Amendment to Employment Agreement

In February 2004, the Company entered into an employment agreement with its Chief Financial Officer, Richard Baron, which was amended in December 2005 (collectively, the Baron Employment Agreement). In connection with the execution of the Agreement and Plan of Merger entered into between the Company, Johnson & Johnson and Emerald Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson, on January 9, 2006, the Company and Richard Baron entered into an agreement to clarify the Company's severance obligations under the Baron Employment Agreement (the Baron 409A Amendment), such that if Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is deemed to apply, then any payments payable under the Baron Employment Agreement, as amended, during the six month period immediately following the termination of Mr. Baron's employment will be delayed and paid in a lump sum as soon as practicable following the expiration of such six month period.

A copy of the Baron 409A Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Baron 409A Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Baron 409A Amendment.

Other Material Relationships

The Company does not have any material relationship with Richard Baron other than the Baron Employment Agreement, the Baron 409A Amendment, a Change of Control Agreement and certain stock option agreements between the Company and Mr. Baron.
