Explanatory Note: On July 28, 2005, Modine Manufacturing Company (“Modine” or the “Company”) filed a report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Initial Form 8-K”) reporting the completion of its spin off of its Aftermarket business and the expectation of classifying the Aftermarket business as a discontinued operation.

This amendment is being filed solely to provide the unaudited pro forma historical consolidated financial statements showing the Aftermarket business as a discontinued operation and to amend and restate Item 2.06, Material Impairment, to reflect the Aftermarket business being classified as a discontinued operation.

For ease of reference, this Form 8-K/A amends and restates Item 2.01, Item 2.06 and Item 9.01 of the Initial Form 8-K in their entirety as follows:

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

As described below, on July 22, 2005, Modine completed the previously announced spin off of its Aftermarket business on a debt-free and tax-free basis to its shareholders and immediate merger of the spun off business into Transpro, Inc. (“Transpro”) to form a combined company named Proliance International, Inc.

Effective July 22, 2005, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 31, 2005, among Modine, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. and Transpro, Inc. (the “Merger Agreement”), and as amended June 16, 2005, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. was merged with and into Transpro, with Transpro surviving the merger as the combined company. For accounting purposes, Transpro is considered the acquirer of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. Upon effectiveness of the merger, Transpro changed its name to Proliance International, Inc.

In connection with and immediately prior to the merger, Modine spun off its Aftermarket business by distributing shares of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. common stock to holders of Modine common stock of record as of July 21, 2005, on a one share-for-one share basis (the “Distribution”) pursuant to the terms of the Contribution Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2005, by and among Modine, Modine, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Modine, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc., and Transpro.

Modine shareholders retained their Modine common shares and, in the merger, received 0.235681 of a share of common stock of the combined company in exchange for each share of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. common stock issued to them in the Distribution. Immediately following the merger, Modine shareholders owned approximately 52% of Proliance International’s common stock on a fully diluted basis, and Transpro’s pre-merger shareholders owned the other 48%.

Modine received rulings from the Internal Revenue Service to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Distribution will generally be tax-free to Modine and the shareholders of Modine, and Modine shareholders will generally not recognize taxable gain or loss in the merger (except with respect to cash received by Modine shareholders in lieu of a fractional share interest in common stock of the combined company).

Modine is not aware of any material relationship between Transpro and Modine or any of its affiliates, any director or officer of Modine or any associates of any such director or officer that existed at the date of the Distribution and the merger, except as disclosed herein and in the proxy statement/prospectus-information statement included in Transpro’s Registration Statement on Form S-4 (Registration No. 333-124527) and previously distributed to Modine shareholders.

The foregoing description of the merger, the Merger Agreement, the letter agreement amending the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreements and the press release issued by Modine on July 22, 2005, copies of which are filed herewith as Exhibits 2.1, 2.2, 2.3 and 99.1, respectively, and each of such exhibits is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

Based upon management's completed analysis of the transaction, management has determined that Modine's former Aftermarket business should be presented as a discontinued operation in its consolidated financial statements. The unaudited pro forma historical consolidated earnings statements included in this Current Report on Form 8-K/A are provided for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005 and for the first quarter of fiscal 2006. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet is as of June 26, 2005.

Included in the unaudited pro forma historical consolidated earnings statements is the impact of reclassifications, which were effective with the first quarter of fiscal 2006, from "other income/ (expense)" to operating activities (sales, cost of sales, or selling, general and administrative expenses) of items such as royalty income, gains and losses on asset disposals, tooling profits or losses and purchase discounts relating to payment timing. Also included are further reclassifications that were made in fiscal 2006 to the allocations of certain centralized services expenses from corporate and administrative expenses affecting cost of sales and selling, general, and administrative expenses. Accordingly, the unaudited pro forma historical consolidated earnings statements have been adjusted to reflect these changes on a historical basis to provide comparability between the periods presented.

The unaudited pro forma historical consolidated earnings statement for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2005 provided in the Initial Form 8-K has been modified in this Current Report on Form 8-K/A to more properly adjust the reclassification of certain centralized services expenses from corporate, reducing selling, general and administrative expenses and increasing cost of sales by $1.8 million.

In addition, certain pro forma adjustments were made to the Aftermarket business results included in the unaudited pro forma historical consolidated earnings statements as follows:

- to record the effect of certain intercompany sales and purchase transactions between Modine's non-Aftermarket business and the Aftermarket business;
- to adjust allocated central service expenses from corporate to the Aftermarket business to reflect the expected benefit to be realized by continuing operations; and
- to reduce royalty expense which will no longer be paid to the Company by the Company's former European and Mexican Aftermarket subsidiaries.

The pro forma balance sheet included herein is unchanged from the one included in the Initial Form 8-K.

As reported in the Company's Initial Form 8-K, the Company expected to record as a result of the spin off transaction a non-cash charge to earnings of approximately $40-55 million to reflect the difference between the value which Modine shareholders received in the new company, a function of the stock price of Transpro, Inc at the closing, and the asset carrying value of Modine Aftermarket business. The Company, in line with the prior guidance, recorded a charge to discontinued operations of $54.1 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2006. This was comprised of $53.6 million in non-cash charges and $0.5 million in unreimbursed expenses incurred as part of the transaction.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(b) Pro forma financial information.

Effective July 22, 2005, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 31, 2005, among Modine, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. and Transpro, Inc. (the "Merger Agreement"), and as amended June 16, 2005, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. was merged with and into Transpro, with Transpro surviving the merger as the combined company. For accounting purposes, Transpro is considered the acquirer of Modine Aftermarket

Holdings, Inc. Upon effectiveness of the merger, Transpro changed its name to Proliance International, Inc.

In connection with and immediately prior to the merger, Modine spun off its Aftermarket business by distributing shares of Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc. common stock to holders of Modine common stock of record as of July 21, 2005, on a one share-for-one share basis (the "Distribution") pursuant to the terms of the Contribution Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2005, by and among Modine, Modine, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Modine, Modine Aftermarket Holdings, Inc., and Transpro.

Modine has included unaudited proforma consolidated statements of earnings for the years ended March 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005 and the quarter ended June 26, 2005 and an unaudited proforma condensed balance sheet as of June 26, 2005. The statements of earnings assume the transactions described above occurred at the beginning of the period presented and the balance sheet assumes the transaction occurred as of the date of the balance sheet.

Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information of Modine is included below.
