Independent Auditors' Report to the Shareholders of Rakefet Marketing and Trade Services Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Rakefet Marketing and Trade Services Ltd. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 and the related statements of operations and changes in shareholders' equity for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2004. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's Board of Directors and management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Israel, including those prescribed by the Israeli Auditors' Regulations (Mode of Performance), 1973. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Board of Directors and management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 and the results of operations and changes in shareholders' equity for each of the three years then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Israel.

As explained in Note 2A, the financial statements as of dates and for reporting period commencing January 1, 2004, are presented at reported amounts, in accordance with accounting standards of the Israeli Accounting Standards Board. The financial statements as of dates prior to January 1, 2004 and for reporting periods ended through December 31, 2003, have been prepared on the basis of historical cost adjusted for changes in the exchange rate of the U.S. dollar in relation to the NIS, in accordance with pronouncements of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Israel.

Gentlemen,

Re: US GAAP Adjustments Report as of December 31, 2004

Pursuant to your request and as the independent accountants of Rakefet Marketing and Trade Services Ltd. ("the Company"), we have audited the Company's US GAAP Adjustments Report as of December 31, 2004 and for the year then ended ("the Report"). The Report, which is enclosed herewith, marked by our Firm's identification seal, is your responsibility.

We conducted our audit in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and with generally accepted auditing standards in Israel, including those prescribed by the Israeli Auditors' Regulations (Mode of Performance), 1973. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Report is free of material misstatement. US GAAP Adjustments Report
As of December 31, 2004

As of the date of this letter, the audit of the Company's books has been completed, and the financial statements of the Company are to be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") applicable in Israel. The following describes the effects on the Company's financial statements had the Company would have prepared its financial statements in accordance with GAAP applicable in the United States of America.

A. Basis of Measurement - Adjusted NIS vis-a-vis Nominal NIS

According to Israeli GAAP, the financial statements of the Company through December 31, 2003 were presented based on nominal historical cost adjusted for the changes in the exchange rate of the U.S. Dollar in relation to the NIS based on the principles presented in Note 2A(4) to the Parent-Company's (Hogla-Kimberly Ltd.) financial statements as of December 31, 2004, while according to US GAAP, the financial statements are to be presented in nominal historical terms. Accordingly, the effect of the difference in the basis of measurement on the Company's financial position and results of operations is excluded for the U.S. GAAP presentation. As presented in Note 2A to the Parent-Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004, commencing January 1, 2004, the Company ceased the presentation of its financial statements based on adjusted NIS, and effective with the interim financial statements as of March 31, 2004 and for the reporting periods thereafter, including the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company's financial statements are prepared and presented in Reported Amounts, as defined in Note 2A(1) to the Mother-Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004.

Gentlemen,

Re: US GAAP Adjustments Report as of December 31, 2004

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN ISRAELI PAPER MILLS LTD - Form 20-F/A

Pursuant to your request and as the independent accountants of Mondi Business Paper Hadera Ltd. ("the Company"), we have audited the Company's US GAAP Adjustments Report as of December 31, 2004 and for the year then ended ("the Report"). The Report, which is enclosed herewith, marked by our Firm's identification seal, is your responsibility.

The Company's US GAAP adjustments financial data as of December 31, 2003 and for each of the two years in the period then ended were audited by other auditors whose report, dated March 10, 2004, expressed an unqualified opinion on those US GAAP adjustments financial data.

We conducted our audit in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and with generally accepted auditing standards in Israel, including those prescribed by the Israeli Auditors' Regulations (Mode of Performance), 1973. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Report is free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the Report, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Board of Directors and management, as well as evaluating the overall Report presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the Report referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2004, and the results of operations and changes in shareholders' equity for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

US GAAP Adjustments Report
As of December 31, 2004

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") applicable in Israel. The following describes the effects on the Company's consolidated financial statements had the Company prepared its financial statements in accordance with GAAP applicable in the United States of America.

A. Recent accounting pronouncements by the FASB

- (1) SFAS No. 151 - Inventory Costs, an Amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4 - In November 2004 the FASB issued SFAS No. 151, "Inventory Costs, an Amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4". SFAS No. 151 amends the guidance in ARB 43, Chapter 4, "Inventory Pricing", which provides guidance on the allocation of certain costs to inventory. SFAS 151 clarifies that abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage) should be recognized as current-period charges. In addition, SFAS 151 requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. The provisions of this statement are effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 2005. The provisions of this statement shall be applied prospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact of the adoption of this Standard on the Company's financial position and results of operations under U.S. GAAP.

- (2) SFAS 153, Exchange of Non-Monetary Assets - In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, "Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets an amendment of APB No. 29". This Statement amends Opinion 29 to eliminate the exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replaces it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. The Statement specifies that a nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This Statement is effective for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after the date this Statement is issued. Retroactive application is not permitted. The Company is assessing the impact of the adoption of this Standard, and currently estimates that its adoption in not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

As of December 31, 2004

B. Goodwill

According to Israeli GAAP, goodwill is to be amortized over the expected estimated economic life of the asset acquired, while according to US GAAP (SFAS 142), commencing January 2002 goodwill is no longer amortized but rather is reviewed annually (or more frequently if impairment indicators arise) for impairment. Following are the corresponding balance-sheet items presented according to US GAAP with regard to the goodwill associated with the acquisition of Miterani (see Note 7B to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004) and the other GAAP differences outlined in D. Below.

C. Basis of Measurement - Adjusted NIS vis-a-vis Nominal NIS

According to Israeli GAAP, the financial statements of the Group through December 31, 2003 were presented based on nominal historical cost adjusted for the changes in the exchange rate of the U.S. Dollar in relation to the NIS based on the principles presented in Note 2A(4) to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004, while according to US GAAP, the financial statements are to be presented in nominal historical terms. Accordingly, the effect of the difference in the basis of measurement on the Group's financial position and results of operations is excluded for the U.S. GAAP presentation. As presented in Note 2A to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004, commencing January 1, 2004, the Group ceased the presentation of its financial statements based adjusted NIS, and effective with the interim financial statements as of March 31, 2004 and for the reporting periods thereafter, including the year ended December 31, 2004, the Group's financial statements are prepared and presented in Reported Amounts, as defined in Note 2A(1) to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004.

In addition, SFAS 151 requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. The provisions of this statement are effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 2005. The provisions of this statement shall be applied prospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact of the adoption of this Standard on the Company's financial position and results of operations under U.S. GAAP.

- (2) SFAS 153, Exchange of Non-Monetary Assets - In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, "Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets an amendment of APB No. 29". This Statement amends Opinion 29 to eliminate the exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replaces it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. The Statement specifies that a nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This Statement is effective for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after the date this Statement is issued. Retroactive application is not permitted. The Company is assessing the impact of the adoption of this Standard, and currently estimates that its adoption is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

B. Goodwill

According to Israeli GAAP, goodwill is to be amortized over the expected estimated economic life of the asset acquired, while according to US GAAP (SFAS 142), commencing January 2002 goodwill is no longer

amortized but rather is reviewed annually (or more frequently if impairment indicators arise) for impairment. Following are the corresponding balance-sheet items presented according to US GAAP with regard to the goodwill associated with the acquisition of Ovisan (see Note 9B to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004) and the other GAAP differences outlined in D. Below.

C. Basis of Measurement - Adjusted NIS vis-a-vis Nominal NIS

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN ISRAELI PAPER MILLS LTD - Form 20-F/A

According to Israeli GAAP, the financial statements of the Group through December 31, 2003 were presented based on nominal historical cost adjusted for the changes in the exchange rate of the U.S. Dollar in relation to the NIS based on the principles presented in Note 2A(4) to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004, while according to US GAAP, the financial statements are to be presented in nominal historical terms. Accordingly, the effect of the difference in the basis of measurement on the Group's financial position and results of operations is excluded for the U.S. GAAP presentation. As presented in Note 2A to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004, commencing January 1, 2004, the Group ceased the presentation of its financial statements based adjusted NIS, and effective with the interim financial statements as of March 31, 2004 and for the reporting periods thereafter, including the year ended December 31, 2004, the Group's financial statements are prepared and presented in Reported Amounts, as defined in Note 2A(1) to the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2004.
