PROPOSAL TWO

APPROVAL OF 2009 OMNIBUS INCENTIVE PLAN

The Board of Directors is proposing for shareholder approval the 2009 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the "Omnibus Plan"). The following is a summary of the terms of the Omnibus Plan. Shareholders are encouraged to read the Omnibus Plan, which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A, in its entirety before casting their votes. Shareholders should also review the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this proxy statement beginning on page 22, which outlines the Company's complete executive compensation program for named executives.

Omnibus Plan

Once approved, the Omnibus Plan will serve as the vehicle for the Company to issue stock options and restricted stock to Company employees, including those executives participating in the Executive Incentive Plan (the "EIP") approved by shareholders in 2008. Stock options will no longer be issued under the BOK Financial 2003 Stock Option Plan. Restricted stock, which has been issued under the EIP, will now be issued pursuant to the Omnibus Plan.

Summary of Terms

- o Reserved Shares. A total of 5,000,000 shares of common stock are reserved for issuance as stock options or as restricted stock or some combination of stock options and restricted stock under the Omnibus Plan.
- o Administration. Stock options or restricted stock awarded pursuant to the EIP are administered by the Independent Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Stock options or restricted stock awarded other than pursuant to the EIP are administered by the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO").
- o Eligibility. All full-time employees of BOK Financial and its subsidiaries who, in the judgment of the Committee or of the CEO make a significant impact upon the profitability of the Company through their decisions, actions, and counsel, are eligible to participate in the Omnibus Plan and to receive awards of stock options or restricted stock.
- o Purchase Price. The purchase price of shares subject to stock options is the fair market value of the Company's common stock on NASDAQ on the date of the award letter notifying an employee that s/he has been selected to receive a grant of stock options. Fair market value shall be the closing price at which shares of Company common stock were sold on the valuation day as quoted by NASDAQ or, if there were no sales on that date, then on the last day prior to the valuation day during which there were sales.

- o Maximum Shares. The maximum number of shares of common stock subject to stock options which may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year period is 200,000, and the maximum number of restricted shares which may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year period is 60,000.
- o Vesting. With respect to stock options, one-seventh of each award of options vests and becomes exercisable on each anniversary of the award date. With respect to restricted stock, all restrictions on each award of restricted stock (other than awards issued pursuant to the EIP and special grants) shall lapse on the fifth anniversary of the date the restricted stock was issued. All restrictions on each award of restricted stock issued pursuant to the EIP lapse on the fifth anniversary of the last day of the year for which the restricted shares were issued; except for restrictions on awards of restricted stock made as result of exceeding performance targets in the EIP at the end of its performance period, in which case the restrictions lapse on the second anniversary of the last day of the year for which the shares were issued. All restrictions on each award of restricted stock issued as a special grant by the CEO at his option for hiring and retention purposes shall lapse as set out in the award letter notifying an employee that s/he has been selected to receive a grant of restricted stock.

- o Expiration. Stock options must be exercised within three years of vesting or they expire.
- o Non-Transferability. The stock options, the restricted stock, and the right to vote restricted shares and to receive dividends thereon, may not be sold, assigned, transferred, exchanged, pledged, hypothecated, or otherwise encumbered, except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.
- o Termination/Forfeiture. If the employment of the participant terminates for any reason, including death, disability, retirement, resignation or involuntary termination (with or without cause), the participant's options and restricted stock automatically terminate and are forfeited except:
 - o if the CEO (as to awards made other than pursuant to the EIP), or the Independent Compensation Committee (as to awards made pursuant to the EIP), in their sole discretion, and subject to approval by the Board of Directors, extend the termination of stock options or restricted stock;
 - o if termination is by reason of death or disability, the participant (or the participant's personal representative) may purchase any of the participant's stock options which the participant had the right to purchase immediately preceding the date of the participant's termination of employment, within the time period such participant, but for such termination, could have exercised such stock options;
 - o if termination is by reason of resignation, retirement, or involuntary termination without cause, as defined in the Omnibus Plan, the participant may purchase, within 90 days of the termination, the stock options which the participant had the right to purchase immediately preceding the date of termination; or
 - o if the participant is involuntarily terminated without cause within one year following a change in control, as defined in the Omnibus Plan, the participant may purchase, within 90 days of the participant's termination of employment, all of the participant's stock option shares, and all restrictions on the participant's restricted stock shall lapse.

- o Amendment. The Board of Directors may amend or terminate the Omnibus Plan, but shareholder approval is required to: materially increase the maximum number of shares which can be issued; materially increase the benefits accruing to participants; materially modify the requirements for eligibility; or modify the Omnibus Plan in a way which requires shareholder approval by law or regulation.
- o Duration. The Omnibus Plan will remain in effect until all stock options awarded under it have been exercised or have expired, or all restricted stock awarded under it are free of all restrictions, whichever is later, but no award will be made more than ten years after the date the shareholders approve the Omnibus Plan.

- o Tax Effects. The Omnibus Plan is not qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The following is only a summary of the effect of federal income taxation upon employees and the Company with respect to compensation under the Omnibus Plan. It does not purport to be complete and does not discuss the tax consequences arising in the context of the employee's death or the income tax laws of any municipality, state or foreign country in which the employee's income or gain may be taxable. Generally, the tax effects are:
 - o Unless otherwise allowed or required by tax law, the Company will be entitled to an income tax deduction (i) with regard to stock options, at the date of exercise of the stock options by the participants and (ii) with regard to restricted stock when the restricted stock vests. The amount of the deduction will be equal to (i) with regard to stock options, the spread between the fair market value and the option price and (ii) with regard to restricted stock, the fair market value of the restricted stock on the vesting date
 - o Participants should consult their tax advisors as to the tax effect of stock options and restricted stock received under the Omnibus Plan as individual circumstances and changes to tax laws and regulations may change the tax treatment. Generally, participants will recognize income at the date of exercise of the stock options and on the vesting date of restricted stock (unless the participant elects to recognize income on the date of grant), in an amount equal to the deduction allowed to the Company. Income recognized due to the exercise of a stock option or vesting of restricted stock will be subject to withholding and reported to the employee on form W-2. Generally, participants will not be subject to any further income recognition until a taxable transaction occurs involving the vested stock (in the case of restricted stock) or the purchase of stock (in the case of stock options). The basis in the stock is equal to the fair market value at the date of exercise (for the stock options) and at the date of vesting (for the restricted stock), and future transactions will be subject to capital asset rules. However, the amount of taxable income and the basis on the restricted stock will also depend on whether the participant makes an 83(b) election under the Internal Revenue Service code.

Vote Required. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock, present in person or by proxy, voted at the meeting, is required for approval of the Omnibus Plan.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the 2009 Omnibus Incentive Plan. Proxies will be voted FOR the Plan unless otherwise specified.

Compensation of Directors

All non-officer directors of BOK Financial and BOK receive a single retainer of $7,500 per year, payable quarterly in arrears in BOK Financial common stock in accordance with the BOK Financial Directors Stock Compensation Plan, whether serving on one or more of the boards of directors. Director compensation shares are issued to each director on or before the 15th day following the end of each calendar quarter during which such director served as a member of the Board of Directors of BOK Financial or BOK. The BOK Financial Directors Stock Compensation Plan further provides that the issuance price for the director compensation shares is the average of the mid-points between the highest price and the lowest price at which trades occurred on NASDAQ on the five trading days immediately preceding the end of the calendar quarter.

All non-officer directors also are paid $500 in cash for each board of directors or committee meeting attended (provided only one fee is paid when two or more committees meet contemporaneously) and $1,000 in cash for each committee meeting chaired. No such fees are paid for meetings not attended. In addition, the Chairman of the Risk Oversight and Audit Committee receives $250 for each quarterly earnings release conference and upon application to, and subject to the discretion of, the Risk Oversight and Audit Committee, $250 for each additional substantive conference with the Company's independent auditors.

Attendance of Meetings

The entire Board of Directors of BOK Financial met four times during 2008. All directors of BOK Financial attended 75% of all meetings of the Board of Directors and committees on which they served, except Messrs. Craft and Joullian, who were unable to attend 75% of the meetings due to business and personal conflicts. Director Nominations

While the Board of Directors does not have a standing nomination committee, director candidates identified by management and members of the Board of Directors are discussed at virtually every Board of Directors meeting. The Board has no written policy on qualifications of directors; however, the understood expectation is that directors will have all of the following characteristics: (i) impeccable integrity; (ii) strong sense of professionalism, and (iii) capability of serving the interests of stockholders, and several of the following characteristics: (i) prominence in the community; (ii) significant relations with one of the Company's subsidiary banks, (iii) ability to represent the views of under-represented constituencies in the Company's market areas, (iv) financial analytical skill and expertise, and (v) vision for social trends.

The Board of Directors will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders if provided with the following: (i) evidence in accordance with Rule 14a-8 of compliance with stockholder eligibility requirements, (ii) the written consent of the candidate(s) for nomination as a director and verification as to the accuracy of the biographical and other information submitted in support of the candidate, (iii) a resume or other written statement of the qualifications of the candidate(s) for nomination as a director, and (iv) all information regarding the candidate(s) and the submitting stockholder that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement filed with the SEC if the candidate(s) were nominated for election to the Board of Directors. Any recommendations received from stockholders will be evaluated in the same manner that potential nominees suggested by board members, management or other parties are evaluated. The Board of Directors encourages shareholder director candidate recommendations.

Any stockholder that wishes to present a director candidate for consideration should submit the information identified above pursuant to the procedures set forth below under "Communication with the Board of Directors" on page 17.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that BOK Financial is a "controlled company," as defined in Rule 4350(c)(5) of the NASDAQ listing standards, based on Mr. Kaiser's beneficial ownership of approximately 61.6% of the outstanding common stock. Accordingly, BOK Financial is exempt from certain requirements of the NASDAQ listing standards, including the requirement to maintain a majority of independent directors on the Company's Board of Directors and the requirements regarding the determination of compensation of executive officers and the nomination of directors by independent directors. Nevertheless, the Company does maintain a substantial majority of independent directors, determines upper level management compensation through an independent board committee and nominates new board members through board consensus. Further, the Risk Oversight and Audit Committee is comprised solely of independent board members in accordance with NASDAQ Rule 4350(d). Further discussion regarding determination of independence may be found in the sections entitled "Risk Oversight and Audit Committee" and "Independent Compensation Committee" herein.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Risk Oversight and Audit Committee, Independent Compensation Committee and Credit Committee are described below.

Risk Oversight and Audit Committee

During 2008, the Board of Directors of BOK Financial Corporation had a standing Risk Oversight and Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") comprised solely of independent directors. The Board of Directors has adopted an Audit Committee charter that complies with Rule 4350(d)(1) of the NASDAQ listing standards. The Audit Committee has the responsibility and authority set forth in Rule 4350(d)(3) of the NASDAQ listing standards under the revised charter. Among other things, the Audit Committee will be responsible for overseeing the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee is also directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Company's independent auditors, including the resolution of disagreements between management and the auditors regarding financial reporting.

The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Joullian (Chairman), Allen, Boylan, Cadieux, Gibson and Malcolm. The Board of Directors has designated Mr. Joullian as its "audit committee financial expert," as defined in Item 407(d) of Regulation S-K. All the members of the Audit Committee are "independent" as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the NASDAQ listing standards. Director independence is determined through the procedures described under "Related Party Transaction Review and Approval Policy" herein. The Audit Committee held five meetings in fiscal 2008 and intends to meet at least five times in fiscal 2009. The Report of the Audit Committee is on page 17 of this proxy statement.

Independent Compensation Committee

In December 2002, the Board of Directors established an Independent Compensation Committee, consisting of independent directors, to administer a performance-based compensation plan for senior executives in accordance with the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Independent Compensation Committee does not have a charter. The Independent Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Allen (Chairman), Cadieux (non-voting), Griffin (non-voting), Kaiser (non-voting) and Malcolm. Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, the direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer, and other officers participating in the Company's incentive plan are approved by the Independent Compensation Committee. The Committee does not delegate this authority. Compensation for all other officers is, in practice, determined by the Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Kaiser, the Chairman of the Board. The Independent Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation and the Executive Compensation Discussion and Analysis may be found on pages 33 and 22 respectively.

Credit Committee

The purpose of the Credit Committee is to review and report to the Board of Directors regarding the quality of the Company's credit portfolio and trends affecting the credit portfolio. It also oversees the effectiveness and administration of credit-related policies and reviews the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses and reserve for off-balance sheet credit losses. The members of the Credit Committee are Messrs. Griffin (Chairman), Boylan, Craft, Hargis, Kaiser, LaFortune, Lybarger, and Richards. The Credit Committee met eleven times during 2008 and plans to meet at least eleven times in 2009.

Independent Director Meetings

The Board of Directors has adopted a policy of regularly scheduled executive sessions where independent directors will meet separate from management. The independent directors plan to meet in executive session after all regularly scheduled Board of Director meetings. The independent Directors held four executive sessions during 2008. The presiding Director at the executive sessions is Mr. Kaiser. Shareholders of the Company may communicate their concerns to the non-management Directors in accordance with the procedures described below under "Communication with the Board of Directors."

Communication with the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of BOK Financial believes that it is important for stockholders to have a process to send communications to the Board. Accordingly, stockholders who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors, or a particular Director, may do so by sending a letter to the Investor Relations Manager of BOK Financial at P.O. Box 2300, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74192. The mailing envelope should contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a "Stockholder-Board Communication" or "Stockholder-Director Communication." Such letters should identify the author as a stockholder and state whether the intended recipients are all members of the Board of Directors or certain specified individual Directors. The Investor Relations Manager and the General Counsel will independently review the content of the letters. Communications which are constructive suggestions for the conduct of the business or policies of the Company will be promptly delivered to the identified Director or Directors. Communications which are complaints about specific incidents involving banking or brokerage service will be directed to the appropriate business unit for review. Director nominations will be reviewed for compliance with the requirements identified in the section of this proxy entitled "Director Nominations", and if meeting such requirements, promptly forwarded to the Director or Directors identified in the communication.

Report of the Risk Oversight and Audit Committee

The Risk Oversight and Audit Committee (the Committee) oversees BOK Financial Corporation's (the Company's) financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee discussed and reviewed the Company's consolidated financial statements included in the Annual Report with management and reviewed internal control over financial reporting with management and the internal auditors. This review included discussions with management regarding the quality, not just the acceptability, of accounting policies. It also included the reasonableness of significant judgments, the clarity of disclosures in the consolidated financial statements and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Management has the primary responsibility for establishing and maintaining internal control over financial reporting and for assessing the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. The Committee reviewed internal audit reports on the effectiveness of management's assessment process, discussed internal control matters with management and reviewed the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements as necessary.

The Committee discussed and reviewed with Ernst & Young LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm, their opinion on the conformity of the Company's consolidated financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. This discussion included their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting policies. This discussion covered the required communications under audit standards established by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), including PCAOB Auditing Standard No. 5, An Audit of Internal Control over Financial Reporting that is Integrated with an Audit of Financial Statements and AICPA Auditing Standard No. 61, Communications with Audit Committees. The Committee has reviewed the auditors' independence and obtained the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young, LLP regarding independent auditor communications with audit committees concerning independence, in accordance with applicable requirements of the PCAOB. In conducting this review, the Committee considered whether any non-audit services were compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence.

The Committee meets at least quarterly with the Company's internal auditors and the independent registered public accounting firm regarding the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. These meetings are conducted with and without management present and the Committee discusses the results of the audits, including the auditors' evaluation of internal control over financial reporting.

Each of the members of the Audit Committee qualifies as an "independent" Director under the current NASDAQ listing standards. The Board of Directors has appointed E. Carey Joullian IV as the "audit committee financial expert".

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Executive Compensation Program Overview

In 2002, the Board of Directors established the Independent Compensation Committee (for purposes of this analysis the "Committee") to administer performance-based compensation plans for senior executives in accordance with the provision of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Committee, the voting members of which are independent within the meaning of 162(m), has responsibility for establishing, implementing and approving the Company's general compensation philosophy with regard to the senior executive officers who participate in the Company's Executive Incentive Plan which was approved by shareholders in 2003. The Committee receives guidance from the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), who assists in evaluating employee performance, recommending business performance targets and objectives and suggesting salary levels and awards for executives (other than himself).

The BOK Financial executive compensation program is designed to attract and retain executives whose judgment, leadership abilities and special efforts result in successful operations for the company and an increase in shareholder value. Various components of the program work together to:

- o Reward sustained, above peer performance
- o Encourage both individual performance and teamwork
- o Link compensation to operational results
- o Align executive interests with shareholder interests
- o Keep BOK Financial compensation competitive with peer banks
- o Create long-term commitment to the Company

The BOK Financial executive compensation program includes:

- o Salary
- o Executive Incentive Compensation (annual and long-term)
- o Pension Plan
- o 401(k) Thrift Plan
- o Deferred Compensation

The Committee meets as often as necessary to perform its duties and responsibilities. The Committee met two times in 2008 and its members included Gregory S. Allen (Chairman), Chester E. Cadieux, III (non-voting), David F. Griffin (non-voting), George B. Kaiser (non-voting) and Steven J. Malcolm.

Throughout this proxy statement, the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the other individuals included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 35, are referred to as the "named executives".

Executive Compensation in the Current Economy

Edgar Filing: BOK FINANCIAL CORP ET AL - Form DEF 14A

In 2008, BOK Financial management produced well above average results in a challenging economy. In a year when many financial institutions experienced losses, BOK Financial generated $153 million in earnings. BOK Financial's 2008 earnings per share growth, the primary measure for BOK Financial's performance-based executive compensation, outperformed its Peer Group earnings per share median by 295.4%, ranking BOK Financial in the upper third of the Peer Group. For a list of institutions contained in the 2008 Peer Group see page 26.

While many financial institutions sought additional capital in 2008, BOK Financial's capital remained significantly above regulatory "well capitalized" levels. BOK Financial's strong capital position allowed management to forego participation in the Treasury's Capital Purchase Program, an element of the Troubled Asset Relief Program ("TARP"). Because BOK Financial did not take TARP funds, BOK Financial is not subject to the various executive compensation restrictions, disclosures and certifications mandated by TARP.

Even though BOK Financial is not subject to TARP, the Compensation Committee has independently decided to complete a full review of executive compensation, for all management levels, in 2009. While BOK Financial's performance in the current economy supports the effectiveness of the Executive Incentive Plan initiated in 2003, the Committee believes continued evaluation and refinement of the Executive Incentive Plan is necessary to maximize shareholder value.

Promoting Long Term Growth and Discouraging Excessive Risk Taking

In beginning its 2009 review, the Compensation Committee revisited the structure of the Executive Incentive Plan to re-evaluate whether the Executive Incentive Plan encourages long term, sustained growth rather than excessive risk taking for short term profits. The Committee considered the i) length of the performance period, ii) amounts of equity ownership, iii) vesting periods for stock options and restricted stock and iv) emphasis of shareholders and management on long term growth. The Committee found these elements of compensation sufficient to discourage excessive risk taking and emphasize long term growth.

Five Year Performance Period

The Executive Incentive Plan, as originally implemented, creates a rolling five year performance period. The earnings per share growth for annual incentive is measured by comparing the earnings per share growth of the median of the Peer Group for a trailing two-year period determined as of the end of the year in respect to which the annual incentive is to be paid (i.e. a two year look back from the date annual incentive is paid). The earnings per share growth for long-term incentive is determined for the trailing three-year period determined at the end of the three-year performance period (i.e. a three year look ahead from the dates long-term incentive awards are made).

Spreading the vesting of performance awards over a five year period creates a disincentive to inflate earnings or performance in any one year to the detriment of other years, encouraging consistent, long term performance.

Significant Equity Ownership

All long-term executive compensation is paid in stock options or restricted stock. In 2008, 41% of compensation to named executives was awarded as equity. Stock ownership guidelines require the CEO to own BOK Financial stock in an amount not less than five times his base salary. All other named executives must own company stock in an amount not less than three times such executive's annual salary. The result is that BOK Financial executive officers own, and must continue to hold, a significant amount of BOK Financial stock at all times. For a further accounting of BOK Financial named executive equity ownership positions see page 5.

Lengthy Vesting Period for Stock Options and Restricted Stock

Stock option grants vest over a seven year period and restricted stock grants vest in total after five years. According to a recent review of BOK Financial's peer group, typical vesting periods for stock options is 3-4 years and restricted stock is 3-5 years. BOK Financial's extended vesting periods create a long term commitment to the Company and a motivation for ongoing success.

Shareholder and Chief Executive Officer Emphasis on Long Term Success

Mr. George Kaiser, the largest BOK Financial shareholder and Chairman of the BOK Financial Board, and Mr. Stan Lybarger, BOK Financial President and Chief Executive Officer, emphasize a long term approach to management, reducing pressure on executives to realize short term gains to the detriment of overall long term success.

Evaluating Executive Compensation Relative to Peer and Overall Earnings Performance

By basing the Executive Incentive Plan on Peer Group comparison, the Company avoids penalizing executives for general industry and economic downturns and encourages executives to produce the best possible results in good and bad economic times. Currently, all the named executive officers (other than the CEO and CFO) receive 40% of their annual incentive based on Company per share earnings growth compared to Peer Group per share earnings growth ("EPS Growth") and 100% of their long-term incentive based on EPS Growth. The CEO and CFO annual and long-term incentive is based 100% on EPS Growth. In 2008, the Company's EPS Growth out performed the Peer Group earnings per share growth median by 295.4%.

The Compensation Committee's goal has always been to provide competitive remuneration to executives to enable BOK Financial to hire and retain top talent. The Committee has reviewed previous years' earnings per share performance relative to the peer group and compensation paid to named executive officers relative to compensation paid for similar positions at peer banks. In 2007, the earnings per share ranking for BOK Financial relative to the peer group was 84.2% and the total compensation paid ranking (for named executives) relative to peer group was 68.4%. In 2006, the earning per share ranking for BOK Financial relative to the peer group was 70% and the total compensation paid ranking (for named executives) relative to peer group was 64.6%. For additional information regarding the determination of peer group see page 26.

The Compensation Committee is sensitive to the fact, based on experience during previous unfavorable economic cycles, that reducing executive compensation during a downturn could result in poor morale, diminished motivation and loss of good people to other financial institutions and industries. Executives, like shareholders, are experiencing the effects of the economy and lower earnings on the BOK Financial stock price. As of February 5, 2009, based on a stock price of $36.01 compared to a May 15, 2008 stock price of $60.84, BOK Financial named executives lost $5,621,990 in exercisable stock option value, $7,949,913 in non-exercisable stock option value, and $2,265,415 in restricted stock value. Further, as of February 5, 2009, all stock option value for awards made after 2003 had been eliminated. It is likely that a significant number of options will expire out of the money. By maintaining current compensation levels, the Company may better position BOK Financial to work through these difficult times and take full advantage of the eventual economic turnaround.

While the Compensation Committee feels the use of peer performance comparison has been successful in motivating executives to drive performance and maximize earnings for shareholders, during the 2009 review the Compensation Committee plans to analyze and consider whether it would benefit shareholders to base executive compensation, in whole or in part, upon absolute performance as opposed, or in addition, to Peer Group comparison.

Factors Used for Establishing Executive Compensation

The following is an explanation of the primary data, metrics and criteria used by the Committee to determine compensation as more fully described in "Components of Compensation" below:

Earnings Per Share Growth Compared to Peers

- o EPS Growth is used to measure both the annual and long-term incentive under the Executive Incentive Plan.
- o The Committee views EPS Growth as an important variable used in public markets to measure profitability and determine the company's stock price and, thus, shareholder value.

Net Direct Contribution

- o Net Direct Contribution is a mathematical calculation which is designed to compare the actual financial contribution of a business unit to its planned performance. Net Direct Contribution is determined, generally, by calculating the net operating income of a business unit and subtracting loan charge offs and activity charges. Activity charges typically include information technology, accounting and other back-office services provided by one business unit to another.
- o Prior to the beginning of the new fiscal year, the CEO asks executives to develop business plans which include anticipated expenses and targeted revenue for their respective areas of responsibility (the "Net Direct Contribution Plans"). The CEO and CFO, in concert with the responsible executive, review and modify the Net Direct Contribution Plans. The CEO and CFO then aggregate the Net Direct Contribution Plans to develop an overall Company-wide budget and plan (the "Annual Plan"). The Annual Plan is presented to the Company board of directors for review and comment.
- o For Mr. Bradshaw, Net Direct Contribution was linked to the financial performance of the Consumer Banking, Mortgage Banking and Wealth Management Groups. For Mr. Pickryl, Net Direct Contribution was linked to the financial performance of the regional banking group which consists primarily of commercial banking activities in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Arizona. For Mr. Ellinor, Net Direct Contribution was linked to financial performance of Commercial Banking in Oklahoma, Kansas City and Arkansas.
- o Linking compensation to Net Direct Contribution motivates executives to achieve superior results in their particular business units, contributing to Company wide profitability.

Individual Performance Goals

- o At the beginning of each year, the CEO meets with each of the named executives to establish individual performance goals.
- o Progress is discussed with each executive periodically throughout the year.

Peer Group Compensation Data

- o The Company's internal compensation group completes an annual peer review of executive compensation using publicly available information, including proxy statements.
- o The Independent Compensation Committee uses this information to assist in setting salary and executive incentive plan targets.

BOK Financial's Peer Group is determined annually and includes:

- o In 2008, the Compensation Committee recommended the change to a 20 bank holding company peer group from a 26 bank holding company peer group believing a reduction in peer group size will cause the peer group to contain more similarly situated and like institutions. The 20 bank holding company peer group will include 10 financial institutions directly above and below the Company in asset size. The shareholders of the Company approved this change in peer group at the 2008 Annual Shareholders' meeting to be effective for the 2009 compensation year.

For 2008 the Peer Group (the "Peer Group") included 26 bank holding companies directly above and below the Company in asset size:

The following table presents the median Peer Group annual and long-term incentive payments as a percentage of an executive's base salary compared with the Company's annual and long-term incentive payments as a percentage of an executive's base salary:

Components of Executive Compensation

Salary - Executives receive a base salary which is paid in cash twice monthly. Each year the Compensation Committee reviews executive base salaries to determine if adjustments should be made in view of a change in executives' roles and responsibilities, value added to the company, individual performance, experience, evaluation of peer data, and overall success of the company. The Committee considers the reports of performance and recommendations of the CEO, as well as peer data compiled by the Company's internal compensation group and the independent consultant. The Compensation Committee has historically sought to align executive compensation with the peer group average for related executive roles and experience.

Executive Incentive Compensation - The Executive Incentive Plan allows the named executives, and certain executives that report directly to, or are designated by, the CEO, to earn i) an annual cash incentive, which has historically been paid in the first quarter of the year following that to which the service relates, and ii) long-term incentive, which is paid in stock options or performance shares, or a combination thereof (at the option of the executive). Stock options and performance shares are awarded on the second Friday of January. The number of options and/or shares is subsequently adjusted at the end of the three year performance period discussed below.

Annual Incentive - Annual incentive is based on a combination of EPS Growth and Net Direct Contribution, subject to downward adjustment for failure to meet individual performance goals. The Compensation Committee receives recommendations from the CEO and determines the allocation between EPS Growth and Net Direct Contribution to be used in calculating each named executive's annual incentive. Currently, all named executive officers (other than the CEO and CFO) receive 60% of their annual incentive based on Net Direct Contribution and 40% of their annual incentive based on EPS Growth. Because the responsibilities of CEO and CFO are not tied to any one business unit but include the Company as a whole, their annual incentive is based only on EPS Growth.

The target annual incentive compensation has historically been 50 to 60% of the named executives' annual salaries except the target has been 75% of annual salary for the CEO. A participant earns an annual incentive based on a matrix where 33% of the targeted annual incentive compensation is earned if 80% of the goal is met, 100% of the targeted incentive compensation is earned if 100% of the goal is met, and 200% of the targeted incentive compensation is earned if 120% of the goal is met, as illustrated in the following matrix:

Actual vs. Goal	Incentive Payout
80%	33%
85%	50%
90%	67%
95%	83%

EPS Growth for annual incentive is measured by comparing the earning per share growth of the median of the Peer Group for a trailing two-year period determined as of the end of the year in respect to which the annual incentive is to be paid.

The EPS Growth target for its named executives is 100% attained if the Company's EPS Growth is equal to the median of the Peer Group earnings per share growth for a trailing two-year period determined as of the end of the year in respect to which the annual incentive is to be paid. In 2008, the trailing two year EPS Growth of BOK Financial was -15.24%, compared to the median trailing two year EPS Growth of the peer banks identified herein of -51.53%. As a result, named executive officers attained 338.03 % of their EPS Growth goal for 2008. Because Company EPS growth compared to peer EPS growth exceeded the maximum performance target of 120%, each named executive officer earned the maximum annual incentive payment of 200%.

The Net Direct Contribution target for the three named executives (other than the CEO and CFO whose annual incentive is based solely on EPS Growth), is 100% of the planned Net Direct Contribution for such executive's respective area of responsibility. For 2008, the Net Direct Contribution targets were as follows (in thousands): Mr. Bradshaw - $184,038; Mr. Ellinor - $182,114; Mr. Pickryl - $187,703. For 2008, the named executives attained their Net Direct Contribution targets as follows: Mr. Bradshaw attained 104%, Mr. Ellinor attained 55% and Mr. Pickryl attained 79%. When averaged with the 2007 results, the results of Net Direct Contribution performance equates to an annual incentive payment of approximately 100% of target for Mr. Bradshaw, 77% of target for Mr. Ellinor and 90% for Mr. Pickryl.

Long-term Incentive - Long-term incentive is based solely on EPS Growth, subject to downward adjustment for failure to meet individual performance goals. The target has historically been 100% of annual salary for all named executives other than the CEO whose target is 160% of annual salary.

An executive earns long-term incentive based on a matrix pursuant to which 25% of the targeted long-term incentive compensation is earned if the goal, less five percentage points, is met, 100% of the targeted long-term incentive compensation is earned if 100% of the goal is met, and 150% of the targeted long-term compensation is earned if the goal plus five percentage points is met, as illustrated in the following matrix:

EPS Growth for long-term incentive is measured by comparing the earnings per share growth of the median of the Peer Group for the trailing three-year period determined at the end of the three-year performance period.

The goal is equal to the median EPS Growth of the BOK Financial Peer Bank for the trailing three-year period determined at the end of the three-year performance period. In 2008, the trailing three year EPS Growth of the Company was -8.98% compared to the average trailing three year EPS Growth of the Peer Group of -36.80%. This resulted in an earned long-term incentive award of approximately 168% of base for each named executive officer.

Long-term incentive awards are paid in stock options or performance shares, or a combination thereof, at the option of the named executive. This flexibility allows named executives to choose the kind of award best suited to their financial needs, age from retirement, and other personal factors.

Stock option grants vest over a seven year period. Performance shares vest only on the fifth anniversary of the last day of the year for which the performance shares were issued and must be held for three years unless company stock ownership guidelines are met. Current stock ownership guidelines require the CEO to own company stock in an amount not less than five times his base salary. All other named executives must own company stock in an amount not less than three times salary. Shares owned outright, performance shares, and value of in-the-money stock options are included in the calculation of ownership amounts.

Up to fifty percent of the annual incentive compensation and fifty percent of the long-term compensation may be adjusted downward at the discretion of the Committee. The CEO recommends downward adjustments based on failure of named executives to obtain satisfactory results and attain individually assigned goals.

The CEO establishes these individually assigned goals at the beginning of the fiscal year and reviews them with each named executive on a quarterly basis. The goals are related to specific business objectives in each individual executive's area of responsibility. In 2008, there were no material adjustments made to any of the individual goals. The CEO did not recommend downward adjustments for any of the named executives except Mr. Pickryl whose compensation was adjusted downward by 50%. Neither the CEO nor the Committee has the authority to adjust the annual and long-term incentive target payments upwards once they have been established at the beginning of the year.

The Committee established higher annual incentive target and long-term incentive targets for Mr. Lybarger than for other named executives after reviewing peer data which reflected combined higher annual and long-term incentive compensation targets for CEOs compared to other named executives. Combined annual and long-term incentive targets for all named executives, including the CEO, are generally set to reflect the median of the BOK Financial Peer Group.

Edgar Filing: BOK FINANCIAL CORP ET AL - Form DEF 14A

Thrift Plan - Executive may contribute to the BOK Thrift Plan, a 401(k) eligible plan. Employee contributions are matched by the company up to 6% of the base compensation based on years of service. Participants may direct the investments of their accounts in a variety of options, including BOK Financial common stock.

Pension Plan - The Pension Plan was established in 1987 as a cash balance defined benefit pension plan. Benefits are determined based on a hypothetical account balance that accumulates over time. The account balances grow based on a 5.25% interest credit on prior balances. In 2006, the company curtailed its contributions to the pension plan for all employees, including named executives; however, the hypothetical amounts continue to grow based on interest credit.

Special Grants - In 2001, BOK adopted a plan to extend the life of stock options granted in 1997, 1998 and 1999 by two years. Each year, on the day that one-seventh of the 1997, 1998 and 1999 options expire, new stock options are granted in the same number (the "Special Options"). The Special Options vest two years after the grant date and expire 45 days after vesting. The exercise price for the Special Options is the market value for BOK Financial common stock on NASDAQ on the day of grant.

Deferred Compensation - The named executives are each party to an individual Deferred Compensation Agreement that permitted, until year-end 2004, the deferral of certain compensation. The CEO is the only named executive officer that is party to an Amended and Restated 409A Deferred Compensation Agreement which currently allows awards of performance shares and options to be deferred. The executive Deferred Compensation agreements are discussed in further detail under "Nonqualified Deferred Compensation" on page 47.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits - Other than the participation in the plans and programs described above, benefits which are very immaterial in nature, or benefits which are provided to employees generally such as health and dental insurance, the Company does not provide perquisites or other personal benefits to named executive officers.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The BOK Financial executive compensation program has many objectives, all of which are designed to enhance Company value. Because no single type of compensation award or performance criteria could achieve all objectives, several types of compensation performance criteria and awards are used to achieve the maximum benefit from executive compensation.

32

There is no pre-established policy or target for allocating executive compensation between cash and equity, long-term and short-term. Rather, the Committee considers its varied objectives, personal performance, company performance and data regarding peer group compensation to establish the appropriate level and mix of incentive compensation. The Committee has generally chosen not to consider the benefits to named executives from previously awarded compensation other than to establish a baseline for future compensation.

Company executive compensation objectives include:

Sustained, Above Peer Performance - BOK Financial rewards sustained, above peer performance through a five year compensation continuum in the Executive Incentive Plan consisting of a two year EPS Growth look back for annual compensation and a three year forward looking EPS Growth for long-term.

Individual Performance and Teamwork - Annual incentive compensation promotes individual performance with a percentage of annual incentive compensation being based on Net Direct Contribution (except for the CEO and CFO) and a percentage being based on EPS Growth, with potential downward adjustments for failure to meet individual performance goals. Long-term compensation, based entirely on EPS Growth, promotes teamwork by rewarding success of the Company as a whole.

Link Compensation to Operational Results - By using EPS Growth and Net Direct Contribution as the metrics for performance, both annual and long-term compensation are directly tied to financial performance of the Company. The Committee also considers the financial success of the Company when determining salary.

Competition with Peer Banks -To attract and retain a superior executive, BOK Financial strives to provide levels of compensation comparable to competitor banks. The Committee considers peer compensation data when establishing salary and incentive compensation targets.

Align Executive Interests with Shareholder Interests - While BOK Financial does not have a specific policy or target for determining the allocation between equity and cash awards, the Company does promote equity ownership to align executive interests with shareholder interests. All long-term executive compensation is paid in stock options or performance shares. Stock ownership guidelines require the CEO to own company stock in an amount not less than five times his base salary. All other named executives must own company stock in an amount not less than three times base salary. Executives who fail to meet the stock ownership guidelines may not sell restricted stock after it vests.

Long-term Commitment to the Company - BOK Financial values company experience and stability of operations. BOK Financial promotes loyalty through an extended seven year stock option vesting period and a five year performance share vesting period. Further, long-term incentive is earned after a three year performance period.

For additional discussion regarding compensation philosophies and objectives see "Executive Compensation In the Current Economy" on page 22.

Change in Control and Termination Benefits

The Company has a limited number of changes in control benefits for executive officers. If an executive, or any employee of BOK Financial, is terminated within one year after a "change in control" (as defined in footnote 3 on page 50), and such termination is other than "for cause" (as defined in footnote 2 on page 50), then all unvested performance shares and stock options he or she has been granted vest. Stock options must then be exercised within 90 days of the change in control. Mr. Lybarger's employment agreement provides that Mr. Lybarger may terminate his employment agreement upon a "change in control" (as defined in footnote 4 on page 48) and receive severance and other benefits more fully described on page 48. These change in control benefits have been in effect since the creation of the BOK Financial stock option plan and the initial employment agreement with Mr. Lybarger in 1991. The Company believes the provisions are generally in line with current market practices and has seen no reason, to this point, to provide additional change in control protection.

Executive officers receive the same severance benefits as other BOK Financial employees which are based upon the amount of time a person has been employed by the Company. Mr. Lybarger, Mr. Pickryl, Mr. Bradshaw and Mr. Ellinor are entitled to receive additional severance pursuant to their employment agreements as more fully described in Potential Payments Upon Termination found on pages 49-50. The Company believes that the severance and termination payments help recruit and retain senior executives by protecting them in the event their positions are adversely impacted by an unexpected change in circumstance and are consistent with those offered by competitors.

Stock Option Grant Policy

In 2004, BOK Financial initiated a policy of granting all Company stock options, to both named executives and all other Company employees, on the first business Friday in January (other than the "Special Options" described above). This date was chosen by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of the Board and is also the date that performance shares are awarded pursuant to the Executive Incentive Plan. In 2006, the pre-established grant date was changed to the second business Friday in January to account for administrative challenges during the holiday season (the "Grant Date").

All stock options awarded by BOK Financial are priced at the market value for BOK Financial common stock on NASDAQ as of the Grant Date. There is no program or policy to coordinate the granting of options with the release of material non-public information as all grants occur on the Grant Date, including those made to new executive officers.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code - Both annual incentive and long-term awards made pursuant to the Executive Incentive Plan are designed to comply with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits to $1 million the amount that a publicly-held company is allowed to deduct each year for the compensation paid to each of the corporation's chief executive officer and three most highly compensated executive officers other than the chief financial officer. However, performance-based compensation determined in accordance with IRS regulations is not subject to the limit. In order to qualify as performance-based compensation, payments must be computed on the basis of an objective, performance-based standard determined by a committee that consists solely of two or more voting outside directors and the material terms under which the compensation is to be paid, including the performance goals, must be disclosed to and approved by the shareholders.

Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code - If an executive is entitled to nonqualified deferred compensation benefits that are subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, and such benefits do not comply with Section 409A, then the benefits are taxable in the first year they are not subject to substantial risk of forfeiture. In such case, the Service Provider is subject to regular federal income tax, interest and an additional federal income tax of 20% of the benefit included in the income. The Company believes all deferred compensation benefits currently comply with 409A.

Accounting for Stock Based Compensation - Effective July 1, 2003, the Company adopted the expense recognition provisions of the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("FAS") No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" by restating prior years' financial statements. The subsequent adoption of FAS 123(R) did not significantly affect the Company's financial statements.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee held two meetings during fiscal year 2008. The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation

Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with management. Based upon such review, the related discussions and such other matters deemed relevant and appropriate by the Compensation Committee, the Compensation Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this proxy statement and delivered to shareholders.

Executive Compensation Tables

SUMMARY COMPENSATION TABLE

The following table sets forth summary information concerning the compensation for the past three fiscal years of those persons who were, at December 31, 2008, (i) the Chief Executive Officer (Mr. Lybarger), (ii) the Chief Financial Officer (Mr. Nell), and (iii) the three other most highly compensated executive officers of the Company. Due to Mr. Lybarger's ability to diversify any deferred gains from the exercise of stock options into investments other than BOK Financial common stock, FAS 123(R) requires that deferred options be recognized as liability awards. And, unlike non-diversified stock options which are fixed at the grant date value, the fair value of liability awards change in direct relation to changes in the price of Company stock. Because the market value of Company stock was down during 2008, compensation expense related to Mr. Lybarger's deferred options were valued at a lower value than those officers who did not have the ability to diversify any deferred gains on stock options. Also, because of the value of Mr. Lybarger's pension benefit, which reflects 33 years of service, and the fact a greater portion of Mr. Lybarger's compensation has been deferred; column (h) for Mr. Lybarger differs significantly from the other named executives. Executives who did not have the ability to defer income or who chose not to defer income are not required to disclose investment income on the Summary Compensation Table.

(1) The amounts in column (e) for 2008 are the dollar amounts recognized as expense for financial statement reporting purposes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, in accordance with FAS 123(R) for non-vested common shares. Non-vested common shares have been awarded pursuant to the Executive Incentive Plan and the BOK Financial Corporation 2003 Executive Incentive Plan in 2008 and prior years. Expense recognized in 2008 includes amounts from awards granted in and prior to 2008. Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are included in footnote 13 to the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008 which was included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 27, 2009. (1) Column represents stock options which vest 1/7 each year in accordance with the BOK Financial 2003 Stock Option Plan (as amended) and terminate three years after vesting except those grants identified with an "*" which represent stock options awarded pursuant to the BOK Financial 2001 Stock Option Plan. In 2001, BOK adopted a plan to extend the life of stock options granted in 1998 and 1999 by two years. Each year, on the day that one-seventh of the 1998 and 1999 options expire, new stock options are granted in the same number (the "Special Options"). The exercise price for the Special Options is the market value of BOK financial common stock on NASDAQ on the day of grant. The Special Options vest two years after the grant date and expire 45 days after vesting.

(2) Represents stock options granted as long-term incentive pursuant to the Executive Incentive Plan, the amount of which remains subject to adjustment based on EPS Growth over a three year performance period as further described in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" on page 22 herein.

(3) Represents performance shares which are no longer subject to adjustment based upon the three year performance period, but which have not yet completed the five year vesting period. Performance shares vest on the fifth anniversary of the last day of the year for which the performance shares were issued. The performance shares may not be sold for three years unless certain stock ownership guidelines are met as described in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" on page 22.

- (4) Market value of performance shares is based on the fair market value of Company common stock on December 31, 2008.

PENSION BENEFITS

The normal retirement age under the Pension Plan is age 65. At that time, a participant may receive a lump sum equal to the account balance. The participant may also elect to receive an annuity payment from the Pension Plan. Various annuity forms are available, but the basic monthly annuity is equal to the hypothetical account balance divided by 200. This annuity amount increases at 5.25% annually over the participant's life.

The following table describes the present value of the named executive officers' pension benefits:

Name	Plan Name	Number of Years Credited Service(1)	Present Value of Account Balance
Stanley A. Lybarger	BOKF Pension Plan	32	$413,0
Steven E. Nell	BOKF Pension Plan	14	$79,3
W. Jeffrey Pickryl(3)	BOKF Pension Plan	9	$132,7
Steven G. Bradshaw	BOKF Pension Plan	15	$104,3
Daniel H. Ellinor	BOKF Pension Plan	2	$16,2

(1) Named executives are credited with the number of years employed by the Company since the Pension Plan's inception in 1987, with the exception of Mr. Lybarger whose credited service includes employment before the inception of the Pension Plan.

Edgar Filing: BOK FINANCIAL CORP ET AL - Form DEF 14A

(2) The calculation of present value of the account balance assumes a discount rate of 6.5% of the projected account balance to age 65.

(3) Mr. Pickryl's employment with the Company terminated January 20, 2009.

NONQUALIFIED DEFERRED COMPENSATION

Pursuant to individual Deferred Compensation Agreements, the named executive officers were permitted, until year-end 2004, to defer certain compensation. In response to IRS guidance, these Deferred Compensation Agreements were amended in December of 2004 to preclude the deferral of future compensation and subsequently terminated. Future deferrals would require entry into a new agreement.

Mr. Lybarger is the only named executive officer who entered into an Amended and Restated 409A Deferred Compensation Agreement pursuant to which awards may be deferred. The Company maintains a record keeping account that reflects the number of shares received upon exercise and the number of performance shares that are deferred. Mr. Lybarger may elect annually to convert all or a portion of the value measure of his deferred awards from Company stock to alternate investments. Benefits under the Amended and Restated 409A Deferred Compensation Agreement will be paid no earlier than six months after Mr. Lybarger's retirement or termination. However, upon a showing of financial hardship, he may be allowed to access funds in his deferred compensation account. Benefits shall be paid in one lump sum.

The following table describes the current balance of deferral accounts:

Name	Executive Contributions in Last FY ($)	Registrant Contributions in Last FY ($)	Aggregate Earnings in Last FY (1) ($)	Aggregate Withdrawals in Last FY (2) ($)

W. Jeffrey Pickryl(5)	--	--	--
Steven G. Bradshaw	--	--	(6,829) (3) (4)
Daniel H. Ellinor	--	--	5,636 (3)

Earnings on deferred compensation include:

- (1) For all five named executives, earnings include gains reported on investments in distressed asset and venture capital funds.
- (2) For Mr. Lybarger, earnings on a hypothetical portfolio of assets indexed to various debt and equity funds.
- (3) For Messrs. Nell, Pickryl, Bradshaw and Ellinor, earnings include interest earned on uninvested cash accrued at BOK's money market deposit rates.
- (4) For Messrs. Nell and Bradshaw, earnings include dividends paid and changes in fair value of BOK Financial common stock.

Edgar Filing: BOK FINANCIAL CORP ET AL - Form DEF 14A

(5) Mr. Pickryl's employment with the Company terminated January 20, 2009.

from soliciting customers or employees of BOK Financial or its affiliates for which they receive $3,000 every year the non-solicitation terms are in effect.

Pursuant to BOK Financial employee stock option and performance share plans for BOK executives generally, in the event Mr. Bradshaw or Mr. Ellinor were terminated without cause(2) within twelve months following a Change of Control(3), they would vest in their unvested performance shares and stock options and would have ninety days to exercise their stock options. As of December 31, 2008, Mr. Bradshaw had $621,554 in unvested performance shares and $72,381 in unvested stock options and Mr. Ellinor had $672,700 in unvested performance shares and $21,086 in unvested stock options.

W. Jeffery Pickryl

Mr. Pickryl's employment with the Company terminated January 20, 2009. Pursuant to existing employment agreements, Company severance policies and payment under the EIP, the Company paid Mr. Pickryl $467,375 in January 2009 and will pay him an additional $283,482 on July 21, 2009. Mr. Pickryl will also receive $145,484 in pension benefits.

- (1) Executive Payments upon Termination does not include payments of deferred compensation which are described on page 47 herein. The narrative assumes i) that the executive has been paid all amounts owed through the date of termination, ii) the closing price of BOK Financial common stock of $40.40 (as reported on NASDAQ as of December 31, 2008); and iii) and salary, stock option, performance share and benefit information as of December 31, 2008. Except as expressly provided herein or amounts owed up through the date of termination, Executive does not receive any additional payments in the event of voluntary termination, early retirement (prior to age 65), retirement (age 65 or older), involuntary for cause termination, change in control, or upon death or upon disability.

- (2) For purposes of this discussion, termination of executive without cause would generally be termination for i) failure to substantially perform his duties, ii) committing any act which is intend to injure BOK Financial or its affiliates, iii) conviction of any criminal act or act involving moral turpitude, iv) committing any dishonest or fraudulent act which is material to BOKF or its affiliates, including reputation or v) refusing to obey orders of the CEO unless such instructions would require executive to commit an illegal act, could subject executive to personal liability, would require executive to violate the terms of his agreement or are inconsistent with recognized ethical standards or inconsistent with the duties of an officer of the bank.
- (3) "Change of Control" occurs if Mr. George Kaiser, and/or members of the family of Mr. Kaiser collectively cease to own more shares of the voting capital stock of BOKF than any other shareholder (or group of shareholders acting in concert to control BOKF to the exclusion of Mr. Kaiser, affiliates of Mr. Kaiser or members of the family of Mr. Kaiser); or BOK Financial ceases to own directly or indirectly more than 50% of the voting capital stock of BOK.
- (4) While BOK Financial no longer contributes to the pension plan, the hypothetical account balance increases at 5.25% annually and the executive may receive this interest for the identified period.

Related Party Transaction Review and Approval Policy

BOK Financial has a written related party transaction policy, approved by the Risk Oversight and Audit Committee ("ROAC"), which requires that all related party transactions reportable pursuant to SEC regulation S-K, Item 404(a) must be submitted to the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") for review. ROAC conducts appropriate review and oversight of such transactions for potential conflict of interest situations in accordance with NASDAQ Rule 4350(h).

The related-party transaction must be intended for the benefit of the Company and made on terms no less favorable than those terms for unrelated persons. The CFO must also consider whether the transaction is occurring at arm's length and the impact of the related party transaction on financial statement accounting and disclosure.

If the CFO determines that the transaction would be material, he must present the details and his conclusion to the Chairman of ROAC. The Chairman of ROAC will submit the related party transaction to ROAC for approval based upon the same criteria as considered by the CFO, in addition to such criteria as may be deemed relevant by the members.

The Company annually requires each of its directors and executive officers to complete a directors' and officers' questionnaire that elicits information about related person transactions. The Company's Office of General Counsel reviews all transactions disclosed in the officer and director questionnaires and discusses any transactions not previously identified with the CFO and verifies compliance with independence requirements under NASDAQ Rule 4350 and Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Certain Transactions

Certain principal shareholders, directors of the Company and their associates were customers of and had loan transactions with BOK Financial or its subsidiaries during 2008. None of them currently outstanding are classified as nonaccrual, past due, restructured or potential problem loans. All such loans (i) were made in the ordinary course of business, (ii) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable loans with persons not related to the Company, and (iii) did not involve more than normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

Certain related parties are customers of the Company for services other than loans, including consumer banking, corporate banking, risk management, wealth management, brokerage and trading, or fiduciary/trust services. The Company engages in transactions with related parties in the ordinary course of business and in compliance with applicable regulation.

and (b) Stan Lybarger, President and Chief Executive Officer, receiving $100,000. The credits are sold to affiliates on the same terms and conditions as third parties.

Nell, Jr., is Chairman of the Great Plains National Bank Board of Directors.

The Company conducts merchant banking activities through its BOK Financial Capital Services subsidiary ("BOKF-CS"). In 2007, BOKF-CS purchased a 10.4% ownership interest in Newco Valves, LLC from an affiliate of Mr. Kaiser for $7,000,000. The purchase was made at the same price and on the same terms as the affiliate of Kaiser acquired a controlling interest in Newco Valves from the prior owners, but six days later and from the Kaiser affiliate instead of directly from the Newco Valves owners due to timing issues related to closing. The parties continue to hold this investment. In December 2008, a subsidiary of the Company invested $3.02 million to purchase a 6% equity holding in Global Holdings, LLC at the same time Mr. Kaiser acquired an equity position in Global Holdings LLC.

On July 21, 2008, the Company entered into a $188 million, unsecured revolving credit agreement with Mr. Kaiser. Interest on the outstanding balance is based on one-month LIBOR plus 125 basis points and is payable quarterly. Additional interest in the form of a facility fee is paid quarterly on the unused portion of the commitment at 25 basis points. This agreement has no restrictive covenants. This credit agreement matures in December 2010. At December 31, 2008 the outstanding balance under this credit agreement was $50 million. The revolving credit agreement with Mr. Kaiser replaced a similar credit agreement with certain commercial banks that was terminated at the Company's request. The Company was in compliance with all terms of that credit agreement when it was terminated. Subsequent to December 31, 2008, the Company fully repaid all amounts owed under this credit agreement.

Thomas L. Kivisto resigned from the Company board July 16, 2008. Mr. Kivisto formerly served as President of SemGroup L.P. On July 15, SemGroup, L.P. filed a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for Delaware. In connection therewith, the Company recognized a $26 million loan charge off and a $41 million loss on derivative contracts with SemGroup, L.P. 1. Purpose. The purpose of the Plan is to advance the interests of the Company by awarding to certain officers, executives, and other key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries who make exceptional contributions to the Company by their ability, loyalty, industry, and innovativeness: (a) stock options ("Stock Options") to purchase shares of the common capital stock of the Company, par value $0.00006 per share ("Common Stock"), and/or (b) restricted shares of the Common Stock ("Restricted Stock"). The Company intends that the Plan will closely associate the interests of officers, executives, and key employees with those of the Company's shareholders and will facilitate securing, retaining, and motivating officers, executives, and employees of high caliber and potential.

2. Administration.

(a) Awards of Stock Options and/or of Restricted Stock pursuant to the Executive Incentive Plan. Stock Options or Restricted Stock awarded pursuant to the 2003 Executive Incentive Plan, as amended (the "EIP") shall be administered by the Independent Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") of the Company (the "EIP Awards"). With regard to the EIP Awards, the Committee shall have full and final authority in its discretion to interpret conclusively the provisions of the Plan; to decide all questions of fact arising in its application; to determine the employees to whom awards shall be made under the Plan; to determine the award to be made and the amount, size, terms and restrictions of each such award; to determine the time when awards will be granted; and to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan.

(b) Awards of Stock Options and/or of Restricted Stock outside of the Executive Incentive Plan. Stock Options or Restricted Stock awarded other than pursuant to the EIP shall be administered by the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") (the "Non-EIP Awards"). With regard to the Non-EIP Awards, the CEO shall have full and final authority in his discretion to interpret conclusively the provisions of the Plan; to decide all questions of fact arising in its application; to determine the employees to whom awards shall be made under the Plan; to determine the award to be made and the amount, size, terms and restrictions of each such award; to determine the time when awards will be granted; and to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan.

Payment shall be made (i) by personal check of the Participant, (ii) in cash or its equivalent, or (iii) by tendering shares of Common Stock having a value equal to the purchase price based on the closing price quoted for Common Stock on NASDAQ on the trading day immediately preceding the date of exercise, or (iv) a combination of (i), (ii), or (iii).

(iv) In the event a Participant's employment is involuntarily terminated by the Company without cause (as described below) and such involuntary termination without cause is within one year following a Change of Control (as defined below), the Participant may purchase, within 90 days of the date of the Participant's termination of employment, all of Participant's Stock Option Common Shares (to the extent not previously purchased), and all the restrictions on the Participant's Restricted Stock shall lapse.

(v) A "Change of Control" shall be deemed to have occurred if, and only if:

(A) George B. Kaiser, affiliates of George B. Kaiser, and/or members of the family of George B. Kaiser and/or the George Kaiser Family Foundation and/or any charitable trust (including any charitable income trust), or other charitable legal entity created by George B. Kaiser collectively cease to own more shares of the voting capital stock of Company than any other shareholder (or group of shareholders acting in concert to control the Company to the exclusion of George B. Kaiser, affiliates of George B. Kaiser, members of the family of George B. Kaiser or the George Kaiser Family Foundation); or,

(B) The Company shall cease to own more than 50% of the voting capital stock of Bank of Oklahoma, National Association.

(vi) A Participant shall be deemed to have been terminated "with cause" if the Board of Directors of the Company determines (in its sole discretion provided only that such discretion is exercised with honesty in fact) that the Participant was terminated by reason of (A) any failure to substantially perform Participant's employment obligations to the Company in a satisfactory manner, (B) any intentional act materially injurious to the Company, (C) any act of moral turpitude, (D) any material dishonest or fraudulent act, or (E) any refusal to obey orders or instructions of the Participant's appropriate supervisors or seniors.

(viii) A Participant shall be deemed employed by the Company so long as and only so long as the employee is in the employment of BOK Financial Corporation or a direct or indirect subsidiary of BOK Financial Corporation in which BOK Financial Corporation owns, directly or indirectly, more shares of the voting capital stock than any other shareholder (or group of shareholders acting in concert to control such subsidiary to the exclusion of the Company).

(ix) Dividends paid or payable on the Restricted Stock prior to forfeiture will not be forfeited or otherwise need to be refunded to the Company, even if the shares themselves have been forfeited.

Edgar Filing: BOK FINANCIAL CORP ET AL - Form DEF 14A

(c) Resale. Common Stock acquired by a Participant pursuant to the Plan may be resold only pursuant to the provisions of Section 19 hereof.

61

(d) EIP Restrictions. Stock Options and Restricted Stock awarded pursuant to the EIP are subject to the performance measures and terms of the EIP. In the event there is a conflict between this Plan and/or an Award Letter and the EIP, the EIP shall control.

(e) Individual Employment Agreements. Stock Options and Restricted Stock issued pursuant to, or governed by, an individual employment agreement between a Participant and the Company or one of its affiliates (an "Employment Agreement") shall be subject to the terms of such Employment Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the Plan and an Employment Agreement, the Employment Agreement shall prevail.

9. Fair market value. Fair market value as of any date shall be the closing price at which shares of Company Common Stock were sold on the valuation day as quoted by NASDAQ or, if there were no sales on that date, then on the last day prior to the valuation day during which there were sales (the "Fair Market Value").

10. Rights to Terminate Employment. Nothing in the Plan or in any Award Letter shall confer upon any Participant the right to continue in the employment of the Company, nor affect any right which the Company may have to terminate the employment of such Participant.

11. Withholding. Whenever the Company proposes or is required to issue or transfer shares of Common Stock under the Plan, the Company shall have the right to withhold from sums due the Participant, or to require the Participant to remit to the Company, any amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state and/or local withholding tax requirements prior to the delivery of any certificate for such shares.

12. Tax Effects.

(a) The Plan is not qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Unless otherwise allowed or required by tax law, the Company will be entitled to an income tax deduction (i) with regard to Stock Options, at the date of exercise of the Stock Options by the Participants and (ii) with regard to Restricted Stock when the Restricted Stock vests. The amount of the deduction will be equal to (i) with regard to Stock Options, the spread between the Fair Market Value and the Option Price and (ii) with regard to Restricted Stock, the Fair Market Value of the Restricted Stock on the vesting date

(c) Participants should consult their tax advisors as to the tax effect of Stock Options and Restricted Stock received under the Plan as individual circumstances and changes to tax laws and regulations may change the tax treatment of the Stock Options and Restricted Stock. Generally, Participants will recognize income (i) with regard to Stock Options, at the date of exercise of the Stock Options and (ii) with regard to Restricted Stock, on the vesting date (unless the Participant elects to recognize income on the date of grant), in an amount equal to the deduction allowed to the Company, as Section 12(b) above. Income recognized due to the exercise of a Stock Option or vesting of Restricted Stock will be subject to withholding and reported to the employee on form W-2. Generally, participants will not be subject to any further income recognition until a taxable transaction occurs involving the vested stock, in the case of Restricted Stock, or the purchase of stock, in the case of Stock Options. The basis in the stock is equal to the (i) Fair Market Value at the date of exercise for the Stock Options and (ii) the Fair Market Value at the date of vesting for the Restricted Stock, and future transactions will be subject to capital asset rules. However, the amount of taxable income and the basis on the Restricted Stock will also depend on whether the Participant makes an 83(b) election under the Internal Revenue Service code.

13. Non-Uniform Determinations. The determinations by the Committee or the CEO under the Plan (including, without limitation, determinations of the persons to receive awards, the form, amount and the timing of such awards, and the terms and provisions of such awards) need not be uniform and may be made by it selectively among persons who receive, or are eligible to receive, awards under the Plan, regardless of whether such persons are similarly situated.

14. Adjustments. In the event of any change in the outstanding Common Stock by reason of a stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or the like, the Committee and/or the CEO shall appropriately adjust the number and class of shares which may be issued under the Plan and shall provide for corresponding equitable adjustments in shares previously awarded and still subject to restrictions hereunder.

15. Amendment. The Board of Directors of the Company may discontinue, suspend or amend the Plan at any time, except that without shareholder approval, the Board of Directors may not materially (a) increase the maximum number of shares which may be issued under the Plan (other than increases pursuant to paragraph 14 hereof); (b) increase the benefits accruing to participants under the Plan; (c) modify the requirements as to eligibility for participation in the Plan; or (d) modify the Plan in a way which, by law or regulation, would require shareholder approval.
