INFORMATION STATEMENT

May 17, 2005

This information statement is being circulated to the stockholders of Opta Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the taking of corporate action without a meeting upon the written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Company and is being furnished to holders of record of the common stock of the Company in order to comply with the requirements of Section 14(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and Regulation 14C under the Exchange Act. The purpose of the information statement is to inform all stockholders of the election of directors. The information statement was first mailed or delivered to you on or about May 17, 2005.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY

We are not seeking consent, authorization or proxies from you because the consent of stockholders entitled to cast the required number of votes to elect the members of the Board of Directors has already been obtained. The election of the directors will not become effective pursuant to the written consent already obtained for 20 calendar days from the date hereof. This information statement also serves as notice to you of an action taken by less than unanimous written consent. Such notice is required by Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law and Article II, Section 13 of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws.

Unless otherwise noted, references to the Company, we, our, or us mean Opta Corporation, a Delaware corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries. Our principal executive offices are located at 1350 Old Bayshore Highway, Suite 740, Burlingame, CA 94010, and our telephone number is (650) 579-3610.

The cost of this Information Statement, consisting of printing, handling and mailing of the Information Statement and related materials, will be paid by the Company.

VOTING SECURITIES

As of the close of business on May 6, 2005, the record date for the determination of stockholders to whom this information statement is sent, the Company had outstanding 50,037,538 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote per share of capital stock held.

As permitted under Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, by written consent dated May 16, 2005, stockholders of the Company representing more than a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock elected the following directors: Vincent Yong YAN, as a Class II Director with a term expiring at the 2006 annual meeting, LI Dongsheng and James Jian LIU, as Class III Directors with terms expiring at the 2007 annual meeting, and LIN Zuoquan, as a Class I Director with a term expiring at the 2008.

CONSENTING STOCKHOLDERS

On May 16, 2005, the following stockholders, who collectively own approximately 60.2% of our common stock, consented in writing to the election of directors; the vote of more than 50% of our common stock was required. See Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management below.

Zhao Zhang	1,250,000	2.5%
Qiang Zhang	2,000,000	4.0%
Total	30,106,671	60.2 %

Under Delaware law, we are required to give all stockholders written notice of any actions that are taken by written consent without a stockholders meeting. Under Section 14(c) of the Exchange Act, the actions cannot become effective until 20 calendar days after the mailing date of this information statement to our stockholders.

We are not seeking written consent from any of our stockholders and our other stockholders will not be given an opportunity to vote with respect to these actions. All necessary corporate and stockholder approvals have been obtained, and this information statement is furnished solely for the purpose of:

advising stockholders of the action taken by written consent, as required by Delaware law; and giving stockholders advance notice of the actions taken, as required by the Exchange Act.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS

Stockholders who were not afforded an opportunity to consent or otherwise vote with respect to the actions taken have no right under Delaware law to dissent or require a vote of all our stockholders.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee, comprised of two directors, oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal control.

The Audit Committee reviewed with management the audited financial statements contained in the Annual Report. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with general accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee discussed with Hein & Associates LLP, the independent auditors matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committee). In addition, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions With Audit Committee), and has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from the Company and its management. In concluding that the auditors are independent, the Audit Committee considered, among other factors, whether the nonaudit services provided by auditors were compatible with their independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Board held three meetings during the last fiscal year. Jih-Ming Lin attended less than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors held during the period for which he has been a director.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR RECEIPT OF EMPLOYEE COMPLAINTS

Opta Corporation and its subsidiaries (the "Company") believe that it is imperative to provide a workplace conducive to open discussion of its business practices. It is the Company's policy to comply with all applicable laws that protect employees against unlawful discrimination or retaliation by their employer as a result of their lawfully reporting information regarding, or their participating in, investigations involving corporate fraud or other violations by the Company or its agents of federal or state law.

In order to facilitate the reporting of employee complaints, the Company's Audit Committee has adopted these Policies and Procedures for Receipt of Employee Complaints (the "Policy"), which establishes the following procedures for (a) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and (b) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the issuer of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Retaliation Prohibited

Any employee of the Company may submit a good faith complaint regarding accounting or auditing matters to the management of the Company without fear of dismissal or retaliation of any kind. Specifically, the Company policy prevents any employee from being discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, and discriminated against or subject to disciplinary or retaliatory action by the Company or any of its employee or agents as a result of the employee's good faith conduct involving:

(a)

Disclosing information to a government or law enforcement agency, where the employee has reasonable cause to believe that the information discloses a violation or possible violation of federal or state law or regulation.

(b)

Providing information, causing information to be provided, filing, causing to be filed, testifying, participating in a proceeding filed or about to be filed (with the knowledge of the Company), or otherwise assisting in an investigation or proceeding, which is being conducted by a federal regulatory agency, a member of Congress or a person at the Company with supervisory or similar authority over the employee, regarding any conduct that the employee reasonably believes involves a violation of:

(i)

Federal criminal law relating to securities fraud, mail fraud, bank fraud, or wire radio and television fraud;

(ii)

Any rule or regulation of the Securities and Exchange Commission; or

(iii)

Any provision of federal law relating to fraud against shareholders.

Complaint Procedure

The Company has established certain procedures whereby any employee of the Company may submit to the Company complaints or concerns regarding:

(a)

Fraud or deliberate error in the preparation, evaluation, review or audit of any financial statement of the Company;

(b)

Fraud or deliberate error in the recording and maintaining of financial records of the Company;

(c)

Deficiencies in or noncompliance with the Company's internal accounting controls;

(d)

Misrepresentation or false statement to or by a senior officer or accountant regarding a matter contained in the financial records, financial reports or audit reports of the Company; or

Deviation from full and fair reporting of the Company's financial condition.

Complaints and concerns involving these matters may be reported directly to Zuoquan Lin, the Designated Audit Committee Member who can be reached by telephone at 011-86-13801113040 or email at lz@pku.edu.cn.

In addition, the Company has established a procedure by which confidential complaints may be reported anonymously to the Company. You may anonymously (except by email) submit a complaint by sending an email to complaint@optaco.com or notifying us by regular mail at 1350 Old Bayshore Highway, Suite 740, Burlingame, CA 94404.

Discussion and Handling of Complaints

The Company's Audit Committee is responsible for implementing and overseeing the receipt and handling of complaints under this Policy. Zuoquan Lin is appointed as the Designated Audit Committee Member to review and investigate any and all concerns regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters. In the event of a real or apparent conflict of interest between the interests of Zuoquan Lin and a matter under investigation then Zuoquan Lin shall be the Designated Audit Committee Member for such matter.

The Designated Audit Committee Member shall initially review all complaints to determine whether the complaint is covered under this Policy. If possible, the Designated Audit Committee Member shall acknowledge receipt of the complaint to the sender and inform the sender of the steps that will be taken with respect to his or her complaint. The Designated Audit Committee Member shall report all accounting, internal accounting control and auditing concerns brought to his/her attention at the next meeting of the Audit Committee. In the event of a concern of a significant nature, the Designated Audit Committee Member will convene a special meeting of the Audit Committee or report the details of such concern to the other members of the Audit Committee prior to the next meeting.

The Audit Committee shall investigate the complaint, or if appropriate, designate a member or a subcommittee of the Audit Committee to investigate the complaint. Upon completion of an investigation, the Designated Audit Committee Member shall prepare a resolution of disposition to be acted upon by the Audit Committee. Where, in the judgment of the Designated Audit Committee Member, it is important or appropriate that a matter be resolved in advance of the next meeting of the Audit Committee, the Designated Audit Committee Member has the authority to resolve such matter or, if significant, convene a special meeting of the Audit Committee for the purpose of resolving such matter.

Should he/she deem it appropriate, the Designated Audit Committee Member is hereby authorized to retain outside legal counsel (either the Company's general legal counsel or independent counsel as the Designated Audit Committee Member deems appropriate), accounting assistance (either the independent auditor who provides the opinion with respect to the Company's financial statements or another independent auditor as the Designated Audit Committee Member deems appropriate) and other outside professional advice. It is the preference of the Audit Committee that the other members of the Audit Committee be consulted in advance of taking such action, if reasonably possible and appropriate.

The confidentiality of the sender shall be maintained throughout the process. The Designated Audit Committee Member shall maintain a log of all complaints, tracking their receipt, investigation and resolution. Copies of complaints shall be maintained in accordance with the Company's document retention policy.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,

/s/ Vincent Yan

Vincent Yan

President, Chief Executive Officer

and Director

Exhibit A

OPTA CORPORATION AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

1.

Members. The Board of Directors of Opta Corporation (the "Company") shall appoint an Audit Committee of at least two members, consisting entirely of "independent" directors of the Board, and shall designate one member as chairperson. For purposes hereof, "independent" shall mean a director who meets the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") definition of "independence".

2.

Purposes, Duties and Responsibilities. The Audit Committee shall represent the Board of Directors in discharging its responsibility relating to the accounting, reporting and financial practices of the Company and its subsidiaries, and shall have general responsibility for surveillance of internal controls and accounting and audit activities of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Audit Committee does not itself prepare financial statements or perform audits, and its members are not auditors or certifiers of the Company's financial statements. Specifically, the Audit Committee shall:

(i)

Recommend to the Board of Directors, and evaluate, the firm of independent certified public accounts to be appointed as auditors of the Company, which firm shall be ultimately accountable to the Board of Directors through the Audit Committee.

(ii)

Review and discuss with the outside auditors their audit procedures, including the scope, fees and timing of the audit, and the results of the annual audit examination and any accompanying management letters, and any reports of the outside auditors with respect to interim periods.

(iii)

Review and discuss the written statement from the outside auditor of the Company concerning any relationships between the auditor and the Company or any other relationships that may adversely affect the independence of the auditor and, based on such review, assess the independence of the outside auditor.

(iv)

Review and discuss with management and the auditors the financial statements of the Company, including an analysis of the auditor's judgment as to the quality of the Company's accounting principles.

(v)

Recommend to the Board of Directors whether, based on the review and discussions described in paragraphs (ii) through (iv) above, the financial statements should be included in the Annual Report on Form 10 K.

(vi)

Review and discuss with management and the outside auditors: (a) any material financial or non-financial arrangements of the Company which do not appear on the financial statements of the Company; and (b) any transactions or courses of dealing with parties related to the Company which transactions are significant in size or involve terms or other aspects that differ from those that would likely be negotiated with independent parties, and which arrangements or transactions are relevant to an understanding of the Company's financial statements.

(vii)

Review and discuss with management and the outside auditors the adequacy of the Company's internal controls.

(viii)

Review and discuss with management and the outside auditors the accounting policies which may be viewed as critical, and review and discuss any significant changes in the accounting policies of the Company and accounting and financial reporting proposals that may have a significant impact on the Company's financial reports.

Establish policies and procedures for the engagement of the outside auditor to provide non-audit services, and consider whether the outside auditor's performance of information technology and other non-audit services is compatible with the auditor's independence.

Review material pending legal proceedings involving the Company and other contingent liabilities.

(x)

Review the appropriateness of the Audit Committee Charter on an annual basis.

3.

Meetings. The Audit Committee shall meet as often as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in its judgment, at least annually and generally four times each year, either in person or telephonically. The Audit Committee shall meet in executive session with the outside auditors at least annually. The Audit Committee may create subcommittees who shall report to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall report to the full Board of Directors with respect to its meetings. The majority of the members of the Audit Committee shall constitute a quorum.

4.

Outside Advisors. The Audit Committee shall have the authority to retain such outside counsel, experts, and other advisors as it determines appropriate to assist in the full performance of its functions.

5.

Investigations. The Audit Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibilities and shall have the authority to retain outside advisors to assist it in the conduct of any investigation.
