustee, member, manager, or agent of such a constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the new or surviving corporation as the person would if the person had served the new or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

(b) Regulations of Peoples

The Regulations of Peoples contains the following provisions with respect to the indemnification of directors and officers:

Article Five - Indemnification and Insurance

Section 5.01. Mandatory Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director of the corporation who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including, without limitation, any action threatened or instituted by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, filing fees, court reporters' fees and transcript costs), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A person claiming indemnification under this Section 5.01 shall be presumed, in respect of any act or omission giving rise to such claim for indemnification, to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal matter, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and the termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, rebut such presumption.

Section 5.02. Court-Approved Indemnification. Anything contained in the Regulations or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding:

(A) the corporation shall not indemnify any officer or director of the corporation who was a party to any completed action or suit instituted by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, in respect of any claim, issue or matter asserted in such action or suit as to which he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to such indemnity as such Court of Common Pleas or such other court shall deem proper; and

(B) the corporation shall promptly make any such unpaid indemnification as is determined by a court to be proper as contemplated by this Section 5.02.

Section 5.03. Indemnification for Expenses. Anything contained in the Regulations or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent that an officer or director of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be promptly indemnified by the corporation against expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, filing fees, court reporters' fees and transcript costs) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Section 5.04. Determination Required. Any indemnification required under Section 5.01 and not precluded under Section 5.02 shall be made by the corporation only upon a determination that such indemnification of the officer or director is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5.01. Such determination may be made only (A) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the corporation who were not and are not parties to, or threatened with, any such action, suit or proceeding, or (B) if such a quorum is not obtainable or if a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation, or any person to be indemnified, within the past five years, or (C) by the shareholders, or (D) by the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or (if the corporation is a party thereto) the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought, if any; any such determination may be made by a court under division (D) of this Section 5.04 at any time [including, without limitation, any time before, during or after the time when any such determination may be requested of, be under consideration by or have been denied or disregarded by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) or by the shareholders under division (C) of this Section 5.04]; and no failure for any reason to make any such determination, and no decision for any reason to deny any such determination, by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) or by shareholders under division (C) of this Section 5.04 shall be evidence in rebuttal of the presumption recited in Section 5.01. Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) of this Section 5.04 to make indemnification in respect of any claim, issue or matter asserted in an action or suit threatened or brought by or in the right of the corporation shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought such action or suit, and within ten days after receipt of such notification such person shall have the right to petition the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought, if any, to review the reasonableness of such determination.

Section 5.05. Advances for Expenses. Expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, filing fees, court reporters' fees and transcript costs) incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01 shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding to or on behalf of the officer or director promptly as such expenses are incurred by him, but only if such officer or director shall first agree, in writing, to repay all amounts so paid in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted in such action, suit or proceeding in defense of which he shall not have been successful on the merits or otherwise:

(A) if it shall ultimately be determined as provided in Section 5.04 that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as provided under Section 5.01; or

(B) if, in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted by or in the right of the corporation in such action or suit, he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to all or part of such indemnification.

Section 5.06. Article Five Not Exclusive. The indemnification provided by this Article Five shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Articles or the Regulations or any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer or director of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 5.07. Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including but not limited to trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the obligation or the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article Five. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

Section 5.08. Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Article Five, and as examples and not by way of limitation:

(A) A person claiming indemnification under this Article Five shall be deemed to have been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01, or in defense of any claim, issue or other matter therein, if such action, suit or proceeding shall be terminated as to such person, with or without prejudice, without the entry of a judgment or order against him, without a conviction of him, without the imposition of a fine upon him and without his payment or agreement to pay any amount in settlement thereof (whether or not any such termination is based upon a judicial or other determination of the lack of merit of the claims made against him or otherwise results in a vindication of him); and

(B) References to an “other enterprise” shall include employee benefit plans; references to a “fine” shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to “serving at the request of the corporation” shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner “not opposed to the best interests of the corporation” within the meaning of that term as used in this Article Five.

Section 5.09. Venue. Any action, suit or proceeding to determine a claim for indemnification under this Article Five may be maintained by the person claiming such indemnification, or by the corporation, in the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio. The corporation and (by claiming such indemnification) each such person consent to the exercise of jurisdiction over its or his person by the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County, Ohio in any such action, suit or proceeding.

(c) Insurance

Peoples maintains insurance policies under which directors and officers of Peoples are insured, within the limits and subject to the limitations of such policies, against expenses in connection with the defense of actions, suits or proceedings, and certain liabilities that might be imposed as a result of such actions, suits or proceedings, to which they are parties by reason of being or having been directors or officers of Peoples.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement;

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective (2) amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of (c) Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (c) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be (d) used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such (e) liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the proxy statement/prospectus which forms a part of the registration statement pursuant to Item 4, (f) 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information (g) concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
