BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES, INC.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements - March 31, 2004
(Unaudited)

Note 1. Interim financial statements

Our independent accountants have not audited the accompanying financial statements of BNP Residential Properties, Inc., except for the balance sheet at December 31, 2003. We derived the amounts in the balance sheet at December 31, 2003, from the financial statements included in our 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K. We believe that we have included all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and results of operations for the periods presented.

We have condensed or omitted certain notes and other information from the interim financial statements presented in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. You should read these financial statements in conjunction with our 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Note 2. Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of BNP Residential Properties, Inc. (the "company") and BNP Residential Properties Limited Partnership (the "Operating Partnership"). The company is the general partner and owns a majority interest in the Operating Partnership. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements.

Stock-Based Compensation

The company has one employee Stock Option and Incentive Plan in place. We account for this plan using the intrinsic value method, under the recognition and measurement principles of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related Interpretations. No stock-based employee compensation cost is reflected in net income, as all options granted under this plan had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. If we had applied the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to stock-based employee compensation, the effect would have been to reduce net income as reported by less than $100 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively, with no impact on basic and diluted earnings per share amounts as reported.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" ("VIEs"). The primary objective of FIN 46 is to provide guidance on the identification of entities for which control is achieved through means other than voting rights and to determine when and which business enterprise should consolidate the VIEs. This new model applies when the equity investors, if any, do not have a controlling financial interest, or when the equity investment at risk is insufficient to finance the entity's activities without additional financial support. FIN 46 also requires additional disclosures. FIN 46 was effective immediately for interests acquired subsequent to January 31, 2003, and is effective March 31, 2004, for interests in VIEs created before February 1, 2003. We assessed our variable interests and determined that these interests were not VIEs as defined in FIN 46. As a result, the provisions of FIN 46 have no impact on our financial condition or results of operations.

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form 10-Q

Note 3. Shareholders' Equity

On February 23, 2004, we issued 1,175,519 shares of common stock at a price of $11.75 per share, to a number of institutional investors and mutual funds pursuant to a private placement, for a total purchase price of approximately $13,812,000. Through March 31, 2004, we incurred costs associated with this placement totaling approximately $765,000. We expect to use the net proceeds to fund future acquisitions, repay bank debt, and for general corporate purposes. We immediately applied $13.0 million of the net proceeds to reduce our revolving line of credit secured by Latitudes Apartments.

In addition, in February 2004, we issued 16,046 shares of our common stock through our Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan ("DRIP") for proceeds of approximately $195,000.

We calculated basic and diluted earnings per common share using the following amounts:

	Three months ended March 31
	2004	2003
Numerators:
Numerator for basic earnings per share -
Net income	$ 373,059	$ 145,790
Cumulative preferred dividend	(250,000)	(125,000)

Income available to common shareholders	$ 123,059	$ 20,790

Numerator for diluted earnings per share -
Net income (1)	$ 408,427	$ 152,413
Cumulative preferred dividend	(250,000)	(125,000)

Income available to common shareholders (1)	$ 158,427	$ 27,413

Denominators:
Denominator for basic earnings per share -
weighted average shares outstanding	6,405,944	5,839,474
Effect of dilutive securities:
Convertible Operating Partnership units	1,841,098	1,844,264
Stock options (2)	15,389	3,441

Denominator for diluted earnings per share - adjusted weighted average shares and assumed conversions	8,262,431	7,687,179

- (1) Assumes conversion of Operating Partnership units to common shares; minority interest in Operating Partnership income has been eliminated.
- (2) We excluded options to purchase 140,000 shares of common stock at $12.50 and 120,000 shares at $13.125 from the calculation of diluted earnings per share for the three months ended March 31, 2004. We also excluded additional options to purchase 110,000 shares of common stock at $12.25 and 60,000 shares at $11.25 from the calculation of diluted earnings per share for the three months ended March 31, 2003. The exercise price of these options was greater than the average market price of the common shares for those periods, and the effect would be anti-dilutive.

Note 4. Subsequent event

On April 21, 2004, the Board of Directors declared a regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.25 per share to be paid on May 17, 2004, to common shareholders of record on May 3, 2004. The Board of Directors also authorized the payment of dividends totaling $250,000 to the Series B Preferred shareholder in accordance with the investment agreement for those shares.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

This Quarterly Report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities law. You can identify such statements by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "continue" or other similar words. These statements discuss future expectations, contain projections of results of operations or of financial condition or state other "forward-looking" information.

Although we believe that our plans, intentions and expectations reflected in or suggested by these forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot assure you that we will achieve our plans, intentions or expectations. When you consider such forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the following important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement:

- o Our markets could suffer unexpected increases in the development of apartment, other rental or competitive housing alternatives;
- o our markets could suffer unexpected declines in economic growth or an increase in unemployment rates;
- o general economic conditions could cause the financial condition of a large number of our tenants to deteriorate;
- o we may not be able to lease or re-lease apartments quickly or on as favorable terms as under existing leases;
- o revenues from our third-party apartment property management activities could decline, or we could incur unexpected costs in performing these activities;
- o we may have incorrectly assessed the environmental condition of our properties;

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form 10-Q

- o an unexpected increase in interest rates could cause our debt service costs to exceed expectations;
- o we may not be able to meet our long-term liquidity requirements on favorable terms; and
- o we could lose key executive officers.

Given these uncertainties, we caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to disclose the results of any revision to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect any future events or circumstances or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

You should read the discussion in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in this Quarterly Report and our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Company Profile

BNP Residential Properties, Inc. is a self-administered and self-managed real estate investment trust with operations in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. Our primary activity is the ownership and operation of apartment communities. We currently own 20 apartment communities containing 4,859 units and provide third-party management services for eight communities containing a total of 2,061 units. In addition to our apartment communities, we own 40 properties that we lease on a triple-net basis to a restaurant operator.

We are structured as an UpREIT, or umbrella partnership real estate investment trust. The company is the sole general partner and owns a controlling interest in BNP Residential Properties Limited Partnership, through which we conduct all of our operations. We refer to this partnership as the Operating Partnership. We refer to the limited partners of the Operating Partnership as minority unitholders or as the minority interest.

Our executive offices are located at 301 South College Street, Suite 3850, Charlotte, North Carolina 28202-6024, telephone 704/944-0100.

Results of Operations

Revenues

Total revenues in the first quarter of 2004 were $11.2 million, an increase of 9.6% compared to the first quarter of 2003. Apartment related income (apartment rental income plus income from apartment management and investment activities) accounted for approximately 91.5% of total revenue in the first quarter of 2004, compared to 90.2% in the first quarter of 2003.

Apartment rental income totaled $10.1 million in the first quarter of 2004, an increase of 13.1% compared to apartment rental income of $8.9 million in the first quarter of 2003. This increase is attributable to acquisitions of two apartment communities in 2003 (The Place and The Harrington contributed approximately $812,000 to rental income in the first quarter of 2004) as well as increased rental income at existing apartments.

For the first quarter, average economic occupancy for all apartments was 94.9% in 2004, compared to 90.9% in the first quarter of 2003. Average monthly revenue per occupied unit for all apartments was $727 in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $732 in the first quarter of 2003.

On a "same-units" basis (the 18 apartment communities that we owned throughout the first three months of 2004 and 2003), apartment rental income increased by 4.5% in the first quarter of 2004 compared to the first quarter of 2003. This increase was primarily the result of occupancy improvements. On a same-units basis, average economic occupancy was 95.1% for the first quarter of 2004, compared to 90.9% for the first quarter of 2003; average monthly revenue per occupied unit was $731 in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $732 in the first quarter of 2003.

Summary amounts for our apartment communities' occupancy and revenue per occupied unit for the first quarter of 2004 follow:

	Number of apartment units	Average economic occupancy	Average monthly revenue per occupied unit

- (1) We acquired The Place Apartments in March 2003, and we acquired The Harrington Apartments in August 2003. We have excluded The Place and The Harrington from these calculations as of March 31.

Restaurant rental income was $1.0 million in the first quarters of both 2004 and 2003. A decline in restaurant rental income of approximately $42,000 was the result of the sale of two restaurant properties during 2003. Restaurant rental income for the first quarters of both 2004 and 2003 was the minimum rent. "Same-store" (those 40 restaurant properties that operated throughout the first three months of both 2004 and 2003) sales at our restaurant properties increased by 16.0% in the first quarter of 2004 compared to the first quarter of 2003. Sales at these stores would have to increase by approximately 10% before we would receive rent exceeding the minimum rent. We do not expect restaurant rental income to exceed the minimum rent in 2004.

Management fee income totaled $198,000 in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $227,000 in the first quarter of 2003. This decrease is attributable to the termination of management contracts for several smaller properties in the first quarter of 2003.

Interest and other income totaled $23,000 in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $130,000 in the first quarter of 2003. These comparisons reflect the impact of non-routine income totaling $107,000 in the first quarter of 2003 (proceeds from final resolution of litigation that we commenced in 1997).

Expenses

Total expenses, including non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization, were $10.8 million in the first quarter of 2004, an increase of 7.3% compared to the first quarter of 2003.

Apartment operations expense (the direct costs of on-site operations at our apartment communities) in the first quarter of 2004 totaled $3.9 million, an 11.2% increase compared to apartment operations expense of $3.5 million in the first quarter of 2003. The $0.4 million increase is attributable to the two apartment communities we acquired in 2003. On a same-units basis, apartment operations expense was generally flat for the comparable periods.

Operating expenses for restaurant properties are insignificant because the triple-net lease arrangement requires the lessee to pay virtually all of the expenses associated with the restaurant properties.

Apartment administration expense (the costs associated with oversight, accounting and support of our apartment management activities for both owned and third party properties) was $426,000 in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $327,000 in the first quarter of 2003. This increase is attributable to additional corporate support staff, software and insurance costs. Corporate administration expense was $666,000 in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $687,000 in the first quarter of 2003.

Depreciation expense totaled $2.5 million in the first quarter of 2004, an 8.8% increase compared to the first quarter of 2003. This increase is primarily attributable to the addition of two apartment communities during 2003.

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form 10-Q

Interest expense totaled $3.2 million in the first quarters of 2004, reflecting an increase of only $44,000 over the first quarter of 2003. This comparison reflects the effect of approximately $18 million higher debt level early in the first quarter of 2004 compared to the first quarter of 2003, reduced by the impact of the $13.0 million paydown of our variable rate line of credit secured by Latitudes Apartments in February 2004 as well as the decline in variable interest rates over the last 12 months. Overall, weighted average interest rates were 5.7% for the first quarter of 2004, compared to 6.0% for the first quarter of 2003. (See further discussion in "Capital Resources and Liquidity - Capital Resources," below.)

Net income

Operating partnership earnings before non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization totaled $3.0 million for the first quarter of 2004, an 18.7% increase compared to $2.6 million for the first quarter of 2003. This increase is attributable to the positive impact of adding two apartment communities in 2003, as well as improvement in apartments operating results, particularly in apartment revenues.

Income before minority interest (Operating Partnership income, before deductions for the minority interest in the Operating Partnership and the cumulative preferred dividend) was $408,000 for the first quarter of 2004, compared to $152,000 for the first quarter of 2003. Net income (after deduction for the minority interest, but before the cumulative preferred dividend) was $373,000 for the first quarter of 2004, compared to $146,000 for the first quarter of 2003. These comparisons again reflect the improvement in apartments operating results.

Because preferred shareholders have priority over common shareholders for receipt of dividends, we deduct the amount of net income that will be paid to preferred shareholders in calculating net income available to common shareholders. In September 2003, we issued 454,545 shares of cumulative preferred stock, which doubled the number of preferred shares outstanding. The cumulative preferred dividend totaled $250,000 for the first quarter of 2004, compared to $125,000 for the first quarter of 2003. Income available to common shareholders, after the cumulative preferred dividend, was $123,000 for the first quarter of 2004, compared to $21,000 for the first quarter of 2003.

Funds from Operations

Funds from operations is frequently referred to as "FFO." FFO is defined by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts ("NAREIT") as "net income (computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles), excluding gains (losses) from sales of property, plus depreciation and amortization, and after adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures." Our calculation of FFO is consistent with FFO as defined by NAREIT. Because we hold all of our assets in and conduct all of our operations through the Operating Partnership, we measure FFO at the operating partnership level (i.e., before minority interest).

Historical cost accounting for real estate assets implicitly assumes that the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time. In fact, real estate values have historically risen or fallen with market conditions. FFO is intended to be a standard supplemental measure of operating performance that excludes historical cost depreciation from - or "adds it back" to - GAAP net income. We consider FFO to be useful in evaluating potential property acquisitions and measuring operating performance.

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form 10-Q

Funds available for distribution is frequently referred to as "FAD." We calculate FAD as FFO plus non-cash expense for amortization and write-off of unamortized loan costs, less recurring capital expenditures. We believe that, together with net income and cash flows from operating activities, FAD provides investors with an additional measure to evaluate the ability of the Operating Partnership to incur and service debt, to fund acquisitions and other capital expenditures, and to fund distributions to shareholders and minority unitholders.

Funds from operations and funds available for distribution do not represent net income or cash flows from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles. You should not consider FFO or FAD to be alternatives to net income as reliable measures of the company's operating performance; nor should you consider FFO or FAD to be alternatives to cash flows as measures of liquidity.

Funds from operations and funds available for distribution do not measure whether cash flow is sufficient to fund all of our cash needs, including principal amortization, capital improvements and distributions to shareholders. FFO and FAD do not represent cash flows from operating, investing or financing activities as defined by generally accepted accounting principles. Further, FFO and FAD as disclosed by other REITs might not be comparable to our calculation of FFO or FAD.

Funds from operations totaled $2.7 million in the first quarter of 2004, a 14.3% increase compared to the first quarter of 2003. This comparison reflects the improvement in apartments operating results, offset somewhat by the increase in the cumulative preferred dividend, compared to 2003.

Summary

By virtually any measure, we had a very good first quarter in 2004. As a result of continued improvement in apartment operations, funds from operations, funds available for distribution and earnings per share all increased by significant amounts as compared to the first quarter of 2003.

The improvement in apartment operating results in the first quarter of 2004 was primarily the result of a 4.5% increase in same-units occupancy at our apartment communities. With occupancy at our apartment properties averaging approximately 95% for the first quarter, we have essentially attained our occupancy goals. Going forward the issue will be whether we can maintain this level of occupancy while beginning to raise rents. While we are comfortable that we will be able to hold occupancy at current levels, we are not as certain of our ability to meaningfully increase rents over the short term. The markets in which we own and operate apartment properties appear to have begun to recover from the over-building, job losses and torpid economy that have so adversely affected apartment operations for the past couple of years, but it is too early to say with any certainty how strong or how long this recovery will be.

In addition to the improvement in apartment operating results, sales at our restaurant properties continued to show dramatic increases during the first quarter of 2004, with same-store sales improving by slightly more than 16%. While this improvement did not result in our receiving increased restaurant rental revenue, it is certainly encouraging that our restaurant operator may have found in the "Thickburger" an answer to stem years of declining sales.

Over the coming months, we intend to continue to improve both the size and quality of our portfolio. To help insure that we would have sufficient funds to take advantage of opportunities to acquire new apartment properties and to improve our existing communities, we raised $13 million in new equity from a number of institutional investors during the first quarter of 2004. We are optimistic about the future of our properties, our markets and our company. We believe we have the plan, focus and personnel to maximize the opportunities presented to us.

Capital Resources and Liquidity

Capital Resources

On February 23, 2004, we issued 1,175,519 shares of common stock at a price of $11.75 per share, to a number of institutional investors and mutual funds pursuant to a private placement, for a total purchase price of approximately $13,812,000. Through March 31, 2004, we incurred costs associated with this placement totaling approximately $765,000. We expect to use the net proceeds to fund future acquisitions, repay bank debt, and for general corporate purposes. We immediately applied $13.0 million of the net proceeds to reduce our revolving line of credit secured by Latitudes Apartments.

In addition, in February 2004, we issued 16,046 shares of our common stock through our Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan ("DRIP") for proceeds of approximately $195,000.

As of March 31, 2004, total long-term debt was $216.4 million, including $168.0 million of notes payable at fixed interest rates ranging from 5.06% to 8.55%, and $48.4 million at variable rates indexed on 30-day LIBOR rates. The weighted average interest rate on debt outstanding was 5.9% at March 31, 2004, up from 5.8% at December 31, 2003, because of the $13.0 million paydown of variable rate debt during the first quarter of 2004. At our current rate of variable rate debt, a 1% fluctuation in variable interest rates would increase or decrease our annual interest expense by approximately $490,000.

Cash Flows and Liquidity

Net cash flows from operating activities were $3.4 million in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $2.2 million in the first quarter of 2003. Improvements in operating results produced approximately $440,000 of the $1.2 million increase in cash flows from operating activities; the remainder of the increase is attributable to timing of cash receipts and disbursements.

Investing and financing activities, other than those described under "Capital Resources" above, focused on capital expenditures at apartment communities, along with payment of dividends and distributions.

We have announced that the company will pay a regular quarterly dividend of $0.25 per share (approximately $1.8 million) on May 17, 2004, to shareholders of record of our common stock as of May 3, 2003, as well as $250,000 dividends to the preferred shareholder.

We generally expect to meet our short-term liquidity requirements through net cash provided by operations and utilization of credit facilities. We believe that net cash provided by operations is, and will continue to be, adequate to meet the REIT operating requirements in both the short term and the long term. We anticipate funding our future acquisition activities primarily by using short-term credit facilities as an interim measure, to be replaced by funds from equity offerings, long-term debt or joint venture investments. We expect to meet our long-term liquidity requirements, such as scheduled debt maturities and repayment of short-term financing of possible property acquisitions, through long-term secured and unsecured borrowings and the issuance of debt securities or additional equity securities. We believe we have sufficient resources to meet our short-term liquidity requirements.

Critical Accounting Policies - Capital expenditures and depreciation

Our significant accounting policies are identified and discussed in the notes to our financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K. Our policy and practice regarding capital expenditures and depreciation, which may be of particular interest to readers of this Quarterly Report, are further discussed below.

In general, apartment properties acquired before 2002, we compute depreciation using the straight-line method over composite estimated useful lives of the related assets, generally 40 years for buildings, 20 years for land improvements, 10 years for fixtures and equipment, and five years for floor coverings.

For the five apartment properties acquired in 2002 and later, we performed analyses of components of the real estate assets acquired. For these properties, we assigned estimated useful lives as follows: base building structure, 45-60 years; land improvements, 7-20 years; short-lived building components, 5-20 years; and fixtures, equipment and floor coverings, 5-10 years.

We generally complete and capitalize acquisition improvements (expenditures that have been identified at the time the property is acquired, and which are intended to position the property consistent with our physical standards) within one to two years of acquisition. We capitalize non-recurring expenditures for additions and betterments to buildings and land improvements. In addition, we generally capitalize recurring capital expenditures for exterior painting, roofing, and other major maintenance projects that substantially extend the useful life of existing assets. For financial reporting purposes, we depreciate these additions and replacements on a straight-line basis over estimated useful lives of 5-20 years. We retire replaced assets with a charge to depreciation for any remaining carrying value. We capitalize all floor covering, appliance and HVAC replacements, and depreciate them using a straight-line, group method over estimated useful lives of 5-10 years.

Capital expenditures at our apartment communities during the first quarter of 2004 totaled approximately $559,000, including $78,000 for acquisition improvements, $205,000 for additions and betterments, and $275,000 for recurring capital expenditures.

We expense ordinary repairs and maintenance costs at apartment communities. Repairs and maintenance at our apartment communities during the first quarter of 2004 totaled approximately $1.3 million, including $496,000 in compensation of service staff and $801,000 in payments for materials and contracted services.

A summary of capital expenditures at our apartment communities through March 31, 2004, in aggregate and per apartment unit, follows:

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There have been no material changes in information that would be provided under Item 305 of Regulation S-K since December 31, 2003. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Capital Resources and Liquidity" above for a discussion of our exposure to interest rate risks.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures designed to ensure that information disclosed in our annual and periodic reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. In addition, we designed these disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that this information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures.

Based on our most recent evaluation, which was completed as of the end of the first quarter of 2004, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer believe that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There have been no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the internal controls subsequent to the completion of this evaluation.

Part II - Other Information

Item 2. Changes in Securities and Use of Proceeds

In February 2004, we sold 1,175,519 shares of common stock at a price of $11.75 per share, to a number of institutional investors and mutual funds in a private placement that satisfied the terms and conditions of Rule 506 under the Securities Act of 1933. We subsequently filed a registration statement for these shares in March 2004. All purchasers were accredited investors. We did not solicit purchasers by any form of general solicitation, and we exercised reasonable care to assure that the purchasers were not underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. We applied the net proceeds of approximately $13.0 million to pay down our line of credit secured by Latitudes Apartments.
