ITEM 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountants

Magee Rausch & Shelton, LLP served as the principal accountant for Empire Petroleum Corporation for the period from August 23, 2002 until February 12, 2003, when such accounting firm resigned as Empire's principal accountant. On February 12, 2003, Tullius Taylor Sartain & Sartain, LLP was engaged to serve as Empire's principal accountant. The decision to engage Tullius Taylor Sartain & Sartain, LLP was approved by Empire's board of directors.

Magee Rausch & Shelton also served as Empire's principal accounting for the fiscal year 2000. In connection with Magee Rausch & Shelton's engagement as Empire's principal accountant during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 and during the interim period from August 23, 2002 through February 12, 2003, there were no disagreements with Magee Rausch & Shelton, LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements if not resolved to their satisfaction would have caused them to make reference in connection with their opinion to the subject matter of the disagreement.

Magee Rausch & Shelton did not issue any reports in connection with their engagement as Empire's principal accountant for the period from August 31, 2002 through February 12, 2003. The audit report of Magee Rausch & Shelton relating to the financial statements of Empire Petroleum Corporation as of and for the year ended December 31, 2000 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principals, except such audit report was modified because of a going concern uncertainty.

A letter from Magee Rausch & Shelton, LLP is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.
