ITEM 5. Other Events

On December 6, 2002, the United States District Court for the District of Alaska reduced the punitive damages awarded in connection with the 1989 Exxon Valdez accident from $5 billion to $4 billion. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit last year vacated the original punitive damage award entered by the District Court after trial in 1996 as being excessive under the Constitution and remanded the case to the District Court for it to determine the amount of the punitive damage award consistent with the Ninth Circuit's holding. The Corporation intends to appeal the District Court's latest decision.
