ITEM 5.02. DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR PRINCIPAL OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF PRINCIPAL OFFICERS

On October 4, 2004, Farmstead Telephone Group, Inc. issued a press release announcing the appointment of Jean-Marc Stiegemeier as the Company's new President and Chief Executive Officer, succeeding George J. Taylor, Jr., the Company's founder. Mr. Stiegemeier was also appointed to the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Taylor will continue to serve as Chairman of the Board. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99(a).

On October 1, 2004, the Company entered into an employment agreement (the "Agreement") with Mr. Stiegemeier (the "Executive") through December 31, 2009. The Agreement includes the following key provisions: (i) an annual base salary of $300,000, which may be increased by the Board in its discretion or decreased by the Board under certain defined circumstances; (ii) a one-time special bonus of $37,500, $25,000 of which was payable October 1, 2004, with the balance payable in January 2005; (iii) an annual bonus of up to 100% of Executive's base salary based upon the attainment of a Board-approved earnings target for that year; and (iv) as an incentive to reduce the Company's "acquisition" costs, Executive would receive an "acquisition incentive bonus" equal to one percent (1%) of the Purchase Price, as defined in the Agreement) for each acquisition that is concluded during the term of this Agreement without any obligation by the Company to pay any fees, commissions or any other cash or equity-based compensation to any third party(ies) for or in connection with (a) the identification of the entity that is the subject of the acquisition; (b) the valuation of the acquisition or (c) the negotiation of the purchase price and other key business terms of the acquisition with the selling party or its representatives. Concurrent with the effective date of the Agreement, Executive was issued a Warrant to purchase up to Four Hundred Thousand (400,000) shares of common stock at fair market value. The Warrant is exercisable immediately and expires five years from the date of grant. The underlying common stock is unregistered as of the date of issuance of the warrant. The Executive was also granted an option to purchase up to Six Hundred Thousand (600,000) shares of common stock under the 2002 Stock Option Plan at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the common stock. Three Hundred Thousand (300,000) shares are exercisable one year after the grant date, with the remainder exercisable two years after the grant date. The options expire ten years after the grant date.

The Agreement also provides severance pay for the Executive during the term of the Agreement under certain circumstances. Should the Company terminate the agreement without "cause", or if the Executive terminates the Agreement "for good reason", or in the event the Executive resigns after a "change in control", as all are defined in the Agreement, then severance pay will equal three times the "Executive Compensation Amount" as defined. From August 16, 2004 to October 1, 2004, the Executive provided business consulting services to the Company for which the Executive earned $50,000 in fees.

Mr. Stiegemeier has extensive executive management experience in the telecommunications industry. From 2002 to 2004 he was a business consultant, advising companies on strategic redirections and turnarounds. He also served on the board of directors for certain of these companies. From 1997-2002, he served as President, Founder and Director of Exp@nets Inc., a voice and data solutions provider. Prior thereto, Mr. Stiegemeier served as Chairman and CEO of Franklin Industries Inc., Lucht, Inc., Ships Entertainment, Inc, California-Telamerica Inc., Morrow Optical, Inc., and Telamerica, Inc. He was also the President of Honeywell-Telamerica.

On October 1, 2004, Mr. Taylor's employment agreement with the
